The 'Team of the 80s' Makes Its Debut

"The Team of the 80s" is on stage today, hosting Simon Fraser University from Burnaby, B.C., Canada.

Head coach Larry Donovan and his staff of Joe Glenn, Rick Johnson, Lynn Rosenbach, Bob Lowry, Mike Johnson, Mike Van Diete, Ken Flajole and graduate assistants Joe Yeager and Dale McNally have put the finishing touches to their 1980 team — and the fruits of their labors will surface this afternoon.

If you've been out of the state for the past few months, that's probably about the only way you haven't heard about Donovan and his young, aggressive Grizzly staff. Either that, or you don't read or watch television.

In case you missed it, that's Donovan's slogan for Grizzly football—"The Team of the 80s."

Donovan inherited a team with 11 returning starters, six of whom are on defense. That comes from a 3-7 team (2-5 in the Big Sky Conference), which was picked by a lot of the preseason prognosticators to finish on or near the top last season. This season the Grizzlies find themselves picked in the bottom half.

"We don't care about that stuff," Donovan said. "We're worrying about beating Simon Fraser and nothing else. "Someone asked me how many games I expected to win this season. As a coach you think you can win them all. Obviously you can't do that too often, but we're here to win, and that's that."

Leading the Grizzlies' new 3-4 defensive alignment is All-American candidate Kent Clausen, a sure bet to go in the early rounds of this year's professional draft if he has fully recovered from a back injury. The 6-4, 235-pounder had 110 tackles in just seven games last season.

Backing up Clausen in the middle is three-year letterman Jay Becker at strong safety, one of the hardest hitters pound-for-pound on the team.

The other returning starters on defense are outside linebacker Jim Hogan; defensive linemen Bret Barrick, Pat Curry and Arnie Rigoni. Curry is the only junior (the rest are seniors) in the group. He is from Billings.

Offensively, versatile Rocky Klever will be at tailback. The 6-2¾, 215-pounder led the Grizzlies in rushing (679 yards) and scoring (nine touchdowns) last year, and passed for another.

"Rocky goes back to the era of the triple threat running back," Donovan said. "He can run, kick, and pass. His combined abilities make him one of the best backs in college football. Not only is he a true tailback, but he is also a quarterback of great potential. We think he is the outstanding tailback in the Big Sky Conference."

The other four starters on offense for Montana along with Klever include linemen Pat Norwood, Brian McHugh and Carlton Lamb and wide receiver Bill Lane. All are seniors except Norwood, who is a junior from Billings.

Montana will be attempting to hand the Simon Fraser Clansmen their second straight defeat today. SFU opened its season last week, losing a rain-marred contest to the University of Calgary, 10-9.

The Rod Woodward-coached Clansmen have 26 returning lettermen, including 14 starters off a 3-6 team from last season. There are 10 offensive starters back, the top player is probably junior quarterback Dave Amer (6-4, 218). Amer was 103 of 202 for 1,349 yards and 10 TDs in the passing department last season.

Speedy tailback Cam Mehlenbacher (5-7, 168, Sr.) was SFU's leading rusher against Calgary, gaining 39 yards in eight carries. SFU has excellent size on the offensive line, going, 240, 250, 225, 245 and 220.

"They are quite a big team," Donovan said. "They will outsize us. There's no doubt we'll be a smaller team. We look for them to throw the ball, and also their quarterback (Amer) likes to run the ball. This puts a little pressure on your perimeter defense."

"Defensively, they're running a pro 4-3, which is a defense we don't see too much in our schedule. For that reason our offensive blocking will be a little bit tested. We haven't seen any film on Simon Fraser, just the one time (last week) Ken Flajole (inside linebacker coach) scouted them. And that was a really rainy night. They just didn't show very much."

"As far as our team is concerned, I'm looking for a totally emotional game out of them," Donovan continued. "We want to get emotion back into the Grizzly football program."

The Grizzlies are at Portland State next Saturday, and then return home to host the University of Idaho, Saturday, Sept. 27, in the teams' Big Sky opener.

President Richard Bowers

Dr. Richard C. Bowers assumed duties as the 13th president of the University of Montana on July 4, 1974.

