Note: The following syllabus defines the rules and important dates for the semester; however, I reserve the right to make changes if the need arises.

Prerequisite: Senior or graduate status and an Economics major.

General Description: Students will integrate and apply the knowledge they have gained through the Economics major and develop their skills in communicating that knowledge. Students will apply economic theory and evidence to practical problems faced by themselves, policymakers, businesses or other economic agents. Students will practice identifying the economic principles behind observed problems or interesting phenomena, applying economic models to analyze these topics, and communicating this knowledge in different ways to a range of audiences. Additionally, students will learn to read academic research papers and synthesize the findings in order to answer practical policy relevant questions.

Text:

Required: McCloskey, Deirdre, Economical Writing, 2nd ed., Prospect Heights, IL: Waveland Press, 2000.

Learning Outcomes: Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

- Formulate answers to real-world questions using economic principles
- Develop conclusions about economic questions based on synthesis of theory and evidence
- Deliver well-structured, engaging oral presentations addressing practical economic questions
- Identify and pursue more sophisticated questions for academic inquiry
- Find, evaluate, analyze, and synthesize information effectively from diverse sources
- Manage multiple perspectives as appropriate
- Recognize the purposes and needs of economic audiences and adopt the academic voice necessary for communicating economic ideas
- Use multiple drafts, revision, and editing in conducting inquiry and preparing written work
- Follow the conventions of citation, documentation, and formal presentation appropriate to the economics discipline
- Develop competence in information technology and digital literacy

Grades: Your overall class grade will be based on your performance on 9 assignments, daily attendance and participation in class exercises, and presentations, and the completion of the senior exit exam and senior survey. The breakdown of the overall class grade is as follows:

Attendance/Participation	15%
Assignment #1	5%
Assignment #2	5%
Assignment #3	5%
Assignment #4	5%
Assignment #5	5%
Assignment #6	5%
Assignment #7	15%
Assignment #8	5%
Assignment #9	25%
Senior Exit Survey	7%
Senior Exit Exam	3%

Senior Exit Survey: The senior exit survey is an important survey tool that the Department of Economics uses to assess your experience as an undergraduate in Economics. You may sign your name or take it anonymously, but your grade for this will be dependent on your attendance on the Exit Survey day.

Senior Exit Exam: The senior exit exam is used as a valuable assessment tool for the Department of Economics to assess overall Economic knowledge of our graduating seniors. It is a comprehensive exam covering all UM undergraduate Economics courses.

Course Drop and Grade Change Policy: Course drops and grade changes are subject to the policies and official dates set by the Office of the Registrar. Course drop and grade change dates can be found at:
