The University of Montana football squad opened its fall drills with the season’s first practice session in Washington-Grizzly Stadium. The term “rebuilding year” may not be applicable to the 2015 edition of the Griz, with variables that include a new coaching staff and the loss of several all-conference caliber players, this new season comes about with an air of excitement, along with a few questions.

“I’m just excited,” said first-year head coach Bob Stitt. “I’ve said that a million times, but: Are we going to walk out there and see a better team than we saw at the end of April? That’s what I’m excited about.”

Since being hired in December, Coach Stitt and his staff have worked to install a new offensive scheme. Naturally, there will be a lot of information for the squad to take on board in this year’s condensed fall camp, concluded by the Aug. 29 “FCS Kickoff Game” on ESPN against four-time defending national champion North Dakota State.

After a summer of individual voluntary workouts, Coach Stitt believes his team is leaner and meaner than he has seen since arriving in Missoula.

“Talking to (strength & conditioning coach) Matt Nicholson, we’ve improved leaps and bounds in the summer as far as strength, power, and conditioning. I just think with the progress we made, there’s no way we won’t be a better team than when we started spring ball,” said Stitt.

Senior defensive end Tyrone Holmes might be case study number one for Coach Nicholson’s off-season progress, having purportedly added three inches to his vertical leap. That’s a gain you can’t ignore.

According to Stitt, the added fitness will help the players during fall camp, allowing them to focus more on learning than getting in game-ready shape.

“We really want to make sure our guys are physically and mentally fresh every day when they come to practice so we get quality in practice instead of just trying to squeeze too much in,” he said.

To make things easier, Montana returns a robust 23 starters and 35 lettermen from a 9-5 team of a year ago that finished second place in the Big Sky Conference at 6-2. The 2014 Griz hosted San Diego in the first round of the FCS playoffs - upping its record total to 22 appearances. UM was ranked 13th in the nation in the Sports Network and 11th in the FCS Coaches' final polls.

The Grizzly offense returns 14 lettermen, while 18 defensive lettermen return, along with special teams players.

On offense, the 2015 Griz will take the field under junior QB Brady Gustafson, who emerged as the signal caller of choice for Coach Stitt after a solid spring outing. The 6’7”, 235lb Billings native will fill the shoes of three-year starter Jordan Johnson, who sits third in career passing yards at Montana.

Gustafson will get plenty of opportunities to throw the ball however, as Stitt prepares to roll out his “fly sweep” brand of attack that earned his Colorado School of Mines team astronomical offensive numbers.

Key offensive returners for the Griz include senior wide receiver Jamaal Jones, who led the team in receiving last season with 1,044 total yards and eight TD’s. Junior John Nguyen will play a leading role in the rushing attack, averaging 8 yards per carry in 2014.

Defensively, the Griz will need to replace the NFL-bound Zack Wagenmann, who finished the 2014 season as Montana’s career sack leader (37.5), tackles for loss (53) and forced fumbles (11).

Holmes looks to be the man to fill Wags’ big shoes. A starter in all 14 of Montana’s games last year on the defensive line, Holmes put in 66 tackles (14 of which were tackles-for-loss), and collected 7.5 sacks for a loss of 42 yards.
In the FCS were the Griz in fumbles lost (4).

Was Zack Wagenmann ranked in career sacks (37.5), career TFLs(53), and career forced fumbles (11).

Were the Griz ranked in the FCS in turnover margin (+1.00) and turnovers lost (11).

Was Jordan Johnson ranked in career TD passes (77) and in career passing yards (8,612).

Player in Griz history was Jordan Canada to have two 1,000-yard rushing seasons – and he’s just the second player to do it in back-to-back seasons (Chase Reynolds, 2008 & 2009).

Was Canada ranked in school history with 3,435 career rushing TDs and in career touchdown runs with 40.

Was Wagenmann ranked in the nation in sacks with 1.25 per game (17.5 in 14 games).

In the FCS was Montana ranked in sacks per game with 3.29 per game (46 for -247 in 14 games).

In the FCS was UM in red zone offense (88.9%).

Career 100-yard rushing games by Canada. He had six in 2014.

In the FCS are the Grizzlies ranked in scoring defense, allowing 21.0 points per game.

Of the past 21 years (since 1993) that Montana has been ranked in the Top 25 in the Sports Network’s final poll. (UM was not ranked in 2012).

In the FCS is junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones in total receiving yards with 943.

The combined record of the three FCS teams that defeated Montana in 2014 – North Dakota State (13-1), Cal Poly (7-5), and EWU (11-3).

The Home of the Grizzlies

The 2015 football season will be the 29th that the Montana Grizzlies will play their home games in Washington-Grizzly Stadium at John Hoyt Field (capacity 25,217).

The Grizzlies led the division in average attendance in 2014 with 23,777 in seven home games. James Madison finished second, averaging 19,816 in six home games. Montana has averaged more than 22,000 fans a game in the last 12 seasons in a row (starting in 2003).

The Grizzlies broke their all-time attendance record last season, as they drew 26,352 fans to see the Griz-Bobcat game on Nov. 22. The Griz have topped the 26,000 mark five other times: as they drew 26,293 fans to a 30-6 opening-season home win over Appalachian State in 2013 and again in 2013 against the Eastern Washington Eagles (26,082), in 2012 versus Montana State (26,210), in 2011 (26,066) also against the Eagles, and in 2010 with 26,019 also against MSU.

Montana’s 9-5 mark last season was its 28th winning season in a row over the past 29 years (since the Griz have been playing in Washington-Grizzly Stadium).

The first game played in WGS was on Oct. 18, 1986, a 38-31 come-from-behind win over Idaho State. Since that first contest the Grizzlies have an overall record of 180-26. Over the past eight seasons the Grizzlies are 52-8 at home in regular-season games.

Montana has set numerous Big Sky Conference attendance records. The Griz hold the standards for single-season, regular-season home attendance (25,652 in 2009); and single-season, regular-season total home attendance (174,236, seven games, 2008); and largest crowd for a non-conference home game (25,698 versus Western Washington, Sept. 5, 2009). UM also holds the league record for the largest crowd at a non-conference road game of 94,661, set at Tennessee in 2011.

No Place Like Home

Not only has Montana won 180 games in its 28 seasons of playing in Washington-Grizzly Stadium, but it has gone undefeated 11 times.

Starting the 1994 season, the Griz reeled off 30 straight home victories. The win streak began with a 41-7 win over Sonoma State on Sept. 3 and ended with a 40-35 loss to EWU on Oct. 18, 1997. Montana’s 30 consecutive home wins are the fifth longest streak in FCS history.

Renovation and Construction Plans Began in 2014

With support from the university administration and private donors, the athletic facility improvement plan includes the following:

A new academic center that will be the first of these facility upgrades with construction scheduled to end in the summer of 2015. This facility will provide student-athletes with ample space to study and meet regularly with their academic advisors. The lower level will remain a lobby to accommodate fire code restrictions for the Adams Center.

The next priority will be to construct a new building next to the Grizzly Pool adjacent to the southwest corner of Washington-Grizzly Stadium. This building will house a new student-athlete weight room, football locker room, football lounge and football meeting rooms. It will connect to the Adams Center and allow the football team to continue to access the field through the existing player tunnel. The weight room and locker room will sit below grade and make up the first level while the second will include a mezzanine for the weight room, the football lounge and meeting rooms as well, and a wider concourse in the football stadium complete with additional rest rooms and concession stands.

After the completion of the new weight room/locker room building, the space where these were previously housed will be renovated into multiple locker rooms for the sports of men’s basketball, men’s tennis and men’s track and field as well as a new larger, central location for the athletic equipment room. The addition of locker rooms will also open up space to help the university host more outside events such as concerts and high school tournaments.

New Lights For 2012

New lights were installed in WGS in the spring of 2012. When the Big Sky Conference signed a television contract with ROOT Sports™, each school in the league was required to install lights in their stadiums. The new lights, installed by Musco Lighting based in Oskaloosa, Iowa, made their debut on Saturday, April 14, 2012, at UM’s annual spring game.

The lights are of the highest quality available, and feature “horizontal footcandles” in the 120-125 range, which means the Washington-Grizzly Stadium has the ability to host all levels of NCAA televised football playoff games. It also includes lighting in the tailgate/parking areas. The project cost was approximately $950,000, and includes a 25-year or 20,000 hours service agreement.
Stadium History & Namesake

The plans for an on-campus football facility at Montana came to fruition in August of 1985 when Missoula businessman Dennis R. Washington and the employees of Washington Corporations provided a gift of $1 million, hence the name of Washington-Grizzly Stadium. The initial cost of the stadium was around $3.2 million.

Dennis Washington was brought in early in the process to be among the small group of visionaries who would examine what was possible with the new facility and who better than the man who started with a small loan and a bulldozer in the mid-1960s, turned it into Washington-Grizzly Construction and eventually into the global Washington Companies?

There are 49 private boxes located on the east and west sides of the stadium, and they are individually decorated and furnished.

Washington-Grizzly Champions Center

A new generation of Washingtons, Dennis and Phyllis's sons Kyle and Kevin, on behalf of the Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation, gifted $7 million to the University of Montana's Department of Athletics to be used for the $14 million Washington-Grizzly Champions Center.

It is the largest gift to the Department of Athletics in its history.

The remaining $7 million will come from private sources.

Over the years the Dennis and Phyllis Washington Foundation has been one of the university's most generous benefactors. The foundation has given more than $150 million to various causes since it was established in 1988.

Kevin and Kyle Washington and their families are honored at halftime of the Sacramento State game Nov. 1, 2014 for their generous donation to the Champions Center as Kent Haslam, UM athletic director, UM President Royce Engstrom and Montana Commissioner of Higher Education Clay Christian look on.

Infrastructure and Student-Athlete Success Go Hand-In-Hand

Student-athletes know what to look for when visiting a college campus. In order to recruit the best student-athletes, focus on their academic and athletic welfare, and continue the success UM Athletics has enjoyed over the many years, the university must improve these vital “infrastructure” facilities. Upgrades for these facilities have been identified as a top priority by the athletic department and the university president.

The existing academic center is undersized at 400 square-feet and can only serve a small number of the 300-plus total student-athletes. The weight room has limited space and is currently split between three separate rooms, making the working area difficult to supervise, unsafe, and ineffective. Meeting space is currently limited to one small room and a student-athlete lounge doesn’t exist.

The women’s locker room facilities have recently been improved. The men’s locker room was renovated in 1996, and a remodel is beyond overdue. The space has become too small and there are concerns relating to the health and well-being of UM’s student-athletes.

The new Grizzly Student-Athlete Academic Center is scheduled to open in the fall of 2015.

Facility Needs for Grizzly Athletics are Not Always Visible to the Public

On the surface the University of Montana athletic venues are among the best in the Big Sky Conference and the Football Championship Subdivision. Dahlberg Arena, Washington-Grizzly Stadium, West Auxiliary Gym and South Campus Field have hosted legendary competitions in their respective sports. Without a doubt, our fans and student-athletes are in good shape come game day.

Washington-Grizzly Stadium rivals many of the larger stadiums as the most intimidating place for a visiting player to step foot. When the Griz burst out of the tunnel they are greeted by the roar of more than 25,000 fans – a sound that tests the nerves of the most seasoned players. Everyone in attendance gets to witness the pageantry and excitement that is Grizzly football. However, very few fans get the opportunity to go behind the scenes and see those areas that matter most in the everyday life of the student-athlete – the training, practice, and service facilities. It is the weight room, academic center, meeting rooms and locker rooms where all student-athletes spend the vast majority of their time. It is where Montana Grizzlies are made! In these critical areas, UM is significantly lacking and pales in comparison to the image portrayed by the Thundering Stadium on those glorious fall Saturdays.

