In Memory Naseby Rhinehart, Sr. (1911-1991)

Thousands will remember the man we called Doc and Nase;
All of those lucky lives you touched will sing your praises;
That gentle touch and charismatic smile;
The professional with his own, low-key, confident style;
Many may recall the family man, children Pete, Sid, Vodie
Ann and Penny, and 57 special years with Cookie, his lovely wife;
All of us who new him were made more complete by sharing
part of his storied life;

Thanks, Nase, for half a century of service, dedication and love to your University,
family and friends;
We will always see you in the halls, home and in our hearts—and again in the end...

NOTE: Naseby Rhinehart was the athletic trainer at the University of Montana for 47 years, becoming the school's first trainer in 1935 and retiring in 1982. He was a three-sport star for the Grizzlies from 1931-35. He died June 11, 1991.

The University of Montana

The University of Montana in Missoula is located in a mountain forest setting in beautiful western Montana. It is halfway between Glacier and Yellowstone national parks.

Four wilderness areas are located near Missoula. The natural surroundings offer excellent opportunities for hunting, fishing, backpacking, river floating, camping and other outdoor recreational pursuits. Two excellent winter ski areas are located within minutes of the University. Several other ski areas are only a couple of hours away by car. UM owns and operates its own golf course adjacent to campus.

The University of Montana is one of the West's pioneers in education and was chartered February 17, 1893. The school opened in September 1895, with 50 students enrolling the first day. Located on 201 acres at the base of Mount Sentinel, UM has grown from 50 students and seven faculty members to a present enrollment of 10,048 and approximately 408 full-time faculty positions.

Throughout its history, The University of Montana has sustained a high standard of academic excellence in teaching, research and service.

UM offers associate of arts degrees in two areas and bachelor's degrees in 58 fields. It offers master's degrees in 54 programs and doctoral degrees in 13.

The College of Arts and Sciences, which is the core of the University, includes a full range of programs and courses in the life sciences, physical sciences, social sciences and humanities. The college also offers curricula in interdisciplinary fields ranging from ethnic studies to interdepartmental studies.

The University also has Schools of Business Administration, Fine Arts, Journalism, Education, Forestry, Law, and Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

The University aims to provide its students with relaxing and meaningful learning experience with the best facilities possible. The administration, faculty and staff strive for this goal.

Academics at UM Add Up To Success

The University of Montana has 25 Rhodes Scholars. UM ranks 18th of all American colleges and universities in the number of Rhodes Scholars it has produced, fifth among public universities. Students are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, energy, community and political involvement, and character.

The Flathead Lake Biological Station, located about 80 miles north of Missoula, is the oldest biological station west of the Mississippi. The UM research station is one of the finest facilities in the country for ecological studies and freshwater research.

KUFM, a non-commercial, public radio station operated by the Telecommunications Center reaches an estimated 350,000 Montanans in central and western Montana.

School of Education graduates compete very successfully for jobs. A high percentage of those with bachelor's degrees and graduate degrees find teaching, administrative and other education-related positions in Montana and many other states.

The Department of Social Work is fully accredited by the Council on Social Work Education, making UM the only Montana school that prepares its graduates to apply for advanced standing in graduate schools of social work.

The Department of Drama/Dance has a professional theater group — the Montana Repertory Theatre — based on campus. The Montana Repertory Theatre, which tours throughout the Northwest, is the only professional actors equity company between Minneapolis and Seattle.

Eight University of Montana students have received Truman Scholarships. The national scholarship is given annually to students committed to a government career who have superior academic ability and leadership potential.

The Department of Anthropology has the largest collection of artifacts and records of prehistory in the region.

The School of Business is the only business school in Montana to be accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business at the graduate level.

More than 55 percent of the business school's accounting graduates pass the Certified Public Accountant Exam on their first try. This is more than three times the national first-time success rate of 18 percent.

The Department of Geology has a strong, nationally known program in classical geology and environmental geoscience. Because the solution to most geologic problems involves a combination of field and laboratory study, the department offers a wide range of field and laboratory courses and encourages a broad, multidisciplinary program of study.

The Department of Geography has one of the region's best cartography laboratories, where students learn to make maps and interpret aerial photography.

The Department of Health and Physical Education is one of a handful in the country that trains students to be athletic trainers.

UM's Native American Studies program is regarded by Indian educators as one of the four most outstanding in the nation.

Montana has had four All-District 7 all-academic players the last three years in-a-row. Senior linebacker Mike McGowan was named a first team GTE Academic All-American for the third straight year in 1990, and also received a prestigious NCAA post-graduate scholarship. In 1988 the Grizzlies had four football players named to the GTE Academic All-American first or second team — the most by any Division I school.

Last season Montana had 18 players selected to the Big Sky Conference academic football team, and UM has had the most picks of any league school four of the last five years. Montana has had numerous academic All-Americans in other sports as well.

Linebacker Mike McGowan sacks Jackson State quarterback Shawn Gregory in UM's 48-7 first-round playoff win over the Tigers in 1989. McGowan was a first team GTE Academic All-American in the 1988-89-90 seasons and maintained a 3.97 GPA in History.

Administration

George Dennison became the 16th president of The University of Montana on August 15, 1990.

Before coming to UM Dennison was provost and vice president for academic affairs at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo, a post he had held since 1987.

He is a former resident of Kalispell, and a UM alumnus. A history professor, he earned two degrees in that field at UM: a master's in 1963 and a bachelor's with highest honors in 1962. In 1967, he completed a doctorate in history at the University of Washington.

Before joining Western Michigan's administration, he held a number of positions at Colorado State University between 1969 and 1987. They include history professor; admissions and records director; associate academic vice president; graduate school associate dean; associate dean of the college of the arts, humanities and social sciences.

Dennison and his wife, Jane, also from Kalispell, have two children.

George Dennison
President

Bill Moos
Athletic Director

Bill Moos is beginning his second year as athletic director at Montana. In just a little more than a year at UM, Moos has overseen several changes, including moving the Grizzly Athletic Association to the athletic department and has been instrumental in increasing donations to the GAA.

At Montana Moos oversees the entire department of intercollegiate athletics.

Last season three of Montana's four revenue sports advanced to NCAA postseason play. He hired his first coach in April of 1991, elevating assistant coach Blaine Taylor to head men's basketball coach.

He has also improved facilities at UM, including the building of a new departmental weight room.

Moos came to UM from his alma mater, Washington State, where he was an associate athletic director since 1982.

He graduated from WSU in 1973 with a degree in History. As a Cougar athlete he was an all-Pac 10 and all-Pacific Coast selection in football. He capped his college career by playing in the 1972 East-West Shrine Game.

Following graduation, Moos worked for a short time in the national capital before going into private business.

Bill, and his wife, Kendra, have three children: Christa, 11, Brittany, 7, and Bo, 2.

Kathy became associate athletic director at Montana in August, 1987. In 1989 she served as interim athletic director, overseeing two I-AA football playoff games, as well as the Big Sky Conference women's basketball tournament, and an NCAA first-round game in women's basketball.

She was instrumental in UM's bid for a Women's Western Regional Basketball Tournament, recently granted to Montana in March of 1993.

