en regular-season home games that year was ranked in the top 20 of all-time marks of games played there since 1986.

UM set a conference record with 27 consecutive regular-season wins from 2006-08; that streak ended with a 45-28 setback on Oct. 4 at Weber State in 2008.

Over the past five seasons the Grizzlies are 31-1 at home in regular-season games.

■ No Place Like Home

Not only has Montana won 163 games in its 25 seasons in Washington-Grizzly Stadium, but beginning in 1994, the Grizz reeled off 30 straight home victories. The win streak began with a 41-7 win over Sonoma State on Sept. 3 and ended with a 40-35 loss to Eastern Washington on Oct. 18 of 1997. UM's 30 consecutive home wins are the fifth most in FCS history.

■ Stadium History & Namesake

The plans for an on-campus football facility at Montana came to fruition in August of 1985 when Missoula businessman Dennis R. Washington and the employees of Washington Corporations provided a gift of $1 million, hence the name of Washington-Grizzly Stadium. The initial cost of the stadium was around $3.2 million.

There are 48 private boxes located on the east and west sides of the stadium, and they are individually decorated and furnished.

■ Stadium Expansions

Washington-Grizzly Stadium underwent its third expansion, at a cost of approximately $6.5 million, prior to the 2008 football season. The eastside expansion now houses a 500-seat "Stadium Club" with two membership levels: the "Canyon Room," which has 125 seats inside and 125 seats outside, and the "Hellgate Terrace," which has 250 seats.

The expansion in '08 provided 375 Grizzly Scholarship Association priority seats, which are located between the 25-and-40-yard lines and on both sides of the 50-yard line, as well as 1,150 non-priority seats located on the 10-to-25-yard lines. This expansion increased the current seating capacity of Washington-Grizzly Stadium to 25,217.

The second expansion occurred in the spring and summer of 2003 when approximately 4,000 seats were added to the north end zone section, increasing the stadium capacity to 23,183, with a cost around $3.5 million.

In the spring of 1995 the stadium underwent its first expansion in the north and south end zones. At that time there were 12,500 permanent seats, and seating was available, weather permitting, in the grass end zones, which made the capacity around 15,000. The cost of that expansion was about $2.5 million.

GrizVision, a state-of-the-art video and message center, was added in 2002. GrizVision displays game statistics, player profiles, digital replays, and shots of the crowd. The screen is one of the largest in the FCS, measuring 26 feet by 36 feet, and it came from New York City and Times Square.

A natural-grass stadium gave way to Sprinturf prior to the 2001 season at a cost of about $1 million, which was paid for by an anonymous donor. The field was named "John Hoyt Field" in 2001 at the request of the anonymous donor, in honor of Hoyt, a long-time Grizzly booster who passed away in March of that year.

The locker rooms measure 4,000 plus square feet. Adams Center features a 7,000-square foot weight room, a 4,500-square foot athletic treatment center, the Jacobson Academic Center, and a meeting room with big screen videos. The women's locker room covers 4,000 square feet. There are also three other meeting rooms totaling 2,000 square feet.

#Includes FCS Playoff Game(s)
The University of Montana and Grizzly Athletic Department are proud of our athletes’ academic success along with their volunteerism in the community. The Athletic Department jumped up 11 percentage points in the latest NCAA Graduation Success Rate (GSR) report released in the fall of 2010. Using the federal graduation rate for UM’s incoming freshmen student-athletes from fall 2003, Montana had a success rate of 63 percent, which was up from 52 percent for UM’s 2002 incoming class.

The federal graduation rate measures the success rate of student-athletes who received some level of athletic aid during their first year of enrollment. The student-athletes must graduate from Montana within a six-year window of their initial college enrollment to be counted as successful.

The department’s percentage was higher than the campus’ rate as a whole for the entering class in 2003 of 44 percent. Further, Montana’s success rate of 63 percent matched Eastern Washington for second among the nine Big Sky Conference schools. Northern Colorado led the league at 72 percent.

For autumn semester 2010, 57.3% of UM athletes had a term GPA greater than or equal to 3.0 as compared to 55.4% of UM undergrads, while 55% of athletes for spring semester 2011 earned that honor. Twenty-two and a half percent of the athletes were on the Dean’s List for autumn semester compared to 19.6% of the undergraduate population and 18.9% for spring 2011 semester. Football had 11 athletes on the Dean’s List fall semester 2010 and 14 in the spring 2011.

Senior strong safety Erik Stoll was selected the 2011 Big Sky Conference Scholar Athlete Award winner in June 2011. He was also named first team on the 2010 ESPN The Magazine’s Division 1 Academic All-America Football Team by Co-SIDA and was also a two time All-District 7 academic squad pick, maintaining a 3.92 GPA in biology. He won the President’s Award for academic achievement in 2009 and the Grizzly Cup in 2011. The “Cup” is awarded to a senior male student-athlete who has excelled athletically on the field/court/track, as well as in academics. (A Grizzly Cup is also awarded to the top female athlete, and the 2011 recipient was volleyball player Jaimie Thibeault.)

This year’s returning athletes in football who received Big Sky Conference all-academic awards are: Bobby Alt (sociology), Ryan Fetherston (political science), Sam Gratton (history), Jordan Johnson (pre-pharmacy), Danny Kistler (sociology), Caleb Murdy (communication studies), Peter Nguyen (business administration), Alex Shaw (finance), Jordan Tripp (business administration), Bo Tully (management) and Bryan Waldhauser (management).

Along with excelling in the classroom, many athletes on the team take the time to volunteer in the community. The athletes read to students in the classroom, visit hospitals, and participate in various charitable functions such as Special Olympics, Toys for Tots, and Habitat for Humanity, among other activities. Griz linebacker Alex Shaw is among 132 nominees for two All-State AFCS Good Works Teams. Among his many volunteer projects are participating in Walk to Cure Diabetes, Special Olympics, Habitat for Humanity, and an interfaith hospitality volunteer. Linebacker Jordan Tripp has participated in the Buddy Walk, visited local schools, helped out at the Kids Carnival at Chief Charlo Elementary School in Missoula, among other projects.

Originally from Butte, he came to Montana from Colorado State where he was an assistant coach for former head coach Sonny Lubick for 15 seasons from 1993-2007. Former head coach Bobby Hauck hired Delaney in 2008 saying, "He (Mick) is an outstanding addition to our staff. To bring someone onboard with his experience is a real plus for us. Certainly his ties to the state of Montana run strong and deep." Head coach Robin Pflugrad retained Delaney as the lone official holdover from Hauck's staff.

While at CSU, Delaney coached some of the finest running backs in school history, including five first-team all-conference selections such as Cecil Sapp (2000). Sapp was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award as the nation's most outstanding running back and set a school rushing record with 1,601 yards in 2002. Sapp went on to play with the Denver Broncos.

Prior to coaching the Rams, Delaney was the head football coach and athletic director at Western Montana, Dillon, in 1991 and 92. He served as the athletic director at Montana Tech in Butte from 1983-85.

Delaney was also a football color analyst for KBOW Radio of Butte from 1986-1990.

He earned his B.A. in education at UM-Western (Western Montana College) in 1964. He is an inaugural inductee into the Western Montana College Sports Hall of Fame and was honored by the Montana Coaches Association in 1972 as the Wrestling Coach of the Year - Class AA and in 1974 as the Football Coach of the Year - Class AA. He also belonged to many associations during his athletic career including the Montana Coaches Association from 1968-1985.

He is in his second season as the Grizzlies' special teams coach.

Dick returned to the college coaching ranks after a short hiatus as a volunteer assistant coach at Sheldon High School in Eugene, Ore., working with the special teams, defensive ends, and assisting with the quarterbacks. During his five-year span, the Sheldon Irish football team posted a 57-game winning streak in league games and won two 6A state championships (2007, 2009).

Arbuckle has 19 years of experience as a head coach at the college and high school levels and 15 years as an assistant coach in the Pac-10 Conference, including stints at Arizona State, Cal, Oregon State, and Oregon.

Prior to his stint at ASU he was at California (1991-92), coaching the wide receivers and special teams.

He spent three seasons (1987-89) at Boise State where he served as both offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Previous to Boise State, he spent two years (1985-86) at Oregon State where he served as recruiting coordinator and assisted with the offensive line.

He was the head coach at the Oregon Institute of Technology, going 8-3 in 1981 and 8-2 in 1982, en route to two league titles. He then moved to Western Oregon State College for two years (1983-84). His first stint in the college ranks was at his alma mater, Oregon, where he coached outside linebackers and special teams from 1974-76.

The early part of his coaching career was spent at the prep level in Oregon. He was the head coach at Sheldon High School for 13 seasons (1965-73, 1977-1980). He moved to the college ranks working for former Griz mentor Don Read at Oregon from 1974-76. He was the head coach at Oregon City High School (1963-64) and began his coaching career as an assistant at North Eugene High School from 1961-63.

He played at Oregon from 1958-60 and was a two-year letterman for the Ducks, playing safety and quarterback. He was a starter at safety for Oregon in the 1960 Liberty Bowl.

Born in Los Angeles, he graduated from Oregon in 1961 with a degree in physical education. He received a master's degree from Oregon in physical education in 1966. He co-authored a book called "Special Teams: The Winning Edge."

He was a team captain in 1993 and 1994. He was one of three recipients of UM's Steve Carlson Award (MVP) at Montana in 1994.

The 5-7, 185-pounder was a wide receiver/linebacker in the Arena Football League from 1998-2005, playing for the San Jose (Calif.) SaberCats. He also coached with the SaberCats from 2003-05, working with the offense and wide receivers.

In seven seasons in the AFL, he had 261 catches for 3,551 yards and 61 touchdowns. He played in the CFL for the Edmonton Eskimos from 1995-97 and was named "Outstanding Rookie" in 95.

His first coaching stint was at Desert Mountain High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., where he was the offensive coordinator in 2003 and 2004.

He earned his B.A. degree at UM in business administration and a master's in business administration in sports management at Canterbury University in 1998.

Shalon has three daughters: Kailyn, 16; Quincy, 12; and Kendal, 8.
Bob is in his second stint as an assistant coach with the Grizzlies, working with the guards and centers.

He has been a football coach over a span of four decades. He has not only a history as an assistant coach at Montana, but was also a two-time All-American for the Grizzlies.

Last season guard Russell Piette and center Alex Verlanic were named second team All-Big Sky.

He returned to his alma mater (1970) last season after numerous years as a scout in the National Football League. Most recently (2007-2010) he was a Western Regional Scout for the Houston Texans. From 2003-07 he was a regional scout for the Detroit Lions.

He served as the head coach for the Colorado Crush of the Arena Football League in 2003 and also scouted for the Denver Broncos during that time. He was the offensive coordinator for the Amsterdam Admirals in the Spring of 1995 and then joined the Broncos later that year as their West Coast Regional Scout.

In 1993-94, he was the head coach and athletic director at Western Montana College (UM-Western). He was the offensive coordinator for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the NFL's World League for head coach Jack Elway from 1991-93.

He coached in the prep ranks from 1977-85 in Montana and Oregon.

He began coaching on the collegiate level at Montana for head man Jack Swarthout (1970-72). After that he moved on to Montana Tech, where he served as the defensive coordinator from 1972-73.

As a standout Grizzly linebacker, he was a two-time All-American (1967 and 1968). He was the inaugural recipient of UM's Golden Helmet Award (team's hardest hitter) in 1967.

He earned his degree at UM in 1970, majoring in history and health, physical education.

Mike is in his second season as Montana's defensive coordinator and coach of the safetyies, and is serving as UM's D-coordinator for the second time in his long and successful coaching career.

He is no stranger to Grizzly football, as he was the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator/secondary coach at Montana for head coach Joe Glenn from 2000-2002.

During his previous three seasons as a Griz coach Montana prospered, winning the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national championship in 2001, finishing as the runner-up in 2000 and advancing to the quarter-finals in 2002.

Mike made an immediate impact in his first season back with the Griz, as they were ranked 10th in the nation in total defense, giving up just 289.82 yards per game. He earned a bachelor's degree at SDSU in 1981 and a master's at Northern Iowa in 1982. Mike and his wife Tami have three children, Cari, Adam, and Taylor. They have four grandchildren: two granddaughters, Mikayla and Katelyn, and two grandsons, Bryson and Dylan.

Last season Gregorak was an assistant coach at Central Washington University in Ellensburg, working with the tight ends for the 8-3 Wildcats. Last year CWU was the Great Northern Athletic Conference champions, and Gregorak coached first-team all-league tight end Demitrius Guice.

Prior to his one-year stint at Central Washington, he had a seven-year tenure at Montana. In his six seasons of working with the Griz linebackers he worked with some of the most prolific in school history, including Tyler Corwin, Brandon Fisher, Shawn Lebsock, Tyler Joyce (ranked second in UM history with 356 career tackles), Shane MacIntyre, Kyle Ryan, and Loren Utterback — who were all Big Sky Conference picks. During that time the Griz won seven league championships and advanced to three division title games.

He has coached 13 all-conference players in his tenure at UM. Griz junior Caleb McSurdy was a second-team pick last season at linebacker. Gregorak coached the secondary at UM in his first season (2003). In 2009 he not only coached the linebackers but he also served as the recruiting coordinator. Before coming to Montana Ty served as an assistant coach at the University of Washington in 2001 and 2002.

He was a three-year letterman at linebacker for the University of Colorado, from 1997-2000. He was the recipient of the Lee Willard Award (outstanding freshman) for the Buffaloes in 1997. In 1998, CU played in the Aloha Bowl, while the 1999 squad played in the Insight Bowl. He was a 2000 Academic All-Big XII selection, and a finalist for the National Academic-Athletic Achievement Award that year.

He was a standout prep athlete at West Valley High School in Spokane, Washington. He was a first-team all-state selection in high school in 1995 and 1996. In 1996, he was chosen the state of Washington's Defensive Player of the Year and voted Super Prep magazine's West Coast Defensive Player of the Year.

In 1997, Gregorak was named West Valley High School's Student-Athlete of the Year. He was named to several All-American teams that year, including USA Today. He was named team captain of the East squad in the Washington State All-Star game in 1997. He was team captain for the West in the 1997 High School All-American Game in Orlando, Florida.

He earned a B.A. degree at Colorado in communication in 2001. Ty has a son, Gage, who will be three this coming February.
ROB OVIATT
STRENGTH COACH

Rob Oviatt (pronounced oh-vee-ott) is in his second season at Montana, and adds a wealth of experience to the Grizzly football program. He has been involved in strength and conditioning for the past 31 years at several different universities, and 19 of those seasons were at schools in the Pac-10 Conference.

His most recent position was assistant athletic director for strength and conditioning at Washington State University from 2000-08. During his time with the Cougars, they had three consecutive 10-win seasons and appeared in the Rose, Sun, and Holiday Bowls. He received the Admiral Ulysses Grant Sharp Award at the 2003 Holiday Bowl, which was voted on by WSU players.

Prior to his stint in Pullman, he was the director of strength and conditioning at Louisiana State University (1999) and the head strength coach for football at Kentucky (1995-98). He was chosen the SEC Strength Coach of the Year in 1997 and 1998.

His first stint in the Pac-10 was at Oregon State, where he was the director of strength and conditioning for all sports including football from 1985 to 1994.

He has also worked in the strength and conditioning field at the University of Houston (1984), Texas A&M (1983), and the University of Mississippi (1981-82). He began his career as a voluntary assistant strength coach at the University of Alabama, working for the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Oviatt is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and served as president of that organization from 2004-08. He was selected to the USA Strength & Conditioning Coach Hall of Fame in June of 2002. He received the Master Strength and Conditioning Coach Award in May of 2001.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in education at Alabama in 1980. He received a Masters Education degree at Mississippi in 1982. His wife's name is Kathleen. Rob has four children: daughters Lindsay, Allison, April and son William.

JONATHAN SMITH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

In his second season, Jonathan is Montana's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Last year he oversaw a Grizzly offense that was ranked 16th in the nation in scoring (31.73 points a game) and 28th in passing offense (233.55 yards per contest).

He came to UM from the University of Idaho, where he had coached the quarterbacks for the previous six seasons. During his tenure with the Vandals, he worked for three different head coaches, current mentor Robb Akey, Dennis Erickson, and Nick Holt.

Two seasons ago Idaho went 8-5, and its offense was ranked ninth in the nation in total offense (451.38 ypg), 12th in passing offense (286.69 ypg), and 20th in scoring (32.69 ppg). In 2009, Vandal quarterback Nathan Enderle was fifth in the nation in passing efficiency (157.28). Idaho went to its first bowl game in 12 years in 2009 and defeated Bowling Green 43-42 in the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl.

Smith, who went from walk-on to a four-year starter at Oregon State, set numerous school records. He was 24-14 as a starter for the Beavers and served as a team captain his junior and senior seasons. In 2001, he led OSU to an 11-1 record en route to the Pac-10 championship, a 41-9 win over Notre Dame in the 30th annual Fiesta Bowl when he was named the game MVP, and number four ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

He set OSU career records (since broken) for most passing yardage (9,680), total offense (9,209) and touchdown passes (55). He ended his career ranked third all-time in Pac-10 history in passing yards and total offense.

He also set OSU single-season marks (since broken) in 2001 for passing yards (3,053) total offense yards (2,957) and touchdown passes (20). He set a single-game record (since broken) for yards passing in a game with 469 yards against Washington in 1998.

He earned a B.S. degree in liberal studies at OSU in 2001. Jonathan is married to the former Candice Huddle, and they have two children, son Robert and daughter Bella.

Suiaunoa begins his 10th year in the football coaching ranks. He came to Montana from fellow Big Sky Conference school Portland State, where we worked with the defensive line during the 2010 season.

Prior to his recent stint at PSU, he spent the 2009 season at Eastern Oregon as the defensive coordinator. Before that he was at Western Washington for four seasons, from 2005-08, serving as the defensive line coach. He was a graduate assistant at the University of Nevada in 2004.

Suiaunoa began his coaching career at Palomar (Calif.) Junior College in 2002 and 2003, working with the line backers. The Comets were 8-3 in 2003, reaching first round of Southern California JC playoffs and were 10-1 in 2002, winning the Mission Conference championship and finishing fourth nationally in final JC Grid-Wire Poll.

He was a starting linebacker for the Nevada Wolfpack, playing there from 1998-2001.

A native of Oceanside, Calif., he won a junior college national championship in 1997 as a player at Palomar JC, and he was named all-conference that season.

He attended El Camino High School in Oceanside, where he was a three-time letterman in three sports. He was chosen second-team all-state, first-team all-county and first-team all-league as a senior in football. He helped the Wildcats to state football playoffs three times, reaching the semifinals as a senior. In basketball, he helped ECHS to three straight league undefeated seasons. He also lettered in track.

He earned a degree in general studies administration from Nevada in 2002. Legi and his wife, Rose, have a son, Lawrence, 2.

Aric is in his second season at UM, working with the cornerbacks, and is a former collegiate standout at corner himself.

Last season Grizzly junior cornerback Trumaine Johnson was named to numerous All-American teams and was a first team all-league pick, while senior corner Brandon Dodson earned all-conference honorable mention recognition.

Prior to coming to Montana he was at Arizona State University, where he oversaw defensive quality control and assisted with cornerbacks and special teams.

Prior to his position at ASU, he was an assistant coach in his hometown at Diamond Bar High School in California in 2007-08. While there he worked with the defensive backs, wide receivers, as well as the kickoff and punt returners.

Williams was a standout cornerback at Oregon State and four-year letterman there from 2001-04. He was a first team All-Pac-10 selection at cornerback for the Beavers his senior year in 2004 when he had 56 tackles, five interceptions, and 14 pass break-ups.

He was a second team all-conference pick his junior season at corner and as a kick-off returner at OSU. This junior year he had 39 tackles, four interceptions, and 12 pass deflections.

Following his playing days at OSU, he played for the Philadelphia Eagles for a season (2005), and then played in NFL Europe for the Cologne Centurions (2006). After that he played two seasons of Arena Football for the Philadelphia Soul (2007) and Arizona Rattlers (2008).

Williams earned his B.A. degree at OSU in fine arts with an emphasis in graphic design in 2005. He is single.
Gary Ekegren's Montana lineage goes back a long way. Family members Waldo and Kermit Ekegren, from Harlem, Mont., played for UM from 1928-30. Both played halfback, while Kermit did a stint at quarterback, and Waldo also played fullback. Waldo Ekegren was an honorable mention All-American in 1930.

Gary, who played high school football in Harlem, attended UM and played football for the Silvertips from 1959-61. He graduated from UM in 1963 with a bachelor's degree. He earned a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Montana in 1974.

Before joining the Montana coaching staff in 1976, Ekegren coached football, basketball and track and field at Havre Junior High School, was head football coach at Harlem High School for six years and coached at Missoula Sentinel High School from 1972-74. He was head coach at Sentinel from 1974-76. Gary became the defensive line coach at UM in December of 1976.

Gary was part of the Montana coaching staff under head coach Gene Carlson who were let go after the 1979 season. He became the head coach of Long View High School in Longview, Wash., in 1980.

He returned to Montana after 10 successful years of coaching at Long View to accept the head coaching position at local Big Sky High School in 1990 and coached there until 2010 when he resigned due to health problems.

While at Big Sky, his teams advanced to the State AA title games twice, winning the championship in 1994.

Gary died of pancreatic cancer on New Year's Eve, 2010. He was 70. Many current and former Griz football players came to UM from Big Sky High School under the tutelage of Coach Ekegren.
2011 SEASON OUTLOOK

Bobby Alt
Senior Defensive End
the University of Montana Grizzlies may not have the proverbial "X" on their backs when they begin the 2011 football season, but what they will have is a gauntlet type of an early-season schedule that could make or break them right out of the blocks.

Second-year head coach Robin Pflugrad's Grizzlies open the season against their first-ever Southeastern Conference opponent against the Tennessee Volunteers in 102,455-seat Neyland Stadium in Knoxville on Sept. 3rd.

The good news is that Montana returns home after its opener against the Volunteers with two straight contests, but the bad news is that those two squads are a veteran Cal Poly team, and the defending Division I national champion and Griz nemesis Eastern Washington Eagles.

Despite that one-year lapse, Montana's football heritage is impressive as any program in the nation. The Grizz have won (or shared) conference crowns 15 of the past 18 seasons, and its 17-year playoff run lasted from 1993-2009. UM has won 119 games over the past decade—the most victories by any Division I team. UM has been ranked in the Sports Network's top 25 for 175 consecutive weeks.

The Grizzlies, who finished 20th in the nation in the final Sports Network poll, return 15 plus starters from a 7-4 team that went 5-3 in the Big Sky. Montana returns seven starters on offense, seven-and-a-half on defense, and its kicker/punter.

It was a roller-coaster season for Montana. An easy opening-season win was followed by a narrow (35-33) loss at Cal Poly, and then the Grizzlies traveled to Cheney, Wash., and tied the eventual national champion Eagles 27-27 with 1:33 left to play, only to fall 36-27 on a last-second field goal and a fluke defensive touchdown.

The Griz then reeled off five straight wins, three of which were nail-biters. The first of those dramatic wins came after the loss at EWU, a 28-25 home win over a much-improved Sacramento State team. That was followed by a 30-7 win at Northern Colorado and a 48-27 home win over Idaho State.

UM's record then improved from 1-2 to 3-2, and won its next two games in the final seconds. The first of those two heart-stopping victories was at Portland State (played in Hillsboro, Ore.), a 23-21 win on a 25-yard field goal by junior kicker Brody McKnight as time expired. A week later wide receiver C.J. Atkins caught a pass in the end zone, pinned the ball to his helmet and hung on to it as he was falling to the ground, and the Griz took a 24-21 lead with five seconds left in the contest for a miraculous win over visiting Northern Arizona.

The Griz had a five-game win streak stopped in a turnover-plagued 30-21 loss at Weber State, followed by a 27-17 win over North Dakota. Despite out-gaining intra-state rival Montana State 219 to 57 in total yards and holding them scoreless in the second half, the Griz lost 21-16 to the eighth-ranked Bobcats, failing to advance to postseason play for the first time since 1993.

The offense must replace one of the most prolific running backs in school history in Chase Reynolds, who rushed for a school-record 52 touchdowns the past three seasons, and narrowly missed the standard in career rush yards with 4,067 (the record is 4,070).

Also gone is quarterback and team captain Andrew Selle, who was lost for the year on a season-ending injury in UM's fourth game of the year against Sacramento State. Selle ended his career ranked 10th in school history with 4,265 career passing yards.

On offense UM also lost guard Russ Piette and center Alex Verlanic, both second team all-league picks last season, and starting quarterback Justin Roper.

Replacing first team all-conference safety Erik Stoll, cornerback Brandon Dodson and defensive back Jimmy Wilson will be the primary focus in fall camp for Griz defensive coordinator Mike Breske. Two other key losses on "D" were all-league end Severin Campbell and tackle Tyler Hobbs.

OFFENSE

The Grizzlies' seven starters back on offense are linemen Chuck Burton, Jon Opperud, and Stephen Sabin, plus wide receivers Sam Gratton, Antwon Moutra and Jabin Sambrano, along with tight end Greg Hardy.

"As far as our offense is concerned, I liked what we did in the spring," Pflugrad said. "The caveat there is you're going against your own defense, and you never get to see a different color jersey. So you have to temper that a little bit and say 'well I like what we did,' however, realistically, Montana State is improving, Eastern Washington is improving, Portland State's improving, NAU, et cetera.
very important to be positive in your coaching," Pflugrad said. "There just wasn’t a quarterback in that class; there just wasn’t. That’s been a challenge, because we had to go out and find a guy. Have we found the right guy? That is a big question mark. We don’t know; and practices and games are going to answer that for us.

QUARTERBACK

All four quarterbacks had their share of highlights during spring football drills. That quartet includes lettermen Jordan Johnson, a sophomore, and junior (lettermen) Gerald Kemp, along with junior transfer Nate Montana and redshirt freshman Shay Smithwick-Hann.

The Grizzlies did not announce a starter at the conclusion of spring drills but Johnson probably has the inside track with Montana and Kemp close behind. Kemp was limited in the passing game due to an injury, while Smithwick-Hann had a lot of his success throwing the ball.

Johnson, who was activated a year ago as a true freshman, is the only signal-caller to have any game experience, but he only attempted 20 passes in six games last season.

"Gerald Kemp was moved from quarterback to running back towards the end of Bobby's (Hauck) tenure here, and we resurrected his opportunity to play quarterback and have a shot, and that’s still going to happen in fall camp."

"To me it’s still somewhat of an open battle, with Jordy Johnson, and Gerald, and Nate Montana having a fairly solid spring," Pflugrad said. "Shay had a nice spring too. I like that depth, however fall camp and performance in games this season will tell us where we are at in regard to this position. We don’t see that there’s anyone out there right now to try and recruit who can fulfill those needs.

"We like (high school signee) Trent McKinney a lot on video tape, but he’s got to come and play at a different level," Pflugrad said. "We’re going to take a look at him as well."

RUNNING BACK

Reynolds, who was a team captain last season, was a scoring machine as a sophomore and junior with 44 rushing touchdowns, but limited to eight as a senior, due in large part to injuries. He will be extremely difficult to replace.

Junior halfback Peter Nguyen had a solid spring, while promising redshirt freshmen Jordan Canada and Brett Kirschner are also in the mix. Nguyen was steady and consistent, while Canada displayed excellent quickness and speed. Kirschner should definitely contribute as well.

Kemp is UM’s leading returning rusher with 45 carries for 224 yards, while Nguyen was involved mostly in the return game.

"Peter Nguyen was the guy who took the most reps in the spring, followed closely by Jordan Canada," Pflugrad said. "They’re similar (Nguyen and Canada) and yet a little bit different, in that they are both fast and really quick, but Jordan might have a little more top-end speed than Peter. Both catch the ball out of the backfield, but they are just not big targets in the passing game, which is the one negative. Brett got better, and I think he will help our football team.

"A lot of people wonder how those two backs are inside the five-yard line, but I think we have a couple of players who can help us in that area, one who we did not have all last season, and another who we lost during the season," he said.

Pflugrad is referring to juniors Beau Donaldson (6-1, 233) and Dan Moore (5-11, 235). Donaldson missed last season with an injury, while Moore, a special teams standout, was injured mid-way through the 2010 season and lost for the year.

"We’ll probably have a small package with a two-back system," Pflugrad said. "Not only could we play Peter and Jordan at the same time, but we might be able to play Beau and Dan at the same time, or a combination of all of those players."
Senior offensive center Stephen Sabin

■ OFFENSIVE LINE

Burton was an honorable mention all-league pick at right tackle where he started all 11 games a year ago, while Opperud started 10 contests at left tackle and Sabin started all 11 contests at left guard.

Two talented sophomores, Danny Kistler Jr. and William Poehls, saw action as true freshman last season and earned starting berths at right and left guard, respectively. Kistler had two starts at guard and one at tackle last year.

Junior Jeremy Lapan came on strong last spring and will see action, as could promising redshirt freshman Trevor Poole and senior Jake Hendrickson.

"The one thing that group did get was better," Pflugrad said. "Now, did they get better fast enough? - absolutely not. At the end of the season we ran the ball very well, including over 250 yards against Montana State, which was exciting and promising.

"We have some good veterans to mix with our two young guards, Kistler and Poehls, and I like our potential there, but potential does not win football games for you," he said. "At tackle, Chuck Burton and Jon Opperud will be our bookends and veterans, with Sabin in there at center to help those young guards."

■ TIGHT END

Hardy, a junior, had 17 catches last season and was an honorable mention all-league pick. Senior Kavario Middleton joined the team late in fall camp a year ago, after transferring from the University of Washington, and had a tremendous spring.

Those two returnees might give the Grizzlies the past tandem in the Big Sky, and junior Jacob Haas had a good spring as well, and adds quality depth.

"I think we have three very good players here," Pflugrad said. "Greg and Kavario are as good as anyone in the league, and they’re going to push each other like they did in the spring. Jacob Haas really had a nice spring too. Greg and Kavario are also very good run-blockers."

■ WIDE RECEIVER

The Grizzlies return 10 of their top 11 leading receivers this season. Bryce Carver, Gratton, Moutra, and Sambrano combined for 134 receptions, 1,772 yards and 18 touchdowns last season. Reynolds led the team with 40 catches.

Last season Moutra had team-highs of 600 yards receiving and six touchdowns, while Sambrano was second in receptions (39) and receiving yards (584). Both players were honorable mention all-league picks. Juniors Carver (31-for-261-5 TDs) and Gratton (28-327-4) were key players as well.

Atkins, a senior, redshirt freshmen Mitch Saylor, C.J. Hatchett, Sean Haynes, along with sophomores Aaron Roberts and Cam Warren, could also contribute.

"There are some players there who have made plays for us," Pflugrad said. "Sam’s made plays since he was a freshman, and Jabin’s sophomore year and the big catch (game-winner) he had against Appalachian State. Carver has had his moments; each just needs to be more consistent and bring his game up a notch or two, and that would really help our depth.

"The way Antwon Moutra played for us was just outstanding," he said. "To be able to get him late in the summer and to see how he produced for us was exciting. Mitch Saylor, at 6-5, will help us. C.J. Atkins has a lot of natural ability. Aaron Roberts is still a big question mark for us and would have played as a true freshman, but unfortunately, because of injuries that has not happened. He could be a complete receiver for us in all phases of the game - if he is healthy."

■ DEFENSE

With seven-plus starters back, including all three linebackers, the defense should again be one of the best in UM’s division. The Griz need to replace Campbell and also lost some key players in the secondary.

Senior cornerback Trumaine Johnson was a Buck Buchanan Award finalist last season, and named to virtually every All-American team in 2010. He was one of UM’s leading tacklers a year ago with 44 stops, and second on the team with four picks, two of which he returned for touchdowns.

Bobby Alt along with fellow senior Ryan Fetherston, who was an all-league honorable mention player, are both back at end. Also vying for a starting job is junior Josh Harris, who might have started last season at end but was lost for the year due to an injury in fall camp.

Senior tackle Bryan Waldhauser was a second team All-Big Sky pick last season (as was Campbell) and started all 11 games a year ago. Also back is safety Mike McCord (eight starts).

Montana was ranked among the best in Division 1 leaders at 10th in total defense, allowing just 289.82 yards a game. The Griz were ranked seventh in pass efficiency defense (98.08 ypg) and 40th in scoring defense (22.09 PPG).

"I think we are solid on the D-line, but losing Severin Campbell for the season to an injury in the Portland State game (and to graduation) will be a huge void for us and almost impossible to fill. He was by far our best pass rush guy, and a player who maybe could have gone on to the next level if he would have stayed healthy. Some of that will be by committee, probably somewhat like our running backs' position."
Junior linebacker Jordan Tripp

DEFENSIVE LINE

There is good returning experience at end, as Alt started in nine games and Fetherston had six starts, while Harris adds quality depth and could vie for a starting berth. Like Harris, Fetherston missed spring drills because of his recovery from off-season surgery, and hopefully both will be ready to go and be at 100 percent by the start of fall camp. Fetherston was third on the team with four sacks a year ago, while Alt had 2.5.

Going into the 2011 season there is a concern at D-end depth-wise because of lack of experience, as sophomores Chris Bradford, Clay Pierson, Trevor Rehm, and redshirt freshman Zack Wagenmann have not had a lot of PT.

"We don’t know how healthy Clay Pierson is going to be (he was injured in spring drills), and what a loss Josh Harris was for us," Pflugrad said. "Coming into the (2010) season he was going to start for us along with Severin, and we lost both of them, and those were big-time hits for us."

At tackle, Waldhauser played hurt during a substantial portion of the season, but he still had a team-high five sacks and tied for sixth on the team for the most tackles (50) on route to earning all-league honors. Team captain and UM’s other starter at tackle last year, Tyler Hobbs, graduated, but senior Tyrone Duncan could be an all-conference caliber player if he can stay healthy. Both Hobbs and Duncan missed a lot of action last year because of injuries. Senior Ben Hughes should be a factor here as well.

Like UM’s defensive end position, youth will provide the crux of the depth at tackle, with the likes of sophomore Alex Bienemann and freshmen Derek Crittenden and Tonga Takai. Highly heralded prep signee Jesse Ginn, a 6-5, 290-pounder, will get a chance to contribute right away.

“Yes, there are some good players coming back on our D-line, but I don’t know if we ever had all of them in there at the same time because they were injured,” Pflugrad said. “The last part of the season we were so hobbled in the D-line area that we struggled in a few of our games.

“We have some younger players who could be very solid players, but they just have not been game-tested,” Pflugrad said. “All three of those young tackles had some pretty good practices in the spring.”

LINEBACKERS

The Griz return a talented trio in starting linebackers Caleb McSurdy (a team-high 112 tackles), Jordan Tripp (99 tackles), and Alex Shaw (62 tackles), who ranked first, second, and fourth respectively in total tackles last season. McSurdy tied for 24th in the nation with 10.18 tackles a game, while Tripp tied for 50th with 9.0 stops per contest. "Will" linebacker Shaw had 6.5 stops for losses.

Pflugrad thinks this position will be one of the main strengths on his defense.

"I like those three players (returning starters) a lot," he said. "I also like some of our other players at that position. John Kanongata’a is a guy who can play a couple of different positions for us. Josh Stuberg is a smart enough player to play all three of those spots, and I think Brock Coyle could play two of those as well. At middle linebacker, Beau Donaldson gives us some depth there. Hopefully Taylor Tuliaupupu will develop too and help us. We are not sure how (sophomore) Ty Timmer is going to be coming off an injury. That kind of rounds that position out.”

DEFENSIVE BACK

Johnson is a proven standout, but the void left by the losses of Dodson, Stoll and Wilson is a big one. Stoll was one of two (Johnson was the other) first team all-league players on defense for the Griz a year ago, while Dodson and Wilson were honorable mention selections.

“As I said earlier, this is an area of concern for us going into fall camp and into the 2011 season,” Pflugrad said. “We do have Trumaine Johnson back in the secondary, and he is our only true starter back there, and losing Erik Stoll, Jimmy Wilson, and Brandon Dodson – that’s a big concern for us right now. Jimmy could do so many things for us, because he brought an element to our practices and got everybody fired up, and he was like our spiritual leader. And Erik Stoll brought so much to our team physically and mentally.

“Trumaine has really grown up on the field and in the classroom, and that needs to carry over into fall camp,” Pflugrad said. “It’s hard to believe that he is already a senior. He definitely has the ability to be one of the best players at his position to ever play at Montana, and he definitely will have an opportunity to play at the next level.”

Seniors Houston Roots and Donny Lisowski are vying for the other starting cornerback spot. Also expected to see action are junior college transfer Kevin Frank Jr. and sophomore letterman Sean Murray.

“It would have been awesome to have the corner position solidified coming out of spring practice, but that did not happen,” Pflugrad said. “One of those four players just has to come along.”
Senior strong safety
Andrew Badger

McCord missed the last month or so of the season due to an injury and is back at free safety. Sophomore Stephen Rominger will also be in the mix, and freshman Justin Whitted is vying for playing time there too.

Senior Andrew Badger appeared to emerge as the starter at strong safety after spring drills, and sophomore Bo Tully will see action there as well.

"Those are two guys (McCord and Badger) we are counting on, and you know that’s probably a group (safeties) that we might play by committee," Pflugrad said. "Rominger had a solid spring, and Bo Tully had some really good days too."

Highly touted recruits Matt Hermanson (Washington High School, Sioux Falls S.D.) and Conner Lebsock (Skyview High School, Billings, Mont.) are both expected to compete for playing time.

"I like Matt Hermanson and Conner Lebsock coming in as true freshmen, and we’re going to give them an opportunity to play," he said. "Justin Whitted came in in January; he had some solid days this spring as well. We should have some depth there, which should help us in our special teams play."

"As I said, our secondary is the big question mark for us," he continued. "Who is it going to be, and how soon are they going to be ready to go? Obviously with our schedule, they’re going to have to be ready to go for that first game."

\[SPECIAL TEAMS\]

McKnight, a senior from Vancouver, B.C., who was taken in the first round (eighth pick) in the 2011 Canadian Football League draft, returns to handle the kicking duties for the fourth season in a row. He will also serve as UM’s punter, and he also kicks off.

Last season McKnight was a second team all-league pick, making 14-of-18 field goal attempts (two of which were blocked). He averaged 38.5 yards on 53 punts.

"He’s talented, he’s really turned into a team leader, and he was our co-MVP last year," Pflugrad said. "He does not want to relinquish anything he does, but it would be awesome if someone came in and could out-punt him. If that happens that’s a plus for us, because we’d add to our depth, and it would keep him fresher in the rest of the kicking game."

Nguyen led the Griz and was nationally ranked in both punt and kickoff returns. He was 12th in punt returns (12.79 ypr) and 38th in kickoffs (48.11 ypr). Johnson and Sambrano should also contribute in the return game.

\[2011 SCHEDULE\]

As mentioned earlier, Montana faces one of its most difficult schedules ever, especially right out of the gate, playing at Tennessee, a Cal Poly team that returns 17 starters from a 7-4 squad, and EWU (13-2 last season), which has 15 starters back. That trio of tough match-ups is followed with a trip to Sac State, a 6-5 team that returns 16 starters.

"This is the first time that Montana has played an SEC team, and there are probably reasons why that’s never happened before," Pflugrad said. "But it is on the schedule, so let’s go do it. It is a very challenging schedule. We will probably not be favored in our first four games, and I don’t know the last time that any team from this program could say that."

"It’s a major, major task for us those first four games, not to mention several more after that," he continued. "When you consider we play the likes of Idaho State, Northern Arizona, and Montana State on the road, then the schedule looks even more daunting."

"The way our schedule has been upgraded, not only this year, but in years to come, it’s going to be an amazing challenge not only this season, but also in the future," Pflugrad said. "We have to come out with guns blazing and have to know what we are doing as a staff much better than we did last year. That’s true on offense, defense, and in special teams."

\[2011 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE\]
ALL-AMERICAN CANDIDATES

Senior Cornerback/
Wide Receiver

Trumaine Johnson

Buck Buchanan Award Candidate
Trumaine Johnson

- Cornerback
- Stockton, California
- Edison High School

Montana: Trumaine is one of the most talented cornerbacks to ever play at Montana. He has played and started in 33 career games. He begins his senior year tied (with Blaine McElmurry, who had 13 picks from 1993-96) for fourth in career interceptions. His 23 pass break-ups rank him second in school history.

2010: He was tabbed a first team All-American by every entity, including American Football Coaches Association, Associated Press, The Sports Network, Phil Steele, and Walter Camp.

He was named first team All-Big Sky Conference for the second season in a row. He was co-recipient of the Terry Dillon Award (Outstanding Back or Receiver), sharing it with fellow cornerback Brandon Dodson.

He was ninth on the team in tackles with 44 stops. He was second at UM with four interceptions, and returned two of those picks (18 yards vs. Western State and 53 yards at Eastern Washington) for touchdowns. He tied for 40th in the FCS with .36 picks a game. He also had eight kickoff returns for a 22.2-yard average, and rushed twice for nine yards.

2009: He had team-highs of five interceptions and 12 pass deflections in 11 games (he missed four contests due to injury). He would be ranked first (tie) in the league in pass deflections (1.09 pg) and second in interceptions (0.45 pg).

"Tru" was fourth on the team with 31 solo tackles, and was the team’s fourth leading returning tackler with 54 stops. He was a first team All-Big Sky pick. He was named the Sports Network’s co-National Player of the Week on defense on Sept. 12th because of his outstanding play (six tackles and two interceptions) in a 17-10 victory at UC Davis. He was also named the Big Sky’s “Player of the Week” on defense that week.

2008: He was a rare starter at corner as a true freshman. He was a Big Sky honorable mention selection. He tied for the team lead with four interceptions and tied for sixth in the Big Sky with .36 picks a game. He started in the first 11 games, but suffered an injury against Idaho State and missed UM’s last five games.

High School: As a senior quarterback he passed for 1,800 yards (with just 5 interceptions), rushing for 500 yards, and scored 22 total touchdowns, and was named first team all-league on offense and defense. He was voted to his high school’s football “Hall of Fame” at defensive back.

As a junior he was first team all-league at wide receiver with 750 receiving yards and 10 touchdowns. He was also chosen his team’s MVP as a junior in football. His high school football coach was Elliot Burke. He also earned three letters in basketball. As a senior in hoops he was team captain, team MVP, and an all-conference pick.

Career Highs: He had a career-high eight tackles and tied his career best with two interceptions in a 31-10 home win over 19th-ranked Weber State in 2009. He also had two interceptions against Southern Utah in 2008. His long kickoff return is 44 yards against Idaho State in 2010.

Personal: His parents are Lynn Stallworth and Curtis Johnson of Stockton. His major is sociology. Birth date: January 1, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "He’s really got it all. He’s got the size to play safety. We played him a little bit on offense last year as a receiver and we probably should have played him there more. He’s done a outstanding job for us the past three years. He’s a lock-down corner; he’s physical; and he tackles very well. A lot of teams go away from him, so he doesn’t get the opportunities to be a ball-hawk and get as many picks like a lot of other corners in our league do. If we can get him some help on the other side of the field it should help Trumaine get even better stats than he did last year, although his stats last season were impressive."

Brody McKnight
- Kicker/Punter
- 6-0, 204, Sr., 3V
- Vancouver, B.C.
- Vancouver College Prep

Montana: Brody begins his senior campaign season ranked fourth in school history in career field goals and field goals made and attempted (38-of-59). He is also ranked fourth career-wise in PATs made and attempted (157-of-166). His career field goal percentage of 64.4% ranks him fifth, while his career PAT percentage of 94.6% ranks him sixth. He starts the 2011 season ranked seventh in career scoring with 271 points.

2010: He had an excellent season, making 14-of-18 field goals (two were blocked), with a long of 53 at Eastern Washington. He was a second team All-Big Sky Conference pick as a placekicker. He kicked a 25-yard game-winning field goal as time expired in a 23-21 victory over Portland State.

He was chosen the co-recipient of UM’s annual Steve Carlson Award (MVP), sharing it with record-setting senior halfback Chase Reynolds.

Brody also handled the punting chores for the Grizzlies, averaging 38.5 yards on 53 attempts.

He was ranked 16th (tie) in the FCS, averaging 1.27 field goals per game. He was 22nd in the nation in scoring, averaging 7.55 points a game.

2009: He had a solid year making 15-of-25 field goal attempts and 64-of-67 PATs. He kicked a 33-yard game-winning field goal as time expired in a dramatic 12-10 win at Idaho State.

Of his 10 field goal misses, two were blocked, and four were from 50 yards out or further. He kicked a career-long 34 yard field goal in a 41-34 home win over Eastern Washington.

He scored 109 points, which ranks him eighth in single-season history. He averaged 7.27 points a game, which ranked him 33rd in the FCS.

He was an All-Big Sky honorable mention selection.

2008: He played in 15 games (he did not play against Southern Utah) and took over Montana's starting kicking duties early in the season. He did not attempt a punt. He was Montana’s third-leading scorer with 79 points. He kicked the game-winning field goal, a 42-yarder, with one second to go in a 38-35 home win over Central Washington. He made 9-of-16 field goal attempts and 52-of-57 PATs.

2007: He attended Purdue, but did not play football there.

High School: He earned three letters in football and three in field lacrosse at Vancouver College Prep. His varsity football team won three conference championships and were the Provincial runners-up, going 11-1, 11-1, 12-1. He was an All-Provincial and all-league player as a junior and senior and he was named his team's special teams MVP those seasons. McKnight made 90 percent of his field goal attempts as a senior and averaged 41.5 yards per punt. He was ranked the top kicker in his class as a senior by AP Canadian Gridiron. His prep football coach was Todd Bennett.

Career Highs: His career-long field goal is 54 yards at Northern Arizona in 2009. He kicked four field goals against Idaho State last season, and he made a 33-yarder at Eastern Washington last year. He made 7-7 in PATs versus Portland State in 2009, and also had seven (of nine) PATs versus South Dakota State that season.

His career-long punt is a 64-yarder at Weber State last season. He had 11 punts at Portland State last year. He did not attempt a punt in 2008 or 2009.

