Academics at UM Add Up To Success

The University of Montana was recently awarded its 23rd Rhodes Scholar. This ranks UM 19th in the nation of all American colleges and universities. UM ranks sixth among schools west of the Mississippi. Rhodes Scholarships provide two to four years at Oxford University in England. Students are chosen on the basis of scholarships, community and political involvement, athletic ability and personal character.

The Yellow Bay Biological Station, located about 70 miles northeast of Missoula at Flathead Lake, is the nation's oldest inland station. Among some 70 inland units in the United States, the UM ranks fifth for its program facilities and student population.

KUFM, a noncommercial public radio station operated by the Telecommunications Center, is the only National Public Radio station in Montana.

University of Montana education majors compete very successfully for jobs with 93 percent of those with bachelor's degrees and 100 percent of those with graduate degrees finding appropriate positions.

The Department of Social Work is fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education and is the only Montana school that assures its graduates of a year of advanced standing in graduate schools of social work.

The School of Journalism has had 19 of its students selected as Sears Congressional interns — more than any other journalism school in the country. During the four-month internship, students work for a United States Congressman or Senator and also attend classes.

The Department of Art enjoys a national reputation for excellence in ceramics.

The Department of Drama/Dance has a professional theater group — the Montana Repertory Theater — based on campus. The Montana Repertory Theater, which tours throughout the Northwest, is the only professional Actors Equity company between Minneapolis and Seattle.

A University of Montana student has been chosen to receive a Truman Scholarship for six of the last eight years. The national scholarship is given annually to students committed to a government career who have superior academic ability and leadership potential.

The Department of Anthropology has the largest collection of artifacts and records of pre-history in the region.

The School of Business is the only accredited master's program in Business in the state.

Nearly 47 percent of the business school's accounting graduates pass the Certified Public Accountant Exam on their first try. This is more than three times the national first-time success rate of 14 percent.

The Department of Geology has an outstanding national reputation. In cooperation with Purdue University, a field station has been set up in southwestern Montana. The department also provides hands-on experience for students in the minerals, rocks and paleontology laboratories at the University's Seismic Station and in the Earthquake Research Laboratory.

The Department of Geography has one of the region's best cartography laboratories where students learn to make maps and interpret aerial photography.

The Department of Health and Physical Education is one of a handful in the country that trains students to be athletic trainers. And it is the only program in the state to offer a master of science in physical education.

The Native American Studies program at the University of Montana is regarded by Indian educators as one of the four most outstanding in the nation.

Nearly remodeled training facilities in the Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders are some of the finest in the region. People from all over the state come to the center for speech, language and hearing therapy.

The Grizzlies have had five Academic All-Americans in recent history in basketball and several All-Big Sky Conference picks. Most recently Scott Zanon was named a second team All-American (this includes all Division 1 schools). Larry Krystkowiak was named to GTE's first team All-American squad his junior and senior seasons.

Montana has had numerous All-Americans in other sports, including football, wrestling and several all-league academic choices in all of UM's sports programs.
Grizzlies Excel in Classroom, Too

Not only has the University of Montana not had a losing season in the past nine seasons, but it has also been a very successful time for the Grizzlies in the classroom.

Of the 37 student-athletes in UM's program during the past nine years 28, or 76 percent, have graduated. Seven others will graduate. This figure includes three transfers, all of whom graduated.

That leaves four athletes who have not earned degrees, and one of those is Larry Krystkowiak, who said he will return to UM after he competes in Europe and get his degree in Business.

Montana has had five Academic All-Americans in the previously mentioned time span. They include (from recent to past) Scott Zanon, Krystkowiak, Marc Glass, Craig Zanon and Tim McCauley.

“We talk about our successes in the classroom all the time,” said Morrill. “There is a reason that college athletes are called student athletes — students first, athletes second. We are proud of our graduation rate.”

“We have a study hall at Montana and all of the first year players are required to go,” he continued. “We check on classes a minimum of every two weeks. We have an Academic All-American potentially again in Scott Zanon and several young kids who came to us with 3.5 and 3.6 GPAs out of high school and close to 1,200 on the boards. We hope to keep that area of our program going.”

Scott Zanon was a second team pick in 1987 and a third team All-American pick in 1986 and had a 3.21 GPA in Business and was an all-league academic choice the past four years. He is from Kalispell, Montana.

Krystkowiak was a first team Academic All-American in 1986 and 1985 and was a three-time All-Region and All-Big Sky academic selection. He maintained a 3.61 GPA. He is a local product from Missoula’s Big Sky High School.