Construction for the Washington-Grizzly Champions Center will begin in 2015. A state-of-the-art all-sport weight room facility along with a football locker room are scheduled to be completed in the summer of 2017.
Spotlight Shines on Academics and in the Community

Academics
Montana’s student-athletes had a 2015 spring-semester GPA of 3.14, with 10 of the department’s 13 programs having team GPAs of 3.0 or better. Seven of those had term GPAs of 3.2 or higher.

Eighteen of Montana’s 308 student-athletes, who on average completed a load of 14.4 credits, had a spring-semester GPA of 4.0, 75 made the Dean’s List, and 208 had a term GPA of 3.0 or better. The UM student body as a whole had a 2.92 term GPA while taking 12.3 credits.

Derek Crittenden, who will be a redshirt senior on the Griz football team in the fall and is a chemistry and mathematics major, won the men’s President’s Award for having the highest GPA over the same two previous two semesters.

The defensive end won the award for the fourth straight year, and with a cumulative GPA of 4.0, he has made it possible for anyone willing to put in the time to join him in winning the President’s Award but impossible to supplant him.

Community Service
The University of Montana student-athletes volunteer annually to support various organizations, community events and educational activities. We believe it is important to be invested in our great community and work diligently to extend a helping hand whenever possible. The Griz student-athletes have devoted over 3,100 hours of their time within Missoula and the surrounding communities this past 2014-2015 academic year.

Griz in the Community is a program that enables student-athletes to have a holistic college experience by giving back to the surrounding community and the state of Montana. Student-athletes from every team have made over 1,000 appearances since the beginning of the program in 2008.

UM student-athletes have continued to participate and serve in various community events which provide local fans the opportunity to interact with the Griz, including:
- American Red Cross
- Children’s Museum Missoula
- Grizzly Peak Retirement Community
- Local Elementary and Middle Schools
- Missoula Buddy Walk
- Missoula Food Bank
- Watson’s Children Shelter
- YWCA

Not only do the Griz student-athletes participate in community service events but they make it a priority to take part in community engagement. The objective of community engagement is to build lasting relationships with organizations within the community. Reoccurring projects that the Griz student-athletes participate in include:
- Active 6
- Flagship
- Griz for Kidz Toy Drive
- Habitat for Humanity
- Missoula Food Bank Network
- Super Grizzly Dip – Special Olympics

Bob Stitt became the Grizzlies’ 36th head football coach on December 19, 2014.

Bob Stitt was formally introduced as the 36th head football coach in University of Montana history on Friday, Dec. 19, 2014. He signed a three-year contract, which will take him through the 2017 season.

He comes to Montana after a 15-season stint as the head football coach at the Colorado School of Mines (CSM) where he had an overall record of 108-62 (a 63.5% winning percentage) and a 83-44 mark (a 65.4% winning percentage) in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.

Stitt’s teams have had 13 winning seasons in his 15-year tenure and registered eight winning seasons in a row. His teams won conference titles in 2004, 2010, and 2014. He is widely known in national coaching circles as having a very creative offensive mind and is the innovator of the fly-sweep play.

His 2014 Orediggers were 10-2 overall and 8-1 in the RMAC and advanced to the Division II national playoffs. The Orediggers posted an 8-3 record in 2013.

He was named the league’s coach of the year in 2004 and 2010. Stitt was selected the Division II Football.com Southwest Region Coach of the Year in 2004 and was also tabbed the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year following that season.

During his tenure at Mines, Stitt coached a grand total of 129 All-RMAC performers, 31 All-Region selections and 16 All-Americans. His .635 winning percentage during 15 seasons at the helm of the Oredigger football program is the highest in school history for a coach with at least 20 games under his belt.

A 1987 graduate of Doane College (Nebraska), Stitt received various accolades as a running back and a return specialist when he played for the Tigers in the mid-80’s, including All-State College Offensive Player of the Year in 1985. Stitt also played left field for the Doane baseball squad and was a sprinter on the track & field team.

Stitt returned to coach at his alma mater after receiving his master’s degree in physical education from the University of Northern Colorado in 1989.

He served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for four years at Doane from 1990-93, and he produced three NAIA Division II All-Americans and 19 All-NIAC offensive players during his tenure there.

Stitt went on to coach at Austin College (Texas) from 1994 to 1999, serving as the assistant head coach and the coordinator of offense and special teams.

Prior to his time at Mines, Stitt served as an offensive coordinator at Harvard University, helping the Crimson set school records in total offense in a game (640 yards), passing yards in a game (405), first downs in a game (34) and points scored in an Ivy League game (63). Stitt’s 1999 offense ranked first among Ivy League teams in rushing, third in scoring and fourth in total offense.

He is a native of Tecumseh, Nebraska. Stitt lettered in football, basketball, track & field and baseball at Tecumseh High School. Bob and his wife, the former Joan Scherrer, have two sons, Joe and Sam.

Justin Green
Running Backs/Recruiting Coordinator

Justin is in his fifth season at his alma mater coaching the running backs, and he is also the Grizzlies’ recruiting coordinator.

Green, from San Diego, Calif., has worked with the running backs at UM the past four seasons. He worked as a student assistant coach at Montana in 2011, also working with the running backs.

He coached one of the most prolific halfbacks in school history in Jordan Canada. Canada is ranked fourth at Montana in rushing yards (3,435) and rushing touchdowns (40). In his senior season of 2014 he rushed for 1,207 yards, the seventh most ever in a year. In 2014 he became the second player in UM history to have back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons (he gained 1,062 in 2013).

Two seasons ago, Canada was an honorable mention all-league pick, while three seasons ago senior running back Peter Nguyen was a second team selection. Nguyen is ranked sixth in school history with 1,985 career rushing yards.

Green had a stellar two-year career at running back at Montana, and he also played for four seasons in the National Football League.

He rushed for 1,784 career yards in his two seasons at Montana in 2003 and 2004, which ranks him 11th in school history. As a junior, he rushed for 1,146 yards and 14 touchdowns and was chosen the Big Sky’s Newcomer of the Year.

He was a fifth round draft pick by the Baltimore Ravens in 2005 and had a four-year career in the NFL. He played three seasons at fullback for the Ravens and then played one year for the Phoenix Cardinals.

Between his stint with the Ravens and Cardinals, he coached for one season at Berean High School in Walnut Creek, Calif., working with the running backs, linebackers, and corners. He returned to Berean High School again after his final NFL season with the Cardinals, once again working with the running backs, linebackers, and corners.

He came to Montana from San Diego Mesa College where he played for one season (2002) and was team captain and co-MVP, rushing for 874 yards and 7 touchdowns, and was a JC Gridwire All-America honorable mention. He started his college career at San Diego State, where he redshirted in 2000. He lettered for the Aztecs in 2001.

He was a standout running back at University of San Diego High School where he rushed for 5,397 career yards, which at the time was the most in San Diego County history. He was a first team All-C.I.F. selection as a junior and senior. His junior year in high school he rushed for 2,385 yards, which was the fifth most in California prep history, while his senior season he rushed for 1,801 yards and 20 touchdowns and was tabbed a USA Today honorable mention All-American.

He earned a degree in sociology at UM. Justin and his wife, Meghan, have two daughters, Giana and Karis.

Lawrence “Legi” Suiaunoa
Defensive Line

Legi (pronounced: Lang-ee) is now in his fifth season of coaching the Grizzlies’ defensive line.

Last season Montana was once again ranked among the FCS leaders in several defensive categories. The Griz were ranked second in the country in sacks (3.20 pg), 19th in scoring defense (21.0 ppg) and 36th in tackles for loss (6.8 pg).

The past three seasons record-setting D-end Zack Wagenmann was named first team All-Big Sky Conference, and in 2014 he was tabbed the league’s defensive MVP. Wagenmann set school records in career sacks (37.5), career tackles for loss (53) and career forced fumbles (11).

Senior defensive tackle Tonga Takai joined Wagenmann on the league’s first team in 2014, while Tyrone Holmes and tackle Trevor Rehm were honorable mention selections that season.

Two seasons ago in 2013 the Griz were ranked second in the FCS in sacks (3.73 a game), fourth in rush defense (92.55 yards per game), fifth in fumble recoveries (16) and 28th in scoring defense (22.9 ppg). Suiaunoa (Sue-ah-no-ah) is now in his 14th season of coaching at the college and junior college levels. He came to Montana from Portland State, where he worked with the defensive line in the 2010 season.

Prior to his stint at PSU, he spent the 2009 season at Eastern Oregon as the defensive coordinator. Before that he was at Western Washington for four seasons, from 2005-08, serving as the defensive line coach. He was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nevada, in 2004.

He began his coaching career at Palomar (Calif.) Junior College in 2002 and 2003, working with the linebackers. The Comets were 8-3 in 2003, reaching the first round of Southern California JC playoffs and were 10-1 in 2002, winning the Mission Conference championship. He was named the conference’s Coach of the Year.

He came to UM from San Diego Mesa College where he played for one season (2002) and was team captain and co-MVP, rushing for 874 yards and 7 touchdowns, and was a JC Gridwire All-America honorable mention. He started his college career at San Diego State, where he redshirted in 2000. He lettered for the Aztecs in 2001.

He was a standout running back at University of San Diego High School where he rushed for 5,397 career yards, which at the time was the most in San Diego County history. He was a first team All-C.I.F. selection as a junior and senior. His junior year in high school he rushed for 2,385 yards, which was the fifth most in California prep history, while his senior season he rushed for 1,801 yards and 20 touchdowns and was tabbed a USA Today honorable mention All-American.

He earned a degree in sociology at UM. Justin and his wife, Meghan, have two daughters, Giana and Karis.
TY GREGORAK
Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Ty is now in his 12th season overall as an assistant coach at Montana overseeing the linebackers, and his fourth as the Grizzlies’ defensive coordinator.

Montana led the Big Sky Conference in five defensive categories in the 2014 season and ranked among the national leaders in four categories. The Griz were ranked third in the FCS in turnover margin (+1.23); seventh in sacks (3.29 pg); 13th in red zone defense (70.8%); and 19th (tie) in scoring defense (allowing 21.0 ppg).

Senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann was named the league’s defensive player of the year in 2014, and all 11 starters received all-conference recognition, with three selected to the first team. UM’s three junior linebackers, Kendrick Van Ackeren (a 2015 pre-season All-American), Jeremiah Kose, and Herbert Gamboa, earned second, third, and honorable mention all-conference recognition.

A year ago, the Griz were ranked third in turnover margin (+1.0), fifth in fumble recoveries (16), eighth in total turnovers (32), ninth in red zone defense and 28th in scoring defense (allowing 22.9 ppg). Three seasons ago Montana was second in the nation with 3.73 sacks a game, and fourth in rush defense (allowing 92.6 yards a game).

Gregorak returned to Montana in 2011 after a one-year stint at Central Washington, where he worked with the tight ends for the 8-3 Wildcats. Prior to his one-year stint at CWU, he had a seven-year tenure at Montana under the tutelage of former mentor Bobby Hauck. In his 11 seasons with the Griz they have won eight league championships, and have an overall record of 115-33. Those teams advanced to three (2004, 2008, 2009) FCS title games and two semi-finals (2006 and 2011).

Ty is in his 15th season of coaching in the college ranks. During his 11-year tenure with the Grizzlies he has coached 26 all-conference players. In 2013, Montana linebackers J.P. Kanongata’a and Jordan Tripp were first team all-league picks, while fellow senior Brock Coyle was a second team selection. Tripp played in the 2014 Senior Bowl and participated in the NFL combine. Coyle played in the 2014 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl.