Most recently Noble was the Assistant Director of the Department of Parks, Recreation and Public Facilities in Miami, Florida.

She has 16 years of experience in college administration. She was the Associate Athletic Director at the University of Miami from 1983-86. Prior to that she was an Academic Counselor in athletics at Boise State (1982-83) and the Residence Hall Director at Washington State (1976-82).

Noble earned her B.A. degree in Social Sciences at Central Washington University in 1971. She received a Master's Degree in Counseling at Washington State in 1979 and is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Counseling at WSU.

Kathy Noble
Associate Athletic Director

Al Kempfert
*Executive Director,
Grizzly Athletic Association*

Al is beginning his 14th year as Executive Director of the Grizzly Athletic Association, formerly known as the Century Club.

In 1977 Century Club raised approximately $70,000 for intercollegiate athletics. Last year the G.A.A. generated over $550,000 in private support with emphasis primarily on athletic scholarships, but the G.A.A. assists in all phases of athletic department operations.

He came to UM from California Lutheran University, where he had served as the Director of Alumni/Parent Relations from 1971 to 1977. He served in the U.S. Army from 1968-71 and in Vietnam from 1969-70, receiving many commendations. He is an alumnus of C.L.U., where he was a three-sport letterman and voted the Outstanding Senior Athlete in 1967.

Al and his wife, Chris, have three children.

Gary is the veteran of Montana's athletic department, and is starting his 26th year at UM. He became athletic ticket manager in 1966, and was appointed Manager of Athletics Facilities and Revenue in 1978.

He manages all scheduling in Adams Field House, Washington-Grizzly Stadium and Dornblaser Track and Field in addition to overseeing the TIC-IT-E-Z Ticketing System, all athletic revenue, concessions operations, event staffing, and various other duties.

He is a native of Ronan, Montana and graduated in accounting from Missoula Business College in 1962. He gained experience in accounting and auditing before assuming his responsibilities at Montana.

Gary and his wife, Judy, have six children: Christian Ann, Dustin, Lance, Christopher, Sara and Cary.

Gary Hughes
Manager of Athletic Services

Robert Lindsay
Faculty Representative

Bob is beginning his fourth year as UM's faculty representative to the National College Athletic Association.

Dr. Lindsay has been a faculty member at UM since 1967. He is a professor of History and served as the department chairman from 1975-78. His specialty is Early Modern European History. Lindsay won the Distinguished Teacher Award at UM in 1985. He has taught overseas for UM in France in 1970-71 and 1981.

He previously taught at Ohio University. He earned a Ph.D. and M.A. at the University of Oregon and an M.A. at the University of Minnesota. He received his B.A. at Nevada-Reno in 1953.

As the NCAA Representative, he will determine eligibility for UM athletes, make NCAA rulings at the institutional level and is UM's representative to the NCAA. He has served on UM's University Athletic Committee for numerous years and was once chairman of the committee as well.

Bob and his wife, Joyce, have four children.

Don Read

Since taking over The University of Montana football program in 1986, Don Read's teams have not had a losing season, going 6-4, 6-5, 8-4, 11-3 and 7-4. During those seasons the Grizzlies have been 26-14 in Big Sky Conference games.

The Grizzlies reached new heights in the 1989 season. Montana won a school-record 11 games and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinal game, and was ranked sixth in the nation.

Read was recognized for that success in '89, as he was named the Big Sky Conference's Coach of the Year. He was the second Montana coach so-honored, and the first since Jack Swarthout received the award in 1969 and 1970. He is the 7th winningest coach in Big Sky history, with a winning percentage of .666.

His record at Montana is 38-20, and his 38 victories are the third most in school history. He trails only Doug Fessenden (46 wins in 10 seasons), and Swarthout (51 victories in 9 seasons).

His winning percentage of .655 is the best of any Montana coach with more than three years tenure.

In Montana's 94-year-old football history, the Grizzlies have won six or more games 17 times, and Read's teams have accomplished that all five of his seasons at UM.

Read, 57, came to Montana from Portland State, where he was head coach from 1981 to 1985, and 1968-71. Between his PSU stays were head jobs at the University of Oregon (1974-76), and Oregon Tech (1977-80). His Oregon Tech teams were ranked 9th in the nation in 1979, and 7th in 1980.

In 1984 he led PSU to an 8-3 record and was named the Division II Coach of the Year after his Viking team won the Western Conference championship.

Read's overall coaching record, at all levels, is 140-118-1. He has been in the coaching profession 32 years, beginning in 1959 as an assistant at Placer High School in Auburn, California. His first head coaching job was at Petaluma High School in California in 1962.

He lives and coaches by many personal philosophies. Some of these include: "Success is a by-product of hard work; expect players to make a commitment to football and other aspects of school life; football shapes character; and a team must always play with emotion and intensity."

Read has written a book, The Complete Passing Game, worked football camps in several states, and written almost 100 articles for athletic and coaching magazines.

While coaching at Oregon, he worked with former All-Pro Dan Fouts of the Dan Diego Chargers. At PSU he worked with former pro QB June Jones. During his tenure at Montana he worked with QB Brent Pease, now with Birmingham of the World League, and Grady Bennett, the school's all-time career passing leader.

He earned his undergraduate degree in Social Science in 1960 at Sacramento State, and his master's degree in Health and Physical Education there in 1962.

Don and his wife, Lois, have a daughter, Beth, and a son, Bruce. Bruce has served as Montana's special teams coach the past four seasons.

Assistant Coaches

Mick Dennehy
Offensive Coordinator/O-line

Mick returned to his alma mater in the spring of 1990, and brings 18 years of coaching experience, including five at the college level. He was most recently the head coach at Western Montana College in Dillon.

Dennehy serves as Montana's offensive coordinator, and also coaches the offensive linemen.

A native of Butte, the 40-year-old Dennehy had been the head coach at Western the previous three seasons, and coached the Bulldogs to a 5-3 record in 1990, and was named the Frontier Conference Coach of the Year. This is the second time he has coached in the Big Sky Conference, as he was an assistant under Sonny Lubick at Montana State in 1980-81.

He is a 1973 graduate of Montana, with a B.A. degree in Education. He earned a M.Ed. in Educational Administration at Washington State in 1977.

He was a standout safety for the Grizzlies in 1971-72. He is second in single-season league history with 10 interceptions in 1972, when he led the Big Sky. That year he was named first team all-conference. He is ranked fourth (tie) in conference history with 16 career interceptions.

Dennehy began his coaching career at Colton High School in Washington, where his teams won state championships in 1975 and 1976, and he compiled a four-year record of 40-4. He then moved on to Helena High School, and was head grid coach there for three seasons, before serving the two-year stint at MSU.

He was head football coach at Campbell County High School in Gillette, Wyoming, from 1983 to 1987, before he took the head job at Western. At Campbell High he was Coach of the Year in 1983 and had a 29-25 record.

In his prep coaching career he had an 88-60 overall record, was named coach of the year four times, and twice selected to be a Shrine Game coach.

Mick and his wife, Sheila, have two sons: Jake, 16, and Mark, 13.

