COURSE STRUCTURE AND OBJECTIVES

This course has several goals. Most broadly it is designed to introduce the student to the study of the humanities as an important component of a liberal arts education through a focus on selective classical and biblical texts that have shaped Western civilization. We will explore the formation and transformation of some western world views and themes, and reflect on how they have shaped and influenced society and culture today. The emphases of the course are engaging in close readings of the primary texts, discussing and writing about those texts.

“A classic is a book that has never finished saying what it has to say. A classic is something that tends to relegate the concerns of the moment to the status of background noise, but at the same time this background noise is something we cannot do without. (Conversely) A classic is something that persists as a background noise even when the most incompatible momentary concerns are in control of the situation.”

• Italo Calvino

“Classics are certain texts, events, images, rituals, symbols and persons (in which we acknowledge) a disclosure of a reality we cannot but name truth... some disclosures of reality in a moment of ‘recognition’ which surprises, provokes, challenges, shocks, and eventually transforms us; an experience that upsets conventional opinions and expands the sense of the possible; indeed a realized experience of that which is essential, that which endures – the presence of classics in every culture is undeniable. Their memory haunts us. Their actual effects in our lives endure and await ever new appropriations, constantly new interpretations.”

• David Tracy

GRADING POLICY

1. Five Weekly Response Papers to the Readings: 20%
2. Five Plenary Response Papers: 20%
3. Paper #1: 15%
4. Paper #2: 25%
5. Final exam: 20%
Note Re Papers: Papers are due in class on or before the date listed in the syllabus. Unless you have made a prior agreement with me, I will take off one grade level (A becomes A-) for each class day an assignment is late. Papers with an undue number of errors of punctuation, spelling, or grammar will be returned ungraded for correction. Written work will be evaluated in terms of your depth of critical analysis, thoughtfulness of reflection, clarity of writing, and ability to address issues raised in the text and in class on the topic at hand. Grades given reflect the following criteria of judgment:

F: Failure to meet minimum requirements
D: Unsatisfactory, but some effort to meet minimum requirements
C: Satisfactory; meet minimum requirements of assignment but not much more
B: Good to Very Good: thoughtful reflection, good analysis, clear writing style
A: Excellent depth of critical analysis, thoughtfulness of reflection, and writing style; demonstrate creativity and mature analytical skills in going beyond the primary requirements of the assignment

Attendance: Regular attendance and participation in the class is expected. More than three (3) absences will result in losing any benefit of the doubt on your final grade. More than five (5) absences will result in one grade reduction. More than seven (7) absences will result in a failing course grade. Late arrivals in class will count as an absence. (Note: If you have a valid reason for missing several classes, such as illness or other conflicting commitments, you still must speak with the instructor).

Academic Dishonesty and Plagiarism: All work submitted is expected to be the student's own. Any acts of plagiarism or academic dishonesty will result in automatic failure of the course, and may result in further academic punishment. If you have any doubts about definitions of plagiarism or academic dishonesty, please review the relevant sections of the University Catalog (p. 22).

DESCRIPTION OF WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

Weekly Response Papers: Once a week (beginning the week of September 9) write a critical response paper to either the plenary presentation that week, or one of the assigned readings from that week. Over the course of the semester you must write a minimum of five plenary response papers and five response papers to the readings, for a total of ten weekly response papers.

1. Five Weekly Response Papers to the Readings: choose one of the assigned readings that week for a short, typed two-three page critical response. After reading the text, write (1) three or four paragraphs that summarize and explain the main points of the reading, (2) two or three paragraphs giving your thoughtful response and discussion of the reading, noting any questions you have in light of your reading of the article. The papers will be graded on a scale of 0 to 10 points. The cumulative score of these responses is a significant element in determining your final grade; they indicate to me the consistency and quality of your participation in the course. Due no later than the following Tuesday in class.

2. Five Plenary Response Papers: Write a typed, two-three page critical response to five of the plenary lectures. Each response should include a summary of the main themes and significant supporting points, as well as your thoughtful response to the issues raised and how they relate to other themes of the course. These papers also will be graded on a scale of 0 to 10 points. Due no later than the following Tuesday in class.

3. Essay #1: A 5-6 page typed essay in which you consider a theme, key term, or other consideration(s) from the texts we read from the Hebrew Bible (Old Testament). Use the text to support a well-constructed argument for the theme that you decide to pursue. Note: The theme(s) you select for this essay will be the theme you pursue in later readings in the course and in your second essay, so be sure to choose one which is meaningful and important to you. We will discuss paper topics in class at least a week prior to the due date of Tuesday, Sept. 30 (in class).

4. Essay #2: This essay will be composite process. Your second paper (9-10 pages) will completely revise your first essay and seamlessly extend its thesis by developing a focal point from a second text from the Greek writers. You may choose the latter text from Homer’s The Odyssey (Option A: Due in class Tuesday, Oct. 21), or from one of the later Greek writers (Sappho, Sophocles, Euripides, or Plato) (Option B: Due in class Thursday, Nov. 13). You must turn in your original graded essay with this second essay or you will not receive a grade. Each text should receive equal attention, or 4-5 pages of development each. Take special care to ensure that the two portions of your essay are well integrated and consistent.

5. Final Exam: The final will cover material from the whole semester and will ask you to integrate your learning from across the semester. The last day of class I will hand out a list of several questions, of which some will appear on the final. You must write your exam during the Final Exam Period: Wednesday, December 17, 8:00-10:00 am.

Important University Policies, Dates and Deadlines

9/23: Last day to drop and add courses by Cyberbear. Last day to receive a full refund for classes dropped. Courses dropped after this date will bear a W on the transcript.

10/14: Last day to drop courses with instructor and advisor signatures and a drop/add form. A WP or WF will appear on your transcript for courses dropped after October 14.

12/6: Last day to withdraw from courses for Autumn 2002.

12/13: Last day for drop/grade option petitions for Autumn 2002.

P/NP Grade option: A minimum grade average of C- (70) is required for a P grade in the P/NP Grade option.

Incomplete Grade: Please see the criteria that must be met for an Incomplete on p. 21 of the University Catalog. No exceptions will be made for these criteria.