Glass was an honorable mention Academic All-American selection in 1984 and 1983, and a three-time Big Sky choice with a 3.20 GPA in Computer Science. The 6-3 guard from Battle Ground, Washington, was the 75th player picked in the NBA draft in 1984, chosen by the Los Angeles Clippers in the fourth round.

Craig Zanon was the Grizzlies’ first Academic All-American first teamer in 1981. The former All-Big Sky guard (6-6) was also an academic choice in 1980 and had a 3.62 GPA in Accounting. Both Craig Zanon and Krystkowiak earned prestigious NCAA postgraduate scholarships after their senior seasons.

From Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, Tim McCauley was a 3.3 student in Business Administration. The 6-1½ guard was an honorable mention All-American in academics in 1980 and an all-league in 1979 and 1980.

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful Western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located near Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September 1895, with 50 students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 8,500 and approximately 450 full-time faculty positions.

Through its history, the University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The College also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

Seven professional schools complete the academic program — Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, and Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The aim of the University is to provide its students with relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Head Coach

Head Coach Stew Morrill (Gonzaga, 1974)

Stew begins his second year as head coach at the University of Montana and his 10th season at UM. He was an assistant at Montana for eight seasons before becoming the 19th head coach in school history in April of 1986.

Two seasons ago he replaced Mike Montgomery, who is now the head coach at Stanford University.

Morrill, 35, started his head coaching tenure in a big way. His Grizzly team was 18-11 last season and placed third in the Big Sky Conference with an 8-6 record. He guided UM to a third place league finish despite the loss of three starters and his team had been picked to finish in the bottom section of the Big Sky.

His 18 victories were the most ever by a first-year coach at Montana. He is the third (tie) winningest first-year coach in Big Sky history.

During his stint as a head and assistant coach Montana has compiled an overall record of 172-88, for a winning percentage of .723.

A former All-Big Sky center at former league member Gonzaga, Morrill is one of the primary reasons the Grizzlies have had so much success with their big men. He worked with such former standouts as John Stroeder, Craig Larsen, Larry McBride and Larry Krystkowiak.

Prior to coming to UM he was an assistant at his alma mater, Gonzaga. He was the school's No. 1 assistant and recruiting coordinator there for two years. He was a grad assistant there for one season.

He was a first team all-leaguer in the Big Sky in 1973-74 and named team MVP as well. After graduation in 1974 he played Division I basketball professionally in Bordeaux, France, where he eventually became a player-coach.

Prior to his career at Gonzaga he played at Rick College in Idaho, where he averaged 23 points a game as a sophomore and was named a Junior College All-American. He is originally from Provo, Utah, where he was a three-sport letterman and earned nine letters at Provo High School.

“We would like to push the ball up the court more and utilize the three-point shot, if it's to our advantage,” Morrill said. “We've always played high-percentage basketball, and last year we definitely thought using the three-point shot was to our advantage.

“If we feel like we need to control tempo with some teams then we'll do that,” Morrill continued. “It's back to what is your best opportunity to win ball games.

“I feel like our defense needs to improve,” he said. “I was not satisfied with our defense last year, although we did finish second in the conference in field goal percentage defense (45.9 percent), which indicates we weren't too bad. Our goal is to lead the league in that category and have a tough, hard-nosed, traditional Montana defense that has been played around here for years. We really want to upgrade that area. I think defense keeps you in ball games.

“Offensively, we have some very good finesse players, the question will be can we athletically stay with people and keep people off the boards,” Morrill said. “If I had to look at two areas we need to improve on other than defense, I'd say transition and rebounding.”

Montana has led the Big Sky in defense 13 of the last 16 seasons. Last year the team set a school record in field goal percentage — 51.5 percent.

“I think this club will shoot the ball well. I think they'll make their free throws, they've got good touch and they are good, solid fundamental players in terms of shooting and passing the basketball,” Morrill said.

Stew and his wife, Vicki, have four children, Jesse, 9, Allan, 7, Nichole, 4, and Tiffany, one-and-a-half.
Assistant Coaches

Bob Niehl

No stranger to Grizzly basketball, Blaine was a four-year letterman at Montana from 1977-81. He coached the junior varsity at UM from 1981-83 and had a 30-17 record.

Taylor, 29, assists in scouting, recruiting, varsity coaching and the Grizzly Cage Camps. He is in his second season as an assistant at UM.

Most recently he was head coach at Loyola High School in Missoula. In 1984 his team was 20-4 and in 1985 he was 21-5. Both of those seasons Loyola won district tournament championships.