Tripp was drafted in the fifth round by the Miami Dolphins, and Coyle was an undrafted free-agent who signed with the defending Super Bowl Champions Seattle Seahawks, and both linebackers made the 53-man roster for those respective teams in 2014. J.P. Kanongata’a signed with the Ottawa Redblacks.

Other standout linebackers he has coached at Montana include Tyler Corwin, Brandon Fisher, Shawn Lesbock, Tyler Joyce, Shane MacIntyre, Kyle Ryan, and Loren Utterback - all of whom were All-Big Sky picks. Joyce is ranked second in school history with 356 career tackles, while Tripp is fifth (335), Ryan is ninth (304), Lesbock is 11th (294), Coyle and Caleb McSurdy are tied for 12th (293), and Kanongata’a is 18th (269). McSurdy was tabbed the Big Sky player of the year on defense in 2011, and drafted in the seventh round by the Dallas Cowboys.

He was a three-year letterman at linebacker for the University of Colorado, from 1997-2000. He was the recipient of the Lee Willard Award (outstanding freshman) for the Buffaloes in 1997. In 1998, CU played in the Aloha Bowl, while the 1999 squad played in the Insight.Com Bowl. He was a 2000 Academic All-Big XII selection, and a finalist for the National Academic-Athletic Achievement Award that year.

He was a standout prep athlete at West Valley High School in Spokane, Wash., and in 1996 was Washington’s Defensive Player of the Year and voted Super Prep Magazine’s West Coast Defensive Player of the Year.

In 1997, he was named West Valley High School’s Student-Athlete of the Year. He was named to several All-American teams that year, including USA Today. He was named team captain of the East squad in the Washington State All-Star game in 1997. He was team captain for the West in the 1997 High School All-American Game in Orlando, Florida.

Ty is married to former Montana State volleyball standout Kandice Kelly. He earned a B.A. degree at Colorado in Communication in 2001. Ty has two sons, Gage and Jax, and a daughter, Gabby. Kelly, a four-time all-conference player at MSU, was the head women’s volleyball coach at North Idaho College in 2011 and 2012, when her teams placed eighth and ninth in the nation, and she was twice voted the conference’s “Coach of the Year” and is a former assistant volleyball coach at UM.
Veteran mentor Chad Germer is returning to his alma mater for the third time and will serve as the Grizzlies' run game coordinator and also the coach of the offensive line. The 2015 season will be his 18th year of coaching at the college level.

Germer (pronounced “JUR-mur”) came back to Montana from UNLV, where he coached under former Grizz mentor Bobby Hauck for the past five seasons (2010-14). He returned to Montana and coached for one season in 2009 and joined Hauck’s staff the following year at UNLV.

He coached second team All-Mountain West honoree and four-year starter Brett Boyko, who became the first Rebel offensive lineman to be honored by the league since 2004. Boyko was invited to play in the 90th East-West Shrine game, Jan. 17, 2015.

He also coached three-time honorable mention all-league center and Rimington Trophy Watch List selection Robert Waterman at UNLV.

Germer’s lines helped produce the school’s all-time leading rusher as Tim Cornett finished with 3,733 yards, which is also the second-most in conference history.

Prior to taking the position at UNLV, Germer spent six seasons coaching the offensive line at the University of Wyoming from 2003-08, working for former Griz head man Joe Glenn.

He began his coaching career at Montana as a restricted earnings coach in 1998 and was elevated to full-time status the following season. He coached for the Grizzlies from 1998-2002.

At Montana, his lines opened up holes for standout running back Chase Reynolds who rushed for 1,502 yards and 22 touchdowns and was a second team All-America pick in 2009 as a senior. That season the Grizzlies ranked 18th in the FCS in fewest quarterback sacks allowed.

A 1991 All-America center at Montana, he began his coaching career at his alma mater and went on to coach four All-Americans during his first stint at UM, which lasted five years.

Germer earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration from UM in 1993. Chad and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Nicholas and Alex.

He was a youth sports camp coordinator at Boulder's Family Learning Center for four summers (2009-12), involved in management, organization, teaching and education. He also was a volunteer coach at Centaurus High School in Lafayette, Colo., the summer of 2012, where he completed over 50 hours of coaching-related duties.

Hall graduated from Adams State University with a degree in human performance and physical education in May 2013 and a minor in marketing and coaching.

He is from Boulder, Colo., and graduated from Boulder High School where he lettered in football, basketball and track (sprints). His hobbies include hunting, fishing and an assortment of other outdoor activities.

Joe “J.B.” is in his first season at Montana, serving in the capacity as an assistant, and he will be coaching the cornerbacks as well as overseeing defensive quality control.

The past two seasons Hall was a defensive graduate assistant at the University of Colorado, where his primary role was assisting with the linebackers along with general overall duties with the entire defense. In his first season he assisted in coaching the defensive line.

He lettered four years as a wide receiver for the Adams State University Grizzlies and head coach Marty Heaton, where he had 39 receptions for 450 yards (11.5 per catch) and a touchdown. He also threw a touchdown pass that covered 13 yards as a senior against Western New Mexico. A team captain, he earned Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference academic team honors.

Hendricks begins his first season as Montana’s defensive ends coach. The past two seasons he was an assistant coach for Griz mentor Bob Stitt at the Colorado School of Mines coaching the defensive line.

In 2014, Mines had an overall record of 10-2 and tied for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title with an 8-1 league mark. The Orediggers participated in the NCAA playoffs, and their 10-2 record was the 13th winning season in 15 years for Coach Stitt, and also added to the program’s record with an eighth consecutive winning season. With Hendricks coaching the defensive front, the Orediggers’ defense ranked second in the RMAC in scoring defense (23.4 pts/game), first in the RMAC and 36th in DII in rush defense (124.9) and first in the RMAC and 12th in DII in sacks (38).

Sophomore defensive tackle, Dallas Fields, finished his season with First Team All Rocky Mountain Conference honors while junior defensive end, Emmanuel Graves, finished with second team honors. Hendricks helped an Orediggers defense in 2013 that ranked first in the RMAC and 7th in DII in scoring defense (17.0 pts/game).

Hendricks, a native of Burlington, Colo., joined Bob Stitt’s staff in 2013 following a short stint as a defensive graduate assistant at Colorado State University.

Hendricks was a four-year letterman at inside linebacker for the University of Wyoming from 2008-2011. Hendricks earned a pair of 2nd Team All-Mountain West accolades and led the team in tackles his sophomore and senior seasons. He served as a team captain during his junior and senior campaigns and was named the team’s most valuable linebacker following his sophomore, junior and senior seasons. Hendricks also holds the Wyoming single-game record for most tackles (23), which was also the best single-game performance in the nation in 2009. He was named the Mountain West player of the week on two separate occasions and earned the 2011 Brent Schieffer Most Inspirational Player Award for the Cowboys as well as the Larry Birleffi Outstanding Senior Football Player Award.

As a prep athlete in Burlington, Colo., Hendricks was a three-sport letter winner in football, wrestling and track. Hendricks was the recipient of the prestigious 2007 Fred Steinmark Colorado Athlete of the Year Award presented by the Rocky Mountain News in the spring of each year. The Steinmark Award honors the top male and female high school student-athletes in the state of Colorado based on athletics, academics and citizenship. He was also an outstanding wrestler in high school, posting a 102-1 record.
MATT NICHOLSON
Strength & Conditioning Coach

Matt is beginning his first season as the Grizzly football program’s strength and conditioning coach.

He came to Montana from Colorado School of Mines where he worked with first-year Griz head coach Bob Stitt for the past two seasons. At Mines, Nicholson coached the linebackers as well as directed the strength and conditioning program for the football team, in addition to other sports.

Last season Mines went 10-2 and tied for the conference championship with an 8-1 league record and advanced to the NCAA playoffs. The 10-2 record gave Coach Stitt his 13th winning season in 15 years and program-record eight-straight winning seasons overall. Two of Nicholson’s linebackers, Kole Kadavy and Billy Sprague, were selected to the first team All-RMAC.

In 2013, the Orediggers posted an 8-3 record, including a 7-2 record in the RMAC to finish 2nd in the league. Nicholson’s pupil, Tyler Denson, was a first team All-RMAC selection.

Prior to Golden, Nicholson spent three years as an assistant coach at his alma-mater, the University of Houston. He spent nine months as a weight room assistant before joining the football staff as a graduate assistant. He assisted with the linebackers in 2011 and helped the club to rank amongst national leaders in sacks, tackles-for-loss and interceptions. Additionally, the Cougars posted a 13-1 record and won the Ticket City Bowl against Penn State in the 2011 campaign. In 2012, he was a defensive backs assistant before returning back to a linebacker assistant in 2013.

Nicholson also was selected to be the head football coach for the Houston Youth Impact Program in 2011. The Youth Impact Program was designed to mentor at-risk youth by combining academic and life skills tutoring with football skills. Over 100 middle school-aged boys joined the program.

Nicholson played linebacker at Houston from 2006-2010, racking up 179 tackles, despite missing 20 games his final three season due to injuries. Starting his career as a walk-on and progressing to a scholarship player, he played in 47 career games for the Cougars and served as a team captain during the 2009 and 2010 seasons. He was named Tom Wilson Off-season MVP in both 2009 and 2010 and was also named Houston’s special teams player of the year in 2006 as a true freshman walk-on. He was also a 2010 Burlsworth Trophy nominee, which is awarded to college football’s most outstanding player who began their career as a walk-on.

He received his Bachelor’s Degree in Kinesiology/Sport Administration from Houston in December 2010. He graduated with a Master’s Degree in Human Resource Development in the spring of 2013 from Houston as well.

A native of Plano, Texas, and a product of Plano Senior High School, Nicholson helped carry the Wildcats to a 13-1 record and an appearance in the regional finals as a senior. Nicholson was an honorable mention 5A all-state selection as a senior for the Wildcats in football in addition to being named first-team all-state in lacrosse.

Matt has a son, Ryan.

ANDREW SELLÉ
Quarterbacks/Offensive Quality Control

Selle is in his first year as an assistant coach at his alma mater and will work with the quarterbacks as well as serve as the Grizzlies’ offensive quality control coach.

He returns to his alma mater after a three-year stint as a quarterbacks coach and mathematics teacher at Billings West High School.

He played at Montana from 2007-10, and was a four-year letterman who had a record of 13-3 as a two-year starter (2009 and 2010). He is ranked 11th in school history with 4,131 career passing yards, and his 38 career passing TDs tie him for the ninth most in school history.

Selle was instrumental for the Grizzlies in 2009 when they advanced to the FCS national championship game, a 23-21 loss to Villanova in Chattanooga, Tenn. He was 27-of-35-0 passing for 351 yards and three touchdowns in UM’s title loss to the Wildcats. His 3,043 passing yards in 2009 rank him 13th in single-season history.

A 2010 All-America candidate, his playing career ended abruptly when he was injured in the fourth game of the season against Sacramento State on Sept. 25, 2010. After the injury he served as player/coach, working closely with fellow signal caller Jordan Johnson.

Selle was an honors student in mathematics at UM (a 2010 graduate) where he maintained a 3.79 GPA. He earned a Master’s Degree in Education at Montana in 2014.

He was a standout quarterback at Billings West and led the Bears to the State AA championship in 2005. He was the co-MVP in AA that year, and guided West to its first unbeaten (13-0) campaign. He was ranked first in his high school (507 students) with a 4.0 GPA.
JASON SEMORE
Secondary/Special Teams Coordinator

Jason enters his first season as the Grizzlies’ special teams coordinator and secondary coach. He joined the Grizzly football staff after a one-year stint with UM head man Bob Stitt at the Colorado School of Mines where he served as the defensive coordinator. Last season the Orediggers went 10-2 overall and tied for the league title with an 8-1 record.

Prior to his position at Mines, he had a two-year stint (2012 and 2013) as a defensive assistant at Oklahoma State University where the Cowboys were ranked among the top 25 teams in the nation in five defensive categories, including 14th in scoring defense. OSU competed in the 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl and the 2014 Cotton Bowl, finishing 10-3 overall and ending the season ranked No. 17 in both the Associated Press Top 25 and the USA Today Coaches’ Poll.

Prior to his time at OSU, he spent two-and-a-half years at the University of Tulsa as an outside linebackers coach. His Golden Hurricane defensive unit led the country in interceptions and in turnover margin and advanced to the 2010 Hawai’i Bowl and the 2011 Armed Forces Bowl.

Semore served as the co-defensive coordinator, secondary coach and special teams coordinator at his alma mater, Adams State, for three seasons.

He got his collegiate coaching start at Mines where he served as a secondary coach with the Orediggers in 2007. His first coaching berth was in 2006 when he served as the defensive coordinator for Round Valley High School in Springerville, Arizona. His defense led Arizona’s Class 3A in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense.

He played linebacker at Adams State from 2001-05 and earned a B.A. in History, Government and Philosophy from there in 2005. He got an M.S. in Criminal Justice Administration from the University of Phoenix in 2007. He later received his M.A. in Educational Methods from the University of Tulsa in 2012.

He and his wife, Brittany, have two daughters, Paityn and Palmer.

NOLAN SWETT
Pass Game Coordinator/Outside Receivers

Swett is in his initial season as an assistant coach at Montana and will have the role as the Grizzlies’ pass game coordinator and will also oversee the outside receivers.

He came to UM after working for current Griz mentor Bob Stitt the past five seasons as an assistant coach at the Colorado School of Mines.

He coached the Orediggers’ tight ends during his first season (2010) at Mines. From 2011-14, he coached the wide receivers and tight ends. In 2014 he also served as Mines’ recruiting coordinator.

Last season the Orediggers went 10-2 overall and tied for the league title with an 8-1 record. A year ago Mines had a prolific offense and was ranked second in the nation in passing yards (378.3 ypg), fourth in total offense (522.5 ypg) and tied for 17th in scoring offense (39.0 ppg).

In 2013, the Orediggers also finished inside the top 25 in several NCAA statistical categories, including: passing offense (10th, 319.0), total offense (11th, 494.1), time of possession (13th, 32:52).

In 2012 Mines averaged 84 plays and 455.7 yards per game. The offense averaged 366.1 passing yards per game (fifth nationally) and 39.27 points per game (15th in Division II). The Orediggers finished sixth in the nation in passing offense (351.67 ypg) in 2011.

During his coaching stint at Mines, he coached three All-American tight ends (2010, 2012, 2014), eight all-conference wide receivers and one academic All-American tight end (2013).

Swett earned his Bachelor’s Degree in History from Colorado College in 2008. He earned an M.A. in Education at Regis University. He is a 2004 graduate of Catalina Foothills High School in Tucson, Arizona. Nolan is married to Laurie Swett.

COLIN BONNICKSEN
Director of Football Operations

Bonnicksen is in his first year as UM’s director of football operations for coach Bob Stitt’s program.

He was the assistant athletic director for athletic communications at Colorado School of Mines and previously served as Mines’ sports information director for three years after joining the Mines athletics staff in December of 2011.

While at Mines he was responsible for the promotion of the Orediggers’ 18 intercollegiate athletics programs through the school’s athletics website (www.csomoreddiggers.com), in addition to composing press releases, print publications, game programs, and game notes while keeping track of statistics and records.

He also served as the Orediggers’ primary contact for football, volleyball, men’s basketball, wrestling, baseball and golf. He oversaw a 74% increase in news stories on the Mines’ web site during his tenure.

He was named the 2013 RMAC Cambell/ Marshall Sports Information Director of the Year for the 2012-13 academic year, as voted on by the conference’s 14 sports information directors. In addition, he was an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) 2012 Chad Burger Media Award honoree for volleyball coverage in the South Central Region.

Bonnicksen came to Mines following a one-and-a-half-year stint as the associate director of athletic media relations at the University of North Carolina at Pembroke in Pembroke, N.C. While there he oversaw the audio/video streaming efforts of the athletic department and also produced and served as the occasional host of The Black and Gold Report - the highest rated TV show in its time slot in major markets located in both North Carolina and South Carolina. He also served as the play-by-play voice for UNCP’s online webcasting efforts for football and wrestling.

Prior to his stint at UNCP, he was a graduate assistant in the sports information office at Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D. He also was an intern in the athletic communications department at his alma mater, Minnesota State University-Mankato.

He is a 2008 graduate of Minnesota State-Mankato with a Bachelor’s Degree in Sports Management. The Ringsted, Iowa, native received his Master’s Degree in Education, with an emphasis in health, physical education and coaching from Northern State in May 2010. He and his fiancee Colleen reside in Missoula.

ELLIS HENDERSON – #7
6-0 • 185 • WR • Jr. • 2V
Portland, Ore.
Skyview HS/Hawaii

2015: Henderson will make his return as one of the Grizzlies’ top wide receivers this season after a prolonged illness that saw him sit out most of last season.

2014: Henderson played in five games and started in two. He was ranked in career receiving touchdowns (13th, with 16 TDs) and receiving yards (28th, with 1,368 yards) going into the preseason.

2013: Henderson became the 11th receiver in school history to have more than 1,000 receiving yards with a team-high 1,008. Those 1,008 receiving yards a year ago tied him for 10th for the most in a season with Matt Wells (1,008, 1995). His 14 receiving TDs tie him for the third most in single-season history with Etu Molden (14, 2001), while his 15 total touchdowns a year ago tie him for the eighth most ever with Marc Mariani (15, 2009). He was the recipient of UM’s Terry Dillon Award (outstanding back or receiver).

He was tabbed second team All-Big Sky Conference at both wide receiver and as a return specialist. He averaged a league-high 23.4 yards per catch. He was ranked in the league’s top 10 in five categories: first in punt return average (12.2 ypr); fourth in kickoff return average (24.0 ypr); tied for sixth in scoring (6.9 ppg); sixth in all-purpose yards (142.4 ypg); and 10th in receiving yards a game (77.5 pg). His 14 TD grabs were the third most in the FCS and in the Big Sky. He was ranked seventh in the nation in punt returns; 19th in all-purpose yards; and 39th in kickoff return average. His 1,851 all-purpose yards were the seventh most in a season.

2012: Henderson was third on the team with 23 receptions, and averaged a team-high 15.7 yards per catch.

2011: Held attended the University of Hawaii to play football, but never did play there.

HIGH SCHOOL: Career-wise he had 109 receptions for 1,893 yards and 24 TDs, plus eight kick/punt returns for touchdowns, along with 143 tackles, 11 tackles for loss and 9 interceptions at Skyview High School. His football teams had a three-year record of 28-9. His senior year he was selected the league’s Defensive Player of the Year, and named all-state on defense. He was a first team all-league pick at defensive back and at wide receiver. He also lettered three times in baseball and once in track.

CAREER HIGHS: He had 8 catches against Eastern Washington at home in 2013 and at North Dakota in 2012. He had 188 receiving yards at UND in 2013 – the 15th highest total in single-game history at Montana. He had a 98-yard kickoff return for a game-winning TD at South Dakota in 2013 with 1:36 left in the game. That 98-yard KOR for a score is the third longest in school history. His career-long catch was a 71-yarder for a touchdown at USD in 2013. His career-long punt return is 54 yards against Oklahoma Panhandle State, also in 2013, and he had a 24-yard run against Portland State the same season.

PERSONAL: His major is health and human performance. Birth date: July 7, 1992. His parents are Ron Henderson and Maggie Mohammad of Portland.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – Running back Travon Van scored four touchdowns on just six touches to lead the Grizzlies over the visiting Central Washington Wildcats in a non-league contest in UM’s 2014 home opener Saturday afternoon in Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

Van scored on touchdown runs of 31, 9, and 43, and also scored on a 85-yard pass reception.

The Grizzlies (1-1) dominated from the out-set, scoring on five of their first six possessions. When Van hauled in the 85-yard pass from QB Shay Smithwick-Hann he upped Montana’s lead to 31-7 with four minutes to go in the second quarter.

Montana jumped out to a 24-0 lead on Van’s 9-yard touchdown run with 13:10 to go in the second stanza. The key play in that scoring drive was a 23-yard hoop-up between Smith-Hann and receiver Jamaal Jones, and a 44-yard run by halfback Jordan Canada.

The Griz scored 17 points in a row in the first quarter, starting with sophomore kicker Harrison Greenberg’s 29-yard field goal. That was followed by Van’s 31-yard scoring run, and then redshirt freshman linebacker Tucker Schye scooped up a fumble and raced into the end zone for 46 yards out to give UM a 17-0 lead with 4:10 to go in the first stanza.

CWU (0-1), a Division II team and member of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference, got on the board with 10:06 remaining in the second quarter on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Jake Nelson to wide-out Kent McKinney, making the score 24-7, UM.

Montana put the game out of reach with 22 seconds to go in the third quarter on a 22-yard run by halfback John Nguyen, which gave the home squad a 48-7 cushion. The Wildcats scored the final points of the game on a 22-yard run by running back Todd.

Canada led the Grizzlies’ potent ground game with 15 carries for 96 yards. Van had just 3 totes for 83 yards, while Nguyen had 7 and rushed for 78 yards. Lorenzo Logwood, a true freshman from Oakland, California, made his UM debut today, and picked up 36 yards on 7 carries. Montana rushed 38 times for 298 yards and scored four TDs.

Smithwick-Hann was an efficient 10-of-16-0 for 145 yards and a TD, and was sacked just once. Smithwick-Hann got the start because fellow senior signal-caller Jordan Johnson was unable to play because of an injury.

Van had 3 catches for 70 yards, while Jones had 3 for 58. The Smithwick-Hann to Van 85-yard scoring pass was the fifth longest in school history.

Defensive end Zack Wagenman led the stingy Griz defense with 9 tackles and a sack. Junior defensive end Tyrone Holmes had 2.5 tackles for loss. Senior free safety Matt Hermanson had an interception – the sixth of his career. The Griz limited CWU to 56 yards rushing on 31 carries, and had 3 sacks.

Montana gave up just 273 total yards, and 117 of those came in the fourth quarter when the Griz defense was primarily playing with back-up players. Sixty-seven UM players saw action.

Nelson was 25-of-37-1 for 217 yards and one score. Excluding his back-up players. Sixty-seven UM players saw action.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – The University of Montana’s Jordan Canada, Jordan Johnson, and Zack Wagenmann led the way as the Grizzlies defeated the University of South Dakota Coyotes 28-20 Saturday evening in front of a Washington-Grizzly Stadium record crowd of 26,303.

Canada rushed 16 times for 114 yards, while Johnson passed for 2 touchdowns, and Wagenmann led a solid effort by the entire “D” with 3 sacks.

The Grizzlies (2-1) led the entire game, and took a 21-10 lead when Johnson tossed a 14-yard scoring pass to Jamaal Jones with 2:22 left in that stanza.

The Coyotes (1-2) trimmed UM’s lead to 21-13 early in the fourth quarter (11:18) on a 29-yard field goal by Miles Bergner. But, the Griz regained a double-digit lead at 28-13 with 6:18 to go when halfback Travon Van broke loose for a 28-yard touchdown run.

USD got on the board with 1:50 left on a 31-yard TD pass from quarterback Ryan Saeger to Eric Shufford. The Coyotes’ subsequent on-side kick went out of bounds, and back-to-back runs by Canada secured a key first down, and UM ran out the clock for the victory.

