Once there dwelt within the mountains

A philosopher named Haffinch.

Filled he was with many wise tales,

But there was no one to listen.

*S*o he climbed the highest mountain;
Calling to the hills around him,
Bidding all to come and hear him,
And to profit from his teachings.

As the multitudes did gather
On the hillside to hear Haffinch,
Pouring forth his tales of wisdom,
He became known the world over.

But the winds blew through the canyon,
And 'twas cold upon the mountain;
So Wise Haffinch did seek shelter
For the followers of his teachings.

Haffinch gazed down from the mountain,
And he saw a field of clover.
Then he said, "I'll build a castle
To which all may come to hear me."

Thus the castle was constructed,
And a registrar employed there
To collect the fees for Haffinch,
And to make a list of students.

Haffinch called his castle Main Hall,
And the multitudes enrolled there
To take Listening to Haffinch,
And his fame spread far and yonder.

ut it happened that as time passed,
He became so tired of talking,
He contracted laringitis
And was puzzled with the problem.

Then spake one of his bright students,
Who suggested to Wise Haffinch,
"Why not write down your wise teachings,
So that all who wished might read them?"

Many books were then compiled
And a library was constructed;
Where were housed Haffinch's writings,
And where students went to study.

After pouring o'er their studies,
Students needed relaxation.
Hence an edifice for union
Of the students was erected.

In one portion called the Coke Store
Many students then did gather;
Where they did much coffee drinking,
While they mulled o'er daily gossip.

Here the students also studied
And engaged in recreation,
While some week-ends found them dancing
In the Gold Room or the Fish Bowl.

W hen the spring thaws hit the campus,

Out-of-doors the students gathered,
Where they sat midst bright umbrellas
And absorbed their share of sunshine.

Some of them exchanged their coffee
For a cooler type of beverage,
And their visits were more frequent
Due to sieges of class cutting.

pring would also find the campus
Turning thoughts to things athletic.
Picnics, hikes, and frat spring parties
Offered them fresh-air diversion.

Neighbor to the Student Union
Was the campus bowl of clover,
Where the groups would often gather
To engage in intramurals.

N

oise parades and bonfire rallies

Were among the pep attractions

For the students with school spirit,

Who excelled in much loud cheering.

Mr. Haffinch gathered all his students
On the steps in front of Main Hall,
Where they entered in group singing—
Singing on the Steps he called it.

Through the week the students studied,
And some burned the midnight oil.
But the lights which burned on week-ends
Would announce their merry-making.

S

o that justice might be furthered
Haffinch built a tabernacle,
Where the lawyers studied canned briefs,
While their friends attended convos.

After years of preparation,
To the bar they were admitted.
This was based on the provision
They produced the proper I.D.

et another school was founded
For the subjects of Paul Bunyan,
And though Haffinch was the founder,
Patron saint was their own Bertha.

Ev'ry year a ball was given
By these lawyer-hating woodsmen.
With informal dress the keynote,
Cancan girls and beards were featured.

So the years passed quickly onward

While the school was ever growing.

More new buildings were constructed

To accommodate expansion.

Still the students sought their learning—

Old ones left, and new ones entered.

But they all remembered Haffinch

For his wise and wondrous teachings.

When the students graduated

They would think back on their school days,

And each year they would relive them

At their festival—Homecoming.

Country Girl

First production of the Masquers
Was Odets' stark, vivid drama
Of Frank Elgin, has-been actor,
Who through drink had reached his downfall.

Bernie Dodd, the brash director,
With Frank's wife, the loyal Georgie,
Struggle for the stage-star's comeback
And restore him to the footlights.

Frank Elgin .....	Ronald Lundquist
Georgie .....	Marjorie Lovberg
Bernie Dodd .....	James Webb
Phillip Cook, the producer .....	Carlton Johnson
Paul Unger, the author .....	Richard Howell
Larry, the stage manager .....	Alan Goddard
Nancy .....	Berta Huebl
The Dresser .....	Charles Parks

Bernie comes to Frank's apartment,
Offers him a chance for comeback;
But the actor remains helpless,
Fearing those who try to help him.

Frank again resorts to drinking.
Georgie then attempts to help him;
But he turns on her in anger,
Not realizing her influence.

The stage manager, the author,
And Phil Cook, the play's producer,
Find that Frank has been imbibing
During the play's dress rehearsal.

The Imaginary Invalid

Moliere's satire on physicians
Was the winter quarter presentation.
It concerns a doting father
Who surrounds himself with doctors.

Father Argan plans on matching
Angelique, his eldest daughter,
With Diaforus, a doctor;
But she loves another—Cleante.

