Grizzly Tracks

Grizzly Tracks is the official program for home basketball games at the University of Montana. They are produced by the Sports Information Director and the University Printing Services.

Cover shot by Geoffrey Sutton
The University of Montana Grizzlies will try to get back on the winning track today, hosting the College of Idaho Coyotes, an NAIA team which boasts an 8-1 overall record.

Montana is 3-3, suffering a three-game losing streak—although two of those losses have been by three points or less. The young Grizzlies lost a heartbreaker to St. Mary’s of Moraga, California, dropping a 53-51 decision on a last second shot. Tonight’s game will be UM’s final tuneup for Arkansas State, the Grizzlies’ first round opponent in the Champion Holiday Classic II, December 18 at 7 p.m.

The Grizzlies could receive a big boost if center Craig Larsen has recovered from an ankle injury and is ready to play. The 6-11 center has missed the last three games because of the injury. He had been averaging almost 7 rebounds a game.

College of Idaho, located in Caldwell, has wins over such teams as Lewis & Clark State (76-58), Montana Tech (69-68) and Western Montana (74-68). The team’s only setback was an 80-79 loss to Eastern Oregon in the championship game of the NAIA District II Tip-Off Tournament.

Coyote coach Marty Holly is in his first season at CI after serving as an assistant coach at Idaho State for the previous four seasons. He attributes his team’s success to “good depth, and good man-to-man defense. We are playing a lot of people, and they adjust to the role we need them to play.”

Holly also says he remembers playing in Dahlberg Arena. “We (Idaho State) played there four times before and were never really close,” he said. “You have great crowd support and I really respect the ability of Mike Montgomery.”

The Coyotes have four players averaging in double figures, led by 6-5 sophomore forward Rick Goodwin (12.6). The other starters and their scoring averages: Travis Moore (11.0) and Jim Eldridge (11.4) at guards; forward Rico Hawkins (4.9) and center Tracy Dike (9.6).

Oddly enough, CI’s top rebounders are guards Moore and Eldridge, averaging 6.2 and 5.9 rebounds a game, respectively.

Montgomery, who has employed three different starting lineups so far this season, said he would start Larsen if he’s healthy, sophomores Marc Glass and Doug Selvig at guard; junior Derrick Pope at one forward spot and sophomore Rob Hurley at the other forward position.

If Larsen is not healthy, center Larry McBride, who started (along with Hurley) for the first time against St. Mary’s, will get the starting nod. McBride had 9 points, 5 rebounds and 2 blocked shots in 35½ minutes of action Saturday. Hurley had 8 points, 5 rebounds and was a perfect 3 of 3 from the field against St. Mary’s.

Pope leads Montana in scoring (16.5) and rebounding (7.5), while Selvig is the second leading scorer, averaging 11.3 points a game.

Other starters and their scoring and rebounding averages:
Glass (8.0, 2.3); Larsen, 4.0, 6.7) OR McBride (3.4, 2.5) and Hurley (7.5, 4.7). Selvig leads the team in assists with 28, while Glass is the leader in steals with 15.

Mike Montgomery begins his fourth season as head coach at the University of Montana, and his sixth as a Grizzly coach. He served as an assistant coach at UM prior to becoming the head coach.

Mike has taken the Grizzlies to the Big Sky Conference's postseason playoffs all three of his seasons as head coach. The last two seasons the Grizzlies have been the runnerup in the tournament and a quest for a berth in the NCAA Regionals.

He is the first coach in Montana history to win 50 games in his first three season and has a career mark of 50-33. His winning percentage (.660) is the best in the school's 72-year history.

"Monty's" 1980-81 record of 19-9 is the sixth best in the school's history. His record was 17-11 in the previous season and 14-13 his first year. His 17-11 mark was the seventh best in UM history.

Montgomery has 11 years of major college coaching experience. He served as an assistant coach at Boise State for three seasons before coming to UM. He has also had coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

"Basically our offense is designed to get the high percentage shot, depending on the capabilities of our personnel," Montgomery said. "That shot changes from year-to-year, from inside to outside."