"Offensively, our style of play at The University of Montana will not change. We will be a free-wheeling, wide open, multiple formation team, that will put the ball in the air. We will use the pass to set up our running game, and try to keep our opponents off-balance by doing so."

Kraig Paulson
Defensive Line

Kraig begins his fourth season as a full-time Grizzly assistant, and his first as the defensive line coach. Since 1988 he has worked with the linebackers. In 1987 he was a graduate assistant coach at UM, working with the secondary and special teams.

He was a four-year letterman for the Grizzlies, from 1982-86.

His sophomore season at UM he was named the Outstanding Sophomore. As a prep at Plentywood High School, he was a two-time all-state pick in football and lettered four times in football and track.

Three brothers, Kevin, Kerry and Keith, all ran track for the Grizzlies, and another brother, Kent, ran track at Western Montana College. Kent is the current head boy's basketball coach at C.M. Russell High in Great Falls.

He is a 1987 graduate of UM, earning a B.A. in Education.

Kraig, 27, married the former Jody Johnson last summer.

"We are excited about the upcoming season. We will try to rise to the challenge that each week will bring this fall. This will be very important in order to have success in the Big Sky Conference."

Jerome Souers
Defensive Coordinator/Secondary

This is the third season Souers (pronounced sow-ers) will serve as Montana's defensive coordinator, and his sixth as secondary coach.

Last year the Grizzlies were ranked fourth in the nation against the rush, allowing just 86.1 yards a game. Two seasons ago UM led the nation in rush defense (allowing 70.2 yards a game). In 1988 Montana led the Big Sky Conference in pass defense and overall defense for the first time in school history, and tied a Grizzly record with 28 interceptions.

Before coming to UM, Souers, 33, was the secondary coach at Portland State for two seasons and served in a similar position at Western Washington for a season prior to the PSU job. He coached at "AAA" prep level for eight years at North Eugene and Willamette High schools. His father, Dwight, was a successful, well-known coach in Eugene. Jerome earned a B.A. in Physical Education at Oregon in 1983 and earned his master's in P.E. at PSU in 1985.

He and his wife, Paula, have two daughters: Anna, 3, and Alaina, 1.
"We believe in playing aggressive, hard-nosed defense. We keep it simple, work hard at technique, and keep the emphasis on execution of our coverage responsibility."

Robin Pflugrad
Asst. Head Coach/QBs, WRs

Besides coaching the quarterbacks and receivers, Robin Pflugrad (pronounced Flew-Grad) is involved in several administrative areas relating to Grizzly football. He oversees the budget, compliance rules for the NCAA and the Big Sky Conference, and also has other administrative duties. He was elevated to assistant head coach last spring.

During his five-year tenure he has coached seven of Montana's top 14 career receivers, including Mike Trevathan, the Grizzlies' all-time leader, and number three ranked Matt Clark. Both now play for the B.C. Lions. Also known for his recruiting ability, Pflugrad's recruiting areas are Oregon, and he also assists with California junior colleges.

He was a standout wide receiver at Portland State, and was team captain and an Academic All-American in 1979. Before coming to Montana he was wide receiver coach and director of football promotions at PSU for three years.

He began his coaching career in 1981 at South Eugene High School, where he was receiver and secondary coach, as well as a counselor in football camps.

His Mt. Hood Junior College teams went 20-2 in 1976-77, and was ranked first in the nation in 1977, when he was named all-conference.

Pflugrad, 33, earned his B.S. degree at PSU in Business Administration in 1980, and his Oregon Teachers Certificate in Business Education in 1984.

Rob, and his wife, Marlene, have a daughter, Amanda, 4, and a son, Aaron, 3.

"We believe in a positive approach to coaching football. I believe the players should still have fun while playing college football. I hope this is an experience that each player will cherish the rest of their lives. I want them to look back at The University of Montana as a very rewarding experience, both academically and athletically."

Assistant Coaches

David Reeves
Linebackers

David is no stranger to the Grizzly football program, or to the Montana coaching staff. He has been a graduate assistant coach at UM the past three seasons, working with the secondary and linebackers. This year he begins his first season as a full-time assistant, working with the linebackers.

He was a four-year letterman at strong safety for the Grizzlies from 1984-87. He started as a junior and senior, and was one of the leading tacklers and interceptors both seasons with 97 tackle and six interceptions. His junior year in 1986 he had four interceptions, ranking him eighth (tie) in the Big Sky Conference.

He was the recipient of the 1987 Pat Norwood Award, given annually to the Most Inspirational Player.

Reeves, 25, came to UM from Sedro Wooley High School in Washington, where he was an all-state selection on offense and defense as a senior. He was all-conference as a junior and senior. He was captain of the 1983 team which went 12-1 and was runner-up in the state.

He recently earned a B.A. degree from Montana in History.

He is single.

"We feel like we have a good mix of seasoned veterans with game experience, as well as some up-and-coming young talent at linebacker, and are excited about the 1991 season."

Bruce Read
Special Teams

Bruce is beginning his fourth season as a special teams coach at Montana and his sixth overall. He served as a part-time assistant coach at UM in 1986-87 and was a graduate assistant in 1985 at Portland State, working with the special teams.

He graduated from PSU with a B.S. degree in Social Science. As a player at Henley High school in Klamath Falls, Oregon, he was an honorable mention all-state wide receiver/punter, captain of the football team, team MVP and led the state in punting as a senior.

He is also an accomplished photographer and was a free lancer at PSU and for the Portland Breakers of the United States Football League.

The Grizzlies have excelled in special teams three of the last four seasons. In 1988 they were ranked first in the nation in net punting (39.8 yards) and were second in 1989 (38.6 avg.). In 1988 and 1989 the Grizzlies had 13 blocked kicks. In 1987 UM set a Big Sky record with four blocks in a game against intra-state rival, Montana State.

Bruce and his wife Christina have a four-year-old son, Justin.

"There is no other phase of the game more exciting or big-play oriented than special teams," Read said. "Our players know this, and we place a lot of emphasis on the kicking game."

Joe Klucewich
Running Backs

Former Grizzly football standout Joe Klucewich begins his third season as a full-time assistant coach this year, and his fourth overall. This will be his first season working with the running backs, as he has been the defensive line coach the previous two years. In 1989 the Grizzlies led the nation in defense, allowing 70.2 yards a game.

"Kluey" began his coaching career at Rocky Mountain College, where he served as secondary coach from 1985-87.

He lettered for the Grizzlies from 1980-84 and played fullback. He rushed for 619 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, and caught 40 passes for three TDs.

He earned a B.A. in Health & Physical Education at Montana in 1985. He earned his Master's in Education at UM in 1988.

His brothers, Josh and Jim, were star football players at local Big Sky High and Missoula Sentinel High Schools. Josh lettered in football for the Grizzlies in 1983 and 1984.

Joe, 30, is single.

"We have a good nucleus of running backs returning this year, led by juniors Marc Monestime and Tony Rice. I enjoyed the past two years that I worked with the defensive line, but I'm looking forward to coaching the position I played in high school and here at the University of Montana."

1991 Grizzly Football Outlook

The 1991 season for the University of Montana will be an "acid test" for the Grizzlies, as they try to replace the school's all-time passer and receiver.