UM scored the only points of the opening quarter on a 9-yard TD run by halfback John Nguyen with 39 seconds to go to take a 7-0 lead. USD cut the margin to 7-3 on a 35-yard field goal by Bergner with 3:18 to go in the second stanza, and that’s how the first half ended.

The Griz upped their lead to 14-3 with 11:45 to go in the third quarter on a 12-yard hook-up between Johnson and tight end Mitch Saylor. The Coyotes countered that TD with a 2-yard run by Jasper Sanders with 7:16 left in the third quarter, but that was followed by the Johnson-to-Jones touchdown pass.

Canada rushed 16 times for those 114 yards, averaging 7.1 per attempt. Van had 12 totes for 59 yards, while Nguyen had 6 carries for 34 yards.

Johnson was 16-of-27-0 for 127 yards and the two touchdown passes. Jones had team-highs of 6 catches for 62 yards.

Wagenmann had 6 tackles to go with his 3 sacks. Senior free safety Matt Hermanson and junior linebacker Kendrick Van Ackeren each had a game-high 9 tackles, and Hermanson had his second interception in the last two weeks. UM senior tackle Trevor Reh headded 7 stops. UM’s defense held USD’s vaunted running attack to 134 yards on 37 attempts – 3.6-yard average per rush.

Saeger was 16-of-25-2 for 183 yards and a TD. Tight end Aaron Ramsey led USD with 5 receptions for 76 yards, while Jasper rushed 12 times for 74 yards and a score. Cornerback Mike Lilly had a team-high 8 tackles for the Coyotes.

The Griz eclipsed the former WGS attendance record of 26,293, set last year in the season and home opener against Appalachian State.

FARGO, N.D. - Senior kicker Adam Keller connected on a school-record five field goals to lead the number-one ranked Bison to the win over the fourth-ranked Grizzlies Saturday afternoon in front of a loud and partisan crowd of 18,890 fans in NDSU’s Gate City Bank Field at the Fargodome.

NDSU, the three-time defending FCS national champion, extended its record winning streak in the division to 28 with the victory.

The Bison (4-0) tacked on three insurance points late in the game (1:43 left), when Keller kicked his record-setting fifth field goal.

NDSU took a 19-10 lead on a 3-yard scoring pass from junior quarterback Carson Wentz to senior tight end Kevin Vaadeland at the 8:22 mark of the third quarter, and that’s how the third stanza ended.

Montana (2-2) had reduced the NDSU lead to 12-10 with 52 seconds to go until halftime on a 20-yard field goal by junior kicker Daniel Sullivan - his first career three-pointer for the Griz. The score at intermission was 12-10, Bison.

When Keller connected on his fourth field goal of the game, a 47 yarder, he gave NDSU a 12-7 lead, and scored all of the points the Bison would need for the win with 5:34 left in the second quarter.

The Griz shaved the Bison lead to 9-7 with 10:01 left until intermission on a 3-yard run by senior fullback Jordan Canada. The big play which led to Canada’s rushing touchdown was a 72-yard pass from senior quarterback Jordan Johnson to junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones, as Jones advanced the ball to the NDSU 3-yard line. That 72-yard Johnson-to-Jones pass completion tied for the 13th longest in school history.

NDSU took its first two-score lead (9-0) on a 32-yard field goal by Keller with 10:42 remaining until halftime. The Bison had taken a 6-0 lead in the opening quarter on back-to-back field goals by Keller, as he connected from 22 and 41 yards out. His two three-pointers accounted for the only scoring in the opening stanza.

Johnson was 15-of-29 for 188 yards with no scoring throws. Johnson was intercepted for the first time this season, which was also the Grizzlies’ first turnover of the season.

Canada had 12 carries for 48 yards and a TD. Senior running back/wide-out Travon Van and junior wide receiver Ellis Henderson had a team-high 4 receptions each.

Junior linebacker Jeremiah Kose led the Griz with a game and career-high 16 tackles. Kendrick Van Ackeren garnered 13 tackles for UM, while fellow junior linebacker Herbert Gamboa added 11 stops, as did senior free safety Matt Hermanson.

Henderson now has 1,478 career receiving yards, moving him up to 24th in school history. The Grizzlies’ first turnover of the season.

MISSOULA, MONTANA — Quarterback Jordan Johnson threw three touchdown passes and ran for another and halfback Travon Van rushed for 127 yards and a TD to lead the Grizzlies to the win in front of a homecoming crowd of 25,269.

It was the Big Sky Conference opener for the Grizzlies and Bears, and it was also Montana’s 13th win in a row over UNC. UM improved to 24-4 in homecoming games in WGS.

The Griz scored 28 first-quarter points and led 28-7 after the first 15 minutes of action. When Johnson rushed for his first score since the 2011 season, a 9-yarder, he gave Montana a 28-7 advantage with 39 seconds left in the opening stanza.

Montana opened up a 21-0 lead on a 71-yard scoring run by Van with 4:41 left in the opening quarter. The Griz had taken a 14-0 lead on a 41-yard touchdown throw from Johnson to Ryan Burke, the first TD grab of Burke’s career.

UM scored the first points of the game on a 9-yard throw from Johnson to Jamaal Jones. The Grizzlies’ opening TD was set up on a blocked punt by Griz defensive end Addison Owen, who gave UM a first-and-goal on UNC’s 10-yard line.

The Bears cut the Grizzlies’ lead to 28-7 on a 74-yard run by quarterback Jonathan Newsom. Newsom started in place of regular starter Sean Rubalcaba, who was reportedly unable to play due to a shoulder injury. It was the first game that Newsom had played in this season.

UNC added three points on a 41-yard field goal by kicker Seth Czapenski with 4:01 left in the second quarter, making the score 28-10, UM. The Griz scored a couple of minutes later when Johnson hit tight end Mike Ralston on a 21-yard TD pass, which gave UM a 35-10 bulge with 2:14 to go until the break.

Neither team could muster up much offensive production in the second half, as there were just six total points scored – three by each squad, and all of those came in the third quarter.

Kicker Daniel Sullivan upped the Grizzlies’ lead to 38-10 on a 37-yard field goal with 10:13 left in the third stanza. Czapenski booted a 26-yard field goal at the 1:05 mark of the third quarter which proved to be the final points in the contest.

Johnson was 11-of-20-1 for 181 yards and 3 TDs. Van picked up those 127 rush yards on just nine totes (14.1 ypc). UM senior halfback Jordan Canada added 51 yards on 14 carries. Van’s71-yard touchdown runs tied him for the sixth longest in school history. Jones led the Griz with 5 receptions for 56 yards.

The Griz defense was led by Junior linebackers Heriberto Gamboa and Jeremiah Kose with 10 tackles each. Senior free safety Matt Hermanson, junior linebacker Kendrick Van Ackerson, and junior cornerback Nate Harris had 7 tackles apiece.

Senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann added 6 tackles, 2 stops for losses, a sack, and he forced a fumble and then recovered it. Junior end Derek Crittenden had 3 tackles for loss, 2 sacks, and a forced fumble. Junior strong safety Justin Whitted had a pick – his second this season.

Montana had 11 tackles for loss and five sacks in the game, and without Newsom’s 74-yard scoring run the Bears had 84 net yards rushing on 40 totes – an average of 2.1 yards per carry.

With his three touchdown throws Johnson moved up to third in Montana’s all-time with Mike Murphy (27, 2003-06). Johnson is now fifth in TD’s responsible for with 64, going by John Edwards (62, 1999-2002).

Neither team could muster up much offensive production in the second half, as there were just six total points scored – three by each squad, and all of those came in the third quarter.

Kicker Daniel Sullivan upped the Grizzlies’ lead to 38-10 on a 37-yard field goal with 10:13 left in the third stanza. Czapenski booted a 26-yard field goal at the 1:05 mark of the third quarter which proved to be the final points in the contest.

Johnson was 11-of-20-1 for 181 yards and 3 TDs. Van picked up those 127 rush yards on just nine totes (14.1 ypc). UM senior halfback Jordan Canada added 51 yards on 14 carries. Van’s71-yard touchdown runs tied him for the sixth longest in school history. Jones led the Griz with 5 receptions for 56 yards.

The Griz defense was led by Junior linebackers Heriberto Gamboa and Jeremiah Kose with 10 tackles each. Senior free safety Matt Hermanson, junior linebacker Kendrick Van Ackerson, and junior corner-

GRAND FORKS, ND — Junior kicker Daniel Sullivan kicked a 35-yard field goal as time expired, as the 7th-ranked University of Montana Grizzlies defeated upset-minded North Dakota 18-15 Saturday afternoon in a Big Sky Conference contest in UND’s Alerus Center.

UND scored 15 unanswered fourth-quarter points to tie the game at 15-all with 5:49 left to play. UND (2-4/0-2) had a chance to take the lead with 1:03 remaining, but freshman kicker Reid Taubenheim’s 40-yard field goal was blocked by Montana (4-2/2-0) freshman center Robert Luke and UM had new life.

After UND’s missed field goal, Montana started from its own 41-yard line, and on the Grizzlies’ first play from scrimmage, senior quarterback Shay Smithwick-Hann connected with wide receiver Jamaal Jones for a 46-yard pass completion and the Griz had the ball on UND’s 10-yard line. Two plays later Sullivan kicked the game-winner.

The Griz had taken a 15-0 lead when senior halfback Travon Van plowed over for a 2-yard scoring run on a 4th-and-2 play with 2:57 left in the third quarter.

However, UND got on the board with 6:37 left to play on a 3-yard run by redshirt freshman Kyle Norberg, cutting the Griz lead to 15-7.

UND tied the game when junior cornerback Chris Brown picked off a Smithwick-Hann pass and returned it for a 14-yard touchdown, and then sophomore quarterback Joe Mollberg hit sophomore tight end Luke Mathewson for the game-tying 2-point conversion.

Montana scored its first touchdown of the game with 2:19 left until halftime, when Smithwick-Hann hit Van on a 10-yard scoring pass, however, Sullivan missed the PAT attempt, and the Griz led 8-0.

The Grizzlies’ defense held UND to 60 total yards and 4 first downs in the first half. Senior end Zack Wagenmann led the way for Montana with 2 first-half sacks, and UM led 8-0 at the break. The Griz gained 137 yards and had 11 first downs in the opening half.

Smithwick-Hann had replaced starter Jordan Johnson twice during the opening half when Johnson was up on two different plays. Smithwick-Hann finished 12-of-21-1 for 128 yards and a touchdown. Johnson, who watched the second half in street clothes and on crutches, was 7-of-14-0 for 109 yards in limited action.

Jones had game-highs of 7 catches for 77 yards, 53 yards rushing on 19 carries.

Wagenmann had a team-high 8 tackles, 3 TFLs, 2 sacks, a safety, and a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. Junior linebacker Herbert Gamboa and senior safety Matt Hermanson had 7 tackles each.

Wagenmann now has 29 career sacks, which ties for fourth all-time with Andy Petek (29, 1997-2000), while he moved up to fifth in tackles for loss with 41, passing linebacker Jason Crebo (39, 1994-97). Hermanson now has 287 career tackles, which ties him for 13th on the all-time list with safety Todd Ericson (287, 1990-93).
At Montana 42, UC Davis 28

MISSOULA, MONT. – Senior halfback Jordan Canada broke loose for three long touchdown runs and senior quarterback Jordan Johnson had two scoring passes and also rushed for a TD, to lead the Grizzlies over the upset-minded and visiting UC Davis Aggies Saturday afternoon in front of an appreciative crowd of 25,766 fans in Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

The Grizzlies (5-2/3-0 SCIAC) took a 7-0 lead with 29 seconds left in the opening quarter on a 24-yard pass from Johnson to wide receiver Jamaal Jones, who leaped over the Aggies’ defender to make the scoring grab.

