BOOK OF ABSENCE II

In this land full of sky we read sky:

degrees of rain or wind and beyond calm and a breeze brings silt and sometimes fire and beyond calm I am beyond calm beyond I

To calm: exists in worry

See also: the broken can break again like water

:the way a glacier has worried and wound its ends into calving

Spill fragments, for example

For example: the infinite and finite seem so close not untouchable, but we all have skin and boundaries

: I broke my heart on a dare : a calming water