Bowers came to UM from Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, where he served as vice president and provost, and professor of chemistry.

As Northern Illinois' provost, he was chief academic officer of the University and had overall responsibility for many other university activities, including computer services, admissions and records, and the library. He also represented Northern Illinois University to the Illinois Board of Regents, the Board of Higher Education of the State of Illinois, and the State Legislature.

Prior to being named vice president and provost in 1969, Bowers served as the Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences at NIU from 1965-69.

Bowers received his B.S. degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan in 1948 and his Ph.D. in chemistry from the University of Minnesota in 1953. He taught at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., beginning in 1954 and became Director of Chemical Laboratories and associate chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Northwestern in 1963.

Athletic Director Harley Lewis

Harley W. Lewis was named athletic director at the University of Montana effective April 14, 1976. He had served as acting athletic director from July 1, 1975.

A 1964 graduate of UM with a M.S. in health, physical education and recreation, Lewis became track and cross country coach at UM in 1966. Prior to assuming coaching responsibilities at UM, the 1959 graduate of Butte High School coached two years at the University of Portland.

Lewis served as cross country coach until 1976 and won nine Big Sky titles until resigning the position. He served as track coach through the 1978 season. While track coach, Lewis won the conference title in 1972. He has been named Big Sky Coach of the Year in cross country and track, ten times. He has served on numerous national committees, worked with U.S. Olympic endeavors and coached several All-American performers at Montana.
Larry R. Donovan became the 29th head football coach of the University of Montana in December of 1979. Prior to joining the Grizzly program he served as an assistant at the University of Kansas for one season.

Born March 31, 1941, Donovan was a two-year letterman in football and track at the University of Nebraska, where he graduated in 1964. His senior year at Nebraska he played for a 9-2 team, which defeated Miami (Fla.) in the Gotham Bowl, 36-34.

His collegiate coaching career started after his senior season in 1962, when Donovan joined the Cornhuskers as a graduate assistant. That season Nebraska won the Big 8 championship and advanced to the Orange Bowl. He then joined the Army, but stayed close to football, playing service ball in Korea and directing the division team to an 8-0-1 record.

Donovan moved to the University of South Dakota as head freshman coach in 1967, when his team was 4-0. He remained there through the 1971 season, moving up to backfield coach in 1968 and 1969, and then became defensive coordinator in 1970. In 1968 USD finished 9-1 and ranked No. 8 nationally in Division II.

In 1972 Larry began a four-year stint at Washington State, where the Cougars ranked 16th in the nation. His first two seasons he was defensive line coach, and then was elevated to defensive coordinator.

The University of Iowa was his next stop, this time for three seasons, where he served as offensive line coach for one year and quarterback and passing game coach for two.

At Kansas Larry was outside linebacker coach, and two of his starting linebackers there were drafted in the second and fifth rounds of the NFL draft.

Donovan received his bachelor’s degree in social science from Nebraska in 1964. In 1968 he earned his master’s degree in secondary education from the University of South Dakota.

He is married to the former Georgia Merriam, a family therapist who is a former Miss Nebraska. They have two daughters, Andrea, 11, and Molly, 7.
Ken Flajole
Inside Linebackers

Ken Flajole became the final member of coach Larry Donovan’s staff in March of 1980. Flajole (pronounced Flay-Jull), 25, came from the University of Washington football staff, where he was a part-time assistant who helped with the defensive cornerbacks. The Huskies finished the 1979 season ranked 11th nationally, and led the Pac-10 in pass defense. Prior to coaching for the Huskies he was the head track coach at Mann Junior High School in Seattle in 1978. In 1977-78 he was an assistant coach at Pacific Lutheran University, where he coached the defensive line and linebackers. While at PLU his team was nationally ranked and District I champion. He is a 1976 graduate of Pacific Lutheran University, located in Tacoma, Wash. He received his B.A. in education and his minor in coaching. As a collegiate player Flajole gained all-conference recognition at Pacific Lutheran and at Wenatchee Junior College. He was an all-state linebacker at Seattle Prep High School in 1971. He recently married the former Teri Whitmer.

Joe Glenn
Quarterbacks Receivers

Joe Glenn was head coach of Doane College in Crete, Neb., four seasons before joining the Grizzly program in December of 1979. He was the first coach to join Larry Donovan’s young staff. Glenn, 31, compiled a four-year record of 21-18-1 at Doane. During the 1979 season he coached an All-American tailback and a freshman quarterback who passed for more than 1,200 yards. Prior to the Doane assignment, he was an assistant under Joe Salem at Northern Arizona University for two seasons, where he was head backfield coach. He also served as head freshman coach for the Lumberjacks. Glenn’s first coaching job was under Salem at his alma mater, the University of South Dakota, in 1973. He was offensive backfield and freshman coach for two seasons. He then went to NAU with Salem and eventually took the position at Doane. He was a standout quarterback and receiver at South Dakota, where he graduated in 1975. Joe’s wife name is Michele. They have two children, a daughter, Erin, 7, and a son, Casey, 1. One of 12 children, Glenn was born in Lincoln, Neb.

Rick Johnson
Defensive Backs

Rick Johnson has 12 years of coaching experience, beginning at his alma mater, United States International University, in San Diego, Calif. in 1967. His most recent assignment was at Montana State University, where he was a part-time coach in charge of defensive ends. He was at MSU one season. Before joining the MSU program he was at Bonita High School in San Diego, where he served as defensive coordinator. He was there from 1976-79, and his defensive squad led the league twice. He has also coached at Raton High School (New Mexico) as head coach from 1973-75; and the University of New Mexico (1969-72) as a part-time defensive back coach. As a player at U.S.I.U. in San Diego he was an honorable mention NAIA All-American, All-Coast and All-District defensive back. He holds school records in career interceptions (23) and interceptions in a game (five). Johnson is originally from Seattle. He played prep football in San Diego, freshman football at the University of Washington and then transferred to U.S.I.U., where he graduated in 1967. The 34-year-old is single.

Bob Lowry
Offensive Line

The “oldest” member of the Grizzly staff, Bob Lowry was the only coach held over from last season. He joined the UM program in May of 1979. Lowry has coached in Montana the last 16 seasons. As a prep coach he compiled a 77-42-2 record. He came to UM from Glendive High School, where his team won back-to-back state Class “A” titles in 1978-79. His teams went 19-0 during that span. Glendive’s state title in 1978 was its first in 17 years. Lowry, a 1964 graduate of Montana State, is from Wolf Point, Mont. He was a four-year letterman in football and basketball at Wolf Point High. He participated in the Shrine game, and was named the MVP on defense. He also played in the North-South basketball all-star game and was selected as the MVP. His college career at Stanford was cut short with a knee injury. The 40-year-old Lowry coached four seasons at Plentywood High School (1964-68), where his teams were 25-6-1; at Great Falls Central from 1968-71; Plentywood again from 1971-76 and then to Glendive. Lowry and his wife, Sharon, have three children, twins Bob and Jeanie, 12, and an 11-year old son, Mike.

Defensive Line

Mike Van Diest (pronounced Van-Deast) not only serves as the defensive line (Tackle-Noseguard-Tackle or TNT) coach, but also became the first strength coach in UM history when he joined the staff in January of 1980. Prior to joining Montana the Helena native was the strength coach at the University of Wyoming, serving the entire University. He had been a defensive line assistant in 1977-78. His first coaching job was as a graduate assistant for the Cowboys in 1976. Van Diest played his collegiate football at Wyoming, playing tight end. He graduated in 1975. He was a standout football player at Helena High School, where he graduated in 1970. The 27-year-old bachelor had experience recruiting in his home state. "I recruited Montana for Wyoming and am familiar with the programs in the state," he said. "There are some excellent athletes in Montana." Van Diest has already seen his strength program at work, designing a program for individual athletes, and then charting the results. "Lifting weights is a must for college athletes, no matter what the sport," Van Diest said. "Strength and endurance are essential for football or any sport."