Personal: His parents are Kelly and Jenny McKnight of Vancouver. His major is sociology. Birth date: Oct. 20, 1989. Misc.: Brody was selected in the first round (eighth pick) by the Montreal Alouettes in the 2011 Canadian Football League draft.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "When you’re co-MVP with Chase Reynolds and the great career that he had here, that’s saying a lot. Brody is kind of going that way with his career. He has the tremendous ability to play both spots as a punter and a kicker, plus he kicks off for us too. Some teams have three different players handling those duties. To be drafted in the first round in the CFL, what an honor for him. That tells you what they think about him up north. He will have his chances there after his senior season. However, I think he’s going to get a chance to play in the National Football League if he’s as consistent as he was last year. He’s in good condition and can handle all of those duties, and he becomes very marketable by doing all three things.”

Jabin Sambrano

- Wide Receiver/Returner
- Temecula, California
- 5-11, 175, Sr., 3V
- Great Oak High School

Montana: Jabin will be starting for the third consecutive season in 2011. He has 1,155 career receiving yards, and will soon move on to UM's top 30 list in that category. He is the Grizzlies' leading returning receiver. He has played in 34 career games and has 21 starts.

2010: He was second on the team in receptions (39), receiving yards (584), and yards per catch (15.0 average). He started in nine games, missing two (Portland State and Northern Arizona) because of an injury. He had six rushes for 44 yards, including a 27-yarder for a touchdown at Eastern Washington.

2009: He played in all 15 games and started in 12. He was Montana's fourth-leading (tie) receiver with 31 catches, and he was second on the team averaging 16.5 yards per reception.

He scored the game-winning touchdown in the Grizzlies' 24-14 FCS semifinal victory over fifth-ranked Appalachian State, making an over-the-shoulder catch from 25 yards out. He scored twice in the FCS title game on grabs from four and 53 yards out. He ranked second in the Big Sky Conference and 20th in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 24.82 yards on 37 attempts. He returned one punt for 26 yards against Western State in the season opener.

2008: He lettered as a true freshman, playing in 10 games, but he missed six games due to injury.

High School: He was a first team all-conference player at wide receiver and defensive back at Great Oak High School. Voted football MVP as a senior.

He lettered in football, track and field, and wrestling. He was an outstanding sprinter and team captain in track. His senior season he had 26 catches for 678 yards and also had four interceptions on defense. As a sprinter he set a school record in the 200 meters. He was the recipient of "Community Service Award." His high school football coach was Scott Strohsnider.

Career Highs: He had seven catches versus Sac State last season. He had 158 receiving yards, including a career-long 72-yarder for a touchdown at Cal Poly in 2010. His long punt return is 24 yards against Western State a year ago. His long kickoff return was 26 yards in a FCS playoff game against Texas State in 2009.

Personal: His parents are Ricky and Julia Sambrano of Oceanside. His major is communication studies. Birth date: March 13, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "He has tremendous speed. The first time I remember seeing that speed really showing was at Sac State in '09 when he took a screen pass and just put his foot on the ground and went fast, and no one was even close, and you could see him pull away from everybody. There's occasions in which he has been able to show that speed.

"Unfortunately, he has been hampered by injuries. When he's healthy I don't know if there's anyone in our league who can run with him. That top-end speed is really nice to have, not only as a receiver, but we want to get him more involved in the punt return game, and in the kickoff return game, and other areas on special teams. We're going to try to get him on the field more than he has the last three years, although we have to be cautious there, because he's had some injuries that have cost him games."

Jordan Tripp

Outside Linebacker
Missoula, Montana
6-3 ½, 232 Jr. 2V
Big Sky High School

High School: He was an “AA” all-state and all-conference pick at Big Sky High School as a senior despite battling an injury. He registered 72 tackles, including 13 for losses for the 6-5 Eagles in 2008. He was a team captain in football his senior year.

He was also all-league selection in football as a junior. He also lettered in track. His high school coach was former Griz player (1959-61) and coach (1977-79), the late Gary Ekegren.

Career Highs: He had 13 tackles against North Dakota last season. He had a 22-yard interception return for a touchdown in the 2010 opener against Western State.

Personal: He is a third generation football player at Montana. His father, Bryan, was a starting linebacker for the Grizzlies in 1989 and 1990, while his grandfather, Gene (Junior), played and lettered at Montana in 1963-64. His mom's name is Lisa. He is a business major. His birth date is April 3, 1991.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "He explodes to the football and has great field awareness. He has excellent top-end speed as Jabin (Sambrano) does. He can run from sideline-to-sideline as well as anyone in our league. He's grown at 230-plus pounds, up about 17 pounds from last fall, and yet he's kept his speed and quickness.

"He's really grown on the leadership end, and it was great to see him be such a force out there in spring ball in that regard. He plays with a lot of emotion, and his leadership abilities will definitely help our entire defense."

HONORS CANDIDATES

Caleb McSurdy
Senior Linebacker
Bobby Alt

- Defensive End
- Ontario, California
- 6-3, 240, Sr., 2V
- Mt. San Antonio College/Colony HS

Montana: Bobby will start at defensive end for the second year in a row. He is UM's seventh (tie with fellow senior end Ryan Fetherston) leading returning tackler.

2010: He played in all 11 games and started in nine. He was the Grizzlies' 10th (tie) leading tackler with 40 stops. He is also an outstanding student, and was named to the All-District 7 and All-Big Sky Conference academic teams with a 3.90 grade point average.

2009: He played in 14 of 15 games (he missed the Cal Poly game due to an injury) and was ranked among the team's top 20 tacklers with 19 stops. He was tied for fourth on the team with five tackles for loss. He was named to the Big Sky's all-academic team.

High School: He prepped at Colony High School where he lettered three times in football and twice in baseball. As a senior he was first team all-league and All-San Bernardino County, as well as team captain and MVP as a senior, when he had 87 tackles and 22 sacks for his 11-2 team.

Career Highs: He had seven tackles against Northern Arizona and at Weber State in 2010. He had two tackles for loss at Northern Colorado last season. His interception came against Portland State in 2009.

Personal: His major is sociology. His parents are Robert and Elizabeth Alt of Ontario. Birth date: June 27, 1989.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad:
"When Severin (Campbell) got hurt against Portland State he had to pick it up, and that's exactly what he did. He was playing good football for us earlier in the season, but when Sev went down Bobby really came on and had a very solid season for us. He carried that momentum over into winter conditioning, and did an outstanding job in the winter. And then again he carried that over into spring drills.

"He's a quiet person on and off the field. He's an excellent student with almost a 4.0 cumulative GPA. I think he's going to have an outstanding season and be a quality leader for us as well."
Charles Burton

- Offensive Tackle
- 6-5, 315, Sr., 3V
- Long Beach, California
- Millikan High School

Montana: Chuck will be starting at offensive right tackle for the second straight season.

2010: He was moved from guard to tackle two springs ago, and he started all 11 games at his new position. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection.

2009: He participated in 11 games at left guard, and started against Cal Poly.

2008: He played in several games and lettered as a “true” freshman.

High School: He was an All-C.I.F. pick as a senior at Long Beach Millikan High School. He served as team captain for his 7-4 senior squad. He was voted Moore League co-Offensive Linemen of the Year. He’s a member of Millikan High’s Weight Lifting Hall of Fame, as he benched 305 pounds and squatted 325 pounds as a prep. His high school football coach was Kirk Diego. He was a four-year letterman in football, and he earned two monikers in track and field.

Personal: His parents are Davis and Felicia Burton of Long Beach. His major is sociology. Birth date: October 15, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad:

“Chuck can do a lot of things for us. He can snap the football. We really want to keep him at tackle, however he’s a versatile player who could move over and play guard for us if we needed him there.

“He’s really worked hard to improve his body, by losing some of his weight and by working hard in the weight room and getting a lot stronger. He’s really done a great job in that area. He’s been able to move down field much better in his form running, and cut those linebackers and defensive backs when we ask him to do that.

“We are excited about him. His leadership skills have really been showing up. He’s kind of taken some of the young guys under his wing, and making sure they are working hard.”

Ryan Fetherston

- Defensive End
- East Helena, Montana
- Helena High School

Montana: Ryan underwent off-season shoulder surgery but is expected to compete for a starting berth this fall. He is Montana’s seventh (tied with fellow D-end Bobby Alt) leading tackler. He’s played in 46 career games.

2010: He played in all 11 games and started in the last six. He was UM’s 10th (tie) leading tackler. He tied for the team lead (with linebacker Jordan Tripp) in tackles for loss with nine. Had the third most sacks with four. He was named to the Big Sky Conference’s all-academic team.

2009: He played in all 15 games and had 10 tackles.

2008: He played in all 16 games and was Montana’s 15th leading tackler with 24 stops. His three sacks tied him for the third most on the team.

2007: He was a redshirt at UM.

High School: He lettered four times in wrestling and football, and twice in track and field at Helena High School. He was also a standout wrestler with 18 pins as a senior.

He was named “Super State” and all-state at defensive end and quarterback as a senior...all-state pick in football as a junior and senior. He played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Montana-Dakota All-Star Game. He was voted his high school’s Male Athlete of the Year in 2006.

He was tabbed offensive team MVP and “Most Inspirational” as a senior. His junior year he was an All-American wrestler and the state champion at 189 pounds and had 30 pins. He was an academic all-state pick three times. Served a team captain in wrestling twice and once in football. His high school football coach was former (1985-88) Griz quarterback Tony Arston.

Career Highs: He had 7 tackles at Northern Colorado in 2008. He had two sacks in two career games, most recently at Northern Colorado last season. He had forced fumbles in FCS playoff games against Texas State and at James Madison in 2008.

Personal: His major is political science and history. He hopes to become a teacher and coach. His parents are Tim and Chris Fetherston of East Helena. Birth date: June 23, 1988.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad:

“We need “Fether” do have a good senior season for us. He played with a shoulder injury several games of the 2010 season. He had surgery to fix that injury and unfortunately he had to miss spring drills as he recovered from that. He was a very consistent player for us when he was healthy, and not so consistent after he was injured. But, he hung in there and played and contributed.

“He brings a lot of natural enthusiasm to the football field and to our team, and I think that was a bit lacking last season overall. He plays football at a very high and intense level. I think he’s going to let his hair grow real long and play like it’s on fire out there, and I am kind of excited about that.”
Sam Gratton

- Wide Receiver
- Billings, Montana
- Senior High School

Montana: Sam will start at wide receiver for the second season in a row. He is the Grizzlies' fourth leading returning receiver in 2011.

2010: He played in 10 games and started in eight, missing the Sacramento State contest because of an injury. He was fifth on the team with 28 receptions, and tied (with former running back Chase Reynolds) for third with the most touchdown catches with four. He was named to the All-Big Sky Conference academic team.

2009: He played in all 15 games and started in three (Western State, at Idaho State, and Appalachian State). He was Montana's seventh leading receiver with 28 catches. He had TD grabs at UC Davis and at Northern Arizona. He had at least one catch in 13 contests. He was an all-league academic team selection.

2008: He would have played as a true freshman but suffered an injury in fall camp and redshirted.

High School: He was a three-time all-state pick at wide receiver. He played in Montana's East-West Shrine Game and the Mon-Dak All-Star Game and was named to the Great Falls Tribune's "Super State Team."

He was tabbed an All-American and Montana's Player of the Year by PrepNation.com. His prep football team was the "AA" runners-up in 2007, going 10-3. His senior year he was team captain and had 43 catches for 723 yards and seven TDs. Chosen co-Special Teams MVP as a senior at kicker. Career-wise he had 149 receptions for 2,155 yards and 13 touchdowns. His high school football coach was former (1987-88) Griz wide receiver Mark Sulser. He was an academic all-state team pick with a 3.6 GPA.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "The thing about Sam is that he come keeps on ticking. He just shows up over, and over again. When I say he shows up, it might not always be in the end zone making a touchdown catch. He will show up there, and he needs to show up there; but he really shows up when we need first downs and gives us the ability to move the sticks. He's probably our most consistent blocker. I really appreciate his work ethic and his attitude. He is off the charts that way, and he's kind of a silent leader. He is an intelligent player on the field and in the classroom. He does an outstanding job in all walks of life."

Greg Hardy

- Tight End
- Fairview, Montana
- Fairview High School

Montana: Greg will be starting at tight end for the second straight season.

2010: He started all 11 games, and was Montana's sixth leading receiver with 17 catches for 176 yards. He had two or more catches in five games.

2009: He saw limited time because of the two senior starters at his position, but saw considerable action on special teams. He played in 10 games. He did not have a pass reception.

2008: He was a redshirt at Montana.

High School: He was an all-state pick in football, basketball, and track. He earned 12 letters: four each in football, basketball, and track and field at Fairview High School.

Greg was a rare four-time all-conference selection in all three sports. He was a two-time all-state and team MVP pick in football; a three-time all-state selection in basketball, and tabbed all-state four times in track.

He served as a captain in both football and basketball. His basketball team won the district title his senior year, going 20-6. His high school football coach was Kevin Clausen.

Career Highs: He had four grabs for 62 yards and a career-long 28-yard catch against Idaho State in 2010. He had a 23-yard touchdown catch in the season opener last season against Western State.

Personal: His parents are Jim and Mary Hardy of Fairview. His major is history. Birth date: Jan. 2, 1990. Greg's dad, Jim, played football and basketball at Western Montana College (UM-Western).

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "Greg had a very good sophomore campaign. He carried his play from last season into the winter conditioning, and was named our "Player of the Day" in the winter on a couple of occasions. He carried that over into spring football, and I thought he caught the ball extremely well. He improved his attack at the line of scrimmage and his blocking. He was also flawless in his assignments. It is important to play error-free football, and Greg brings us that, and he has definite leadership qualities."
Caleb McSurdy

- Middle Linebacker
- Boise, Idaho
- Borah High School

Montana: Caleb will start at the “mike” linebacker spot for the second year in a row. He is Montana’s leading returning tackler. He has played in 42 games and has 162 career tackles.

2010: He started all 11 games for the Griz and had a team-high 112 tackles. He was fourth on the team with 7.5 tackles for loss. He was a second team All-Big Sky Conference selection. He had 11 or more tackles in six games. He was an all-league academic team pick for the third year in a row, and maintains a 3.27 GPA.

2009: He played in all 15 contests and was the Grizzlies’ 13th (tie) leading tackler with 32 stops. He placed fourth in the 2010 Big Sky Conference track and field meet in the discus with a career-best throw of 161-2 1/4 and was sixth in the shot put with a career-long toss of 53-1.

2008: He played in all 16 games and was the 19th-ranked tackler as a true freshman with 18 stops. He qualified in the discus and shot put for the 2009 Big Sky track and field meet.

High School: He earned four letters in track and three in football at Borah High School. He was an all-state pick at linebacker and at tight end as a senior when he had 65 tackles (55 solos), along with 22 catches for 232 yards and four touchdowns. He was a three-time all-conference choice at linebacker. He was a team captain in football as a junior and senior.

He was the state champion in the shot put and discus as a junior and was tabbed “Thrower of the Year.” He placed in the state shot put three times.

He was team captain in football and track his junior and senior years. His prep teams won four state track titles, and he was the “Thrower of the Year” all four of those seasons. He set high school records in the bench press (390) and squat (515). His high school football coach was Vince Mann.

Career Highs: He had 17 tackles against Montana State last season. He had nine unassisted tackles at Cal Poly last year. He had an interception at Sacramento State in 2009.

Personal: His parents are Patrick and Nancy McSurdy of Boise. His major is communication studies. Birth date: Feb. 24, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: “I think he’s going to be a tremendous leader for us. I don’t know if there is anyone on our team that I personally challenged more than Caleb in running faster, and we geared his winter conditioning drills around that. He led us in total tackles last year, but I think he could have averaged more than Caleb in running faster, and we geared his winter conditioning drills around that. He led us in total tackles last year, but I think he could have made some improvement in these areas. He is a tremendous leader for us.”

