ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be a series of Play Readings this winter at the Little Theatre. The first will be on January 25 at four o'clock when Mrs. Louise Arnoldson will read "Cyrano de Bergerac" by Edmund Rostand. The public is cordially invited.

The next production at the Little Theatre will be February 5, when a program of Interpretative Dances will be given by the members of the Physical Education Department under the direction of Miss Mary Laux.

"The World and His Wife" by Jose Echegaray will be the next Masquers play, on February 17, 18, and 19.

The Montana Masquers are offering a prize for the best original one-act plays dealing with Montana life. There will be two contests, one for the students, and the other for residents of the state. This contest closes March 1. Watch the papers for announcements.

The class in Dramatic Presentation will give a number of one-act plays throughout the quarter. Watch the papers for dates.

After the performance visit the Chimney Corner and the Blue Parrot.