Taylor was a Big Sky Conference honorable mention selection at UM as a junior and senior and named to the postseason all-tournament team as a senior.

He is one of the top career scorers at Montana with 753 points, and is fifth in career assists with 300.

He is the career free throw percentage record holder at UM at 81.9 percent.

A Missoula product, Taylor was a three-time all-state player at Hellgate High School and the “AA” state MVP as a senior.

He earned his B.A. in Secondary Education in 1982 at UM. He received a master’s in Athletic Administration in 1984 at Montana.

Blaine and his wife, Annie, have two daughters, Amber, 7, and Ashley, eight months.
Assistant Coaches

Don Holst
Graduate Assistant Coach

A four-year letterman for the Grizzlies from 1981-85, Washington played in 98 games in his career at the University of Montana. He is the No. 6 career assists man at Montana with 139.

Washington, 24, assists in coaching, recruiting and scouting at UM. This is his second season as a Grizzly coach.

He led the Grizzlies in assists (122) and steals (55) in 1985 as UM went 22-8 and played UCLA in the first round of the National Invitational Tournament. After the season he was given the John Eaheart Memorial Award, presented annually to the outstanding Defensive Player at UM.

Two seasons ago he was a parttime assistant coach at Long Beach State for his former high school coach, Ron Palmer.

As a prep at Long Beach Poly High he was the point guard who led a team that was 26-2 and he was an All-City selection.

He will earn his B.A. degree at Montana in Secondary Education this year.

He is single.

1987-88 Montana Grizzlies Basketball Outlook

The accent was on youth and replacing three graduated starters this season when University of Montana men's basketball coach Stew Morrill began preseason practice Oct. 15.

Montana surprised many last year, going 18-11 overall and 8-6 in the Big Sky Conference, good for a third place finish. Morrill’s 18 wins was the best-ever by a first-year Grizzly mentor and the third winningest (tie) in Big Sky annals.

Juniors Wayne Tinkle (6-9) at forward and Tony Reed (6-3) at guard return, however all-conference point guard Scott Zanon, honorable mention all-league center Steve Vanek and starting off-guard Todd Powell have graduated.

Tinkle, also an honorable mention all-leaguer, started all 29 games for Montana. However, Reed started only in the last eight. Senior Mike Ahlers, a 6-4 forward, started in 18 games and ended the season on a high note, grabbing a career-high 11 rebounds in UM’s finale.

Ahlers is the only senior on the Grizzlies’ roster, which includes five freshmen, four sophomores and five juniors.

“The thing that jumps out at me is the fact that Tony Reed and Wayne Tinkle need to be main cogs in the machine, because they are the two kids who are returning who have lots of game experience,” Morrill said.

Those two played big roles last year in our team’s ability to win 18 games,” Morrill continued. “And then there’s just lots of question marks. When you lose three senior starters and figure that Zanon and Vanek played 36 minutes (out of 40) a game, then you can see there are some big holes to fill.”

Tinkle was the No. 1 rebounder with 8.9 a game, and led the team in rebounding in 20 of 28 games. He was the second leading scorer with 14.8 points a game, shooting a lofty 57.9 percent from the field. Reed was the fifth leading scorer with 7.7 a game.

But, Zanon (17.1 ppg), Vanek (13.0 ppg) and Powell (10.6 ppg) were the numbers one, three and four scorers—accounting for an average of 41 points a game. UM averaged 76.7 points a game.

Montana’s returning lettermen include forwards Tinkle, Ahlers, K.C. McGowan (6-5), John Reckard (6-6) and Mark Schultz (6-7); along with guards Reed, and Nate DuChesne (6-3) and center Mike Boken (6-10).

Redshirts include guards Jeff Pelton (6-5) and Eric Jordan (6-1), forward Tom Lytle (6-7) and center Kevin Harris (6-9).

Junior college transfer Kevin Hood, a 6-6, 220-pound center from Imperial Valley JC will vie for playing time, along with guard Roger Fasting (6-4) from Dawson County High in Glendive. Keith Crawford, a 6-3 guard from Long Beach Poly High, will have to sit out the season because of Proposition 48.

Ahlers averaged 4.5 ppg, McGowan 3.8 ppg and Reckard 3.4 ppg. McGowan started in three games and Reckard in one.

“Mike Ahlers finished the season on a high note and that’s encouraging,” Morrill said. “I’d say he’s probably one of our top two defenders. And John Reckard should be improved after a year of experience, and the same goes for K.C. He should be ready to go.