He definitely played faster in the spring than he did last fall. I am really excited to see him come out and play hard, and again, show those leadership skills that he does such a great job with.”

Kavario Middleton

- Tight End
- Lakewood, Washington
- Washington/Lakes High School

Montana: Kavario had an outstanding spring and should be a go-to receiver this season. He and junior Greg Hardy will share the starting role at tight end.

2010: He played in 10 games (he missed the Weber State contest because of an injury). He joined the Grizzlies in late August when he transferred from the University of Washington.

Washington: He started in 11 of 12 games in 2009 and was the Huskies’ fourth-leading receiver with 26 receptions. He had at least one catch in 11 of 12 games. He had a season-high five catches for 45 yards and a touchdown in the 2009 season opener against No. 11 LSU.

He played in 12 games as a true freshman in 2008 and started twice, and was fifth on the team with 12 catches.

High School: He was a Parade Magazine All-American. He was listed as the nation’s No. 33 player and No. 4 tight end. He led Lakes High School to a 10-1 record as a senior in 2007, when he caught 45 passes for 503 yards and scored eight touchdowns. He had 115 tackles, 18 pass deflections, and 10 sacks as a defensive end.

He was named an Associated Press first-team 3A pick at both tight end and defensive end. He averaged 13 points and 11 rebounds a game in basketball and was a key player when Lakes High School won the state championship in 2008.

Career Highs: He had three catches for 15 yards against Northern Arizona last season.

Personal: His major is anthropology. Birth date: Sept. 18, 1989. His parents are Reggie and Tamera Middleton of Lakewood.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: “I think Kavario could be a special player for us this season. He joined us late in fall camp and is a tough player for him to catch up and learn the playbook and adjust to new surroundings and to new teammates. He’s come in and fit in well and he’s found a home in Missoula.

Antwon Moutra
- Wide Receiver
- Carson, California
- UCLA/Culver City High School

Montana: Antwon will start at wide receiver for the second year in a row. He is the Grizzlies second leading returning receiver.

2010: He started in all 11 games. He had team-highs of 600 receiving yards for a 16.7-yard average, and six touchdown catches, and was third on the squad with 36 receptions. He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection.

UCLA: He was activated as a true freshman at UCLA two seasons ago when he played in 10 games. He was a two-year letterman for the Bruins.

High School: He was a PrepStar All-American two-way player at Culver City High School (Calif.). During his senior season he had a team record 1,448 receiving yards for 13 touchdowns on offense and 66 tackles and three interceptions on defense.

Career Highs: He had seven receptions against Northern Arizona last season. He had 100 yards receiving and a career-long 58-yarder for a TD versus North Dakota. He had one scoring grab in six different games. He had a career-long run of 14 yards at Northern Colorado.

Personal: His major is sociology. Birth date: December 20, 1989. His parents are Herb and Melodi Moutra of Carson.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "Antwon led us in receiving yards and touchdown catches, and he joined our program late. I was extremely impressed that he picked up our offensive system so fast. Not only was he our team leader in a couple of passing game statistics, but he also blocked very well.

"Again, coming from a school like UCLA where the offense was totally different than what we are attempting to do, I really take my hat off to him. He is a very good person in our program. He just really enjoys being at The University of Montana and in the state of Montana."

Jon Opperud II
- Offensive Tackle
- Portland, Oregon
- Milwaukie High School

Montana: Jon will be starting for the third season in a row in 2011. He has played in 35 career games, and started in 24. He did not participate in spring drills because of an injury, but is expected to be ready to go by fall camp.

2010: He started in 10 of 11 games (he missed the opener due to an injury) at left tackle. He was moved from guard to tackle in the spring. "Oppie" was one of the reasons the Grizzlies were ranked 16th in the FCS in scoring (31.73 points a game) and 28th in passing offense (233.55 yards per game).

2009: He started 14 of 15 games at left guard (he missed the Cal Poly game because of an injury). He was one of the keys to Montana's nationally ranked offense that was second in the Football Championship Subdivision in scoring (35.8 ppg), ninth in total offense (427.0 ypg), and 14th in passing offense (267.2 ypg). He was an honorable mention All-Big Sky Conference selection.

2008: He saw action in 11 games as a true freshman, playing on both the offensive line and on special teams.

High School: He earned three letters in football, three in basketball, and two in track at Milwaukie High School. He was chosen his team's Outstanding Offensive Lineman of the Year as a senior, when he started both ways. His high school football coach was Roland Aumueller. He served as a team captain in football, basketball, and track. He was team MVP and all-league in basketball as a senior when he averaged 18 points and 10 rebounds a game. He was also MVP and a second team all-state pick in track his senior year, and he placed fourth in the state in the discus. He was the conference champion in the discus and shot put in 2008.

Personal: His parents are Jon and Gail Opperud of Portland. His major is business. Birth date: February 13, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "He's worked so darn hard during his career. We hope, and expect, Jon to be healthy and ready for a great senior year. He's played a lot of reps for us in his career at Montana. He's been a starter since his sophomore year when he was at guard, and then we moved him out to tackle, and that says a lot about his versatility. What's neat about Jon is that we can play him at either the guard or tackles and he's started at both positions, although he stayed at tackle through all of last season.

"Unfortunately he missed most of spring practice because of an injury, which really inhibited his ability to improve. He is a very solid player, but he has to get better for us, and we know that he has the ability and the work ethic to do that."
Stephen Sabin

- Offensive Center
- Chandler, Arizona
- Scottsdale Community College

Montana: Stephen will start for the second season in a row, but this season it will be at center, not guard.

2010: He started in nine games at offensive left guard and missed two contests (Weber State and North Dakota) because of an injury. He joined the Grizzlies in the winter of 2010.

Junior College: He was a two-year starter at Scottsdale Community College. He was named all-state in 2009 following his sophomore season at Scottsdale CC. He was an all-conference selection as a freshman and sophomore. He was a teammate of Griz senior offensive lineman Jake Hendrickson in junior college. His JC coach was Doug Madoski.

High School: He prepped at Basha High School in Showlow, Arizona. He was a first team all-state selection as a senior and three-year letterman in football. He was a two-time all-conference pick in football.

He was also a three-time letterman in track and earned one letter in basketball. He was a first team all-region pick in football as a junior and senior.

Personal: His majoring is communication studies. His parents are Charles and Anj Sliskovic of Chandler. Birth date: September 4, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: “He is what we call the 'dirt dog' if you will. He likes getting dirty. I think he was the type of kid who used to jump in the mud puddle and run in the house and say 'mom look how dirty I am.' When other guys are trying to walk around it, he's right in the middle of that mud puddle. I think he will bring our offense into that mud puddle, so to speak, and get them all on the same page.

"He is a blue-collar, hard-working guy, and that's how he was raised. He is a blue-collar, hard-working guy, and that's how he was raised. He is a blue-collar, hard-working guy, and that's how he was raised.

Alex Shaw

- Linebacker
- Spokane, Washington
- Lewis & Clark High School

Montana: Alex will be starting at the "will" linebacker position for the third season in a row, and is the Grizzlies’ third-leading returning tackler. He has played in 37 career games with 25 starts. He begins his senior season with 156 career tackles.

2010: He was Montana's fourth leading tackler with 62 stops. He was sixth on the squad with 6.5 tackles for loss. He started in 10 games (he missed the Idaho State game due to an injury). He had five or more tackles in seven contests, and 10 or more in two games.

He was named to the Big Sky Conference's all-academic team for the third season in a row.

2009: He started all 15 contests and was the team's fourth-leading tackler with 79 stops. He had two forced fumbles which tied him for the second most on the team. He had five or more tackles in seven games.

2008: He played in 12 contests as a true freshman, garnering 15 tackles.

High School: He was Washington's 4A co-Player of the Year as a senior for his state champion Lewis and Clark High School team which had a record of 12-2. He lettered four times in track and field, and three times in both football and basketball.

He was a first team all-state at linebacker and all-conference at running back and at linebacker his senior year. His senior season he rushed for 1,655 yards, including an impressive 793 yards on 151 carries in state playoff games. He rushed for 176 yards and was voted the "Player of the Game" in the state championship against Bothell High School. He was a three-time team all-league pick in football.

He was the Greater Spokane League shot put (55-0) champion as a junior and member of winning 4x100 relay team. He was team captain in football as a junior and senior. He lettered three times in football, basketball, and track. His prep football coach was Tom Yearout. He was nominated for the Eastern Washington "Student-Athlete of the Year Award" following his senior season.

Career Highs: He had a career-high 14 tackles (seven unassisted) at Weber State last season. He had 10 tackles, a tackle for loss, and a pass deflection in UM’s 24-14 FCS semifinal win over Appalachian State in 2009. He had an 11-yard interception return against Idaho State in 2008.

Personal: His parents are Carl and Diane Shaw of Spokane. His major is business (finance). Birth date: June 28, 1990.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "I think every single charity in Missoula, and there are quite a few, he is involved in in some capacity. He's also involved on our campus and serves on different committees representing our football team, our athletic department, and our university in such a positive way. He is just an incredible person.

"The one thing on the field that we really challenged him was his open-field tackling. At some points last year that's an area in which he struggled a bit. I know he worked very hard to improve on that past spring, and hopefully he can carry that over into fall camp. If he improves his open-field tackling he will be a complete player for us, because he is already a very physical player. He has the ability to blitz the quarterback off the edge, and he can still do a nice job in pass defense."
Bryan Waldhauser
- Position: Defensive Tackle
- Height: 6-4
- Weight: 260 lbs

Personal: He has a B.A. in business and is in the MBA program. Bryan's parents are Brad and Brenda Waldhauser of Worden. Birth date: May 29, 1989.

Quoting Coach Pflugrad: "He was really slowed by injuries last season, but was still a very productive player for us. He was also slowed down by an injury in winter conditioning and limited to what he could do. He just barely got healthy for spring ball, but he continued to take all the reps. I think that's how you get better. You're not always going to feel 100 percent, except maybe on the first day of fall camp. Bryan is a very, very consistent player for us. He has the ability to play against a team that lines up very fast because he is a very smart player. He can identify what that offensive line wants to do and what the quarterback is attempting to do. He's working on his MBA. How many guys can do that? He's an impressive person on the field and in the classroom."

MISSOULA, MONTANA -- The second-ranked University of Montana Grizzlies tied an NCAA record by scoring four touchdowns on interceptions and their two senior quarterbacks combined for five scoring passes as they rolled to a 73-2 victory over Western State College.

A crowd of 25,663 was on hand in Washington-Grizzly Stadium – the sixth largest ever in 179 games.

The 73 points ties for UM's fifth most ever points scored in a game. The Griz beat Mt. Saint Charles (Carroll College) 133-0 (which was also a season opener) in 1920; Montana Tech 106-6 in 1924; 79-0 over Montana State in 1904; and 81-21 over Weber State and 73-23 at Idaho State, both in 1999.

It took the Grizzlies just 53 seconds to take the lead for good, as quarterback Andrew Selle hit Sam Gratron for a 37-yard scoring pass at the 14:07 mark.

Montana (1-0) then scored on back-to-back interceptions, the first by linebacker Jordan Tripp from 22 yards out, and the second a 34-yarder by safety Erik Stoll. Stoll's pick gave the Griz a 21-0 lead.

Returning Peter Nguyen was instrumental in the win, giving his team excellent field position several times. He had six punt returns for 149 yards (a 24.8-yard average).

The Mountaineers' (0-2) only points in the game came when Selle fumbled a center snap, and senior end Patrick Atherton recovered it for a safety.

The Griz scored on their third pick when cornerback Sean Murray picked off yet another Roper and Carver hooked up again early (14:48) for a 55-yard touchdown, and led with 6:48 left.

Greg Hardy and a Selle to Jabin Sambrano pass returned about an hour or so later, warmed up, repeatedly around the stadium. The teams finally were cleared off the field and returned to their benches.

The Mountaineers' fourth down pass wasn't on target as Bryce Carver 12 pass from Roper (McKnight kick), 4-31 1:07

UMB - Trumaine Johnson 18 interception return (McKnight kick)
WSC - Patrick Atherton safety (recovered fumble in end zone)
UM - Erik Stoll 34 interception return (McKnight kick)
UM - Jordan Tripp 22 interception return (McKnight kick)

UM - Jordan Tripp 22 interception return (McKnight kick)

A crowd of 25,663 was on hand in Washington-Grizzly Stadium – the sixth largest ever in 179 games.

The 73 points ties for UM's fifth most ever points scored in a game. The Griz beat Mt. Saint Charles (Carroll College) 133-0 (which was also a season opener) in 1920; Montana Tech 106-6 in 1924; 79-0 over Montana State in 1904; and 81-21 over Weber State and 73-23 at Idaho State, both in 1999.

It took the Grizzlies just 53 seconds to take the lead for good, as quarterback Andrew Selle hit Sam Gratron for a 37-yard scoring pass at the 14:07 mark.

Montana (1-0) then scored on back-to-back interceptions, the first by linebacker Jordan Tripp from 22 yards out, and the second a 34-yarder by safety Erik Stoll. Stoll's pick gave the Griz a 21-0 lead.

Returning Peter Nguyen was instrumental in the win, giving his team excellent field position several times. He had six punt returns for 149 yards (a 24.8-yard average).

The Mountaineers' (0-2) only points in the game came when Selle fumbled a center snap, and senior end Patrick Atherton recovered it for a safety.

The Griz scored on their third pick when cornerback Sean Murray picked off yet another Roper and Carver hooked up again early (14:48) for a 55-yard touchdown, and led with 6:48 left.
SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIF. -- The Cal Poly Mustangs built a 15-point fourth quarter lead and used late turnovers for the upset win over the top-ranked Grizzlies.

Montana had two chances for a comeback win in the final few minutes. Cal Poly defensive lineman Kyle Murphy forced Montana quarterback Justin Roper to fumble and recovered at the Montana 35 with 1:55 left to end a UM attempt to get into field goal range. The Griz defense then forced the Mustangs to punt, and Montana had 1:06 left and the ball at its own 2-yard line. The Griz only picked up 24 more yards before Poly linebacker Marty Mohamed picked off Roper in the closing seconds to end Montana's last gasp.

The game was knotted 14-14 at the half, and after the Mustangs' James Langford missed a 50-yard field goal attempt wide left, Montana put together two drives to set up Brody McKnight field goals of 27 and 28 yards to give Montana a 6-point (20-14) lead in the third quarter.

At that point, everything went wrong for the Grizzlies.

Cal Poly quarterback Doug Shumway, who replaced starter Tony Smith, used his first pass attempt of the game to hit a wide open David Mahr for a 83-yard touchdown strike to wrap up a 3-play, 95-yard drive.

On Montana's next play, Cal Poly cornerbback Scottie Cordier stepped in front of Andrew Selle's pass at the Montana 45 and weaved untouched into the end zone. The pick-six gave the Mustangs a 28-20 lead going into the fourth quarter.

Cal Poly put together a 9-play drive that covered 62 yards and consumed 4:11 at the beginning of the fourth quarter. Shumway hit Dominique Johnson in the end zone from 25 yards out to make it 35-20 with 10:40 left to play.

Down 15 (35-20), Montana began coming back. Roper went 5-for-8 throwing on the next drive, including a 21-yard pass to Antwon Moutra and a 24-yarder to Sam Gratton before he had a chance to tie the game, but Roper's pass at the Montana 45 was tipped pass at the Poly 35-yard line and returned it 15 yards to midfield. The interception gave the Mustangs excellent field position for the second time, but this time the Griz defense was able to force a field goal attempt that Cal Poly kicker Jake Mahr for a 83-yard touchdown strike to wrap up the game.