UC Davis (1-6/0-4) scored two unanswered TDs in the second quarter, the first one was a 9-yard pass from quarterback Ben Scott to wide receiver Ramon Vargas, and the second was an 8-yard throw from Scott to halfback Gabe Manzanares. That made the score 14-7 Aggies with 3:34 left until halftime.

Montana tied the game when Johnson scrambled in from 5 yards out with 50 seconds remaining until halftime, making the score 14-14 at the break.

The Griz regained the lead (21-14) for good with 5:27 to go in the third quarter on a 3-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to senior tight end Mitch Saylor.

After that it was all Canada and some key stops by the defense. With 43 seconds remaining in the third stanza Canada broke a couple of tackles and scored on a 74-yard run – the fifth longest rushing TD in school history.

The Aggies battled back, though, as Scott tossed an 11-yard touchdown pass to 5-10, 225-pound running back Dalton Turay, who caught the ball on the 5-yard line and powered his way into the end zone for a score. That trimmed the Griz lead to 28-21 with 9:41 left in the game.

It took Montana just two plays and 42 seconds to answer the UC Davis TD, though, as Canada scored on a 24-yard run to give UM a 35-21 lead with 8:53 remaining in the contest. Canada’s scoring run was set up on a 46-yard completion from Johnson to Jones.

The Aggies cut the Grizzlies’ lead to 35-28 on their next possession, as Scott threw a 15-yard scoring strike to junior wide receiver Ramon Vargas with 4:55 to go.

Canada, who had just one rushing touchdown in UM’s first six games, scored his third TD of the game on a 21-yard run to give the Griz a 42-28 advantage with 2:22 left to play. The Griz offense scored on four of their six second-half possessions.

Montana’s defense stopped UC Davis on its final two possessions in a pair of fourth down situations. The first late drive that the Griz thwarted they took over the ball on UC Davis’ 21-yard line, and then Canada scored from there on UM’s first play from scrimmage after making the fourth down stop. UC Davis’ final drive ended on its own 27, and Johnson took a knee on three straight plays and time expired. UM held UC Davis’ potent offense to 190 total yards in the second half, including 48 yards rushing.

Canada rushed 15 times for 152 yards and the 3 TDs. It was his 10th career 100-yard rushing game. Senior halfback Travon Van added 63 yards on 10 totes.

Johnson was 18-of-27-0 passing for a season-high 280 yards and 2 scores. Jones had 5 receptions for 146 yards and a TD, while Saylor tied his career-high with 5 catches.

UM’s three starting junior linebackers, Jeremiah Kose, Kendrick Van Ackeren, and Herbert Gamboa had game-highs of 12, 11, and 11 tackles, respectively. Gamboa also had 2 TFLs, a sack, and a forced fumble.

Scott was 20-of-37-0 for 257 yards and 4 TDs. Vargas had 8 grabs for 129 yards and 2 TDs. Manzanares rushed 19 times for 110 yards.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIF. — Quarterback Chris Brown rushed for 226 yards and two TDs to lead the host Mustangs to a 41-21 key Big Sky Conference victory over the 7th-ranked Grizzlies Saturday evening in Alex Spanos Stadium.

The loss ended a three-game winning streak by the Grizzlies, who also dropped their first league contest of the season and are now 3-1 in the conference and 5-3 overall. It was the fourth win in a row for the Mustangs, who improved to 4-1 in league and 5-3 overall.

Brown rushed 21 times for those 226 yards (a 10.7 average), and he also passed for 107 yards and a touchdown.

The Griz scored their first and only points of the second half with 6:34 remaining when senior quarterback Jordan Johnson connected with junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones for a 2-yard scoring pass, cutting the Mustangs’ lead to 34-21. However, UM’s subsequent on-side kick was recovered by senior linebacker Nick Dunzbar on the Cal Poly 41-yard line.

Brown put the game out of reach with 9:39 left to play when he sprinted up the middle for a 15-yard touchdown run, giving the Mustangs a 20-point (34-14) lead. Cal Poly’s final TD was a 1-yard scoring run by junior back-up quarterback Dano Graves with 1:10 left in the contest.

The Mustangs scored back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter and took the first double-digit lead of the contest – the second TD coming on a 17-yard run by Brown with 57 seconds left in the stanza.

The third lead change of the contest came at the 10:46 mark of the third quarter, when Brown hit sophomore halfback Kori Garcia who was wide open in the right side of the end zone for 5-yard touchdown, giving Cal Poly a 21-14 lead.

Cal Poly tied the game up for the second time of the opening half on a 5-yard run by senior fullback Brandon Howe with 48 seconds left until intermission. Griz sophomore kicker Harrison Greenberg had a chance to give UM the lead, but his 38-yard field goal attempts was wide left, and the first half ended in a 14-all deadlock.

Montana took its first and only lead of the game at 14-7 with 5:10 remaining until halftime, as Johnson hit senior tight end Mitch Saylor on a 20-yard touchdown pass. The big play on that drive was sparked by two long pass completions by Johnson, the first to Jones and the second to senior wide receiver Sean Haynes, covering 63 and 24 yards, respectively.

The Mustangs scored back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter, when Brown hit sophomore halfback Kori Garcia who was wide open in the right side of the end zone for 5-yard touchdown, giving Cal Poly a 21-14 lead.

2014 Season Review

At Eastern Washington 36, Montana 26

Cheney, Wash. - The #11-ranked Grizzlies battled back from a 23-point deficit (33-10), but fell short in the loss to the host and 5th-ranked Eagles.

EWU was led by junior quarterback Vernon Adams Jr., who passed for 399 yards and 4 touchdowns. Adams, who started, had missed EWU's last four games due to a foot injury.

The Griz made it a one-possession game with 5:56 left in the game when Daniel Sullivan booted a 40-yard field goal, making the score 33-26. But 28 seconds later Tyler McNannay kicked a 37-yard field goal and EWU took a 36-26 lead.

Montana scored its second TD in a row on the third quarter on a 38-yard scoring pass from senior quarterback Jordan Johnson to junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones, making the score 33-23 EWU with 49 seconds left in that stanza. The Johnson-to-Jones TD was set up when junior defensive end Tyrone Holmes stripped the ball from Adams and his fumble was recovered by junior end Derek Crittenden.

The Griz got their first points of the third quarter and cut the Eagles' lead to 33-17, when Johnson threw a 61-yard touchdown pass to senior halfback/wide receiver Travon Van.

The Eagles had scored back-to-back touchdowns in a little over a minute in the third quarter, and jumped to a 33-10 lead on a 67-yard punt return by sophomore wide receiver Cooper Kupp with 8:13 to go in that stanza. EWU had widened its lead to 27-10 with 9:34 left in the third quarter when Adams threw a 38-yard TD pass to the fourth different receiver, this one going to Kupp.

EWU needed just 1:21 and seven plays to regain their double-digit lead, this time Adams connecting with sophomore wide-out Kenrick Bourne for a 34-yard TD pass, and EWU jumped to a 20-10 edge at halftime.

Montana scored its first TD of the game when Johnson tossed a 28-yard scoring pass to Ryan Burke to cut the EWU lead to 13-10 with 1:38 to go until halftime.

The Griz took their only lead of the game and scored their sole points of the first quarter, on a 24-yard field goal by Sullivan with 5:23 to go in the first quarter.

Johnson competed 29-of-50-2 for 447 yards - all career-highs -- for 3 touchdowns. Jones had a career-high 9 catches for a game-high 139 yards and a TD, while Van had 6 grabs for 87 yards and a touchdown, and Saylor added 5 receptions for 66 yards, and Burke had 4 for 65 and a score.

Johnson now has 7,739 career passing yards to move up to fourth in school history. Jones now has 841 receiving yards this year, which ranks him 17th on UM’s single-season list. Jones’ 1,601 career receiving yards move him up to 22nd on the all-time list.

Adams was 24-of-36-0 for his 399 yards and 4 TDs. Kupp had 8 catches for 134 yards. EWU senior linebacker Ronnie Hamlin had 9 tackles, which gives him 440 in his career, as he becomes the Eagles’ all-time leader.

The Griz “D” was led by linebacker Hebert Gamboa with 10 tackles, while fellow junior linebackers Jeremiah Kose and Kendrick Van Ackeren added 9 and 8 tackles, respectively. Gamboa also had 3 sacks, while fellow junior linebackers Jeremiah Kose and Kendrick Van Ackeren added 9 and 8 tackles, respectively. MONTANA 35, AT SOUTHERN UTAH 17

CEDAR CITY, UTAH - Senior running back Jordan Canada rushed for a career-high 211 yards and two TDs to lead the Grizzlies to a crucial Big Sky Conference win.

The win improved Montana's record to 7-4 overall and 5-2 in league, and kept its FCS post-season playoff hopes alive. The victory also gave UM its 28th winning season in the past 29 years.

The Griz win sets up a big match-up between the Griz and the first-place Montana State Bobcats (6-1/8-3) next Saturday in Missoula, the 114th contest in the storied rivalry.

It was a historic game for Griz senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann who had a sack in the win, as he ties Tim Bush (32.5 sacks, 2000-03) and goes by Kroy Biermann (32.0, 2004-07) for second. He needs just a half-a-sack to break the tie with Bush and establish the school record.

A 14-yard TD run by Canada put UM back on top for good at 21-17 with 4:38 left in the third quarter. About five minutes later he broke free for a 56-yard TD run, which came with 14:27 to go in the fourth, giving UM a 28-17 advantage.

An 8-play, 88 yard drive which used up 4:22 on the clock, was capped off by a 1-yard scoring run by fullback Jamal Wilson - his first career touchdown, and his TD iced the win for the Griz and gave them a three-score (35-17) lead.

After a blocked field goal by the T-Birds' Lehi Afatasi, SUU scored on a 24-yard field goal by Keita Calhoun, and took its first and only lead of the game at 17-14 with 8:37 to go in the third quarter.

Montana scored the first points of the game with 9:30 left in the second quarter on a 12-yard TD pass from QB Jordan Johnson to Sean Haynes, giving the Griz a 7-0 lead.

SUU tied the game at 7-7 with 4:37 left in the second quarter on a 5-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ammon Olsen to wide receiver Mitch Jessop.

On UM's next possession, an offside penalty on SUU allowed Montana to maintain possession, and the Grizzlies capitalized, as two plays later, Johnson hit wide receiver/halfback Travon Van on a 62-yard TD pass, as Montana regained the lead (14-7).

The T-Birds scored with 27 seconds to go until halftime on a 3-yard run by Olsen, which tied the score 14-14 at intermission.

Canada rushed 29 times for his 211 yards and two scoring runs, to average 7.3 yards a carry. Halfback John Nguyen was instrumental in the win, as he rushed just 8 times for 90 yards including a career-long 54-yard jaunt, and picked up two key first downs on UM's final two possessions. The Griz rushed for a season-high 316 yards on 49 totes.

Johnson, who left the game with an injury in the fourth quarter, was 12-of-26-0 passing for 181 yards and two scores. Van had team-high 114th contest in the storied rivalry.

On defense, senior FS Matt Hermanson had a game-high 12 tackles, while junior linebackers Kendrick Van Ackeren and Jeremiah Kose added 11 and 9 stops, respectively.

Olsen was 25-of-41–2 for 355 yards and a TD. Jessop had a game-high 7 receptions.

It was a historic game for Griz senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann who had a sack in the win, as he ties Tim Bush (32.5 sacks, 2000-03) and goes by Kroy Biermann (32.0, 2004-07) for second. He needs just a half-a-sack to break the tie with Bush and establish the school record.

MISSOULA, MONTANA – The defense took advantage of seven turnovers and Jordan Canada and Jordan Johnson paced the offense, as the 13th-ranked Grizzlies defeated the 12th-ranked Bobcats.

