GLI Peeps in action!

Leadership Retreat no. 2

...and that's a wrap, folks! Until next year Leadership Retreats.

Curious about what "leadership" means in the context of GLI?

Give it a Read!

Hey Freshpeople & Sophomores:
Have you booked your (mandatory)
advising session?

We know, the word "mandatory" makes all of our skin crawl. But these advising sessions are actually for your benefit! The beauty of this program is that it's largely self-directed. What's difficult about this program is that it's largely self-directed.

Whether it's remembering which dates to block off on the calendar for Leadership Retreat or getting your Beyond the Classroom Plan in on time, these advising sessions help keep you on track.

Priority class registration for spring runs November 6 - November 20 for continuing students:

Book your appointment today!

Spring 2024: CSD 396: Inclusive Campus-Based Practices for Neurodiverse Persons/Service Learning

CRN: 32272, Thursdays 2-3:30

Students of all disciplines welcome!

Especially those that would like some practical experience.

This course educates students about neurodiversity in adults. The didactic portion addresses topics aligned with the specialized consideration for people with autism and neurodiversity. The service-learning portion allows direct mentorship and support to neurodiverse adults on and off campus.

Offered intermittently. Prereqs: junior or senior standing, and/or consent of instructor, and application required.

The graphic features the word "SUMMER" in large, bold, block letters. Each letter is filled with a horizontal gradient of colors: purple, orange, red, and light blue. Below "SUMMER" is the phrase "Wish List" in a red, cursive font, decorated with several yellow starburst icons.
