Scholarships covering registration and incidental fees for three quarters of the 1956-57 school year have been awarded by Montana State University to ten per cent of last year's student body, A. C. Cogswell, dean of students, has announced.

Half of the scholarships are granted on the basis of high scholastic standing and half on the basis of ability, character, promise, and need, Dean Cogswell said. The students receiving the awards have maintained better than a "B" average in their grades for three quarters. Recipients are selected by the MSU conference of deans on faculty recommendations.

Students named for the University scholarships, by home towns, are:
