GLI STUDENTS MAKING A SPLASH!

Help Human Trafficking Victims

Donate Pads And Tampons

December 5th -15th

Boxes located in the Library, 4th Level, outside GLI classroom

Student Event

GBLD 194 Art Activism students organize drive to aid victims of human trafficking.

People are often trafficked by people they trust or are close to.

34 victims fall into a life of human trafficking an hour.

MT is known as the "Truck Stop State" in some trafficking circles.

Donate feminine hygiene products today! Boxes located in GLI space.

FRANKE GLOBAL LEADERSHIP INITIATIVE

Join together with students from diverse majors to address complex global challenges around issues such as public health, sustainability and inequality. The Franke Global Leadership Initiative is a four-year, 12-credit certificate program that gives you access to world-class leaders and provides opportunities to tackle real-world problems locally and around the globe.

The global leadership certificate can be added to any University of Montana major and includes interdisciplinary group work, small seminar classes from a wide variety of faculty across campus, and specialized leadership training. Our program also features a unique "Beyond the Classroom" experiential learning component, for which students may earn scholarship funding of up to $5,000 to study abroad, complete international and domestic internships, or undertake service-learning or research projects.

School of Music: TONIGHT!

"Let us bring a warm glow to a long December night!"

On Tuesday, December 5th, UM Concert Band, University Choir, and Chamber Chorale will perform music for the season and beyond. The concert band will perform music by Bourgeois, Markowski and On this Bright

Morning by renowned Missoula composer, David Maslanka. Chamber Chorale's performance will feature Reena Esmail's A Winter Breviary, which is a new choral song cycle celebrating the winter solstice, built on both Catholic and Hindustani traditions, liturgies, and modes. We'll also feature some seasonal Mozart, a song about snow in Jerusalem, some classic Christmas music, and much more.

Tickets available through GrizTix: $15 (including all fees)
