Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage. You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a Remington® Lektro Blade shaver. And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new Lektro Blade shaver has very sharp disposable blades. Just like a razor. So it gives very close shaves. Just like a razor.

What's more, you can dial a Lektro Blade shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades. But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives.*

WINTER SPORTS TAKE OVER UM SPOTLIGHT . . .

When the snowflakes sprinkles the ground, Montana sports fans know it is time to move indoors for basketball, swimming and wrestling. For those who stay outdoors, the ski jackets and thermal outfits come out of mothballs and the bottom dresser drawer.

The University of Montana winter teams will have lots to live up to after the fall effort. For the Grizzlies, nothing could be finer than a clean sweep of sports this autumn. The Big Sky football champions and cross country winners set the pace for Montana to win the coveted Big Sky All Sports Trophy won by Weber State in 1968.

A brief look at possibilities for the snow-bound Grizzly show Montana stronger on the hard-court with increased board strength this season; swimming looks like five in a row for Fred Stetson’s crew, and wrestling and skiing show signs of vast improvements with veterans returning along with impressive newcomers.

Montana’s chances at winning the All Sports Trophy depends on your support in ALL winter sports.

1969 MONTANA BASKETBALL TEAM
Today's Game...

Today's game between the University of Montana marks the end of the 1969 football season which was truly "The Year of the Grizzly." Montana is the undisputed Big Sky football champion and a spirited, tough and close-knit team. Montana also swept the Big Sky cross country championship at Moscow last week. Congratulations men on a job well done.

Today also marks the end of a college football career for these outstanding seniors—They are indeed "CHAMPIONS."

how to measure a store?

The Mercantile . . . Montana's largest store in size, variety, value and number of customers! But . . . we're a small store at heart and enjoy our personal contacts with our customers and personal knowledge of their desires!

We like to feel we are measured not by square feet of floor space . . . not by the number of floors or the brick, stone and steel of our buildings . . . BUT, by the depth of our courtesy, the breadth of our hospitality, the circumference of our service and the dimension of guaranteed values we offer! Just a few of the measurements that make The Mercantile great!

RON NORD, END AND LINEBACKER COACH

Ron Nord joined the University of Montana football staff in March, 1968. He came to Montana in 1962 as head basketball coach.

Nord was born in Minneapolis, Minn., in 1926 and attended South High School there. He earned letters in baseball, basketball and football at the University of Wisconsin and graduated with a B.A. in physical education in 1950.

He served two years as backfield coach at Beaver Dam High School in Wisconsin before moving to Oshkosh, Wisc., where he coached seven years at the local high school. Nord then joined the University of Wisconsin basketball staff as assistant coach and served as a football scout and recruiter.

As UM basketball coach, Nord earned the Big Sky Coach of the Year Award in 1966. Since switching to football, Nord has done an excellent job coaching, scouting, and recruiting.

Nord is married and he and his wife Phyllis have five children. His oldest son Jeff is a Cub star and his son Mark is a football and basketball standout at Missoula's Sentinel High.
Today's opponent, the South Dakota State Jackrabbits from Brookings, are the second new team this year on the University of Montana schedule. The other new addition this season was Cal Poly which the Silvertips hosted last weekend. It is hard to believe that two football schools such as Montana and South Dakota State, close neighbors that they are, have never met on the gridiron but only recently have the two been on a comparative level of competition. Montana has met North Dakota, North Dakota State and South Dakota (all members, like the Jackrabbits, of the tough Northcentral Conference) but somehow they've never taken on the Blue and Yellow.

For many years Montana, long a member of the Pacific Coast Conference and later of the Skyline Conference, went West and South for its schedule. In recent years they have expanded some toward the East and thus South Dakota State became a natural rival.

Today's game is the first of two scheduled meetings with SDS. Next year the Grizzlies likewise close the season with the Jackrabbits in a game at Brookings. The two teams are not contracted for further games but it is likely they will get together.