“I just don’t know what Kevin will do for us,” Morrill said. “But we feel like he’s an inside guy, and losing Vanek and our young kids are so inexperienced, that we thought he would give us an older player who can step into Steve’s shoes and maybe provide some immediate help while those young kids develop.”

Morrill said the “third guard” position is, “up in the air with Jordan and Pelton coming off redshirt years and both freshman. Roger Fasting we are real high on, but once again he is only a freshman.”

The nonleague schedule features opponents at home like Cal-Fullerton, Texas Tech, Santa Clara and Rice.

On the road in the preseason UM is at Eastern Montana, UC San Diego and St. Mary’s of California.

The Champion Holiday Classic VIII has Georgia Southern vs. Louisiana Tech and Florida A&M vs. host Montana.

In the Big Sky Morrill said, “everyone I’ve talked to said they think the league is going to be a lot stronger than last year.”

“You look at Montana State and Boise State on paper as being as good as last year, and they finished one-two,” Morrill said. “They will probably be the two preseason picks. Everybody’s talking about Idaho with some outstanding athletes. Reno really concerns me. They’ve got all three perimeter people back. Weber State’s got a great freshman forward coming in, and then you look at NAU who has their 6-9 center coming back.”

“Idaho State finished so strong,” he continued. “You just go right down the line and you can see the league is definitely improved.”

Mike Ahlers
6-4, 195, 1V, Forward
Senior from Tacoma, Washington

Mike started in 18 games last season at the "small forward" position, and seven Big Sky Conference games as well. He redshirted two seasons ago after transferring from Washington State.

A hard-working player, "King" was the recipient of the Naseby Rhinehart Award last year, given annually to the "Most Inspirational Player." Ahlers ended last season on a positive note, grabbing a team-high 11 rebounds against Idaho in the first round of the Big Sky-Coors Light Playoffs in Flagstaff, Arizona. The 11 rebounds was also his career high.

He was the sixth leading scorer for the Grizzlies last season with 4.5 points a game and scored a career-high 12 points in a home win over Cal-Irvine. “We expect a good year from Mike,” said head coach Stew Morrill. “We expect him to give us a lot of leadership. He plays the game very hard. That's one of his best assets, that he plays so hard and gets after it.

"He has the potential to be a dominating defender and takes a great deal of pride in his defense," Morrill said. "He had an excellent junior college coach (Ron Billings), who taught him a great deal of defensive skills, and we hope he has improved on them since he has been at the University.

“He started for us early in the season and then had a very good game against Idaho in the tournament and at Montana State the week before," Morrill continued. “He feels like he's ready for an outstanding senior year, and Mike is a capable shooter. What we want to get first from Mike is defensive play and rebounding, and his scoring will be a bonus."

As a sophomore at Tacoma City College he was all-league and team captain. His JC team was ranked fifth in the state that season.

At Lakes High School in Tacoma he was a three-year letterman in basketball, and was team captain for all three of those seasons. He was All-CIF as a junior and senior, and all-league and league MVP his final two years of high school. His prep coach was Russ Aldridge. He also lettered in track.

His major is Business Management.

Mike's hobbies are listening to music, dancing and playing chess.

His parents are Dr. Robert C. and Dagmar Ahlers of Nurnberg, Germany.

Pronounced: AH-Lers.
Tony Reed
6-3, 185, 2V, Guard
Junior from Anchorage, Alaska

Tony started the final eight games of the season and is a crucial player for any success Montana will have this season, inheriting the point guard duties vacated by a graduated Scott Zanon.

Reed led the Grizzlies in scoring in two games and was the No. 5 scorer. He played in all 29 games and averaged 7.7 points a game (8.8 ppg in league). He had a season and career-high 19 points against Simon Fraser in UM's opener last season.

He is a very active player near the basket and led UM in conference free throw shooting at .833 (45 of 54), making many charity shots late in games in crucial situations. He was number three in assists with 65.

As a second-year freshman two seasons ago he played in all 31 games, averaging 4.7 ppg. That year he made 62 free throws, second most on the team.

"Tony is a key player for us this year," Morrill said, "and I think he's ready to assume that role. It's his fourth year at the University and he knows that it's his turn to run the ball club and do some good things for us.

"He is very capable skill-wise to do that for us," Morrill continued. "Tony's strengths, without question, are his penetrating ability, his ability to take the ball to the basket in the open court. He's worked real hard on his perimeter shooting which sets up the other two areas I just mentioned.

"He's also worked hard on gaining more strength, and had an excellent off-season in the weight room," Morrill said. "I'm just real excited about Tony's junior year. I expect great things from him. He's got a chance to be an excellent defender, and we need him to shut down opposing guards offensively, and he knows that's a role that is also expected."