Argan .....	Robert Hoyem
Toinette .....	Patricia Koob
Angelique .....	Karen Whittet
Cleante .....	Harold Hansen
Beline .....	Jeanene Schilling
Dr. Diaforus .....	Edward Focher
Thomas Diaforus .....	Gordon Travis Ronald Richards
Dr. Purgon .....	Ronald Lundquist
The Apothecary .....	Ronald Richards Bruce Cusker
Elmire .....	Sheila McDerney
Louison .....	Beverly Hunter

Argan's maid, Toinette, who's saucy,
Constantly torments her master.
It is she who plots against him
And resolves the situation.

Elmire, Argan's sister, tells him
To himself become a doctor
So that he can cure his ailments.
This he does and solves the problem.

Jupiter employs his powers—
Dresses as Alkmene's husband.
Mercury, to help him win her,
Acts as liaison and runner

Most delightfully Alkmene
Mixes up the situation.
Jupiter must laud her actions,
And he gives the two his blessing.

Amphitryon 38

Giraudoux's impromptu drama,
Modern version of the ancients,
While remaining thought provoking,
Gave delight to spring play-goers.

Jupiter's infatuated
With a mortal girl, Alkmene.
But Amphitryon, her husband,
Is her one and only lover.

Amphitryon .....	John Schwarz
Alkmene .....	Genevieve Corcoran
Jupiter .....	Ronald Lundquist
Mercury .....	Bruce Cusker
Leda .....	Marjorie Lovberg
Sosie .....	Jack Howell
Trumpeter .....	Ronald Richards
Warrior .....	Harold Hansen
Nevetza .....	Marlene Gaugler
Kleantha .....	Virginia McBride
Attendants to Leda .....	Roger DeBour
	Pleas Duke
	Jack Klarr

Freshmen

The beginning class of Haffinch
Was a group of eager students.
They were given the name Freshmen
For their "fresh" outlook on living.

1954 Sentinel

*H*affinch chose—to spread his story—
A tall lad known as “The Deacon,”
Driver of a Continental,
Who insisted on perfection.

To assist he picked another
Who was known by friends as “Koobie.”
’Twas her job to write the copy
And enhance the book with artwork.

Women's Center

*I*n the first week of fall quarter

The new Women's Center building

For Home Ec and P.E. courses

Had its formal dedication.

*R*inging out an older era
Was the bell from Main Hall tower.
Now it's mounted on a truck bed
And is rung in times of vict'ry.

Ann Crocker, Jim Ryan, Betty Dixon, Norman Nelson, Donna Goodmansen, Norm Anderson.

The foundation for endowment
Had imported to the campus
Forty-seven bells from Holland
For a carillon memorial.

Carillon Bells

*D*r. Kamiel Lefevere

Gave a dedication concert

Of the carillon memorial

To wind up Homecoming week-end.

*A*rmed with buckets, brooms, and whitewash,
Freshmen wandered up the mountain
To enhance the M—their purpose,
But they failed and did it over.

*K*icking off Homecoming week-end
At a rally round a bonfire
Neophytes were aptly clobbered
To become Kam and Dreg members.

*A*t the start of each fall quarter
A full week is dedicated
To acquaint incoming freshmen
With the students and the campus.

*J*immie Dick and Alan Goddard
With Pat Koob will be remembered

Aber Day

The spring holiday for students
Honors Daddy Aber's mem'ry.
Voting's held in the primary
To select the campus leaders.

M Club members patrol co-eds
And a barbecue is featured.
The day's worth remains a question
And it may be discontinued.

*S*leepy Joe, played by Bob Potter,

*S*inging on the Steps was founded
By a former prof named Sibley.
An award he had established
For promotion of traditions.

Ev'ry year the plaque is given
To the most deserving student.
Here Norm Anderson presents it
To Kay Hudson, this year's winner.

Indian Affairs Institute

*W*elfare workers and state leaders
Got together on the campus
To discuss affairs of Indians,
Holding workshops and discussions.

Arts and crafts and tribal dances
At the Institute were featured,
And the oval got a new look
As the camp site for the teepees.

*W*ith the coming of warm weather
Flathead Lake bid many students
Join in water recreation
And enjoy the outdoor beauty.

*A*lthough some disliked the water,
They were still subjected to it
In some most informal dunkings—
A new twist to the cold shower.

A retreat was held for leaders
To discuss their campus duties.
Lodge activities were mingled
With their meetings and discussions.

*H*arry James and Buddy Morrow
Plus Duke Ellington were featured
Through the year in guest engagements.
They gave concerts, played at dances.

Cavalleria Rusticana

Cavalleria Rusticana

Set in a Sicilian village
Tells the story of Santuzza
Who's in love with young Turiddu.

But Turiddu loves another—
Lola, wife of the mule driver;
So Santuzza then betrays him
To Alfio, Lola's husband.

Alfio demands a duel.
Turiddu accepts the challenge,
Bidding farewell to his mother,
And his murder ends the op'ra.

Santuzza .....	Jeanne Couture
Turiddu .....	Robert Hoyem
Lola .....	Beverly Herman
Alfio .....	Jim Cole
Mama Lucia .....	Donna Murray

I Pagliacci

I Pagliacci is the story
Of a group of trav'ling actors,
Who bring real life into acting—
Thus incorporate the tragic.

Canio, who heads the actors,
Has deep love for his wife Nedda,
But she proves to be unfaithful—
Has young Silvio for a lover.

Tonio learns of her secret
And in turn informs her husband.
Canio stabs the two lovers—
Thus, "The comedy is ended."

Canio	Don Schessler
Nedda	Berta Huebl
Silvo	Gordon Travis
Tonio	Edward Focher
Peppe	Robert Hoyem

The Ambassador van Roijen
From the Netherlands was featured.
Here with Richman he's inspecting
Our own carillon memorial.

*C*oncert series this year featured
Pianist Rudolph Firkusny,
Garde Republican band members,
Helen Traubel, and James Melton.

*M*rs. A. McCarty, Glendive,
And Cornelius Wall were honored
At the annual Bus. Ad. banquet.
Gen'ral Doolittle was the speaker.

*M*usic practice house destruction
Drew a student cheering section
Who were glad to see its passing
Clear the way for newer buildings.

*A*fter much negotiation,
Workers started on construction
Of the Commons-Student Union
And the new Craig Hall addition.

*W*hile the band beat out the rhythm
For the weekly drill parading,
R.O.T.C. students graced the oval
Ev'ry Monday in the springtime.

Mary Erickson was chosen
As the Pershing Rifle Sweetheart.
Coed Colonel, Marcia Oechsli,
Headed Sponsor Corps maneuvers.

Track Meet

*T*his year's Track Meet celebration
Brought about two thousand students
From the high schools of Montana
To compete in sports, speech, drama.

*S*oaring at 12 feet 2 inches,
Going o'er the pole vault standard,
Student Roger Hankins, Whitefish,
Won in Class B competition.

*I*n an outdoor exhibition,
Royaleers displayed their dancing
For participants of Track Meet
At their picnic on the oval.

*S*igma Nu won first place honors
In the frat house decorations
Picturing a western street scene
To attract the guests' attention.

*W*ith their three pigs decoration,
Bidding students to the campus,
Thetas were the first place winners
In the female Greek division.

*G*raduation Week included
Open houses and a banquet.
Dr. H. L. Foss was speaker
At the Baccalaureate service.

Graduation

Prizes and awards were given
At a special convocation,
And the women all paraded
On the oval with their lanterns.

The activities for seniors
 On June 7th were concluded
 At Commencement in the Field House
 When diplomas were awarded.

Mary Brennan Clapp

Mrs. Clapp, English professor,
Joined the staff in '37.
Dr. C. H. Clapp, her husband,
Was fifth president on campus.

Commonweal, Frontier, and Parents
Her poetic works have published.
She has actively directed
Women's club work in Montana.

Rudolph O. Hoffman

French professor, Dr. Hoffman,
Is a native of Ghent, Belgium,
And since '21's been serving
As an MSU staff member.

He taught privately at Harvard,
Then in Michigan was chairman
Of the languages department
At Grand Rapids Junior College.

Richard H. Jesse

Chemistry department chairman
And vice-president on campus,
Dr. Jesse leaves his teaching
To converse and for his gard'ning.

Member of Phi Beta Kappa
He held fellowships at Harvard
He's contributed to journals
Of the chemistry profession.

C. W. Leaphart

Law school dean since 1919
Harvard graduate, Dean Leaphart,
Guided for a one year period
MSU administration.

He has worked with Civil Service—
Served in the Justice Department,
And in '34 he headed
The State Bar Association.

Retiring Professors

*S*even MSU professors
After long-time terms of teaching
Bid farewell to their profession
Entering into retirement.

Departmental head of English,
Dr. Merriam, retires
After thirty years of service
To the "U" and all Montana.

Through his magazine, the Frontier,
MSU gained recognition.
Intellectual achievement
Was aroused by his endeavors.

H. G. Merriam

Expert in Montana hist'ry,
Dr. Phillips first directed
Northwest history collections,
Managing the school's museum.

Both an editor and author
Of accounts in his profession,
He'll engage in further research
Studying the Northwest fur trade.

Paul C. Phillips

Forestry dean and professor,
1906 graduate Spaulding
Was in charge of CCC work,
And for years pushed conservation.