MONTANA FOOTBALL 2011
CHENEY, WASH. -- The 18th-ranked Eastern Washington Eagles scored nine unanswered points in the final seconds of the game to register a 36-27 victory over sixth-ranked Montana in the inaugural game on the red turf of Roos Field.

Montana had tied the game 27-27 with 1:33 to play on a 22-yard field goal by junior kicker Brody McKnight. The Griz had advanced the ball from their own 15-yard line to the EWU five in that drive. But with a first-and-goal at the Eagle five-yard line, Montana’s drive stalled and they had to settle for McKnight’s game-tying field goal.

But EWU answered back, as the Eagles drove 50 yards and regained the lead 30-27 on a 31-yard field goal by Mike Jarrett with just four seconds remaining in the contest.

On the following kick-off, EWU was called for an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty, leaving Montana on the one yard line. Montana quarterback Justin Roper had the ball knocked out of his passing hand on that final play, and Eagle defensive lineman Renard Williams returned the loose ball for a final touchdown as time expired.

Both teams jumped out to quick starts in the first quarter combining for three touchdowns in 52 seconds.

Griz junior corner Trumaine Johnson scored the first points of the game on a 53-yard interception return. Montana recovered the following muffed kick return, and then scored a touchdown on the next play on a reverse to receiver Jabin Sambrano, and UM led 14-0 with 8:10 to go in the opening quarter.

Montana’s 14-7 lead did not last into the second quarter, as EWU’s explosive running back, Taiwan Jones, broke free for a 72-yard touchdown run tying the game 14-14 with 8:02 left in the second stanza.

Montana responded with a 14-play, 96-yard drive, resulting in a 20-yard touchdown reception by Antwon Moutra to give UM a 21-14 halftime lead.

EWU got its first lead in the third quarter when Darriell Beaumonte blocked Sean Wren’s punt and returned it for a touchdown, giving the Eagles a 24-21 advantage.

Besides the blocked punt, Montana also struggled in other areas of special teams. Kick returner Peter Nguyen had three fumbles and lost two of them. Montana had a total of six turnovers in the loss.

Sambrano had 5 catches for 65 yards, while Bryce Carver had 5 for 40, and Moutra finished with 4 catches for 50 yards.

Griz senior quarterback Andrew Selle went 19-of-34 for 204 yards for one TD and was picked off twice.

UM running back Chase Reynolds rushed 23 times for 119 yards.

Jones had 224 yards on 27 carries and one score, averaging 8.2 yards a tote. He also had 3 receptions for 60 yards.

EWU quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell was 17-of-37-2 for 234 yards and a touchdown. Receiver Brandon Kaufman led the Eagles with 5 catches for 119 yards and a touchdown.

The Grizzlies had not lost to the Eagles since 2005, and had won 14 of the previous 17 meetings.
MISSOULA, MONTANA – Senior quarterback Justin Roper threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to sophomore wide receiver Bryce Carver with 9:34 left in the game, and the defense played a stellar second half to lead the 14th-ranked Grizzlies.

A record Washington-Grizzly Stadium crowd of 25,965 watched Montana win its 18th consecutive Homecoming contest, but it wasn’t easy. The attendance eclipsed the mark of 25,811 set in the Weber State game last season.

The Grizzlies once again were plagued by turnovers and sketchy special teams play, as they lost three fumbles and were picked off once, and had a punt blocked.

The Hornets had the ball three times after the Roper-to-Carver go ahead TD, but had two three-and-outs, and then when Griz junior cornerback Trumaine Johnson picked off a pass by Sac State quarterback Jeff Fleming on a desperation fourth-and-18 situation, the Grizzlies had the win. The Griz “D” held the Hornets to eight total yards on their last three offensive series.

Montana’s defense held Sac State to 70 total yards (24 rushing and 46 passing) and two first downs in the second half. The Grizzlies gained 142 second-half yards (103 passing and 39 rushing), and picked up nine first downs.

The Grizzlies took a 25-21 lead early (14:56) in the fourth quarter when Fleming hooked up with tight end Matt Carter for the second time, this one coming from three yards out.

After the Hornets re-gained the lead for the fourth time in the game, Roper, who had replaced Andrew Selle who was injured late in the second quarter, engineered a 12-play, 68-yard drive which culminated with the 29-yard scoring strike to Carver, which proved to be the winning points.

Sac took an early 3-0 lead on a 50-yard field goal by Chris Diniz. UM went ahead 7-3 on a 42-yard field goal by Diniz, cut the Griz lead to 7-6 in the final scoring in the opening quarter.

The Hornets regained the lead (13-7) early (11:52) in the second quarter on a 4-yard Fleming-to-Carter scoring pass. That touchdown was set up when Sac State defensive back Joe Larche blocked a Brody McKnight punt, and the Hornets got the ball on the UM 11-yard line. It took Sac just two plays to convert the turnover into six points.

The Grizzlies went up 14-3 on their next possession, as Roper connected with wide receiver Antwon Moutra for a 54-yard drive which culminated with the 29-yard scoring strike to Carver, which proved to be the winning points.

Reynolds started the scoring in the second half with his record-breaking touchdown, giving Montana a 30-7 lead with 10:19 to go in the third quarter.

The Bengals' second and final TD on offense came on an 8-yard pass from senior quarterback Russel Hill to junior wide receiver Kelvin Krosch, cutting the Griz lead to 30-7.

Montana then scored on a 6-yard scoring pass from Roper to halfback Dan Moore (his first career receiving touchdown); McKnight's fourth field goal (33 yards); and the Johnson-to-Larson hook-up, and took a commanding 47-14 advantage with 10:37 left to play.

ISU's final two scores came in the return game, as Tavoy Moore broke loose for a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD on the ensuing kickoff after Larson's TD grab, and then busted free on a punt return for an 84-yard touchdown with 1:42 left in the contest.

Roper passed for a career-high 319 yards, going 28-of-42-1 for two scores. Johnson, a true freshman who was activated the previous week at Northern Colorado, was 7-of-9-0 for 19 yards, and had the TD pass to Larson.

Thirteen different Griz players caught passes, led by sophomore Bryce Carver (6-29-0), junior

GREELEY, COLO. -- After three straight close games the 11th/12th-ranked Montana Grizzlies enjoyed a change of pace, taking an early lead and never trailing on the way to a 30-7 win over the Northern Colorado Bears.

Montana running back Chase Reynolds became the leading touchdown scorer in school history as the host Grizzlies defeated the visiting Bengals in a Big Sky Conference game in UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium (the attendance 25,568 is the ninth largest in stadium history).

Reynolds, a senior from Drummond, scored on a 3-yard run early in the third quarter, giving him a school-record 54th career touchdown (48 rushing and six receiving). He broke the record of 53 total touchdowns set by running back Lex Thomas in 1967.

The 12th-ranked Grizzlies dominated the Bengals and took a commanding 47-14 lead with 10:37 left on a 15-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Justin Roper to halfback Dan Moore (his first career TD throw, and the latter with his first career touchdown reception).

Montana scored 20 unanswered points to start the game on a pair of field goals by junior kicker Brody McKnight and a 17-yard scoring pass from Roper to halfback Dan Moore (his first career TD throw, and the latter with his first career touchdown reception). McKnight's third field goal of the first half, a 33-yarder, gave Montana a 13-0 lead.

HILLSBORO, ORE. — Junior kicker Brody McKnight nailed a 25-yard field goal as time expired to defeat Portland State in Hillsboro Stadium.

The win put The Grizzlies in a tie for first in the Big Sky Conference with Eastern Washington, both teams sporting 4-1 league records. Montana State (3-1) and Northern Arizona (2-1) are the other two teams with just one conference loss.

After a 28-yard kickoff return by sophomore Peter Nguyen, Montana took over at its own 38-yard line with 2:34 left to play, trailing 21-20. The Griz drive, in which UM converted the third down it faced, advanced 54 yards on 10 plays to the PSU 8-yard line to set up McKnight’s 25-yard game-winner, the third of his career.

The game was tied 14-14 to start the fourth quarter, and Montana took advantage of Viking miscues to take the lead.

The first was a turnover where McKnight’s punt glanced off of PSU’s Michael Williams before Montana’s Ethan Petman recovered the ball at the Vikings’ 30-yard line. The Griz could only manage a 25-yard McKnight field goal on the short (22 yards) seven-play drive, giving them a 17-14 lead with 13:51 left in the game.

The Vikings turned the ball over again on their first play from scrimmage following McKnight’s field goal. Junior running back Cory McCaffrey fumbled when junior linebacker Caleb McSurdy stripped the ball at the end of a 2-yard run. Sophomore linebacker Jordan Tripp recovered for the Griz at the Viking 27. Again the Viking defense held Montana to a McKnight field goal, the third of his career.

The game looked over for PSU when running back Willie Griffin fumbled a pitch attempt that Griz senior cornerback Jimmy Wilson fell on at the PSU 34. The Griz appeared to finally pick up a touchdown off a turnover when senior running back Chase Reynolds broke free for a 22-yard score, but it was called back due to a holding penalty, and quarterback Justin Roper’s pass was picked off on the next play at the PSU 3-yard line.

The Vikings put together their most impressive drive of the night, going 97 yards in 11 plays, capped off by a 1-yard run by McCaffrey; giving PSU a 21-20 lead with 2:34 remaining in the contest.

The Griz scored first when Roper hit junior receiver Antwon Moutra down the sideline in the end zone for a 33-yard touchdown with 6:01 left until halftime. The teams were tied 7-7 at halftime.

PSU returner Nevin Lewis ran McKnight’s kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown, tying the score at 7-all with 6:01 left until halftime. The teams were tied 7-7 at intermission.

Coming out of halftime, Kavanaugh corralled a high snap and took the option run up the middle 29 yards for a touchdown, giving the Vikings their first lead of the game, 14-7.

Montana answered later in the quarter when Reynolds caught a screen pass from Roper with nothing but 37 yards of open field to the end zone. The TD, the 55th of Reynolds’ career, tied the game at 14-14 with 3:25 left in the third quarter.

Roper threw 17-37 for 172 yards, two touchdowns, and an interception. Reynolds rushed for 107 yards on 23 carries, and also caught a team-high six passes for 67 yards and a touchdown.

Kavanaugh had a game-high 131 yards rushing on 15 carries, while McCaffrey had 24 totes for 109 yards and a score.

Portland State led the game in total offense, 342-295, including a 277-123 advantage in rushing yards. The Vikings also dominated time of possession, 36:25 - 23:35. The Griz had a sizable 172-65 advantage in passing yards.

GAME 8 – AT MONTANA 24, NORTHERN ARIZONA 21

MISSOULA, MONTANA -- Wide receiver C.J. Atkins scored on a 1-yard pass from quarterback Justin Roper with five seconds left in the game, as the Grizzlies edged the Lumberjacks 24-21.

The 22nd-ranked Lumberjacks (4-3/2-2 Big Sky) had regained the lead (21-17) with 1:59 left to play on an 11-yard scoring run by halfback Giovannie Dixon. NAU tried a two-point conversion after Dixon's go-ahead touchdown, but a pass by quarterback Chase Stangel fell incomplete.

Montana won its fifth game in a row, and scored its game-winning points in the final seconds for the second straight week. Last Saturday Griz kicker Brody McKnight booted a 25-yard field goal as time expired in a 23-21 win over Portland State.

The victory over NAU, UM's sixth of the year, gave the Grizzlies their 25th consecutive winning season.

Atkins scored his first career TD, UM's only points in the first half, on a 48-yard run in the opening quarter.

NAU running back Zach Bauman knotted the score at 7-7 with 44 seconds left until halftime on a 1-yard run. The Jacks got two more points when referee Jim Lenau called a safety after Grizzly returner Peter Nguyen had stepped out of the back on the end zone after catching the ball on the ensuing kickoff, making it 9-7 at half.

The Griz took a 10-9 lead on a 38-yard field goal by McKnight. Montana boosted it lead to 17-9 when Roper connected with junior wide receiver Antwon Moutra on a 28-yard touchdown pass with 8:03 remaining in the third quarter.

The Griz defense was led by sophomore linebacker Jordan Tripp who had a game-high 11 tackles, along with a sack and a pass break-up. Senior cornerback Brandon Dodson and junior safety Mike McCord each had five tackles, while junior linebacker Caleb McSurdy added eight stops and two PDs. The Griz "D" had five sacks in the game.

Montana's final drive was impressive. The Jacks went 67 yards on nine plays, with Stangel completing a pair of passes for 27 yards, Bauman rushing six times for 29 yards, and Dixon capping it off with his 11-yard touchdown run.

Montana's final drive was equally impressive. First Nguyen had a 43-yard kickoff return, giving the Griz the ball on their own 44. Roper completed six passes in the final drive — three of them going to Moutra, and he also had a key 15-yard run, picking up a big first down on a 3rd-and-10 and advancing the ball to the NAU 15.

After Roper's 15-yard gain, he completed back-to-back passes to Moutra (8 yards) and Reynolds (6 yards), making it first-and-goal for Montana from the NAU 1-yard line. Then Reynolds was stopped short on a couple of runs, but the Griz got another first down on a defensive holding call, and the next play after the penalty Roper lofted a pass to Atkins who wrestled the ball away from the NAU defensive back for the game-winner.

Roper was 17-of-30 for 118 yards and two touchdowns. Moutra hauled in 7 passes for 63 yards and a TD. The game-winning grab by Atkins was his only catch in the game. Reynolds gained a hard-earned 83 yards on 23 carries.

The Griz defense was led by sophomore linebacker Jordan Tripp who had a game-high 11 tackles, along with a sack and a pass break-up. Senior cornerback Brandon Dodson and junior safety Mike McCord had 9 tackles each, while junior linebacker Caleb McSurdy added 8 stops and two PDs. The Griz "D" had 5 sacks in the game.

Montana's victory over NAU, UM's sixth of the year, gave the Grizzlies their 25th consecutive winning season.
GAME 9 – AT WEBER STATE 30, MONTANA 21

OGDEN, UTAH – Running back Vai Tafuna, a 6-1, 245-pound senior, rushed for 124 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a key Big Sky Conference victory over the seventh-ranked Grizzlies.

It was the second loss in a row for Montana in Ogden, as they suffered their only regular-season loss there in 2008, 45-28.

The setback halted a five-game winning streak by the Grizzlies, and knocked them out of a tie with Eastern Washington for first place in the Big Sky.

Montana senior quarterback Justin Roper threw for three first-half touchdowns but also threw three second-half interceptions in the losing effort.

The Wildcats out-rushed Montana 259-111. The power running attack of WSU also gave the Wildcats a massive 40:28-19:32 edge in time-of-possession and helped them convert 50-percent of their third down opportunities. Overall, the Griz led 261-129 in passing yards. WSU held a slim 388-372 yard edge in total offense.

Roper was 22-of-38-3 for 261 yards and 3 TDs in the game, but was 4-of-11-3 for 66 yards in the second half.

Griz running back Chase Reynolds had 125 all-purpose yards — 71 on the ground on 14 carries and 54 yards on six receptions. Wide receiver Jabin Sambrano, who has been slowed by an injury, led all receivers with 70 yards and a touchdown on four catches.

The Grizzlies took advantage of a WSU fumble to take the early lead. Sophomore linebacker Jordan Tripp recovered a fumble by quarterback Cameron Higgins at the WSU 7-yard line, and on the next play Roper hit Sambrano for a 7-yard touchdown.

The Wildcats answered with two Tafuna rushing touchdowns. He had a 1-yard score with 3:21 left in the first quarter to finish off an 80-yard Wildcat drive, but the extra point was wide right. He followed that up with a 2-yard TD run with 2:08 to go and a 12-yarder to Bryce Carver with 26 seconds left. The pair of TDs gave Montana a 21-13 halftime lead.