At East Anchorage High School his teams won state championships his junior and senior seasons and he was the state MVP both those seasons for coach Chuck White. As a senior he averaged 27 points and seven rebounds a game for his 28-2 team.

His senior year he was named to four All-American teams and his high school won all five tournaments it played in.

Tony is a Business major.
His hobbies are reading and being a guest disc jockey. His parents are Lee and Laura Reed of Anchorage. Birthdate: March 24, 1966.

An honorable mention All-Big Sky choice as a sophomore, Wayne was third in the conference in rebounding with 8.9 a game. He led Montana in rebounding in 20 of 29 games.

He was also among the Big Sky leaders in field goal percentage at .579 (4th), scoring at 14.8 (10th) and started in all 29 games last season. "Tinks" was the second leading scorer at UM last year and scored a game and career-high 24 points against Cal-Irvine. He also had a career-high 16 rebounds in that game. He led the Griz in scoring in six contests.

His 428 points last season rank him 20th (tie with Ed Argenbright, 1955-56) in single season scoring.

"I think Wayne had an outstanding sophomore year," Morrill said; "as good of a year as anyone, including the coaching staff could have expected of him. He's another kid who has had a good off-season and spent a lot of time in the weight room and came back (to school) in very good shape.

"Wayne has great hands which enables him to be an excellent rebounder," Morrill said. "He has great anticipation and feel for the game. He knows how the game of basketball is supposed to be played.

"When Wayne does the solid things that he is capable of doing it just improves his game," Morrill said. "By that I mean powering to the basket and making good, solid, fundamental passes. He's a great passer for a big man. He needs to improve defensively and we need to give him a few more minutes rest instead of playing him so many minutes (36.9 a game in league)."

He led his Ferris High School team to its first-ever conference title as a senior. That year he averaged 23 points and nine rebounds a game and had a league-high 36 points and 20 rebounds in one game. His coach was Wayne Gilman.

As a prep he was a Street & Smith's All-American and league MVP. He was team captain as a senior. He also lettered in baseball.

Wayne is an Education major.

His hobbies are fishing, hiking, water skiing and softball.

His parents are Wayne and Elizabeth Tinkle of Plymouth, Wisconsin. He is one of 11 children.

Mike Boken
6-10, 218, IV, Center
Sophomore from
Los Angeles, California

Mike started one game as a "true" freshman at the University of Montana and played in 11 games. He scored a career-high 11 points in UM's opener with Simon Fraser. He averaged 2.2 points and 1.8 rebounds a game.

"Boke" will be vying for a starting berth at center this season at UM, and is another pivotal player regarding Grizzly success in 1987-88. He will battle freshman Kevin Harris and junior college transfer Kevin Hood for the starting job.

"Our center position is an area without any experience returning," Morrill said. "We lost Steve Vanek and Steve played about 39 minutes a game. So Mike, Kevin Harris and Kevin Hood are all key performers for us.

"Mike is up to 218 pounds after finishing the year last year at 205 pounds," Morrill said. "He shows signs of really being able to help us and has to be able to help us. He has good basketball sense and is aggressive and plays hard. He also has good hands. He needs to improve his rebounding and defensive play and he knows that."

He was a McDonald's All-American honorable mention pick as a senior at Loyola High School. He was a four-year letterman in high school. That year he was also all-league and team captain for coach Bill Thomason.

As a senior he averaged 21 points and 14 rebounds a game and shot 58 percent from the field. He was an honor's student with a 3.60 high school GPA. He also lettered in volleyball twice.

Mike is a Business major.
His hobbies are sailing, fishing and playing beach volleyball.
His parents are Bob and Rose Ann Boken of Los Angeles.
Pronounced: BOE-Kin.

Keith Crawford
6-3, 185, HS, Guard
Freshman from Long Beach, California

Raw athletic talent with basketball skills is the best way to describe Keith, who has to sit out this season because of the NCAA's Proposition 48.

He was an All-City, all-conference player for Long Beach Poly High as a senior. Keith averaged 13.5 points a game, shooting 50 percent from the field. He also averaged 5.5 rebounds a game.

The Chris Kinder-coached Poly team won the league championship Crawford's junior year. He was a three-year letterman in basketball.

"Keith has the athletic ability that we targeted last year in our recruiting, to be a big need in our program; to upgrade quickness and athletic ability, and he definitely has that," Morrill said. "Combine that with good court sense and savvy and Keith's future is extremely bright at Montana."

"He's looking at this year very positively, in terms of getting his academics squared away, being away from home and being at the University of Montana," Morrill said.

His major is Radio/Television.
Keith's hobbies are listening to music and playing basketball.
His mother is Florence Griffin of Long Beach.
Nate DuChesne
6-3, 172, IV, Guard
Junior from Snohomish, Washington

Nate played in 19 games last season and started in three of them on UM's guard-loaded team. This season will be a different story, however, as he battles for the starting berth at the "big guard" position.

He averaged 1.9 points a game and scored a career-high eight points at Idaho.

"We need a lot of players to come through for us and Nate is one of those players," Morrill said. "Nate, as you might recall, was right there with the rest of the guards going into our first few ball games. In fact we started him early after he had a great preseason. With all of the depth we had at guard, Nate didn't get all of the opportunities I would have liked him to get.

"I think he's going to surprise some people in our conference," Morrill continued. "He is a very smart player, and potentially our best three-point shooting threat. He's another player who has good court savvy, knows what you want to get done out there, and has improved his defense, which I think is a big factor for him. I expect that he can contribute greatly this year."

As a freshman at Edmonds Community College DuChesne was co-MVP of his league for his 21-6 team, coached by Keith Kingsburg. He averaged 18.5 points and 7.5 assists a game.

At Snohomish High School he was all-state in basketball as a senior. He was a three-sport letterman and was team captain of those teams as a senior, and all three won league titles. His basketball team was fifth in the state his senior year with a 20-5 record.

He is a Business Administration major.

His hobbies are scuba diving, golfing and fishing.

Nate's parents are Conrad and Carolyn DuChesne of Snohomish.

Pronounced: DOO-Shane.

Roger Fasting
6-4, 185, HS, Guard
Freshman from Glendive, Montana

Roger was one of the best prep players in the state of Montana in recent years. He was three times all-state at Dawson County High School and his Don Boss-coached teams won two state championships.

He was also the Gatorade Montana Player of the Year and a Converse All-American. He was a two-time state tournament Most Valuable Player and a four-year letterman in basketball.

As a senior he averaged 21 points, nine rebounds a game, shooting 52 percent from the field and 78 percent from the line.

"Along with Keith Crawford we're awfully excited about our two freshman guards," Morrill said. "Roger gives us the big guard that our fans are so used to, like a Craig Zanon and a Doug Selvig. He gives us that look for the future.

"He has three-point range, and again very good athletic ability, which we targeted in our recruiting efforts last year," Morrill said. "He jumps well, runs well, and has good quickness for his size. He has excellent work ethics and I'm real excited about his future."

He will major in Business.

His hobbies are all outdoor activities and listening to music.

Roger's parents are Paul and Sandy Fasting of Glendive.

Birthdate: June 1, 1968.
Kevin Harris
6-9, 240, HS + RS
Freshman Center from Sumner, Washington

Potentially a star of the future, Kevin has outstanding athletic ability for a big man, but needs game time and work on his pivot play. He redshirted last season.

"Kevin has raw abilities, that when they surface, and I think they will, he is going to be a big factor in our program," Morrill said. "He jumps well, has extremely long arms, has a good touch and is a real good player at the block.

"When I say raw, I mean he has not had a lot of coaching from the inside position, playing that center position and he is learning quickly," Morrill said. "He is a big, strong kid, who given the proper work ethic in trying to improve, could be a real good one."

At Sumner Senior High School he was named a McDonald's All-American as a senior. He was also a Street & Smith honorable mention All-American, first team all-state, a member of the B.C.I. team in Washington and all-league.

He averaged 14 points and 14 rebounds a game as a senior and was team co-captain. As a junior he led his league in field goal percentage at 76.5 percent. He earned four letters in basketball and two in football and track. His prep basketball coach was Darwin Monasmith.

He is a Business major.
Kevin's hobbies are fishing, hiking, hunting and 4-wheel vehicle driving.
His mother is Beledia Harris of Sumner.
Birthdate: September 17, 1968.

Kevin Hood
6-6, 214, JC
Junior Center from Canton, Ohio

Kevin was an all-conference player at Imperial Valley Community College in California for coach Jeff Deyo. His sophomore team was Sectional champs and runnerup in the Regionals.

He averaged 19 points and 12 rebounds a game, and shot 62 percent from the field and 80 percent from the line. He was a two-year starter in junior college. He was also team captain in JC.

"We felt like Kevin would give us a little maturity inside," Morrill said; "and maybe solidify the center position for us. What Kevin has is good athletic ability and a nice touch, with a very good jump hook.

"He is adjusting to major college basketball, and how quickly he's able to do that will be the key," Morrill added. "We do feel he has the ability to contribute this year."

As a prep at Timken High School in Canton he was named all-league by several publications and voted his team's top offensive player as a senior.

His wife's name is Elaine. They have two children, Devin, two and Ashley, one.

He is a Social Work major with emphasis in Geriatrics.

His hobby is photography, but he says his "inner most love is praising my Lord and spending time with my wife and children."

12 Eric Jordan 6-1, 177, HS + RS Freshman Guard from Inglewood, California

Eric redshirted last season and is continuing to make the transition as a high school forward to a collegiate guard.

"Eric is extremely quick and fast, those are two different terms, but he can get from end-to-end as good as anyone we’ve got," Morrill said. "He has the potential to be a dominating defensive player.

"He is one of those kids, who when he came here we told him what he needed to do, and he has worked very hard on all those things, and has adapted very well to the point guard position," Morrill said. "I think when he figures out what his role is and what we expect of him, he'll get the job done. I have a lot of faith in Eric Jordan."

As a senior at Inglewood High School "E.J." was co-MVP of the Ocean League, second team All-C.I.F., McDonald's All-American honorable mention, team captain and All-South Bay.

He was also all-league as a junior for coach Arthur Bias and his teams won league crowns his junior and senior seasons. He was an honors student as a prep. He is a Business Administration major. His hobby is listening to music. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jordan of Inglewood. Birthdate: December 15, 1967.

33 Tom Lytle 6-7, 221, SQ + RS Sophomore Forward from Salt Lake City, Utah

Tom had the unfortunate luck to be felled with a severe knee injury, after redshirting the previous season and adding needed strength and weight. This season is a wait-and-see proposition for Tom and the coaching staff on whether he has recovered.

"With Tom’s knee it’s just really hard to tell how quickly he’ll be able to come back and what he will be able to do," Morrill said. "I’ll say this, Tom was in a real battle for playing time and really contributing and coming on when the knee injury hit. It was an unfortunate thing for Tom’s career, but he has done everything you can expect as far as rehabilitation."

He was a two-time All-State basketball player at Judge Memorial High School. He was also a Converse All-American as a senior. In the state tournament he averaged 21.7 points and 9.2 rebounds a game. His 26-2 team that year was coached by James Yerkovich.

He earned two letters in track and football and four in basketball. His football and basketball team won league titles. He was also an All-Region basketball player as a senior. He was a member of the National Honor Society.

Tom is majoring in Greek and Latin. His hobbies are skiing and ballet. His parents are Bill and Francine Lytle of Ellicott City, Maryland. Birthdate: July 23, 1967.
K.C. McGowan
6-5, 194, 2V + RS
Junior Forward from Missoula, Montana

K.C. has excellent shooting skills, is a very hard-working player and could start this season. Last year he played in 20 games and started in three, averaging 3.8 points and 1.5 rebounds a game. He shot 53 percent (33 of 62) from the field. He scored a career-high 14 points at Montana State last season.

"K.C. has worked as hard, if not harder, than any kid in our program to be able to contribute at Montana," Morrill said. "He's done everything we've asked of him in the weight room during the off-season.

"With his shooting ability we really feel he can help us there," Morrill said. "He just shows every sign to be able to contribute, and that's what he wants to do and expects to do. He's just a hard-nosed, tough Montana kid, like the ones we have had in the past. I expect him to see a lot of playing time for us."

He was a two-time All-State player at Big Sky High School for coach Bill Langlas. As a senior he averaged 21.0 points and 8.5 rebounds per game. He was twice named to the state's all-tournament team.

His senior year K.C. was the MVP of the Montana-Wyoming All-Star series, Divisional Tournament MVP and an Academic All-American.

McGowan was also a track standout as a prep and an honorable mention All-American in that sport with a best of 6-10.

He is majoring in Business Management.

K.C.'s hobbies are water skiing and golf.

His parents are Patrick and Suzanne McGowan of Missoula.

Birthdate: November 22, 1965.

Jeff Pelton
6-5, 196, HS + RS
Freshman Guard from Palos Verdes, California

A redshirt last season, Jeff was a high school center and has been trying to make the adjustment to "big guard."

"We wanted to give Jeff a chance to try to develop at the off-guard, that's the reason he was redshirted," Morrill said. "He is a good shooter and a hard-nosed kid, the question is if he can make that transition and if he has the athletic ability and quickness to play at that position. I know Jeff is doing everything possible to make that happen and it's a wait-and-see proposition."