"The highest percentage shot comes out of the fast break, so we do emphasize the break in our offensive development," he continued. "Regardless of our offensive talent, defense has to be the emphasis in our program. We take great pride in our defense, and we want our opponent to only take low percentage shots. We strive for consistent, hard-nosed defense."

Montgomery is a 1968 graduate of Long Beach State and is a native of Long Beach, Calif. He played basketball for the 49ers and was a starter. He earned a masters degree in Physical Education from Colorado State.

His wife's name is Sarah.

Assistant Coaches

Stew Morrill is in his fourth season as the number one Grizzly assistant in charge of recruiting and scheduling. He was an assistant coach at former Big Sky Conference member Gonzaga University for three years.

He was an All-Big Sky center at Gonzaga his senior year in 1973-74, and was named team captain and Most Valuable Player for the Bulldogs that season.

Prior to playing at the four-year level he participated in basketball at Ricks College, where he averaged 23 points a game as a sophomore and was named a JC All-American.

He played pro basketball in Europe for a Division I team in Bordeaux, France, after his graduation from Gonzaga in 1974. After a few months with the team he was named player-coach.

From Provo, Utah, Morrill earned nine letters in basketball, football and track at Provo High School.

The 29-year-old is single.

Morrill was the number one coaching assistant at Gonzaga for three years, and was the school's recruiting coordinator for two seasons. He was a graduate assistant for the Bulldogs for one season.

Bob Niehl begins his second season on the Grizzly staff. He joined the basketball program in August of 1980. He assists in varsity coaching, along with scouting and recruiting, as well as supervising the Grizzly junior varsity program.

Before coming to Montana he served as a parttime coach for head coach George Raveling at Washington State University in Pullman. At WSU he was head coach of the JVs, and assisted in varsity scouting and recruiting in 1978-79-80. He has also had a lot of experience coordinating basketball camps.

Bob also served as a graduate assistant at WSU for a season. From 1975-77 he was the head basketball and girl's and boy's track coach at Sprague High School in Sprague, Washington.

He was a standout athlete at WSU, where he was a three-year letterman in basketball and team captain his senior season. He was a seven-foot high jumper for the Cougars, and qualified for the NCAAs all four of his collegiate seasons. He is a 1970 graduate of Bethel High School in Spanaway, Washington, where he was also a basketball and track star.

Niehl is a 1975 graduate of WSU, receiving a B.S. in physical education.

The 30-year-old is single.

Kelly Arkell begins his second season as head junior varsity basketball coach at the University of Montana. He guided the Grizzlies to a 5-3 overall record during the 1980-81 season.

"Kelly is now in his second year in the Grizzly program, and he knows our system well, and is teaching the junior varsity team the ins and outs of our program," said head coach Mike Montgomery.

"He did a very good job for us last year, and communicates well with the players," Montgomery said. "We are delighted to have him in the program for another year."

Arkell, 25, is from Tacoma, Washington, where he was a basketball and baseball standout at Washington High School. He graduated from there in 1974. He was team captain his senior year in basketball.

Prior to coaching at UM he was junior varsity basketball coach at Sumner High School in Sumner, Washington for three seasons. All three were winning seasons; in his last season he was 16-4. His overall coaching record there was 36-24.

He is a 1978 graduate of Washington State University. He received his B.S. in Physical Education.

Arkell is single.

Blaine Taylor was one of the outstanding players at the University of Montana in recent years. This is his first year as a Grizzly coach.

Taylor was a Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection as a junior and a senior. He was named to the conference post-season all-tourney team last year.

He is the No. 17 career scorer in Grizzly history with 753 points. Taylor was also known for his passing and ball-handling skills. He was on a record-setting pace for assists last season until he was sidelined for five games with an injury. He finished the season with 102 assists in 23 games, for a 4.4 average.

He was Montana's leading scorer in five games in 1980-81, including a team and game-high 21 points in UM's 85-64 win over Montana State in the first game of the Big Sky tournament.