A Washington-Grizzly Stadium record crowd of 26,352 attended the 114th “Brawl of the Wild” contest. The Griz now lead the series 72-37-5, and have won 24 of the last 29 contests.

Montana improved to 6-2 in league and 8-4 overall, while MSU is now 6-2/8-4.

It was an even more emotional “Senior Day” than normal for Montana’s 16 seniors, as earlier this week Griz head coach Mick Delaney announced that he would be retiring at the conclusion of the 2014 season.

It was a record day for UM senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann. He had a sack in the game, giving him 33.5 in his career to break the school record, passing Tim Bush, who had 32.5 sacks from 2000-03. Bush is still ranked first at UM in tackles for loss with 48.5, but Wagenmann is right behind him with 48 TFls.

Canada, a senior halfback, picked up 119 yards on the ground which gives him 1,011 on the season – the second year in a row he has rushed for 1,000-plus yards (he had 1,062 last year).

The senior signal-caller, Johnson, passed for 313 yards, which gives him 8,236 in his career – the third most in school history, while his 27 career wins are the fourth most W’s by a starting quarterback.

Senior free safety Matt Hermanson now has 338 career tackles and moved up to fourth in school history, as he passed linebacker Jordan Tripp, who had 335 career tackles from 2009-13. Hermanson also had 3 picks in the game, and now has 11 career picks, which ties him for the sixth most at UM with four other players.

The Griz scored on five of their first six possessions and took a commanding 27-0 halftime lead.

Johnson 4-yard TD pass to senior tight end Mitch Saylor gave UM a 27-0 advantage with 3:05 left until intermission. On four of its five possessions of the opening half, Montana scored three TDs and kicked a field goal, and picked off MSU quarterback Jake Bleskin four times. All four of those interceptions resulted in Grizzly scores.

Kicker Daniel Sullivan’s 42-yard field goal gave Montana a 3-0 lead with 12:04 to go in the first quarter. Canada boosted UM’s lead to 10 on back-to-back scores, the first on a 1-yard run, and the second came on a 4-yard TD pass from Johnson, which came with 50 seconds left in the first stanza. It was Canada’s first career receiving touchdown.

The Grizzlies tacked on 10 more points in the opening half on a 29-yard field goal by Sullivan, and the Johnson-to-Saylor TD hook-up. The Grizzlies’ only second half points came when Johnson connected with redshirt wide receiver Josh Janssen on a 9-yard scoring pass, which gave UM a 34-0 cushion with 12:53 left in the game.

MSU finally got on the board with 5:59 left in the game on a 1-yard run by running back Chad Newell on the Cats’ final possession. Johnson was 22-of-36-0 for 313 yards and rushed six times for 80 yards. Canada had 27 totes for his 119 yards.

Senior wide receiver/halfback Travon Van had 6 catches for 106 yards, while senior tight end Mitch Saylor had career-highs of 6 catches for 103 yards and a TD. Junior Jamaal Jones added 6 grabs for 70 yards, while Janssen had 3 receptions.

Junior linebackers Kendrick Van Ackeren and Herbert Gamboa led the Griz with 11 tackles each, while Hermanson added 8 stops to go along with his 3 picks. Van Ackeren now has a team-best 110 tackles so far this season.

Bleskin, who was starting in place of the injured Dakota Prukop, was 15-of-28-5 for 145 yards, and was sacked three times. Newell led MSU with 17 carries for 67 yards and a TD. Senior line-backer Alex Singleton led the Cats with a game-high 16 tackles.

At MONTANA 52, SAN DIEGO 14

MISSOULA, MONTANA – Montana dominated on both sides of the football, and the result was a 52-14 victory over the visiting Toreros in a first round NCAA FCS playoff game.

The Grizzlies scored on six of their first eight possessions in the first half and held the Toreros (9-3) of the Pioneer Football League scoreless, to jump to an insurmountable 38-0 halftime lead.

Montana grabbed an early 7-0 lead with 8:38 left in the first quarter on a 22-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback Jordan Johnson to junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones. The Griz opened up a 14-0 advantage late (1:14) in the opening quarter on a 3-yard scoring pass from Johnson to senior halfback Jordan Canada.

The Grizzlies then scored on all four of their possessions in the second quarter, and when Canada scored again, this time from 17 yards out, UM led 38-0 with 2:34 remaining until intermission.

Sophomore running back John Nguyen started UM's second quarter scoring onslaught by scoring on a 60-yard punt return, which was his first TD return and the longest punt return of his career, and gave the Griz a 21-0 lead.

Junior kicker Daniel Sullivan's 41-yard field goal  upped the Grizzlies' lead to 24-0 at 0:10 mark of the second stanza. After Sullivan's three-pointer, there was another Johnson-to-Jones hook-up, this one covering 30 yards, and that TD was followed by Canada's 17-yard jaunt, and Montana never looked back.

UM tallied two more unanswered TDs on scoring throws of 18 and 12 yards by senior QB Shaysmithwick-Hann to redshirt freshman receiver Josh Janssen (with 7:37 to go in the third quarter) and senior wide-out Kevin Berland. Berland, who made his first career catch earlier in the game, gave the Griz a 52-0 cushion on his TD reception, which came with 12:16 remaining in the fourth quarter.

USD finally scored with 6:05 left to play on a scoring pass from 1st back Dallas Kessman to freshman wide receiver Justin Priest from 27 yards out. Priest scored again on an 11-yard touchdown throw from junior QB Trey Wheeler.

The Grizzlies out-gained the Toreros 315 to 17 in total yards, and had 18 first downs compared to USD's one. Most of Montana's starters played in just the first half.

Johnson was 13-of-20-0 for 153 yards and 3 TDs, while Canada had 17 carries for 105 yards rushing with a score, one touchdown rushing and one receiving, and Jones had 5 receptions for 86 yards and 2 scores – all of those yards for those three players were accumulated in the first half.

Jones becomes the 13th player in school history to have more than 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Most of UM's defensive starters also did not play in the second half, but that did not prevent senior defensive end Zack Wagemann from breaking another school record. A sack in the second quarter gave him his 49th career tackle for loss, and he passed former end Tim Bush (48.5, 2000-03) to become UM's all-time leader in that category. He also added to his career record totals in career sacks (34.5) and career forced fumbles (11).

Redshirt freshman linebacker Tucker Schy led UM's defense with a career-high 8 tackles, while junior safety Eric Johnson and redshirt freshman linebacker Connor Strahm had 5 tackles apiece.

True freshman running back Lorenzo Logwood rushed 17 times for 59 yards, while Nguyen had 4 totes for 42 yards, and redshirt freshman Treashawn Favor had 9 carries for 36 yards. Berland finished with 3 grabs for 42 yards and a TD, while Janssen had 2 catches for 31.

USD starting sophomore quarterback Keith Williams was 6- of-18-0 for 34 yards, while Wheeler was 4-of-4 for 41 yards. Kessman had a team-high 30 yards rushing on 10 carries. Senior free safety Matt Miller led USD with a game-high 13 tackles.

AT EASTERN WASHINGTON 37, MONTANA 20

CHENEY, WASH. – The second time was not the charm for the unseeded 12th-ranked Grizzlies, as comeback-minded Montana lost for the second time in 2014 to the 4th-ranked Eastern Washington Eagles in a second round NCAA Division I FCS playoff game at EWU’s Roos Field.

It was the final game for third-year head coach Mick Delaney, as he had announced recently that he would step down at the conclusion of the 2014 season. Montana ended its season with a 9-5 record and went 6-2 (tie, second) in the Big Sky Conference.

The Eagles (11-2) were led by junior quarterback Vernon Adams Jr. who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another, while senior halfback Quincy Forte rushed for 128 yards and a TD. Host EWU had defeated UM 36-26 earlier this season in a Big Sky Conference game on Nov. 8.

The Grizzlies had held their comeback chance possible with 6:29 remaining, when QB Jordan Johnson connected with senior wide receiver/halfback Travon Van on a 30-yard touch- down pass, cutting EWU lead to 10 points (30-20).

Montana then stayed in the game when it stopped EWU on a fourth down conversion on an interception of Adams by junior linebacker Jeremiah Kose in the end zone. But, on UM’s next play from scrimmage the Eagles put the game out of reach, as safety Todd Raynes picked off a pass and returned it 40 yards, giving EWU a 37-20 lead and the final points of the game.

Senior defensive end Zack Wagenmann had 3 sacks in the game, giving him 37.5 in his career, as he added to his school-record total. He increased his record total of tackles for loss to 52.

Canada rushed 11 times for 79 yards and a TD, giving him 1,207 yards rushing this season, which ranks him seventh in school history.

Johnson was 18-of-33-2 for 223 yards and a TD and rushed for 48 yards. For the season, he threw for 2,781 yards and 24 TDs. His passing yards are the 15th most yards in school history, while his 24 TD throws are the seventh most (tie) in a season.

Senior free safety Matt Hermanson had 8 tackles, giving him 348 in his career, which ties him third in school history with linebacker Kent Clausen (348 tackles, 1976-79).

Van had career-highs of 9 catches for 161 yards and a TD. Junior wide receiver Jamaal Jones had just 2 catches for 8 yards, but upped his season total to 1,037 receiving yards, which ranks him ninth in single-season history at UM.

Junior linebackers Hebert Gamboa and Kose led the Griz with 11 tackles each. LB Kendrick Van Ackeren added 9 stops, followed by Hermanson’s 8. Defensive backs Nate Harris and Justin Whitted, and end Tyrone Holmes had 7 tackles apiece.

Delaney finished his three-year stint as head coach with 24 wins - - the seventh most ever by a UM mentor.

BIG SKY CONFERENCE

2015 Griz Football
The Big Sky Conference enters its 53rd year and 28th year of women's competition during the 2015-16 academic year.

The venerable and stable Division I Big Sky Conference observed its 50th birthday on July 1, 2013.

Four of the current league members – Idaho State University, The University of Montana, Montana State and Weber State – have been with the league since its birth. Fellow charter member the University of Idaho returned most of its sports to the Big Sky on July 1, 2014. Northern Arizona University enters its 47th season in the league, giving the league five members with at least 40 years of continuous membership.

The Big Sky Conference welcomed North Dakota and Southern Utah on July 1, 2012 as full members. UC Davis and Cal Poly joined as football affiliate members. Eastern Washington University, the University of Northern Colorado, Portland State University and Sacramento State round out the current membership.

The league has become one of the strongest Division I conferences in the West and is a national leader in the Football Championship Subdivision. Six times, Big Sky teams have won the Division I National Championship, including Eastern Washington in 2010. The Big Sky is one of three conferences in the western United States playing Division I football.

The Big Sky Conference was established in 1963 by six charter members – Idaho, Idaho State, Gonzaga, Montana, Montana State and Weber State. Those six schools formed the foundation of the Big Sky before the league expanded in 1970 by adding Boise State and Northern Arizona. Gonzaga left the Sky in 1979 and was replaced by Nevada, which gave the league eight members. The conference grew to nine schools in 1987 with the addition of Eastern Washington.

The 1990s saw change in the makeup of the league, beginning in 1992 when Nevada departed and put the Big Sky back at eight teams. In 1996 Boise State and Idaho left and at the same time the conference added Portland State, Sacramento State and Cal State Northridge. The Big Sky maintained nine teams for five years before Cal State Northridge departed in the spring of 2001.

The Big Sky's full members represent nine states spanning from the Pacific Ocean to the Red River Valley of North Dakota. The league is represented along the entire west coast with institutions in Washington, Oregon and California. League schools also range up and down the Rocky Mountains with institutions in Montana, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Colorado. It is "The Heart of the American West."

The University of Idaho, which was a member from 1963-96, will once again compete in the Big Sky in the majority of its sports. Idaho's football program maintained its FBS affiliation, joining the Sun Belt Conference.

