Grizzlies Begin Heart of Pre-season Schedule

Coach Mike Montgomery and his 1984-85 University of Montana men’s basketball team begins the heart of its nonconference season today as the Grizzlies host Stout State of Wisconsin.

This will be the first of 11 games in the next 27 days — nine of which will be played in the friendly confines of 9,310-seat Dahlberg Arena. Included in those games is the annual Champion Holiday Classic (number five this year). The field includes the host Grizzlies, Northeastern, Georgia State and Arkansas-Little Rock. UM has won the last two “classic” titles.

Montgomery, assistants Stew Morrill and Bob Niehl and the UM team will go to “the pif Thursday, Nov. 29, playing at the University of Oregon and the Ducks’ famed McArthur Court (10,000). As most basketball fans know former Idaho coach Don Monson is now the head coach at UM. “We’ll see how our players react to a tough game situation, similar to what it would be like playing in an important Big Sky game on the road.”

Statistically, they’re even: Oregon starters start more than the Ducks. Guard Todd Powell and forward John Bates are from Corvallis, home of Oregon State. Oregon has 3 starters from California, 1 from Washington and 1 from Beaverton, Oregon. Monson has guided his teams to postseason tourneys the last four straight years, including his last 3 at his alma mater, Idaho. Krysko now has 444 career rebounds and needs only 28 to break into the top 12. Larry McBride now has 64 blocks, ranking him in the top 10 at UM.

Now in his seventh year as head coach, Mike Montgomery boasts one of the most successful collegiate basketball programs in the Northwest. He has the best winning percentage in Montana history (65.7%) and averages almost 19 wins a season.

In his first five years he guided Montana to the four-team, postseason Big Sky Tournament, and would have last year with a second place regular season finish. However, last season all eight Conference teams participated in the tourney.

"Monty," 37, has 111 victories — ranking him second, only behind the Dahlberg Arena namesake, Jiggs Dahlberg, in total number of wins. Montana has won 20 or more games only six times in its 77-year basketball tradition and Montgomery has two of those.

Last year's 23 wins was the second most in Grizzly history, only behind Dahlberg's 27 (and 4) in 1950. UM's back-to-back 20-win seasons in 1983 and 1984 was the first time in school history a coach and his teams have accomplished that.

Montgomery has 14 years of major college coaching experience and is beginning his 12th year in the Big Sky Conference. He served as an assistant at Boise State for three seasons before coming to UM.

He has also had coaching stints at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Colorado State, the Citadel and the University of Florida.

Sound defense has been Montana's forte over the past decade and Montgomery has continued that tradition. Last year UM was 10th in the nation in field goal percentage and led the Big Sky in defense. UM has led the league in defense 11 of the last 13 seasons.

"We take a lot of pride in having tough, hard-nosed players who are willing to sacrifice themselves for team success," Montgomery said.

"Basketball to me is a percentage game where you take advantage of your personnel and allow them to do the things they can do within a team concept," he said. "Our goal is to reach our potential as a team. This requires a very thorough approach to the game. Discipline and dedication from everyone within the program helps us reach that potential."

Montgomery is a 1968 graduate of Long Beach State where he was a four-year letterman in basketball. He also participated in volleyball and rugby. He earned his master's degree in Physical Education at Colorado State.

Mike and his wife, Sarah, have a two-year-old son, John, and are expecting their second child in February.

He played pro basketball in Europe for a Division I team in Bordeaux, France, after his graduation from Gonzaga in 1974. After a few months with the team he was named player-coach.

One of the best defensive players at the University of Montana in recent history, Doug has hung up his jersey, but not his tennis shoes and is pursuing a career that two members of his family are involved in.

He was a three-year starter for the Grizzlies in 1982-83-84 and finished his career with 1,000 points and 361 assists. He is the 12th player in UM history to score 1,000 points and ranks third in assists.

He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection his junior and senior seasons. He won the John Eaheart Award both those seasons as well, which is given annually to the best defensive player on the team. He was one of the top three scorers at UM all three of his seasons as a starter.

His older brother Robin is a member of the Grizzly Basketball Hall of Fame, and coaches the Lady Griz. His sister, Sandy Sullivan was formerly the girl's basketball coach at Circle High School and played at UM.

He was the class "C" MVP as a senior at Outlook High School, and a three-time all-state player.

Doug is engaged to Anita Novak, a starting forward for the Lady Griz basketball team. They will wed in August of 1985.

Best Wishes to the Grizzlies for Another Successful Season!

Glass, Hurley and Selvig are three players University of Montana Grizzly basketball fans got used to watching—and winning, but in 1984-85 it will be a different cast of characters.

The trio of three-year starters has graduated and seventh-year UM coach Mike Montgomery (111-58, 6 years) is hoping the names of (John) Bates, (Wayne) Tinkle, (Leroy) Washington and (Scott) Zanon will make UM fans forget about Marc, Rob and Doug.

