January 17, 1933

1. A meeting of the faculty was held at 4:10 P. M. on the call of President Clapp, who presided.

2. The following members were present: H. Adams, W. Adams, Ames, Ammer, Asendorf, Atkinson, Badgley, Bennett, Bischoff, Brien, Bunch, Carey, Clapp, W. P. Clark, Coleman, Crowder, Deiss, Elrod, Eminger, Fitzgerald, Freeman, Gleason, Hewitt, Hitchcock, Hoffman, Housman, Jesse, Kast, Keeney, Leaphart, LeClaire, Lewandowski, Line, Little, Lowman, Maddock, Mason, Merriam, Merrill, Mirrieles, Miller, Mollett, Oakes, Parker, Phillips, Platt, Ramskill, Richards, Riedell, Rowe, Rothermich, Sanford, Scheuch, Schreiber, Sedman, Severy, Shallenberger, Allan Smith, DeLoss Smith, F. O. Smith, G. I. Smith, Snell, Speer, Stone, Suchy, Sughrue, Mrs. Swearingen, T. G. Swearingen, Teel, Thomas, Toelle, Waters, Weisberg, Wells, White, Young.

The following members were accounted for: Bateman, Fay Clark, Howard, Spaulding.

3. The Enlarged Committee on Admission and Graduation, Jesse, Chairman, reported the following exceptions to faculty rulings granted during the autumn quarter:

1. Re: Julia P. Lynch. Miss Lynch was granted permission to satisfy the foreign language requirement for her degree by offering four units in high school Latin without taking the placement examination. The reason for this action was that Miss Lynch completed her training in Latin in 1907.

2. Re: William D. Swetland. Mr. Swetland was granted exemption from the foreign language requirement for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education. The reasons for this action were:

1. Mr. Swetland is a mature person of considerable professional experience who has never had any foreign language.
2. He would be able to complete his work for the degree in one year except for the foreign language requirement.
3. He is, and has been, engaged in the field of School Administration, and foreign language would not be of use to him in this work.

3. Re: Frank C. Barker. Mr. Barker was granted exemption from the foreign language requirement for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education. The reasons for this action were:

1. Mr. Barker completed two units in high school Latin twenty-eight years ago and would not be able at this time to take the placement examination and complete the additional quarter of work which would be required.
2. He teaches in rural and village schools where foreign language would not be of use to him in his teaching.

4. Re: C. S. Porter. Mr. Porter was granted permission to satisfy the residence requirement for graduation by offering 12 of the last 45 credits toward the degree by correspondence study and therefore only 33 of the last 45 credits toward the degree in residence.

4. The Committee on Admission and Graduation, Ames, Chairman, reported that all the candidates for degrees and certificates whose names appeared on the lists sent to the faculty on December 13 completed requirements for their respective degrees and certificates with the exception of the following:

I. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts:

Name

Major

Hansen, Hilmer N. O.
Kraps, Sylvia Edmiston

Chemistry
History

- II. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration
Armstrong, Frances Allene
- III. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education:
Bandmann, Sister Theresita
- IV. For the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Journalism:
Bates, Robert Morris
McLemore, Felicia
- V. For the University Certificate of Qualification to Teach:
Bandmann, Sister Theresita
Seaton, Margaret Mary
- VI. Felicia McLemore, who was certified as eligible for the bachelor's degree with honors, did not complete her work for the degree and was therefore not awarded honors.

5. The President discussed the proposed legislative appropriations for the next biennium.

6. On motion of Atkinson, the faculty unanimously voted to request a committee of Line, Merrill and Turney-High to continue their studies of cooperative purchasing.

7. On motion, the faculty unanimously reelected Professor Elrod as the faculty nominee on the Service Committee. The President announced the reappointment of Leaphart as the President's nominee on the Committee.

8. On motion of Jesse, the faculty unanimously voted that all instructors be granted the privilege of voting for members of the Budget and Policy Committee whether or not their appointment had been held for one year or less.

9. The faculty proceeded to the election of the Chairman of the Budget and Policy Committee. The President announced that one member of the faculty had received, according to the report of the tellers, 35 out of 70 votes on the nominating ballott. On motion of Rowe, the faculty unanimously voted to declare this member elected whereupon the President announced the reelection of Professor Elrod as Chairman of the Budget and Policy Committee.

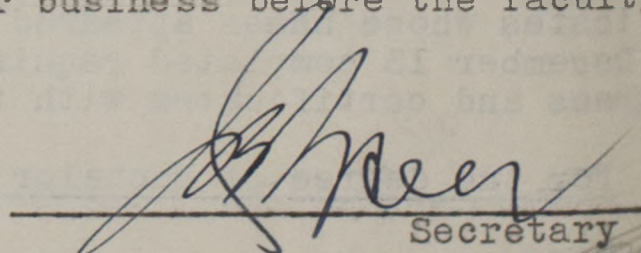

The following election of the members of the Budget and Policy Committee were subsequently reported:

Arts Group: Thomas (hold-over member, Turney-High); Merriam was elected as a substitute for Turney-High during the latter's illness and absence from duties.

Science Group: Merrill (hold-over member, Shallenberger).

Professional Schools Group: Leaphart (hold-over member, Line).

10. There being no further business before the faculty, the meeting adjourned.
