8 Whereas, the Residence Life Office (RLO) lists two of its core values as inclusive and 9 collaborative;

11 Whereas, Senate Bill SB 08-13/14 reads “a member of the [Associated Students of the 12 University of Montana] ASUM Housing Board will serve as the liaison to the Residence
13 Life Office”;

14
15 Whereas, ASUM seeks to initiate a productive and collaborative dialogue with the RLO;

16
17 Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, that Section 16 of the ASUM Bylaws be amended with the 18 following Subsection to read:

19
20 I. A member of the Student Housing Board, as appointed by the ASUM
21 Executives and recommended by the Board’s Chair, shall serve as the ASUM
22 liaison to the Residence Life Office (RLO). Said liaison shall represent the 23 Housing Board and ASUM in monthly meetings with the Management Team of 24 the RLO during the academic year. Said liaison shall also meet with all RLO
25 student staff and interested student residents to gather input on policies pertaining 26 to the RLO. This liaison shall advocate on behalf of RLO resident and student
27 employee interests, as well as those interests of the Housing Board and ASUM as 28 directed by the Board. The liaison shall make a report on updates to policies and 29 projects within RLO directly affecting students, as well as concerns or situations
30 that have been addressed by the liaison to RLO, monthly to the Board, and once
31 per semester to the ASUM Senate during the academic year.
32

33 Therefore, Let It Be Further Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to Sandy
34 Schoonover, director of Residence Life and Teresa Branch, VP of Student Affairs.
