EDITOR-PUBLISHER'S MATERIAL--Mrs. Charles J. Doherty, 238 S. 6th St. E., widow of the founder of the Missoula County Times, has donated correspondence and other material belonging to her late husband to the UM Library Archives. Dale L. Johnson, library archivist, said the material includes editorials, letters and financial records relative to Mr. Doherty's editorship of the Missoula County Times--published until several years ago in Missoula--and the Winnett Times, in Winnett, 40 miles east of Lewistown. The stack of material is eight feet high. Before establishing the Missoula County Times on Nov. 13, 1931, Mr. Doherty owned the Winnett Times, which he acquired in 1920 and sold in September 1931. He later shortened the name of his Missoula County weekly to The Times. He died in Missoula May 22, 1958, at age 65. In 1969 Mr. Doherty was installed into the Montana Newspaper Hall of Fame by the Montana Press Association and the UM School of Journalism . . . . .