"Blaine should be an outstanding coach, based on the contribution he made to Grizzly basketball during his career," Montgomery said. "He has good knowledge of the game and understands Grizzly basketball and its traditions."

Taylor was an all-state player at Hellgate High School for three years. He was the state "AA" MVP as a senior.

Blaine's wife's name is Annie Marie. They have a one-and-a-half-year-old daughter, Amber Lee.

President Neil Bucklew

Dr. Neil S. Bucklew assumed his duties as the 14th president of the University of Montana in August 1981.

Bucklew, 40, comes from Ohio University in Athens, where he served as Provost from 1976 until assuming his duties at Montana. He also served on the faculty in the Department of Economics at Ohio University.

As Provost he functioned as Executive Vice President and Vice President for Academic Affairs, with responsibility for the instructional program of the university.

He was Vice President for Administration at Central Michigan University from 1973-75; Vice Provost at Central Michigan from 1970-73; Director of Employment Relations at the University of Wisconsin from 1966-70 and Personnel Director at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina, from 1963-66.

Bucklew received a B.A. in History at the University of Missouri, an M.S. in Political Science at the University of North Carolina and a Ph.D. in Industrial Relations from the University of Wisconsin.

Bucklew and his wife, JoAnn, have three children.

Athletic Director Harley Lewis

Harley W. Lewis was named athletic director at the University of Montana effective April 14, 1976. He had served as acting athletic director from July 1, 1975.

A 1964 graduate of UM with an M.S. in health, physical education and recreation, Lewis became track and cross country coach at UM in 1966. Prior to assuming coaching responsibilities at UM, the 1959 graduate of Butte High School coached two years at the University of Portland.

Lewis served as cross country coach until 1976 and won nine Big Sky titles until resigning the position. He served as track coach through the 1978 season. While track coach, Lewis won the conference title in 1972. He has been named Big Sky Coach of the Year in cross country and track, ten times. He has served on numerous national committees, worked with U.S. Olympic endeavors and coached several All-American performers at Montana.
The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located nearby Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September, 1895, with 50 students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 8,800 and approximately 450 fulltime state supported faculty positions.

Throughout its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program—Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with a relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Dave "DJ" Johnson

Dave "DJ" Johnson has the ability to play "lead" or "big" guard for the Grizzlies. He started in all eight JV games last year and averaged 14.5 points a game (fourth). He led the Cubs in assists, averaging 6.1 a game. He also led the team in blocks (4) and was second in steals (12). He had a team-high 22 points in a JV victory.

"DJ is an excellent passer with good court vision and has the ability to run the club," Montgomery said. "He is very good on the fast break and understands our offense, which allows him to play either guard position. He needs to improve his defense to become a complete player. We are looking for valuable playing time from him this year."

Johnson was a second team All-Los Angeles pick as a senior at Washington High School. He was also a first team all league choice, and played for the Watts Magician Basketball Congress International All-Star team.

He averaged 18 points, 10 assists and five rebounds a game in high school. He was a three-year starter as a prep. His coach was Andy Davis. He was team captain his senior year.

He is a General Studies major.

His hobbies are fishing, skating, dancing, softball and jazz.

DJ's mother is Bobbie Mamon of Los Angeles.

Dave Johnson

Dave Johnson averaged 8 rebounds in 11 junior varsity games in 1979-80 to lead the team in that category. The JV team finished with a 7-4 record. He averaged seven points a game.

"Coming off a redshirt year, this year Dave will be thrust into a position that he has to help us," Montgomery said. "He has great court speed, good quickness and good hands. He is also a quick jumper. He has the tools to get the job done, but he needs to believe in himself and have the confidence to battle with other Big Sky centers."

Johnson played in six varsity games, scoring three points in 1979-80. He led the JV team in rebounding three times and had 15 in one game. His Rowland Heights High School team was undefeated and the Montview League champions two seasons ago. A two-year letterman in high school, Dave averaged 15.7 points and 13 rebounds per game. As a prep he was team MVP, All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Sierra League. His coach was Chris Richey.

He is a Business Management major.

His hobby is fishing. His nickname is "Ralph."