He served during the depression
On the board for re-employment,
And in '32 was chosen
RFC administrator.

Thomas C. Spaulding

Haffinch first originated
From the pen of G. M. Crutchfield,
Who in 1930 entered
MSU in journalism.

The philosopher was featured
Frequently in Kaimin issues
In the Parables of Haffinch,
Which displayed the author's humor.

In Memoriam

Dr. Scheuch will be remembered
For his everlasting interest
In the youth, who were about him,
Whom he counseled and befriended.

"Prof" saw MSU's beginning
With the first administration,
And as V. P. he was acting
President on five occasions.

Campus leader Robert Struckman,
J-school assistant professor,
Was M.I.E.A. advisor
And of Sig Ep was a member.

Graduate in journalism,
For six years he taught in high schools,
Worked on the Montana Farmer,
And was active in the city.

G. M. Crutchfield

Frederick C. Scheuch

Robert P. Struckman

Marlene McKinley

Alpha Phi Marlene McKinley,
Junior in the school of music,
Is remembered for her singing
Of "My Man" and other numbers.

While a soph'more she was active
As a Spur upon the campus,
Entered Alpha Lambda Delta,
And became a Mu Phi member.

*H*affinch, looking o'er his story,

Saw that it was almost ended;

So he finished with an index

Interspersed with advertising.

Origin of Some Montana Names

Helena—According to the Helena Historical directory of 1879 the city of Helena was named by John Somerville for his former home of St. Helena, Minn. It was voted by the early citizens to drop the prefix, Saint.

Wibaux—The town was named for Pierre Wibaux, son of a wealthy Parisian silk manufacturer who settled in this area in the 80's. In his heyday Pierre was the largest cattle operator in the world, owning as many as 65,000 head.

Bannack—This pioneer community was named after the Bannock Indian tribe and became Montana's first city, a boom camp roaring with a population of thousands.

Missoula—The Garden City was named for the broad river that flows through the center of town. The river was named by the Indians, "Missoula" meaning sparkling water.

Three Forks—This town, steeped in historic lore and legend, gets its name from the convergence of the "three forks," the Gallatin, Madison and Jefferson rivers.

Wolf Point—How it was named—great numbers of wolf pelts were stacked along the Missouri banks awaiting shipment on early-day steamboats to the St. Louis market.

Fort Benton—The name honors an early-day champion of fur interests, Sen. Thomas Benton of Missouri, and was so named in 1846 by the American Fur Company.

"Great-grandfather liked quality too..."

When the Pacific Northwest Indian chief wished to preserve a record, family or tribal, he went to a skilled craftsman and had him build a totem pole. This magnificently engraved pole symbolically told the history, folk lore, or literature of the tribe. The chief was justly proud to have it stand in front of his lodge. Today, yearbook editors choose quality photo-engravings to record the events of the school year. To get the best possible results, they likewise turn to skilled craftsmen to help them build the yearbook. ARTCRAFT, with its "know-how," has been helping editors build better yearbooks for nearly half a century.

I wish to thank the following persons, groups and firms for their assistance in helping produce the 1954 Sentinel:

The members of my family for their interest, help and encouragement.

Pat Koob for all the Haffinch drawings and poetry appearing in the book, for the cover drawing, end sheet, color drawings and poetry in the opening section, opening section design, and the color scheme and blocks for the body of the book.

The copy for the whole book was written by Pat Koob in poetry form in trochaic verse as is found in Longfellow's "Song of Hiawatha."

All Haffinch drawings and verses are original with Pat Koob who developed his likeness and personality in art and verse form as it appears in this book. The preliminary pen and ink portrayal of Haffinch was developed by Pat Koob and Wallace Norley.

Prose stories of Haffinch, recently reprinted in the Montana Kaimin from issues dating from the 1930's, are attributed to the late G. M. Crutchfield of Missoula, Harold Stearns of Harlowton, and other university students.

Wallace Norley for the preliminary cover design and opening section planning.

Dick Hosking and Chuck Bloom for their great effort and time spent on photography and darkroom work.

Lucille Armsby, E. Kirk Badgley, Robert Breen, Robert Catlin, Andy Cogswell, Mrs. G. M. Crutchfield and family, Bob Dundas, Ingvar Eide, James Gebhart, Shirley Guettler, Ted Hewett, Ruth Hughes, Claude Lord, Dr. Carl McFarland, Earl Martell, Ross Miller, Mary Nicol, Luther Richman, Ellen Torgrimson, Cyrile Van Duser, Bob Ward.

*p*at and Deacon thank Wise Haffinch
For his vision and wise teachings.
Now he journeys up the mountain
To await a future calling.