The early-season schedule will also answer some questions quick, as Montana travels to the Bayou country to play at Division I-A Louisiana Tech, along with McNeese State in Louisiana. UM opens the year at home against Humboldt State, Sept. 7.

Sixth-year coach Don Read returns 13 1/2 starters from a 7-4 team, which went 4-4 in the Big Sky Conference, placing fourth. Montana was ranked as high as second in the nation last year, but ended the season out of the top 20.

Record-setting quarterback Grady Bennett has graduated and moved on to the professional ranks. He passed for a school-record 7,778 yards and 55 touchdowns. Also gone is his favorite target, All-American Mike Trevathan. Trevathan, UM's all-time receiver, had 1,969 career receiving yards. He was ranked second in the nation in 1990, with 71 catches for 1,006 yards and 7 TDs.

"Really, we have kind of a no-name team this year," said Read, who has a 38-20 record at UM. "There is no Tim Hauck or Mike Rankin, no Grady Bennett or Mike Trevathan, and no Brent Pease or Mike Rice."

For the Grizzlies to return to I-AA's elite top 20, as they were in 1988 and 1989, they will look for leadership from the defense, Read said.

"Overall spring ball was excellent, especially the defense," Read said. "They really improved and evolved from a good defensive team that we had in 1990, to an even better one. There's experience at almost every position, depth at every position, and more importantly, there's good talent at every position."

Montana returns 7 starters on a defense that was fourth in the country against the rush (86.1 ypg), and third overall in the conference, allowing 352.8 yards a game. The "D" is led by junior All-American candidate Sean Dorris at safety, along with honors candidates Kirk Murphy and Nels Kludt, on the defensive line. Other returning defensive starters are end/tackle Gregg Smerker, half-time starters Dethrick Slocum and Darrin Stringer at cornerback, and Gary Kaiser at safety.

The Grizzlies have several other talented lettermen back on the defensive front. They include Chuck Mason, Thad Huse, Lance Allen, Sam Davidson, Shawn Merz, Kelly McCallum, as well as redshirt freshman Keith Jones, and JC transfer Charlie Hawkins.

At linebacker the "Butte Connection" of Paul LeProwse, Chad Lembke and Kyle Mirich emerged as starters after spring drills. Add senior Tony Goulet and promising redshirt freshmen Eric Lono, Dan Downs, Garrett Venters and Dennis Scates to that group, and it will be a very solid position.

Lettermen Greg Ferguson and Kaiser are veterans at the safety positions. JC transfers Stacy Edwards, Carl Franks and Quentin Burns could be factors at cornerback.

"We have a lot of intensity, and a great feeling of pride and unity on our defense," Read said. I look for the 1991 defense to make their mark in a very impressive way."

Last season Montana was ranked 7th in the nation in total offense (441.8 ypg), 3rd in passing (316.5 ypg) and 7th in scoring (33.8 ppg).

Senior kicker Kirk Duce, Montana's all-time scorer and placekicker is also back. He has scored a school-record 224 points and kicked a record 39 field goals, and is a honors candidate.

"To be successful you need the proper chemistry, and that's one thing I think (junior quarterback) Brad Lebo will give us," said Read. "He has a ton of talent, and is popular and highly respected by his teammates and coaches." Lebo is backed up by redshirt freshman Bert Wilberger, a former state MVP from Ashland, Oregon.

"We made some strides on offense in the spring, although the progress was slower," Read said. "We moved some players around, and phased a new offensive coordinator (Mick Dennehy) into our system."

Montana potentially has an outstanding offensive line, returning All-American candidate Chad Germer at center, honors candidates Steve Premock at tackle, and Damon Gilbreth at guard. Senior All-American guard Rick Erps had to forgo his final season because of a chronic neck injury, and is a graduate assistant coach at UM this year. Germer, Premock and Erps were All-Big Sky picks last season.

Sophomore Frank Garrett will start at left guard, while versatile senior letterman Scott McCoy has been moved to right tackle. Redshirt freshmen Scott Gragg and Dan Ort, letterman Joe Martin, and a couple of JC transfers will also vie for playing time on the O-line.

The Grizzlies return their top two running backs in juniors Marc Monestime and Tony Rice, who combined for 818 yards and 7 TDs. Junior Mark DeBourg came on strong last season, but was held out of contact drills in the spring because of an injury.

Trevathan and Matt Clark are now playing together in the Canadian Football League for the British Columbia Lions (along with Bennett). Clark is the Grizzlies' No. 3 ranked career receiver with 1,639 yards.

"The receiver core was weakened by graduation, but Shannon Cabunoc (49-573-5 TDs) and Bill Cockhill (23-389-6 TDs) will provide quickness and are big-play players," Read said.

Seniors Tony Roberts and Marvin Turk will see considerable action at receiver, as will JC redshirt Mike Guevara, and redshirt frosh Scott Gurnsey. There are three top-notch JC transfers at receiver, as well as three talented freshmen.

After their three-game, non-league schedule, the Grizzlies begin their Big Sky season Sept. 28 hosting Idaho State.

"Our schedule is really tough from the standpoint of who we play on the road. Louisiana Tech is traditionally a tremendous program, coming off a great season (8-3-1, tying Maryland 34-all in the Independence Bowl). McNeese gave us a tougher game in Missoula than the score (45-22, UM) indicates. Idaho wound up playing very well at the end of the season, as did Nevada—and they both have their starting quarterback returning.

Quarterback Brad Lebo.

"Boise State also was in the playoffs, (as was Idaho and Nevada), and they have a lot of talent. Idaho State has a week off to prepare for us. And I think Montana State, Weber State, Northern Arizona and Eastern Washington will all be much-improved. That's the type of league it looks like in 1991!"

All-American Candidates

SEAN DORRIS, 2V 6-3, 201, SAFETY, JUNIOR from COUER D'ALENE, IDAHO

An extremely versatile player, Sean has played both safety positions, along with cornerback since he was called into action as a "true" freshman three seasons ago.

He is Montana's leading returning tackler this season. Last year he was second on the team (behind linebacker Mike McGowan) in tackles with 83. He had a team-leading (tie) three interceptions.

He started in all 11 games last year, and had a career-high 12 tackles in games against Eastern Washington, Boise State, Weber State and Montana State.

Dorris was recognized for his play last season, as he was named Montana's "Outstanding Sophomore."

"Sean is truly an outstanding all-around football player, equally good against the run and pass," said Montana head coach Don Read. "He has tremendous instincts, and a nose for the football. He is a very intelligent, highly competitive player.

"He loves to win, and is extremely committed to getting better," Read continued. "He's the first guy on the field, and the last guy off. That's the kind of attitude he has. He inherited the nickname Tim Hauck had—"hitter," which is really well-earned, and shows how his teammates feel about him."

A three-time all-conference defensive back at Couer d'Alene High School, Sean was all-state as a junior and senior, and conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1988. He also lettered in basketball and track.

His prep grid coach was Larry Schwenke, father of UM's all-conference volleyball player, Ann.

An Elementary Education major, he was an All-Big Sky academic team selection, maintaining a 3.04 GPA.

CHAD GERMER, 3V 6-6 1/2, 282, O-LINE, SENIOR from THREE FORKS, MONTANA

One of the main reasons for Montana's offensive success the past two seasons has been Germer, who has the ability to play any position on the line, and is a deep snapper as well.

In 1990 the Grizzlies were third in the nation in passing, averaging 316.5 yards a game, and seventh in overall offense, averaging 441.8 yards a game. UM was also among (seventh) the national leaders in scoring, averaging 33.8 points a game. In 1989 Montana was 15th in Division I-AA in offense, averaging 412.1 yards a game.

He was a second team All-Big Sky Conference selection last season, and was an honorable mention pick as a sophomore. A durable player, he has started in 25 straight games, dating back to the regular-season opener in 1989. He was named Montana's Outstanding Sophomore of the Year in 1989, sharing the award with defensive end Kirk Murphy.

"Chad is a very physical player, who is extremely intelligent," Read said. "His experience should make him a dominant player in the Big Sky Conference. His greatest asset is his ability to run. I definitely feel he is a pro prospect. He not only has experience, but he is also our leader on the offense.

"He is very coachable and improves all the time because of his outstanding work habits," Read continued. "He is one of the best centers I have had a chance to coach."

"The thing about Chad is that he is probably too tall to be a center, but he's our leader and we'd lose too much if we moved him outside," said Mick Dennehy, UM's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. "He's really approaching his senior season with a great attitude. He feels he could have had a better year last season, and he's looking to his senior year to go out in style.

"He has the kind of feet that will interest a lot of people at the next level," Dennehy said. "He still has a tremendous amount of potential. He has a great mentality for the game, and down the road, I wouldn't be surprised to see him become a very good football coach. Technique-wise he is as good as we have. He is a very well-rounded player."

An outstanding athlete at Three Forks High School, he was all-state in football and basketball, and also lettered twice in track. His high school football coach was Dan Rask.

He is a Business major.

SHANNON CABUNOC, 3V 5-5, 155, WR/KOR Senior from Waipahu, Hawaii

One of the top all-purpose yardage leaders in the I-AA ranks last season, Shannon has 2,120 career yards entering his senior season. He has been a Big Sky Conference honorable mention pick the past two seasons as a kickoff returner.

Shannon was fifth in the Big Sky in kickoff returns last season, averaging 21.5 yards per return. He was also among the Big Sky leaders in receiving with 49 catches for 4.4 a game, ranking him 10th.

"Shannon is an extremely quick, agile player with exceptional hands," said head coach Don Read. "Pound-for-pound he's probably the toughest guy on our team. He doesn't make mistakes and has great acceleration off the line of scrimmage.

"He's a guy who has played a lot of football for us since his freshman year, and has the ability to go deep or short, with good results," Read said. "He is a clutch player who has made a lot of big plays for us, and we expect him to make more of those plays his senior year."

His 778 receiving yards rank him 17th career-wise at UM. His 573 yards last year rank him 10th in single-season receiving yards. He had school records of 33 kickoff returns for 709 yards in 1990.

He had a career-high 99 yards receiving in the win over Montana State last season, while his career best for receptions was nine the following week in a road loss at Nevada. Against UNR he had a career-high 254 all-purpose yards.

He was a star athlete at St. Louis High in Honolulu, and was named that cities' Athlete of the Year in 1987. He was twice all-state in football and baseball. His prep football coach was Calvin Lee, brother of former Grizzly offensive coordinator Tommy Lee, now with San Antonio in the World League.

Business major.

KIRK DUCE, 3V 5-10, 175, Kicker Senior from Missoula, Montana

Montana's all-time scorer with 224 points, Kirk also holds the school record for field goals with 39, and the single-season mark for field goals with 18 in 1988. His freshman season he scored 84 points, tying Greg Iseman's (1982) record. In 1989 he scored 73 points—fourth on the single-season list, and his 67 points last season ties him for sixth in single-season points.

He was one of the top kick-scorers in the nation as a freshman and sophomore. In 1988 he was eighth in the nation in field goals with 1.63 a game, and 24th in scoring with 7.6 points a game. In '89 he was also ranked in the top 25 in both categories.

He started his college career in a big way, tying a school record with four field goals in a 35-6 home win over Eastern New Mexico, Sept. 3, 1988. Five games later he just missed a school record, kicking a career-long 51-yard field goal at Nevada.

"Kirk has steadily got better, improving not only his field goals and PATs, but also the length and placement of his kickoffs," Read said. "He works extremely hard in the off-season. He has lots of confidence, and reacts good in pressure situations, and likes to be in pressure situations.

"He is a very good athlete, and can react in a situation because of that ability," Read said. "He can run, pass and punt for us, and has proved he's a good tackler when he's had to be."

He was a perfect 41 of 41 in PATs last year, and has made 46 in-a-row. His last miss was at Montana State, in a game played in gusting winds. In the 1989 I-AA playoffs he was a perfect six-of-six in field goals, and had four field goals in a 25-19 victory over Eastern Illinois.

He was a standout at Hellgate High School, where he was an all-state punter and kicker, and also played quarterback for coach Van Troxel. He was a starting guard on Hellgate's top-ranked basketball team. As a senior he had an 82-yard punt.

DAMON GILBRETH, 2V 6-5, 288, Guard Senior from Kirkland, Washington

A sometimes overlooked facet of Montana's talented offensive line, Damon started all 11 games at left tackle last season, and has since been moved to left guard, where he will once again get a starting nod. He was named UM's Outstanding Junior last year.

The Grizzlies were among the national leaders in passing and total offense last season, thanks in large part to Gilbreth. In 1990 Montana was third in the nation in passing (316.5 yards a game), and seventh in total offense (441.8 yards a game).

He is a two-year letterman at UM, and was a key player in 1989 when UM advanced to the semi-finals of the national playoffs. That season UM was ranked 15th in the country in total offense, averaging 412.1 yards a game.

"Damon is as tough of a football player as we have on our team," Read said. "He is an outstanding drive blocker, and has improved his pass-blocking ability to the point where he is one of the best we have.

"He has excellent speed, is very durable and hard-working, and has a positive attitude and just loves to win," Read said. "He is a veteran on the offensive line, and we moved him from tackle to guard which will utilize his abilities to a greater extent. He played guard in the junior college ranks, and his ability to pull will help us on traps, screens and our passing game. He is a very good blocker in the open field.

"He was one of our dominant players in 1990, and we expect him to be the same type of player for us this year," Read said. "He constantly grades out high, and played almost every snap for us last year."

As a freshman at Wenatchee Junior College he was an all-conference player for coach Sandy Coopridger.

He prepped at Lake Washington High School, where he lettered twice in football, wrestling and track. He was All-Divisional and all-conference as a senior in football.

He is a business major.

NELS KLUDT, 3V 6-5, 262, D-TACKLE Senior from Orofino, Idaho

Nels has started in 24 straight games, and played in 32 regular-season games since his freshman year, as well as the four playoff games the Grizzlies played in 1988 and 1989.

He started his junior year in a big way with three tackles and three pass deflections in a road win at Oregon State. He has started at tackle the last two seasons, but is also quick enough to play end.

The third leading tackler returning from a defensive line that has led the league in rush defense the last two years in-a-row, he had 27 tackles and three sacks last season. Last year the Grizzlies were fourth in the nation against the rush, allowing 86.1 yards a game.

"Nels plays the run about as well as anyone I've been around," Read said. "He is very strong, and instinctively reads blocking schemes very well. He has the ability to get off blocks very well, and fills lanes just like he's coached.

"He's very highly thought of by our players and coaches," Read said. "He's a two-year starter among probably the strongest element on our team — the defensive line. He's very durable, intense, and plays with emotion. He has demonstrated the ability to be a big-play guy at critical times.

"He is also a very good student, an all-conference academic guy, which also speaks highly of him and as student and a football player," Read said.

The last two seasons Nels has been an All-District 7 Academic pick, maintaining a 3.60 GPA in Business. He has been an All-Big Sky all-academic selection the past three seasons. He was UM's Scholar-Athlete award co-winner in 1989, along with Mike McGowan.

His freshman year, in 1987, he was named UM's MVP on the defensive scout team.

At Orofino High School he was first team all-state in football, and all-conference in basketball and track. His prep grid coach was Jim Johnston.

KIRK MURPHY, 3V 6-3, 255, D-END Senior from Polson, Montana

Another veteran on the depth-filled defensive line, Kirk will be starting for the third straight season in 1991. He is the fifth (tie) leading returning tackler from a year ago with 31 stops. He also had three tackles for losses and two forced fumbles in '90.

He had an outstanding sophomore season, with 31 tackles, three sacks, two forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries, a blocked kick, and returned an interception 18 yards for a touchdown.

"Murph has been a two-year starter for us and played a lot as a freshman, and improves game-by-game" Read said. "He has excellent quickness for his size, and has cut his weight down from last year, which will make him even faster.

"He works hard on his pass rush technique, and should be one of the better pass rushers in the Big Sky Conference this season," Read said. "He probably plays the most minutes of any player on our team, since he is on most of our special teams, and he has proven to be durable. He is one of our senior leaders."

Kirk had a career-high seven tackles in a game against Eastern Washington last season. He was named Montana's Sophomore of the Year in 1989, sharing the award with All-American candidate Chad Germer.

He played at Polson High as a senior and Ronan High School as a sophomore and junior. He was an all-state as a junior and senior, and all-conference in football, basketball and track. He was all-state at tight end and defensive end for coach Jerry McCullough as a senior.

STEVE PREMOK, 1V 6-4, 296, O-TACKLE Senior from Roseville, California

A second team All-Big Sky Conference selection last season, "Premo" was another key element to the Grizzlies' nationally ranked offense and passing game. He started all 11 games last year at Montana.

The Grizzlies were third in the nation in passing, averaging 316.5 yards a game, and seventh in overall offense with 441.8 yards a game in 1990.

"Steve has tremendous feet for a big guy, and has the ability to maintain a block for a long time," Read said. "He is a powerful blocker. With his experience he has gained more confidence, and is a very team-oriented individual.

"He also has excellent work habits and has pro potential, probably as a guard," Read said. "His 5.0 speed in the 40 makes him one of the fastest offensive linemen in the conference. He blocks equally well against the pass and run, and could play either tackle position, or either guard position — he's that versatile."

He came to Montana from Sierra Junior College, where he was an all-conference player for coach Rex Chappell in 1988. He redshirted at Montana in 1989.

At Roosevelt High School he was an all-conference football player as a junior and senior.

His major is Business.

Grizzly Weight Room

Montana's new weight room was completed in the winter of 1991 at a cost of an estimated $220,000, with all of the funding provided by private donors. It covers approximately 4,000 square feet.

The Grizzly power weight room is divided into three separate areas of apparatus:

AREA 1: This phase of the weight room emphasizes free weight training. It has nine benches for bench press, and incline and decline bench pressing. It also has five squat and power racks, three lifting platforms, three squat and leap machines, a calf machine, four-way neck machines, and assorted benches.

GRIZ "POWER" ROOM

The University of Montana Department of Intercollegiate Athletics gratefully acknowledges the many Touchdown Club members who, through their generous contributions, made the weight room possible. Special recognition goes to Bruce Danielson whose tireless efforts and contagious enthusiasm helped make Touchdown Club a reality.

The Grizzlies would also like to thank the following individuals and businesses for their contributions of goods and services which were instrumental in the construction of this facility.

AREA 2: Combines all the dumbbells and racks with pairs starting at 15 pounds to 100 pounds, and another set which ranges from 15 pounds to 120 pounds. It also has assorted benches, prone and decline for dumbbell exercising. It includes three overhead cable lat pulls, and a custom cross-over cable apparatus. Two dip bars, a T-bar, bent over incline and row machines are also located here.

AREA 3: Eight Nautilus and eight universal machines are located here. There are also hip sleds, leg press machines, sit-up boards and ladder combinations.

Bruce Wallwork is the Grizzly strength coach.

Big Sky Conference

The Big Sky Athletic Conference is currently in its 29th season of operation with championships being conducted in 12 sports including men's and women's cross country, basketball, indoor track and field, tennis, outdoor track and field, women's volleyball and men's football. The Big Sky Conference has nine member institutions and is affiliated with NCAA Division I in all sports. In football the league competes in Division 1-AA.

The 1988-89 athletic season in the Big Sky Conference was the first in which the league sponsored championship competition in women's sports. On July 1, 1988, the Mountain West Athletic Conference, located in Cheney, Washington, merged with the Big Sky, moving and combining office staffs in Boise, Idaho. The Mountain West Conference had been in existence since 1982.

The Big Sky Conference consists of Boise State University, Boise, Idaho; Eastern Washington University, Cheney, Washington; University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; Idaho State University, Pocatello, Idaho; University of Montana, Missoula, Montana; Montana State University, Bozeman, Montana; University of Nevada, Reno, Nevada; Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff, Arizona; and Weber State College, Ogden, Utah. Formed in 1963, the Big Sky Conference consisted of charter members Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga (Spokane, Washington), Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Boise State and Northern Arizona joined the league July 1, 1970, in the Big Sky's first expansion. Nevada-Reno was admitted to the league July 1, 1979, replacing former charter member Gonzaga. On July 1, 1987, Eastern Washington became the Big Sky's ninth member. When all nine members of the Mountain West Conference and Big Sky Conference were parallel the way was paved to merge the two leagues.

The Big Sky Conference has member institutions in six states and covers more than 220,000 square miles (or almost 1/12th the total square miles in the continental United States). The six states included in the Big Sky Conference (Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Utah and Washington) span from the Canadian to Mexican borders. The Big Sky Conference is one of two major conferences located in the Rocky Mountain region.

The name BIG SKY originated in a novel authored in 1947, by A. B. (Bud) Guthrie, of Great Falls, Montana, entitled THE BIG SKY. Jack Hollowell, former Montana Advertising Director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. Harry Missildine, of the Spokane SPOKESMAN-REVIEW, called for the Conference to be named "The Big Sky Conference" in his column of February 20, 1963. On February 25, 1963, the Conference name was adopted by the presidents of the newly formed league during a meeting in Spokane, Washington.

Ron Stephenson is the current Conference Commissioner, taking over the post July 1, 1981, from Steve Belko, who had served since 1977. John Roning was the league's second Commissioner, serving from 1971 until 1977. Jack Friel was the Big Sky's first Commissioner, serving from 1963 to 1971.

Dr. Sharon Holmberg currently serves as Co-Commissioner of the Big Sky Conference after guiding the Mountain West Athletic Conference from its beginning in 1982 until its merger with the Big Sky in 1988.

Arnie Sgalio serves as the Big Sky's Assistant Commissioner of Information Services, and is beginning his 13th year.

Art Mendini is in his third year with the Big Sky as the league's first full-time Supervisor of Officials while Kay Johnson is in her fourth year as the Conference Administrative Assistant.

Grizzly Awards

Each year seven outstanding University of Montana football players are recipients of awards. The Terry Dillon Award, honoring the outstanding back or receiver, was established in 1964 following the accidental death of former Grizzly Terry Dillon. Dillon played defensive and offensive halfback for UM from 1960 to 1962. He started at defensive halfback for the National Football League Minnesota Vikings.

The Paul Weskamp Award was established in memory of Paul Weskamp, a tackle on Ed Chinske's 1954 Grizzlies. The award honors UM's outstanding lineman and was established by the citizens of Ronan, Mont.

The Golden Helmet Award honors the hardest hitter on the team. It was set up on a nationwide basis by the Coca-Cola Company in 1967.

The Larry Miller Award is given in memory of the great Grizzly lineman and wrestler who competed for UM in 1969 and 1970. Miller died in an automobile accident in 1974. The award honors the teams' outstanding defensive lineman.

The Steve Carlson award is given to the teams' most valuable player in memory of the former Grizzly football player who died in 1977.

Pat Norwood was a four-year starter at offensive tackle for the Grizzlies 1978-82 from Billings, who died of cancer in 1983. This award is given to the Most Inspirational Player, who often times had to overcome an injury.

The Tony Barbour award is given in memory of a Loyal Grizzly Fan. It is presented annually to a UM player, "who best exemplifies outstanding practice habits and makes an unselfish contribution to the betterment of the Grizzly Football Team. Enthusiasm, dedication and commitment are the key factors sought in the person receiving this award."

The Outstanding Linebacker award was inaugurated in 1990, and is given by an anonymous donor.

GAME NOTES: Senior quarterback Grady Bennett threw two first-half touchdown passes, and rushed for a TD, as the Grizzlies took a 22-0 lead, and went on to win for the first time in 15 meetings with the Beavers. It was the Grizzlies' first win over a Pac-10/Pac-8 foe since Montana defeated Washington State, 13-12, in 1947. Bennett also had a crucial 66-yard quick kick, downed at the OSU one-inch line. He was named the I-AA Offensive National Player of the Week. Shannon Cabunoc had career-highs of 6 catches for 95 yards and a TD, while seniors Mike Trevathan and Craig Whitney each had 4 grabs. The Grizzly defense held OSU to 276 total yards. Montana had 7 quarterback sacks, including two each by OLB Mike McGowan and tackle Joe Kalafat. Defensive end Gregg Smerker had UM's only interception.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies scored on all seven of their first-half possessions to take a commanding 45-0 lead over the out-manned Rebels. The Grizzlies narrowly missed a school record, holding the Rebels to -41 rushing yards, and 35 total yards. Montana quarterbacks Bennett and sophomore Brad Lebo completed a school record 83.3% of their passes, and Bennett set a single-game percentage mark, and was taken out of the game mid-way through the second quarter. He completed 12 of 13 passes for 92.3%. Eight different players scored, and halfback Rick Gillie rushed for a career-high 83 yards and 2 TDs. Montana went into the game with a week off, having had a bye after the season-opening win at Oregon State.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies entered the game with their highest ranking ever—No. 3. UM's 24 second-quarter points proved to be too much to overcome. Trevathan had career-highs of 9 catches for 144 yards and 3 TDs. Thirteen different receivers caught passes for UM. Bennett passed for a career-high 4 TDs, all of them coming in the first half. Montana racked up 597 total yards. In the game Bennett broke Montana's career TD passing record with 39, breaking Marty Mornhinweg's mark of 38, set from 1980-84. Senior receiver Jeff Delhomme accounted for more than one-third of his teams' offense with 125 receiving yards, and also had 183 return yards.

 EWU-Owens: 12-177/3 TDs; Brooks: 6-97/1 TD.

GAME NOTES: The Eagles scored three touchdowns in the final quarter to spoil the Grizzlies' Homecoming, as a record crowd watched. All three of the Eagles' TDs were Scott Stuart to Tom Owens combinations, the game-winner coming with 18 seconds remaining. On its final scoring drive EWU got the ball with 51 seconds to go in the game, and had to go 80 yards to score. Montana entered its Big Sky Conference opener ranked (a school record) second in the nation, and was 3-0. Brooks had 12 catches for 177 yards and the 3 TDs. The teams combined for 1,054 total yards. Grizzly cornerback Don Graves had 10 tackles and forced two fumbles. Eagle linebacker Brendan Rogers had 18 tackles and 3 sacks.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies buried themselves in a first half in which they had six turnovers (3 interceptions and 3 fumbles), and that added up to a 34-3 Bronco lead at intermission. Montana seemed to still be recovering from the previous week's last-second loss to Eastern Washington, and with the loss to BSU, fell to 0-2 in conference play. Montana entered the game ranked 8th in I-AA, and would drop out of the rankings after this loss. The Griz were held to 187 total yards and had -9 rushing, while BSU had 406 total yards. Bennett threw all of UM's 3 interceptions, while he and (QB Brad) Lebo were sacked 6 times. Safety Sean Dorris was Montana's bright spot, with a game-high 12 tackles, 9 of which were unassisted, and he also had an interception.

INDIVIDUAL LEADERS

Rushing

UM-Monestime: 18-80-0.
 WSU-Jackson: 21-61/2 TDs.

Passing

UM-Bennett: 32 x 52-2 = 435/4 TDs.
 WSU-Martin: 30 x 45-1 = 504/3 TDs.

Receiving

UM-Trevathan: 10-107-0; Whitney: 8-113/1 TD; Cockhill: 4-100/1 TD.
 WSU-Justice: 12-133/1 TD; Shaw: 6-122/1 TD; Hall: 6-142/1 TD; Maxwell: 4-98-0.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies overcame an early, 21-0 deficit to hold off QB Jamie Martin and the Wildcats' passing attack. Montana did not take the lead until the fourth quarter, and it took a blocked field goal by Wade Thoemmes to preserve the Grizzly win. Bennett became Montana's all-time passing yardage leader in the game, and threw for a career-high 435 yards, and tied a career-high with 4 TD passes. He also had his team's only rushing TD. Martin passed for a career-high 504 yards for the 18th ranked Wildcats. UM had three players with 100 receiving yards or more, as did WSU. Cat linebacker Troy Juergens had a game-high 19 tackles and a sack. The teams combined for 1,067 total yards.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies capitalized on 7 Lumberjack turnovers and cruised to 38-7 lead going into the fourth quarter. UM scored on three of its first five possessions, with two of the scores set up by NAU fumbles. Montana entered the game ranked 17th. Kicker Kirk Duce became Montana's all-time scorer (205 points), breaking Bruce Carlson's mark of 196 points, set from 1974-77. Duce also broke the school field goal record with 36, breaking Carlson's standard of 35. UM held NAU to 304 total yards, and had no interceptions, compared to the Jacks' five. Bennett completed 74% (26 x 35) of his passes, while 10 different UM players had receptions. Trevathan had 9 grabs for 106 yards—his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season so far. The win improved Montana's record to 5-2 overall, and evened its Big Sky mark to 2-2.

GAME NOTES: Montana set a Washington-Grizzly Stadium attendance record for the second time in 1990, and the Grizzlies registered their fifth straight win over the intrastate rival Bobcats. There were 15,345 fans to watch the 90th Griz-Cat meeting, breaking the old mark of 15,147 set at the E. Washington game played a month earlier. Montana scored on its first two possessions to take a 15-0 lead, however, MSU tied the game 18-all in the second quarter. Two Bennett to Clark passes covered 40 yards, to set up a 40-yard field goal by Duce at half, giving UM the lead for good. The Griz held the Cats scoreless in the final half, outscoring them 14-0, winning their third straight game. Bennett had a great all-around game, setting a school record with 476 total yards (passing for 398), breaking Brent Pease's mark of 469 yards against Weber State in 1986. Cabunoc, Trevathan and Clark had 99, 98 and 96 yards receiving. Senior CB Kevin Morris put the game out of reach with a 44-yard

GAME NOTES: A record crowd (19,530) saw Nevada jump to a 17-0 lead, and lead 34-10 late in the third period. Montana battled back as UNR completed 2 of 10 passes for 38 yards in the second half, and had just 104 total yards. In the closing minutes Montana advanced the ball to the Nevada 40-yard line, but the drive stalled there. On one pass in that final series, Bennett just missed connecting with Cabunoc in the end zone, as defensive back Forey Duckett tipped the ball at the last second. Cabunoc had 254 all-purpose yards, with 166 on returns and 86 receiving. Pack receiver Ross Ortega had 9 catches for 125 yards and a score, while Treاملة Taylor added 187 all-purpose yards and workhorse Ray Whalen had 2 TDs and 91 yards on 23 carries.

His 14 receptions gave him 68 for his career, tying Brian Salonen for the UM career record. A big momentum change in the game came with 58 seconds to go in the half. With the Grizzlies on the Vandal 15, a Bennett pass was picked off by end Jeff Robinson, who ran to the UM 30 and pitched to fellow lineman Billy Sims, who scored. UI then scored two unanswered TDs, taking a 28-7 lead into the 4th quarter. Idaho halfback Devon Pearce rushed for 112 yards and a TD, while UM had 15 net rushing yards. The Vandals had 8 sacks, 3 by Robinson.

GAME NOTES: The Grizzlies out-gained their nemesis 455 to 289 total yards, and had 440 yards passing, but Bennett threw 3 interceptions and UM lost two fumbles, while the Vandals had no turnovers. Montana entered the game 19th, and would fall out of the NCAA Division 1-AA top 20 for the second time in 1990. Trevathan became Montana's all-time career receiving yardage leader. He set single-game school records with 14 catches for 248 yards—also the best totals in Division 1-AA.

GAME NOTES: Once again Montana bounced back from a deficit, outscoring ISU 21-0, after the Bengals had taken an early 10-0 lead. Sophomore Tony Rice rushed for a career-high 112 yards on 19 carries, and scored twice. Bennett passed for 3 TDs, two of which went to freshman Bill Cockhill. The Grizzlies ended their season on a winning note, going 7-4, which gave Don Read his fifth winning season in-a-row, in as many seasons as the head coach at UM. Seventeen seniors were playing in their last game, as Montana received no at-large 1-AA playoff berth, and received no votes for the NCAA's top 20. Graduated among those seniors were Bennett and Trevathan, Montana's all-time passer and receiver, as well as Matt Clark, UM's No. 3 career receiver. The 1990 Montana Grizzlies broke or tied 23 individual and team records, and established 9 new individual career marks by Bennett, Trevathan and Duce.

The Grizzly defense has been among the national leaders in rush defense the past two seasons. Last year UM was fourth, allowing 86.1 yards a game. In 1989 the Grizzlies led the nation, giving up 70.2 rushing yards a game.

Voice of the Grizzlies

“Grizzly” Bill Schwanke returns as the voice of the Grizzlies for his 19th year as the play-by-play announcer for University of Montana sports. It will be KYLT Radio’s 21st year of broadcasting Grizzly athletics and serving as UM’s official station. He was recently named the interim Director of Corporate Marketing and Media Relations. Some of his responsibilities include securing corporate sponsors, TV and radio marketing, and tournament director of the Holiday Classic basketball tournament. He had been the assistant director of the Grizzly Athletic Association the past three years. He is a former sports editor of The Missoulian newspaper and a former sports information director at UM. He is a 1967 graduate of UM. He has been the Montana Sportscaster of the Year six times. Formerly Grizzly assistant football coach Joe Yeager is in his fifth season as color commentator for Montana football. He coached at UM from 1982-84.

Grizzly Football Network

The 1991 Grizzly Football Network features 14 cities, including the originating station, KYLT-AM Radio of Missoula. The network: Billings—KBLG-AM; Butte—KXTL-AM; Glasgow—KLTZ-AM; Glendive—KXGN-AM; Great Falls—KMON-AM; Hamilton—KBMG-FM; Havre—KJOB-AM; Helena—KBLL-FM; Kalispell—KOFI-AM; Libby—KLCB-AM; Livingston—KPRK-AM; Miles City—KMTA-AM; Shelby—KSEN-FM.

Dave Guffey

Sports Information Director

Dave is in his 14th season as sports information director. His responsibilities include publications, press releases and promotions, game and cumulative statistics and research. He has won 17 district and national awards for his football and basketball media guides and programs. His 1989 UM football yearbook cover was selected the best in the nation. He served as media coordinator for the Montana Special Olympics in 1979 and 1980, and the United States Association for Blind Athletes 7th Annual National Championships in 1983. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). He is a 1975 graduate of Fresno State and received a B.A. in Journalism. Dave and his wife, Mea Andrews, have a nine-year-old son, Patrick, and a six-year-old son, Matthew.

◀ Rafting is one of many exciting and fun outdoor activities available to everyone in Missoula. The Clark Fork River runs right through town, and next to the UM campus, while the Blackfoot River is just minutes away. There are numerous areas to fish and hunt located just a few miles away.

Two excellent ski areas, Marshall and Snow Bowl, are both minutes away from town. Missoula Snow Bowl provides terrain to challenge the most intrepid skier, while Marshall Ski Area offers night skiing in addition to its regular day activities. ▶

▲ Missoula, a friendly community of 68,000, is located near four wilderness areas. It is three hours away to spectacular Glacier National Park. Above is a peak located in Glacier. Despite its location in the Rocky Mountains, Missoula has mild winters and moderate summer temperatures.