Montana’s offense got hot at the end of the first half. Roper had TD throws of 11 yards to Sam Gratton, 12 yards to Robert Brown and 29 yards to David James, who returned it 12 yards to the Montana 21. WSU settled for a 33-yard field goal by Shaun McClain after the turnover — what proved to be the final points of the game and giving WSU a 30-21 lead.

The turnaround in the contest came on UM’s first possession of the third quarter. After the Grizzlies drove to the WSU 17-yard line, Roper was picked off on a first-and-10 by defensive back David Webb who returned it 29 yards to the WSU 37-yard line. The pick set up an 11-play drive that consumed 5:52 and ended with a Tafuna 1-yard TD run. Instead of taking a 28-13 lead, Montana held a slim 21-19 advantage.

That pick started a lop-sided second half for WSU. The Grizzlies had 22 plays for 121 yards and five first downs in the final 30 minutes, compared to the Wildcats’ 43 plays for 170 yards and 10 first downs. The time of possession was significant, as WSU had the ball 15 more minutes (22:34 to 7:26) — an entire quarter longer than Montana.

That lead was soon gone. Roper’s pass was tipped off of Carver’s hands to Wildcat cornerback David James, who returned it 12 yards to the Montana 48, and 10 plays and 3:39 later, Tafuna scored from three yards out. Bo Bolen’s two-point conversion gave the Wildcats the lead for good, 27-21, with 2:07 left in the third quarter. WSU had the ball 11:09 in the third stanza, converted 5-of-6 third downs (UM 0-0-0), and out-scored the Griz 14-0.

The teams traded punts to begin the fourth quarter, and on UM’s next possession Roper forced a third-down pass and safety Jordan Brown picked it off and returned it 47 yards to the Montana 21. WSU settled for a 33-yard field goal by Shaun McClain after the turnover — what proved to be the final points of the game and giving WSU a 30-21 lead.
MISSOULA, MONTANA – Senior running back Chase Reynolds rushed for 173 yards and three touchdowns and broke the school record for scoring runs in the win.

Reynolds’ three touchdown runs gave him 51 in his career, breaking the record of 50 set by former halfback and Kalispell native Lex Hilliard from 2003-07.

Saturday’s game was a non-league contest, but North Dakota, along with Cal Poly, UC Davis, and Southern Utah will join the Big Sky Conference in 2012.

Montana took an early lead and scored the only points of the first quarter when senior quarterback Justin Roper hit junior wide receiver Antwon Moutra for a 58-yard touchdown pass, giving UM a 7-0 lead with just three seconds left in the opening stanza.

It looked like the Grizzlies might have the game under control when Reynolds scored his first touchdown of the game on a 12-yard run with 12:28 left in the second quarter, giving Montana a 13-0 lead, but Dominique Hawkins returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards to the UM 1-yard line, and running back Mitch Sutton scored on a 1-yard run, and the Fighting Sioux cut the Griz lead to 13-7 with 12:10 remaining until halftime.

UND had another big play right before halftime, this time by its defense, as senior nose tackle Ty Boyle tipped a Roper pass, intercepted and ran it back for a touchdown, giving Montana a 13-0 lead, but Dominique Hawkins returned the ensuing kickoff 99 yards to the UM 1-yard line, and running back Mitch Sutton scored on a 1-yard run, and the Fighting Sioux cut the Griz lead to 13-7 with 12:10 remaining until halftime.

UND had another big play right before halftime, this time by its defense, as senior nose tackle Ty Boyle tipped a Roper pass, intercepted and returned it to the UND 7-yard line. The Grizzly defense held, though, and UND settled for a 29-yard field goal by Zeb Miller. That made the score 13-10, Montana, at halftime.

The Grizzly defense not only shut out the Fighting Sioux in the final 26-plus minutes, but they limited the visitors from Grand Forks to just 45 total yards on 23 plays, along with five first downs in the fourth quarter.

Reynolds rushed 15 times for 117 yards (7.8-yard average) and two touchdowns in the second half that was dominated by the home team.

Reynolds carried the ball 27 times and averaged 6.4 yards a tote. Sophomore halfback Gerald Kemp added 50 yards on nine runs.

Roper was 14-of-22 for 231 yards and a touchdown. Sambrano had a game-high 4 catches and 100 yards.

The Grizzly defense not only shut out the Fighting Sioux in the final 26-plus minutes, but they limited the visitors from Grand Forks to just 45 total yards on 23 plays, along with five first downs in the fourth quarter.

Reynolds rushed 15 times for 117 yards (7.8-yard average) and two touchdowns in the second half that was dominated by the home team.

After Sutton’s go-ahead TD, the Grizzlies regained the lead for good thanks to Reynolds, who on the next series had a huge 51-yard run to the UND 14-yard line, then two plays later he scored on a 14-yard run, giving the Griz a 20-17 lead with 9:49 left in the third quarter.

Montana added an insurance touchdown on its third possession in the fourth quarter, with Reynolds scoring his record-breaking touchdown on a 4-yard run. The key play in the drive that led to Reynolds’ record-breaking TD run was a 55-yard pass completion from Roper to junior wide receiver Jabin Sambrano. That hook-up moved the ball to the UND 12-yard line, and two plays later Reynolds scored his 51st rushing touchdown.
MISSOULA, MONTANA - The Grizzlies shut their intrastate rivals in the second half, but that was not enough as the Bobcats won in front of a Washington-Grizzly Stadium record crowd of 26,019.

MSU tied Eastern Washington (9-2/7-1) for the league title, but the Cats earned the automatic Football Championship Subdivision playoff berth thanks to their 30-27 win over the Eagles earlier this season.

EWU received one of the FCS's 10 at-large playoff berths and went on to win its first-ever FCS national title. The Grizzlies were denied a play-off berth, ending their record streak at 17 in a row. The Grizzlies had won or shared the previous 12 Big Sky championships, dating back to the 1998 season.

The loss over-shadowed a gutsy effort by Montana's record-setting halfback, Chase Reynolds, who rushed for a season-high 180 yards.

Montana dominated MSU in the second half out-gaining them 219 to 57 in total yards, and picking up eight more first downs (12 to 4). But, the home-standing Grizzlies managed only two points of their own in the final half, those points coming thanks to an errant snap on a MSU punt.

The 8th-ranked Bobcats opened the scoring on the first possession of the game, as quarterback Denarius McGhee threw a 16-yard TD pass to fellow redshirt freshman and wide receiver Tanner Bleskin, giving MSU a 7-0 lead.

The 11th/14th-ranked Grizzlies tied the game up just seconds later, as Reynolds scored on a 21-yard touchdown run in Montana's first play from scrimmage, knotting the score at 7-7.

MSU's next possession culminated with a 9-yard scoring pass from McGhee to running back CJ Palmer, giving the Cats a 14-7 lead with 3:57 left in the first quarter.

Montana scored on its next possession, with senior quarterback Justin Roper scoring on a 6-yard run with 16 seconds remaining until halftime, tying the score at 14-all. But, MSU scored on its third straight possession, running back Orenzo Davis rushing for a 17-yard TD to give MSU a 21-14 lead with 9:18 left in the second quarter, which proved to be the final points tallied by the Cats.

The Griz had several opportunities to score in the second half, but were intercepted once at the MSU 24-yard line, and lost two fumbles inside the Bobcats' five-yard line.

The only second-half points in the contest came with 4:41 left in the third quarter, as a low snap from center skidded by MSU punter Rory Perez and went all the way back to the end zone, and Perez scooped the ball up and swatted it out of the end zone for a safety.

It was Montana's first regular-season home loss since a 34-20 setback to EWU in 2005.

Reynolds rushed 21 times for 180 yards and a TD. In UM's last two games he rushed for 353 yards and four touchdowns.

Reynolds ended up with 4,067 career rushing yards, just three behind the record of all-time leader Yohance Humphrey (4,070, 1998-2001). Reynolds set school records in total TDs scored (59) and rushing TDs (52).

Roper was 14-of-25-2 for 115 yards and no TDs, and rushed 12 times for 55 yards and a score. Halfback Gerald Kemp had 3 catches for 50 yards, while wide receiver Jabin Sambrano had 3 for 20.

Griz linebacker Cale McSurdy had a career-high 17 tackles, while strong safety Erik Stoll had 12 stops, and linebacker Jordan Tripp had 10 tackles, including 2.5 for a loss.

McGhee was 11-of-18-0 for 138 yards and two scores. Davis rushed 33 times for 140 yards and a TD. Linebacker Jody Owens led MSU with 10 tackles.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE
The University of Montana led the Big Sky Conference in attendance in 2010 with an average of 25,448 fans per home game in Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

Montana finished the regular season second in the nation in total attendance and average attendance. Montana drew 152,589 fans to its six home games. Appalachian State led the FCS with 25,717 per contest.

The Big Sky Conference enters its 49th year of athletic competition in 2011-12. The Big Sky is an NCAA Division I member in all sports, with member institutions classified in the Football Championship Subdivision (formally I-AA). The Big Sky returned to a nine-team format in 2006 with the addition of Northern Colorado.

The current lineup includes Eastern Washington, Idaho State, Montana, Montana State, Northern Arizona, Northern Colorado, Portland State, Sacramento State and Weber State. The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the FCS.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members - Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back to eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

With the addition of Northern Colorado in 2006, the Big Sky spreads across eight states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountain Front. The Big Sky is represented along the entire west coast with schools in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Colorado.

Of the eight western-most states in the contiguous United States only one, Nevada, is not represented in the Big Sky.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled “The Big Sky.” Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., the legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a “Welcome to Big Sky Country” sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought “Big Sky” would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 14 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis.

The 2011-12 season will mark the 24th year that the Big Sky Conference will sponsor championships in women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, will enter his 17th year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81 while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

The Big Sky will be a nine-team football league in 2011 but expand to 13 football-playing members in 2012. North Dakota and Southern Utah will join the Big Sky on July 1, 2012 as full members. Cal Poly and UC-Davis will begin play as football-only members in 2012.

Bernie Bierman, the new coach, was an All-American half­back at the University of Minnesota in 1915.
Probably no season up to this time saw more "firsts" than in 1920. The Grizzlies beat the University of Washington for the only time in history. Montana's football field was moved and named "Dornblaser Field" in honor of Paul Dornblaser, the great Grizzly tackle, who was killed in action in World War I. Finally, the Grizzlies ran up their biggest score in history, a 133-0 pasting of Mt. St. Charles (Carroll College).

BERNARD OAKES (ILLINOIS)

1931-1934 (8-22-1)

Bernard F. "Bunny" Oakes, who had been line coach at the University of Nebraska for the past five years, became Major Milburn's successor as head coach of football for the 1931 season. Robert Stansberry and Henry Blastic made honorable mention All Americans.

Bernard Oakes left after the 1934 season to coach football at the University of Colorado.
DOUG FESSENDEN (ILLINOIS) 1935-1941 (32-25-4)

Douglas Fessenden, former High School coach in Chicago, was selected as head football coach at the university in April of 1935.

"Man of the Year" was the honor accorded Douglas Fessenden by the Kaimin in 1935 for the distinguished work done by him in raising Montana to a prominent place in Pacific Coast Conference football. Fessenden proved himself to be an able mentor and won the respect and admiration of the entire school.

The 1937 season was the most successful football season since 1914. Montana won six consecutive games in 1937 which is the first time in history Montana won as many games.

The highlight of the 1939 season was the 13-0 win over the University of Idaho, smashing the Idaho jinx and giving Montana possession of the Little Brown Stein for the first time.

The 1941 football season was a successful year as well, UM going 6-3.

DOUG FESSENDEN 1946-1948 (14-15)

Douglas Fessenden returned from the Army Air Corp in time to take over his duties as head football coach.

Montana enjoyed a successful 1947 season winning 7 games and losing 4 and defeated Washington State College and the University of Idaho on their home grounds.

Fessenden resigned in 1948 and the following year received his doctors degree in Physical Education from Columbia University. Fessenden had the best win and loss record in football of any university football coach up until that time. -- The Redbrick

TE DE SHIPKEY (STANFORD)
1949-1951 (12-16)
Ted Shipkey began his coaching stint at the University of Montana in 1949.

The passing combination of Ray Bauer (end) and Tom Kingsford (quarterback) in 1950 was one of the best in University history. Montana withdrew from the Pacific Coast Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference which is also known as the "Skyline" Conference.

Ted Shipkey resigned as football coach in 1951.

JERRY WILLIAMS (WASHING ON STATE) 1955-1957 (6-23)

UM's fund-raising arm, the Century Club, got its start in 1955, the same year as Head Coach Jerry Williams arrived.

Aside from the fact that Stanley Renning was considered one of the greatest sophomores to ever appear in a Grizzly uniform, the 1956 campaign was a dismal one.

RAY JENKINS (COLORADO)
1958-1963 (14-43)

Ray Jenkins' first year as football coach was a poor one with an 0-10 record, the worst in Montana history.

The Grizzlies came up with their best passing attack in 10 seasons during 1959, a campaign that also marked the end of a 15-game losing streak when the Grizzlies scored a 12-0 upset over Brigham Young University.

Terry Dillon was selected and played in the East-West Shrine game January 1963.

The 1963 football season was unsuccessful - winning one game and losing nine. Ray Jenkins resigned at the close of the 1963 football season.

HUGH DAVIDSON (COLORADO)
1964-1966 (8-20)

Since assuming the duties of both head football coach and athletic director at the University of Montana in 1967, Jack Swarthout put a drive into the school’s athletic program which had not been seen in Missoula for several years. Montana won the Big Sky Conference championship in 1969 for the first time since conference football began in 1963.

Coach Swarthout and his staff received considerable praise for the excellent job of coaching Montana to its second consecutive undefeated regular season play in 1970. The team played in the Camillia Bowl, losing to UND 31-16. There were several Grizzlies selected to various All-American teams in 1971.

On June 1, 1975, Swarthout resigned as athletic director to devote full-time to varsity football.

Swarthout resigned as football coach at the close of the 1975 season. He chose to return to high school teaching and coaching at Capital High, Olympia, Washington. Swarthout left UM as the winningest football coach in the University’s history with a nine-year record of 51 wins, 41 losses and one tie.

Gene Carlson (Montana)
1976-1979 (16-25)
"The 1976 football season opened with Eugene Carlson as the new head football coach. Carlson inherited the coaching staff of the preceding administration (Jack Swarthout), as well as the offensive system (Wis ebore or Texas Y). However, Gene made some changes in the offense formation."
"A greater success was expected by those in power so Carlson resigned at the close of the 1979 season. Carlson was an alumnus of the University of Montana and was a very successful high school coach in Great Falls prior to coming to the University of Montana." - The Redbook

Larry Donovan (Nebraska)
1980-1985 (25-37-1)
Larry Donovan was selected to replace Gene Carlson. Donovan was a graduate of the University of Nebraska and came to Montana from the University of Kansas where he had been an assistant coach.
The 1981 season was positive, as Coach Donovan was rebuilding the football program, and 1982 saw the Grizzlies in a first-round playoff game at Idaho along with winning the Big Sky Conference title. However, the next three seasons had more L's then W's, and after the 1985 season, Donovan and most of his coaching staff did not have their contracts renewed for the 1986 season.

2010: Grizzlies' record run in playoffs stops at 17

It had to end some time, and unfortunately it did in 2010, as 7-4 Montana failed to make the Football Championship Subdivision (Division I-AA) playoffs for the first time in 18 seasons.

Halfback Chase Reynolds finished his brilliant career by breaking school records for total touchdowns (59) and rushing touchdowns (52), and was just four yards short of breaking the standard for career rushing yards with 4,067.

