HIDING IN PLAIN SIGHT: YOUTH MENTAL ILLNESS

Screening of the Ken Burns Documentary

Friday, April 14, 5-7 p.m.

at ALi Auditorium

Phyllis J. Washington College of Education

FREE

Join us for a screening of Hiding in Plain Sight: Youth Mental Illness, which features first-person accounts from more than 20 young people, ranging in age from 11-27, who live with mental conditions, as well as parents, teachers, friends, healthcare providers in their lives, and independent mental health experts.

From executive producer Ken Burns, "Hiding in Plain Sight: Youth Mental Illness" is a new documentary that tells the story of the mental health crisis among American youth.

The Curry Health Wellness Center will host a screening of the film at the Phyllis J. Washington College of Education. Watch the trailer here.