As a senior at Palos Verdes High School he was a McDonald's All-American honorable mention selection. He was also All-Bay League, All-South Bay by the Daily Breeze, and team captain for coach John Mihaljevich. He was a three-year letterman in basketball.

His senior season he averaged 14 points, 7.8 rebounds and 4.1 assists per contest.

He plans to pursue a career in Veterinary Medicine.

His hobbies are hunting, fishing and skin diving.

Jeff's parents are Robert and Nancy Pelton of Palos Verdes.

Birthdate: March 29, 1968.
John Reckard
6-6, 208, 1V
Sophomore Forward from Keenesburg, Colorado

John is a “true” freshman and played in 27 of 29 games last year at UM and started in one game. He was the eighth leading scorer for the Grizzlies with a 3.4 a game, and scored a career-high 10 points in a home win over Northern Arizona.

He shot very well from the floor as a frosh, making 39 of 69 shots for 56.5 percent and blocked seven shots.

“John played more minutes (10.4 a game) than any of the freshmen,” Morrill said. “He’s an excellent shooter, has long arms and jumps well. His biggest need is to adjust to game situations and adapt to what needs to be done in a given situation. He needs playing time to help him make that adjustment.

“He got a bunch of playing time last year and I expect him to do the same this year,” Morrill said. “John plays very hard and we expect good things from him in the future.

He averaged 24 points and 12 rebounds a game for coach Gary Stone at Weld Central High School. His team was fifth in the state his senior year.

John was an all-conference basketball player four times as a prep and three times an all-state selection. He lettered in football three times and was all-state as a senior. He also lettered in track and baseball.

He is majoring in Business.

His hobbies are fishing, hunting and golf.

John’s parents are Dale and Maxine Reckard of Keenesburg.

Mark Schultz
6-7, 239, 1V
Sophomore Forward from Spokane, Washington

Mark is another “true” freshman who saw a lot of action last season, playing in 24 games and all 14 Big Sky contests. He shot 52.4 percent (11 of 21) from the field and scored a career-high six points at Boise State. He had a career-high eight rebounds against Simon Fraser and led UM in that game.

“We talk a lot to Mark about not letting pure athletic ability be his strong suit, but what he needs to do is be extremely solid fundamentally, not make mistakes, and be one of those guys who can go into a game and get certain things done.

“He’s got good hands and has bulked up to about 240 pounds of good, productive weight,” Morrill said. “He is a classic Big Sky banger, who moves people around and rebounds the ball. He’s got a good nose for the ball. He can also score with either hand and I think he will help us this year.”

He averaged 12 points, eight rebounds and one block a game for coach Skip Molitor at Gonzaga Prep High School. He was all-conference and all-state as a senior and team captain as well. He played in the All-State game in Washington and was an honorable mention All-American as a senior. He lettered three times in basketball.

Mark is a Business major.

His hobbies are fishing and hunting.

His parents are Ken and Liz Schultz of Spokane.

*Big Sky Conference game
The Big Sky Conference was formed in February 1963, when the presidents and athletic directors of six Rocky Mountain universities met in Spokane. The original conference members were Gonzaga, Idaho, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Gonzaga entered the conference as a non-football playing school.

The conference derived its name from a pair of Montana and a Washington sports editor. A. B. Guthrie, Choteau, Mont., wrote a novel titled "The Big Sky," and Jack Hallowell, former Montana State advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme as a nickname for the state. Harry Missildine, former Spokesman-Review sports editor, picked up the name and in a sports column promoted the name Big Sky as the name of the conference. On Feb. 25, 1963, the conference adopted the name—Big Sky Athletic Conference.

In 1970 the conference expanded to include Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Ariz., and Boise State College, Boise, Idaho. Both entered as football playing schools.

Ron Stephenson

Nevada-Reno became a member of the Big Sky July 1, 1979. Eastern Washington became the newest member of the league, joining in 1987.

Jack Friel became the first commissioner in 1963, and the offices were established in Pullman, Wash., Friel’s home. Following Friel's retirement in 1971, the offices were moved to Boise, Idaho, and John Roning was named commissioner. Steve Belko was named commissioner and assumed duties July 1, 1977, following Roning’s retirement.

Ron Stephenson became the fourth Big Sky commissioner in May, 1981. A native of Idaho, Stephenson was formerly the assistant athletic director at Boise State. He has 21 years of working experience in intercollegiate athletics as a student, coach and administrator.

Arnie Sgalio has served as league information director since 1979. He is a 3rd vice president of the College Sports Information Director's of America (Co-SIDA).