The good news is that juniors Larry Krystkowiak and Larry McBride return to their starting forward and center positions.

"Krysko," Montana's All-American candidate, was the Big Sky Conference's MVP as a sophomore, led the Big Sky in scoring and rebounding, averaging 18 points and 10.5 rebounds a game.

McBride was second in the league in blocks with 58.

No other returning Grizzly player started last year, although Washington and forward Bruce Burns, both seniors, played in all 30 games. Bates played in 27 contests.

"Losing three, three-year starters who we gave a lot of freedom to when they were on the court and who could all shoot from the perimeter is losing an awful lot," Montgomery said. "Now that will all change. Basically there are a lot of question marks at those positions.

"We will have a new look," he continued. "We will have to do things differently because we have a different kind of personnel. We have to wait to become comfortable with our players and see how they react in pressure, game situations.

"We will take advantage of our inside people, and with their ability they might be able to take some pressure off our perimeter people and give them a chance to become confident in what they can do."

Montgomery, who guided Montana to a 23-7 record last season—the second best in school history, said UM, "is starting at ground zero until we find out who responds best to pressure."

He said that was especially true at off-guard, where lettermen Todd Powell and John Boyd return, and along with JC transfer Mike Wnek will battle it out for the starting berth.

Washington, Zanon and freshman Tony Reed are at point guard, where three-year lettermen Washington has the inside track. Because of Washington's quickness, "we might be able to fast break more because of his ability to go from the top of the key to the top of the key, and the way he passes the ball," Montgomery said.

Montgomery said he hoped McBride "was at least 25 percent improved" and he will be backed up by Burns, lettermen Steve Vanek and fresh Wayne Tinkle.

Bates could get the nod at one forward position, although Montgomery expressed concern over his physical strength.

He added he felt very good about Krysko, McBride and Burns, "especially Burns has improved his strength and will make a bigger contribution this season." Tinkle and freshman redshirt Herb Jones could also contribute underneath, but neither has played at the collegiate level. Montana's other recruit is forward K.C. McGowan, from Missoula's Big Sky High.

Powell could be a factor at guard with his shooting range and the Big Sky's three-point shot, although he has had injury problems the last two years. "He is a solid defensive player with fine athletic ability," Montgomery said.

"Wnek is the one player we brought in who we hope can help right away," Montgomery said. "He gives us more flexibility, depth and experience. We'll have to wait and see how Tinkle and Herb can contribute. Reed is an extremely quick player who can play either guard position and we plan to bring him along slowly."

"Because of the way we have run our program over the years we have stayed away from a rebuilding program, although I would definitely have to classify this season as a 'restructuring' year," Montgomery said.

Montgomery said the pre-conference schedule of Oregon, Air Force, Washington State, Irvine, Fullerton and Loyola, "will give the young kids experience under fire."

In the Big Sky he said three of the four top finishers of last year, Weber State, Montana State and Reno return the majority of their players, and Northern Arizona will be vastly improved.

"It will be an interesting challenge," Montgomery said, "We must use our personnel intelligently and bring along our depth. We cannot become complacent because of the success we've had."

Naseby Rhinehart Endowment Fund

Sponsored by the Grizzly Athletic Association and the University of Montana Athletic Department, in cooperation with the UM Foundation, the Naseby Rhinehart Endowment Fund is designed to provide a hedge against inflation and skyrocketing costs by assuring the University’s Intercollegiate Athletic Program a permanent source of income from which athletic scholarships can be awarded to worthy student-athletes. The goal is to achieve total funding of the athletic scholarship program through the earnings from the corpus of the Fund. Income from the endowment will ensure that outstanding student-athletes will continue to have the opportunity to compete on behalf of the University of Montana, thus helping to preserve and enhance the strong tradition and heritage that is synonymous with Grizzly athletics.

NAMED SCHOLARSHIPS

Donors who wish to name an athletic scholarship after a person or persons of special merit or importance to the donor or UM athletics may do so in the following manner:

* a minimum contribution of $10,000 in cash, stocks, bonds or other property pledged over a specified period of time.
* a paid-up life insurance policy in the amount of $25,000 naming the Grizzly Athletic Association owner and beneficiary.

The following have made sufficient contributions or have memorials in their name which qualify for the named scholarship program:

Terry Dillon Memorial Scholarship
William “Biff” Hall Scholarship
Harley & Mary Lou Lewis Scholarship
Frank Milburn Memorial Scholarship
Erik Ogren Memorial Scholarship

Continued contributions to the special endowment fund are certainly encouraged and appreciated. Contributions may be made at any time by sending them to the Grizzly Athletic Association, 600 University Avenue, Missoula, Montana 59812. Questions regarding gifts to the Endowment Fund can be directed by mail or by calling the Grizzly Athletic Association Office collect at (406) 243-6485. All inquiries will receive a prompt response and the confidential nature of all communications will be respected.
