FOR RELEASE FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Neil S. Wilson Scholarships for the spring semester have been awarded to two students in the Montana State University Law School, Missoula, Dean Robert E. Sullivan announced today.

The Wilson Scholars are Urban L. Roth, who will be graduated from the Law School in June, and Charles C. Lovell, Jr., a first-year law student. Both are married and have served in the armed forces. Roth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Roth, 4th St. W., Billings. Lovell's parents reside at 1000 Longstaff Ave., Missoula.

A graduate of Billings High School, Roth attended Maryland University, College Park, Md., and Eastern Montana College of Education, Billings. He received a B. A. in law from MSU in 1956. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity and of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity.

Lovell was born in Anaconda and was graduated from Missoula County High School. He received a B.S. in business administration from the University in 1956. He was on active duty as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force from 1952-54, and he entered the Law School autumn semester, 1956. He is a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity.

The Neil S. Wilson Scholarship fund was created by a bequest of Mrs. Clara E. Wilson, Butte, who died in 1954. She was the widow of John D. Wilson, Butte real estate man. The scholarships were given in memory of her son Neil, a 1924-graduate of the MSU Law School, who was killed in an automobile accident in 1924. The bequest is administered by the University Endowment Foundation.

Recipients of the full-fee scholarships are selected by the law faculty on the basis of scholarship achievement. Both entering law students and those who have completed a portion of the law course are eligible, Dean Sullivan said.