End of a Great Season

Today's encounter marks the final act in one of the finest football seasons in the history of University of Montana football. After rolling to a 7-3 record two years ago and slumping to 2-7 last season 1969 marked the complete resurgence of Grizzly football. This rebirth, combined with the recent success of the Montana State Bobcats, has brought about the highest interest ever in the collegiate grid sport in Montana.

Indication of Strength

The South Dakota State-Montana meeting will give those who love to argue the relative values of teams something more to talk about. Last week the Jackrabbits played North Dakota State, which has been ranked ahead of the Grizzlies all year in the national college polls. The outcome of today's game, when compared with the SDS-NDS result, will add fuel to the flames that should warm true followers of the sport all winter long.

Almost Smallest Opponent

South Dakota State is the second smallest team (in terms of enrollment) on the Grizzly schedule this year. The Brookings institution boasts of 6,100 students. The smallest enrollment on the UM slate this year was University of South Dakota which has only 4,800 enrolled. Portland State was the biggest school on the schedule. The Vikings have 11,000 students.

Common Opponents

The two teams have played three common opponents this year, for those fans who like to predict games on the dangerous basis of comparative scores. Against North Dakota the Grizzlies grabbed a 24-10 victory while SDS took a 19-13 decision. In the South Dakota meetings Montana won a 31-20 thriller and SDS triumphed 20-14. The best comparative showing for the Grizzlies was against Weber. The Silvertips beat Weber 20-17 while South Dakota State lost 28-13 to the Wildcats in their opening game.

Rebuilding Year?

This was supposedly a rebuilding year at South Dakota State. New head coach, Dave Kragthorpe lost a lot from a team which compiled a 4-6 mark last year, including the outstanding Little All-America back Darwin Gonnerman. Kragthorpe, for whom today is a personal Homecoming since he once was a Montana assistant coach, has molded his club quickly however and the Jackrabbits can hardly be placed in the "push-over" class. South Dakota State, which won Northcentral Conference titles from 1953 through 1955, 1957, and again from 1961 to 1963 is back among the elite of the league and this conference is one of the finest College Division loops in the country.

An often used word that fits South Dakota State is—tough. And its a fine way to end a highly successful season.

Today's Opponent...

After dropping the first four games of the season, South Dakota State University came on strong to upset the University of North Dakota and heavily favored South Dakota. One of the reasons for the four game losing streak at the beginning of the 1969 season was the inexperience of the Jackrabbits. Coach Kragthorpe, in his first year as head mentor, started with a nucleus of 20 returning lettermen and built a squad mainly composed of freshmen and sophomores.

The latest victim of the Jackrabbits was a feeble Augustana Viking squad which received a 42-0 lesson from Kragthorpe's boys. Kragthorpe praised his crafty signal caller, John Moller, for his fine effort in the Nov. 1 contest. Moller connected on his first TD pass of the season and threw two more to clear up any Viking doubts. He hooked up with slippery Tom Settle, wingback, most of the day.

With the hard-running of fullback Tim Elliot to complement the fast jelling aerial attack of the Jackrabbits, the Grizzly defensive unit will have to meet the challenge of a well-balanced South Dakota State ball club.

The Spearhead of Montana Spirit . . .

The 1969 University of Montana "Grizzly" Marching Band

Montana's Grizzly band has produced many fine halftime performances at home football games and on the road. Grizzly fans can be proud of this spirited group under the direction of Dr. Butler Eitel. Dr. Eitel and his accomplished musicians provide the musical spirit that lifts the Montana team when the going gets rough. "Hats off to a fine group of men and women."
A Note of Gratitude . . .

FOOTBALL fans seldom realize the number of people involved behind the scenes. The football players, coaching staff and I wish to thank all these hard working groups and individuals for making the 1969 season a success. If it weren't for the administration, faculty, staff, students, parents, wives, alumni and Century clubbers; Montana would not field a team that everyone would be proud of.

Thank you for your spirited support.