Lynn Rosenbach
Running Backs

The "clean" of the Grizzly staff, Lynn Rosenbach (pronounced Rose-In-Baw), has been involved in coaching or athletic administration for 21 years. His 21 years of experience have all been in the state of Washington. His most recent coaching stint was head coach at Mount Vernon High School, from 1975-79. His record there the past six seasons was 36-20-2. He won two league championships in that period. Born in Oak Harbor, Wash., Rosenbach was head football coach at Olympic College in Bremerton, Wash. from 1967-69, and was then elevated to athletic director from 1969-75 before leaving to take the position in Mt. Vernon. Before serving at those schools, the 1958 graduate of Western Washington State coached football, track and wrestling at Everett Community (1964-67). His coaching career began in 1958 at Entiat High School in Washington. During his career he has been a head football coach at four high schools, a community college and a four-year college. Rosenbach has been named coach of the year twice, once at the high school level and once for his 7-2 division champion team at Olympic College. He played offensive guard and linebacker at Western Washington and was team captain. Lynn's wife's name is Rosalie (Rosie). They have three children: a daughter, Dana, 19, and two sons, Todd, 16, and Timm, 13.

Mike Johnson
Outside Linebackers

Mike begins his second season as a graduate assistant at the University of Montana, working with outside linebackers and special teams. He came to UM in 1977 from Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Ore. While playing for Mt. Hood he set the school career interception record (8), was a two-year letterman, and his squad was one of the top ranked JC teams in the nation in 1976. He lettered twice for the Grizzlies as a defensive back, although he was hampered with injuries during his career at UM. He is from North Bend, Ore., and attended North Bend High School where he was a three-sport standout. He played for his father, Howie Johnson, as a prep. The senior Johnson also played football for the Grizzlies. Mike and his wife, Teri, recently had a baby girl, Stephanie.

Montana School Songs

"Up With Montana," by Dick Howell
Up with Montana, boys, down with the foe;
Old Montana's out for a victory;
She'll shoot her backs around the foe's line;
A hot time is coming how, oh, brother mine.
Up with Montana, boys, down with the foe,
Good old Grizzly'll triumph today;
And the squeal of the pig will float on the air;
From the tummy of the Grizzly Bear.

"Montana, My Montana," by George H. Greenwood, '04
Our chosen state, all hail to thee,
Montana, my Montana;
Thou hast thy portion with the free,
Montana, my Montana.
From shore to shore, from sea to sea,
Oh, may thy name full honored be,
Symbol of strength and loyalty,
Montana, my Montana.

"Fight, Montana," by "Bill" Kane, 1920
Hail, copper, silver, gold,
Borne by our warriors bold;
'Tis the flag of the grizzly bear;
See those Bruins tearing their way down the field!
We know they never will yield,
Montana.
On we'll go and trample down the foe.
Let's go, Montana, we love the fray.
The grizzly fight, fight, fight will bring victory.
Let's go, Montana, we'll win today.

Defense: ‘Claw’ And Company Return

“Claw,” also known as middle linebacker Kent Clausen, and several other top-notch defensive players are back for the Grizzlies in 1980.

All-American candidate Clausen, a sure bet to be a high professional draft pick had 110 tackles in just seven games before being sidelined with a back injury. He is 100 percent now.

Also back for the “Copper Stoppers” are defensive linemen Arnie Rigoni, Bret Barrick and Pat Curry (please see page 17). All are returning starters. Last year Rigoni had 80 tackles, Barrick had 50 and Curry had 63.

“We think in Kent, Arnie, Bret, Pat and the rest of the players we have an outstanding group of players on which to build a top Big Sky Conference defensive football team,” Donovan said.

Another player who will be counted on is linebacker Jim Hogan, one of six returning starters on defense. Hogan had 72 tackles, including three sacks last year. Hogan, along with Clausen, also had two interceptions. Newcomer Dennis Bowman has earned a starting job at the “whip” linebacker slot, and “pound-for-pound is one tough football player,” Donovan said.

At the “Sam” linebacker slot is sophomore letterman Curt McElroy, who was pressed into a starting role in 1979 when Clausen was injured last year. McElroy had 20 tackles in ‘79.

Donovan said freshman Dave Kline and John Rooney, “are very talented players, and may be hard to keep out of the lineup at linebacker.”

Honors candidate Jay Becker is one of the hardest hitters in the conference for his size, and the three-year letterman is back for his final season at strong safety. He had 91 tackles, 38 of which were unassisted last season.

Junior Randy Laird started a couple of games last season and will start at strong corner. Sophomore letterman John Kovacich has the inside track at weak corner, but should be pushed by JC transfer Mickey Sutton.

Donovan said he thought freshmen Tony Fudge and Gary Lowry will be vying for playing time in the secondary, along with lettermen Terry Thomas and Steve Chalcraft.

JC transfer Scott Ellig earned the starting job at weak safety after a fine showing in spring football.

If the defensive line needs shoring up for some reason, tackle-noseguard-tackle (TNT) coach Mike Van Diest could press Mike Crouse, Dave Paoli or Dave Chaplin into duty.

“I felt very good about our defense after spring football ended,” Donovan said. “Defensively, as well as offensively, we need the established players to serve as a focal point for the rest of the football team. We want the established players to have success, and that success will serve as a catalyst to total team success.”

All-American candidate Kent Clausen stops a Boise State runner with help from Arnie Rigoni (56) and Dave Paoli (right). All three lettermen are back this season.

Linebacker Jim Hogan (42) wrestles down an opponent, as safety Jay Becker (bottom) helps out, and lineman Bret Barrick (left, 73) runs to the action. All three players are returning starters.
Experience on the offensive line, the return of three-year letterman tailback Rocky Klever, and the play of quarterback Bart Andrus are the keys to the Grizzlies’ offense in the 1980 season.

Of the five returning starters on offense three are offensive lineman. Seniors Carlton Lamb and Brian McHugh, and junior Pat Norwood all have valuable playing time under their belts. Add to that trio junior Tom Perez and sophomore Brian Caraway, and offensive line coach Bob Lowry’s optimistic attitude adds up. Both Perez and Caraway lettered last year.

Klever, an honors candidate, was Montana’s leading scorer and rusher last season. He gained 679 yards on 156 carries for a 4.4-yard average. He also scored nine touchdowns, one via a pass reception. He also passed for another TD, and had a 76-yard pass reception.

“Rocky is a triple threat for us,” said head coach Larry Donovan. “He can run, pass and kick, and we will utilize those abilities whenever we can. I think he will be the league’s outstanding tailback.”

Although he saw limited duty last year, quarterback Bart Andrus is expected to be a major factor for Montana in 1980. He surfaced as the No. 1 signal caller in spring practice.

Donovan said he hopes to take advantage of Andrus’ speed by using a sprint out type of offense and the short passing game.

“Bart really improved during the spring, especially in finding the secondary receivers,” Donovan said. “We know he can run, and now we feel confident about his passing game.”

Also in the offensive backfield are veterans Wayne Harper and Bob Cerkovnik, at fullback and tailback, respectively. Junior Cerkovnik is the Grizzlies’ second leading returning rusher. He had 98 yards on just 28 carries. Junior College transfer Mike Hagen played well last spring and should push Harper for the starting fullback berth.

Donovan said receiver Mike Alex “could be the top newcomer in the league.” Alex, a 6-2, 190-pounder with 4.6 speed, can play tight end or wide receiver. Returning starter Bill Lane (15 catches for 183 yards) and junior Bill Dolan will also be counted on heavily at wide receiver.

The return of two-year lettermen Basil Jones at right guard will give UM a boost. Sophomores Mark Madsen, Rocky Miller, Bob Cordier and junior Jim Rooney are waiting in the wings for a chance to play on the offensive line.

Donovan said he was excited about Montana’s potential kicking game.

Prep All-American Dean Rominger, a freshman from Fort Benton High School, is expected to take up the slack of Raul Allegre. Allegre was a second team all-conference choice last year.

“We feel that the kicking game is an extremely integral part of successful football, and our recruiting efforts reflect that,” Donovan said. “We think Dean is one of the best kickers in the prep ranks.”

Punter Terry Thomas averaged 37.9-yards on 58 kicks last season, and is back for his final year. Thomas also plays in the secondary.