The Griz suffered a huge loss when senior quarterback Andrew Selle suffered a career-ending injury in the fourth game of the season against Sacramento State.

2009: Griz Advance to Seventh FCS Title Game in 15 Years

Montana’s semifinal showdown against fifth-ranked Appalachian State and its dynamic quarterback Armani Edwards, was played on a snowy day in front of a national audience on ESPN, and was everything it was hyped up to be, with two of these FCS heavyweights going head-to-head.

It ultimately came down to the last play. With the game knotted 17-all, Selle floated a 25-yard pass to Jabin Sambrano who caught the ball in the left corner of the end zone with 1:31 left to play. Edwards led his team all the way down to Montana’s 3-yard line, but a last-second pass was broken up by cornerback Trumaine Johnson and the Grizzlies earned their seventh trip to the title game.

Mariani, who was named to the Pro Bowl as a rookie with the Tennessee Titans in 2010, broke numerous receiving and return records in his impressive career. Reynolds rushed for 1,500-plus yards for the second season in a row and tied his own record by rushing for 22 touchdowns. The under-rated Selle passed for 28 touchdowns.

Linebacker Shawn Lebsock and safety Shann Schillinger ended their careers as two of the leading tacklers in UM history. Schillinger was a sixth round NFL draft pick by the Falcons, while Mariani was tabbed in the seventh by the Titans.

Head coach Bobby Hauck, who left UM for UNLV following the season, was seven-of-seven in taking his teams to the FCS playoffs, and had an overall record of 80-17.

2008: Montana Plays For Sixth National Championship

Despite losing 14 starters, Montana made it to the FCS championship game for the sixth time, losing 24-7 to Richmond in Chattanooga.

In the first round Montana handled Texas State 31-13. In the quarterfinals the Grizzlies avenged an early-season league loss (45-28) at Weber State, defeating the 10th-ranked Wildcats 24-13. In the FCS semi-final game Montana had its biggest playoff road win ever, beating top-ranked James Madison 35-27.

Griz senior quarterback Cole Bergquist passed for 3,156 yards and 28 touchdowns and wide-out Mike Ferriter finished his career ranked ninth in school history with 2,089 receiving yards. Reynolds rushed for a school-record 22 touchdowns. Senior offensive linemen Colin Dow, J.D. Quinn, and Brent Russum all earned all-league and All-American recognition.

The defense was led by strong safety Colt Anderson, a Buck Buchanan Award final list, who was Montana’s leading tackler with 129 stops. Anderson now plays for the Philadelphia Eagles.
■ 2007: Grizzlies Make 15th FCS Playoff Appearance In a Row

This was the Grizzlies' 18th overall playoff appearance and their 15th in a row. That 18th FCS playoff win moved Montana past Eastern Kentucky for the most (17) in division history. Montana suffered a rare home loss in the playoffs, though, a 23-22 setback to Wofford.

Several players from the 2007 squad left their names in the record books.

Kroy Biermann became Montana's first ever Buck Buchanan Award winner. Senior halfback Lex Hilliard set a record with 50 rushing touchdowns, which Reynolds broke three seasons later. Kicker Dan Carpenter set FCS career records with 75 field goals and 413 points by a kicker. Senior linebackers Tyler Joyce and Kyle Ryan finished second and sixth in UM history with 352 and 304 career tackles, respectively.

Carpenter and Hilliard are currently playing for the Miami Dolphins, while Biermann is with the Atlanta Falcons.

■ 2006: Griz Make it to the Semis

In 2006 the Grizzlies narrowly missed playing for their sixth national title in 12 years. After losing at 16th-ranked Iowa, Montana won 11 straight games, finished 12-2 overall and 8-0 in the Big Sky.

Hilliard, a 2006 Walter Payton Award candidate, was lost for the season to an injury in fall camp. The Griz were led by senior quarterback Josh Swogger's 17 TD passes, while receivers Eric Allen, Ryan Bagley, and Craig Chambers combined for 147 catches and 17 scores. Halfbacks Reggie Bradshaw, Brady Green, and Thomas Brooks-Fletcher combined for 19 rushing touchdowns.

A young defense was ranked ninth in the FCS in total defense, allowing 226.4 yards a game.

Host Montana defeated 22nd-ranked McNeese State 31-6 in an FCS first-round game, then knocked off No.10 Southern Illinois 20-3 in the quarterfinals, but were edged (19-17) out to third-ranked UMass in the semi-finals in a game televised nationally on ESPN2.

Hauck became the first Griz mentor in history to win four Big Sky titles.

■ 2005: Griz Lose in First Round

Montana was 8-4 overall and received an at-large bid into the playoffs. The Grizzlies were led by Hilliard who rushed for 1,322 yards — the second highest total (at the time) in single-season history. The defense was ranked sixth in the country with a turnover margin at +1.08.

The ninth-ranked Griz hosted a first-round playoff game, losing 35-21 to 10th-ranked Cal Poly. Montana had defeated Cal Poly 36-27 in Missoula earlier in the season.

■ 2004: Fifth Trip to the FCS Title Game in the Last 10 Seasons

Montana was 12-3 and advanced to the FCS championship game for the fifth time in the last 11 years.

Quarterback Craig Ochs passed for 3,807 yards and 33 touchdowns and set a league record by completing 68.7% of his passes. The Griz defense was ranked third in the country in turnover margin (+1.47) with 38 take-aways.

Hilliard tied the school record for touchdown runs with 17, while senior wide receiver Jefferson Heidelberger had the second most receiving yards in single-season history with 1,240.

In the playoffs the host Griz handled their first three opponents relatively easy, beating Northwestern State (56-7), New Hampshire (47-17), and Sam Houston State (34-13).

The title game was a 31-21 loss to James Madison in the FCS title game in Chattanooga. Sadly, the championship game was played on a field that was a quagmire. The grass playing surface had reportedly recently been re-sodded, and big chunks of grass and dirt were tossed all over the field by the player's cleats whenever they ran or cut on the grass playing surface.
2003: Griz Break Playoff Record Streak
Montana broke the FCS record by making its 11th consecutive playoff appearance, eclipsing the mark of 10 that it shared with Eastern Kentucky, which had played in 10 straight from 1986-1995.
Montana received an at-large bid into the playoffs, losing a 43-40 double overtime thriller to visiting Western Illinois in the first round.

2001: Griz Win Second National Championship
Montana won its second FCS national championship in history, defeating Furman University 13-6.

Senior kicker Chris Snyder set four NCAA career records in the FCS with 394 points and 182 PATs, and a single-season mark scoring 123 points. He also set a record by connecting on 126 consecutive PATs. Defensive end Tim Bush finished his career as Montana's all-time career leader in sacks (32.5) and tackles for loss (50).

2002: Griz Tie FCS Mark for Consecutive Wins
The Griz started the season with 10 wins in a row, and, combined with 14 straight wins the year before, they tied the FCS mark for consecutive wins with 24. The streak began on September 22 of 2001, with a 30-0 home win over Western Washington, and was halted on Nov. 16 of 2002, with a 30-21 setback at Eastern Washington in Spokane.
Montana tied Pennsylvania, which had 24 wins in a row from 1992-95, for the record. UM also set the record for most consecutive Big Sky wins (25) and most league road wins in a row (13).
Senior quarterback John Edwards was named the Big Sky's co-MVP on offense and senior safety Trey Young was the league's defensive player of the year.

Quarterback John Edwards engineered a 16-play, 99-yard scoring drive for UM's only touchdown in the title game. Halfback Yohance Humphery, Montana's all-time rusher, was a workhorse in the game, gaining 142 yards on 30 carries, and scored UM's only touchdown on a 2-yard run.
The Griz defense limited the Paladins to 121 yards rushing and forced three turnovers. Furman's only score came on a Hail Mary pass as time expired. Humphery wrapped up his illustrious career with 4,070 career yards. The Grizzlies' 15 victories set a school record for the most wins in a season.

2000: Third Trip to the Title Game
The Griz earned a trip to the championship game for the third time in six seasons, losing a heart-breaker, 27-25 to Georgia Southern in Chattanooga.
Starting Griz quarterback Drew Miller was injured late in the first quarter, and Edwards, a sophomore, was called into action. The Griz trailed 20-3 at halftime in a rain-soaked Finley Stadium but took a 23-20 lead early in the fourth quarter on a scoring run by Humphrey. The Grizzlies' lead was short-lived as Eagle halfback and 2000 Walter Payton Award winner Adrian Peterson broke loose for a 57-yard touchdown run for the game-winning touchdown.

1999-97: Griz Lose Three Straight First-Round Games

The Griz dropped three first-round playoff games during this time, but in 1999 set the Big Sky record with a seventh consecutive FCS playoff appearance. The old standard of six straight was set by former Big Sky member Idaho from 1985-90.

In 1999, visiting Youngstown State, coached by former Ohio State mentor Jim Tressell, kicked a late field goal for a 30-27 win. In 1998 Montana suffered its worst playoff setback ever, losing 52-9 at Western Illinois. UM's three-game playoff losing streak started in 1997 with a 19-14 setback at McNeese State.

1996: Moss Is Too Much & Griz Are Runners-Up

Montana reeled off 14 straight wins to advance to the title game. For the second year in a row they played at Marshall, as NFL star wide receiver Randy Moss grabbed four touchdown catches to lead Marshall to a 49-29 win. It was the first time ever two undefeated (14-0) teams played for the I-AA crown.

In the title game Grizzly quarterback Brian Ah Yat set (then) playoff records for pass completions with 36 and total plays (67). Wide receiver Joe Douglass set a playoff record with 13 receptions, and he also set Montana single-season standards with 82 catches for 1,469 yards and 18 touchdowns.

1995: Griz Win First National Championship

The Grizzlies won their first national championship with a last-second, 22-20 come-from-behind victory over host Marshall in front of an FCS playoff-record crowd of 32,106 in Huntington, West Virginia.

Walter Payton Award-winning quarterback Dave Dickenson passed for 1,219 yards and 11 touchdowns in Montana's first three playoff games. UM out-scored its opponents 163-14. In its first three playoff victories, the host Grizzlies beat Eastern Kentucky (48-0), Georgia Southern (45-0), and Stephen F. Austin (70-14).

The Griz take to the field at Marshall for the championship game (1996).

The host Griz squeaked by Northern Iowa 23-20 in a 1994 first-round contest, and then edged visiting McNeese State 30-28 in a snow storm on a game-ending field goal by Larson. Unfortunately, Dickenson was re-injured early in the win over McNeese, and he was not able to play in the semifinal -- a 28-9 loss to host Youngstown State.

In 1993, Montana rolled to a 10-1 regular-season record, with its only blemish a 35-30 loss at Oregon. After that loss to the Ducks, the Griz reeled off nine straight wins and won their first league title since 1982. The season ended in a 49-48 first-round shoot-out loss to visiting Delaware.

The Grizzlies' 93 victories in the 1990's were the second most in the division (Youngstown State won 103).
1989: Griz Host Their First Playoff Game

Montana hosted and won its first playoff game in school history, beating Jackson State 48-7 in the first round. UM defeated visiting Eastern Illinois 25-15 in the quarterfinals, and then lost 45-15 to eventual national champion Georgia Southern in Statesboro in the semifinals.

1988 & 1982: In the Playoffs

After a six-year hiatus, in 1988, the Griz earned their first-at-large bid into the playoffs, losing (38-19) at Idaho. Montana’s initial trip to the playoffs came in 1982 when it won its first Big Sky title since 1970. Despite winning the league championship the Grizzlies had to travel to Moscow, Idaho, losing 21-7 to the Vandals.

1969-1970: Montana Plays For NCAA College Division Titles

Montana played for the College Division national championship in 1969 and 1970. The Griz went undefeated and united for the first time in school history at 10-0 and won their first-ever Big Sky title in 1969. Both years Montana advanced to the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, Calif., but, missing many starters because NCAA’s rules on junior college transfers, the under-manned Griz lost 30-3 to top-ranked North Dakota State in 1969 and 31-16 to the same team a year later.

ROYCE ENGSTROM, PRESIDENT OF UM

Royce Engstrom became The University of Montana's 17th president on Oct. 15, 2010, after serving as UM provost and vice president for academic affairs for three years. Born in Michigan and raised in Nebraska, he came to Montana after a national search from a provost position at the University of South Dakota. He also is a chemistry professor.

Throughout his career, Engstrom has been an enthusiastic participant in undergraduate research, first as a student, then as a mentor and finally as an administrator working to develop undergraduate research programs. He is a past president of the Council on Undergraduate Research and has been active in the Experimental Program to Stimulate Competitive Research, a federal effort to help states build research infrastructure and competitiveness.

He served as chair of the National EPSCoR Coalition and the National EPSCoR Foundation. Engstrom is interested in science policy, higher education public policy, program development and building relationships among various stakeholders in higher education.

Engstrom received his Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry from the University of Nebraska at Omaha and his doctorate in analytical chemistry from the University of Wisconsin. His wife, Mary, also is an educator and has worked at both the K-12 and university levels. They have two grown children, Tyler and Carey. In his spare time, President Engstrom enjoys building traditional wooden boats and canoeing.

JIM O’DAY, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Jim O’Day is in his seventh year as Director of Athletics at The University of Montana. A 1980 graduate of the UM School of Journalism, O’Day returned to his alma mater in 1998 after an 18-year career in the newspaper business, first as sports editor of the Kalispell (Mont.) Daily Interlake, then in his hometown of Cut Bank, Mont., as owner/publisher of the twice-weekly Western Breeze newspaper.

O’Day served as assistant director of the Grizzly Athletic Association (now the Grizzly Scholarship Association) for three years before becoming Director of Development for UM Athletics in 2001. On June 30, 2005, he was named by former UM President George Dennison as the Director of Athletics at Montana.

O’Day currently serves on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoff Selection Committee. This year, O’Day will serve as chair of that particular committee. In addition, he sits on the board of directors for the Master’s of Education in Intercollegiate Athletics Leadership program with the University of Washington and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). In 2007, he was honored by the All-American Football Foundation by receiving the Gen. Robert R. Neyland Outstanding Athletics Director Award.

Prior to returning to UM, O’Day was a charter member of the Cut Bank Education Foundation and Alumni Association and was Cut Bank’s Citizen of the Year in 1992. He organized the Golden Triangle Chapter of the GAA in 1992 and served as president until his appointment at UM in 1998. He was also actively involved in many other community service organizations. In 1991, he was the recipient of The University of Montana Service Award.

Jim and his wife Kathy have three sons: Chris, Kevin and Brian. Chris and Kevin are graduates of The University of Montana and reside in Arizona, while Brian will be a junior at UM this fall.

Several of Jim’s many accomplishments during his first five years in the athletic department include UM Athletics winning the school’s first Sterling Savings Bank Presidents Cup in 2007 (Montana was second in 2010 and 2009, and third in 2008); paying off a $1 million deficit two years early; instrumental in constructing a 2,000-seat east-side expansion to Washington-Grizzly Stadium that was ready in time for the 2008 football season; and capturing conference titles in women’s golf (coached by Joanne Steele) in 2006 and in women’s basketball (coached by Robin Selvig) in 2007, 2008 and 2009. In addition, the men’s basketball team won Big Sky Tournament titles and made NCAA appearances in 2006 and 2010. In 2006, the team under the direction of Coach Larry Krystkowiak won a first round game in the NCAA tourney vs. Nevada. The school’s only other NCAA men’s basketball tournament victory came in 1975 against Utah State.

Academically, UM student-athletes have their highest cumulative grade point averages (3.05) in school history, and also maintain graduation rates significantly higher than the general student population at The University of Montana. Also, the Grizzly Scholarship Association topped the $2 million mark in annual giving the past three years – more than double the amount raised in 2000.