On Feb 25, 1963, the name Big Sky was adopted by the six presidents of the charter members as the name of the new conference. The name Big Sky originated in a novel written by the late A.B. (Bud) Guthrie of Great Falls, Mont., in 1947 entitled "The Big Sky." Jack Hollowell, a former Montana advertising director, promoted the Big Sky theme for the Treasure State. While on a track and field trip from Pocatello, Idaho, to Missoula, Mont., legendary Dubby Holt of Idaho State saw a "Welcome to Big Sky Country" sign as his team entered Montana. Holt, and his athletes thought "Big Sky" would be a perfect name for the new conference. Harry Missildine of the Spokane Spokesman-Review called for the newly formed league to be named the Big Sky Conference in his column dated Feb. 20, 1963.

The Big Sky sponsors championships in 16 sports, including men's and women's cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, basketball and tennis. In addition, there are also championships in football, and women's volleyball, golf and soccer. The Big Sky sponsored softball for the first time in 2013. Men's golf returned as a championship sport in 2014-15 for the first time since 2002. The University of Hartford and Binghamton University have joined the Big Sky as affiliate members in golf.

In 1988-89, the Big Sky Conference first began sponsoring women's sports. The former Mountain West Conference existed from 1982-88, sponsoring championships for women's sports at the same institutions the Big Sky had men's programs. The Big Sky merged with the Mountain West in 1988, forming one league for both men and women.

Doug Fullerton, the fifth commissioner of the Big Sky Conference, is in his 21st year at the helm. Fullerton took over the Big Sky on July 1, 1995, replacing longtime commissioner Ron Stephenson, who passed away in 2011. Stephenson served the league for 14 years. Steve Belko was the commissioner from 1977-81, while John Roning held the post from 1971-77. The first league commissioner was Jack Friel, who served from 1963-71.

Editor's note: The Redbook is The University of Montana Athletic Department's handwritten history by George "Jiggs" Dahlberg dating from 1897 through the 2080 season. (All photos from Sports Information archives)

Fred Smith 1897

"Two years after The University of Montana opened its doors to students, the first football team was organized. Professor Fred D. Smith, chemistry professor and former football player at Cornell University, volunteered to coach the football team. Twenty-four men turned out. No uniforms were available so many of the players used makeshift clothing." -- The Redbook

F.B. Seabright 1898

"Sgt. B.F. Seabright, a graduate and former player at Stanford, was a coach in 1898. He was engaged by the university as instructor in general athletics. Students raised an initial $110 to help pay the coach's salary. Charles Allard kicked the first field goal in the state of Montana at the Thanksgiving game vs. the Montana State College Aggies in Missoula. Montana won 16-0." -- The Redbook

Guy Cleveland 1899

"Prospects for a first class team were not very bright at the start of the 1899 season when Guy Cleveland took over the team. Scarce any of the old players were back and positions had to be filled with untried material."

"In the first game against the Anaconda Athletic Club, Coach Cleveland played right halfback. He made the two touchdowns and kicked goal both times to win for the varsity." -- The Redbook

Frank Bean 1900-1901

"Frank Bean from the University of Wisconsin was selected as coach. A game with Anaconda failed to materialize, therefore, the only game scheduled in 1900 was with Montana State College."

"The unsuccessful season was due to the lack of experienced players. We had no experienced quarterback." -- Kaimin, student paper

Dewitt Peck 1902

This season saw the organization of the Northwest Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Nine Northwest colleges were represented at a meeting which was held in Spokane.

H.B. Conibear 1903-1904

"Hiram Conibear coached at Illinois University before coming to UM. The 1903 team was the first university football team to be sent out of the state to compete in an athletic contest. Coach Conibear will be remembered by University of Montana fans for at least one contribution, his 1904 team ran up the biggest score in football history against Montana State College, 79-0." -- The Redbook

F.W. Schule 1905-1906

A writeup of the 1906 season by Coach Schule in the yearbook says, "as interesting and as spectacular a game of football as the writer has seen in the far west was played on the Montana field on October 19th. Our men succeeded in holding Washington State's undefeated team to the closest score made against them this season." -- Montana Sentinel
COACHING HISTORY

Albion Findley
1907
"Coach Findley had been a member of the All-Western Conference team while attending the University of Wisconsin. This was the first year that letter sweaters were awarded. University sweater awards were donated by Missoula Mercantile."
--- The Redbook

Roy White
1908-1909
"Roy "Cupid" White, All-Western tackle at the University of Iowa in 1905, was selected to coach the Montana team. The 1909 team was the first Montana football team to be undefeated."
--- The Redbook

Robert Cary, 1910-11
"Montana was very successful using the forward pass in 1910."

Lt. W.C. Philoon, 1912
Lt. Philoon was an All American player (center) at West Point.

A.G. Heilman, 1913-14
"This was the best team that Montana had yet produced, and Montana was undefeated and had one scoreless tie with Idaho in 1914. Richard Howell of the Law School wrote the song: "Up With Montana" (UM's fight song) in 1914."
--- The Redbook

Jerry Nissen
1915-1917
"The biggest game of the season and one of the biggest in Montana history came Thanksgiving Day 1915 when the powerful Syracuse University team invaded Missoula for the first intersectional game in the state. Coach Jerry Nissen returned from the Northwest Conference meeting at Seattle in 1916 with the news that Montana had been admitted to the conference. Coach Nissen resigned at the end of the 1917 season to join the Army. The coach had compiled a record of 14-7-4 in three seasons."
--- The Redbook

Bernie Bierman
1919-1921
"Bernie Bierman, the new coach, was an All-America halfback at the University of Minnesota in 1915. Probably no season up to this time saw more "firsts" than in 1920. The Grizzlies beat the University of Washington for the only time in history. Montana's football field was moved and named "Dornblaser Field" in honor of Paul Dornblaser, the great Grizzly tackle, who was killed in action in World War I. Finally, the Grizzlies ran up their biggest score in history, a 133-0 pasting of Mount St. Charles."
(Carroll College)
--- The Redbook

J.W. Stewart
1922-1923
"John W. Stewart, a graduate of Geneva College, Penn., was selected from a list of 50 candidates to succeed Bernie Bierman. He was to be head coach of the football, basketball and track teams."
--- The Redbook

Earl Clark
1924-1925
"Earl "Click" Clark became the second Montana graduate to coach a Grizzly team in 1924. Coach Clark resigned at the end of the 1925 season to accept the position of trainer at the University of Washington. He held this position until his retirement."
--- The Redbook

Frank Milburn
1926-1930
"Major Frank Milburn, a West Point graduate and winner of the Athletic Saber, emblematic of the best athlete at West Point, became head of the R.O.T.C. and head football coach. The 1930 season highlights were victories over Montana State College, University of Idaho and Gonzaga University. Major "Shrimp" Milburn closed his coaching career at the University of Montana due to Army orders transferring him to another station."
--- The Redbook

Bernard Oakes
1931-1934
"Bernard F. "Bunny" Oakes, who had been line coach at the University of Nebraska for the past five years, became Major Milburn's successor as head coach of football for the 1931 season. Robert Stansberry and Henry Blastic made honorable mention All Americans. Bernard Oakes left after the 1934 season to coach football at the University of Colorado."
--- The Redbook

Doug Fessenden
1935-1941
"Douglas Fessenden, Fenger High School coach in Chicago, was selected as head football coach at the university in April of 1935. "Man of the Year" was the honor accorded Douglas Fessenden by the Kaimin in 1935 for the distinguished work done by him in raising Montana to a prominent place in Pacific Coast Conference football. Fessenden proved himself to be an able mentor and won the respect and admiration of the entire school. The 1937 season was the most successful football season since 1914. Montana won six consecutive games in 1937 which is the first time in history Montana won as many games. The highlight of the 1939 season was the 13-0 win over the University of Idaho, smashing the Idaho jinx and giving Montana possession of the Little Brown Stein for the first time. The 1941 football season was a successful year as well, UM going 6-3. 1946-1948 (14-15) Douglas Fessenden returned from the Army Air Corp in time to take over his duties as head football coach. Montana enjoyed a successful 1947 season winning 7 games and losing 4 and defeated Washington State College and the University of Idaho on their home grounds. Fessenden resigned in 1948 and the following year received his doctors degree in Physical Education from Columbia University. Fessenden had the best win and loss record in football of any university football coach up until that time."
--- The Redbook

George Dahlberg
1945
"George "Jiggs" Dahlberg from the University of Montana coached football for the 1945 season. Dr. J.E. "Burly" Miller, faculty athletic representative ruled that the University of montana, must follow pre-war Pacific Coast Conference rules."
--- The Redbook
Ted Shipkey 1949-1951
“Ted Shipkey began his coaching stint at the University of Montana in 1949.

The passing combination of Ray Bauer (end) and Tom Kingsford (quarterback) in 1950 was one of the best in University history. Montana withdrew from the Pacific Coast Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference which is also known as the "Skyline" Conference. Ted Shipkey resigned as football coach in 1951.” -- The Redbook

Ed Chinske 1952-1954
“Edward Chinske became the next UM head football coach in 1952. Richard (Dick) Imer was selected for All-American honors in 1953. Imer and Joe DeLuca were chosen to several All-American teams in 1954.” -- Redbook

Jerry Williams 1955-1957
“UM’s fund-raising arm, the Century Club, got its start in 1955, the same year as Head Coach Jerry Williams arrived. Aside from the fact that Stanley Renning was considered one of the greatest sophomores to ever appear in a Grizzly uniform, the 1956 campaign was a dismal one.

Coach Jerry Williams, who had played professional football with the Philadelphia Eagles, left UM to be an assistant coach for the Eagles.” -- The Redbook

Ray Jenkins 1958-1963
“Ray Jenkins' first year as football coach was a poor debut with an 0-10 record, the worst in Montana history.

The Grizzlies came up with their best passing attack in 10 season during 1959, a campaign that also marked the end of a 15-game losing streak when the Grizzlies scored a 12-0 upset over Brigham Young.

Terry Dillon was selected and played in the East-West Shrine game January 1963. The 1963 football season was unsuccessful - winning one game and losing nine. Ray Jenkins resigned at the close of the 1963 football season.” -- The Redbook

Hugh Davidson 1964-1966
“In 1964 Hugh Davidson become the new head coach. The Terry Dillon Award was established for the most valuable player on the football team.

Davidson resigned at the end of the 1966 football season.” -- Redbook

Jack Swarthout 1967-1975
“Since assuming the duties of both head football coach and AD at UM in 1967, Jack Swarthout put a drive into the school's athletic program which had not been seen in Missoula for several years.

Montana won the Big Sky Conference championship in 1969 for the first time since conference football began in 1963.

Coach Swarthout and his staff received considerable praise for the excellent job of coaching Montana to its second consecutive undefeated regular season play in 1970. The team played in the Camilla Bowl, losing to UND 31-16. There were several Grizzlies selected to various All-American teams in 1971.

Swarthout resigned as football coach at the close of the 1975 season. He chose to return to high school teaching and coaching at Capital High, Olympia, Wash. Swarthout left UM as the winningest football coach in the University’s history with a nine-year record of 51 wins, 41 losses and one tie. He won two consecutive Big Sky football championships (1969 and 1970).” -- The Redbook

Gene Carlson 1976-1979
“The 1976 football season opened with Eugene Carlson as the new head football coach. Carlson inherited the coaching staff of the preceding administration (Jack Swarthout), as well as the offensive system (Wisbomine or Texas Y). However, Gene made some changes in the offense formation.

Carlson was an alumnus of UM and was a very successful high school coach in Great Falls prior to coming to the University of Montana. A greater success was expected by those in power so Carlson resigned at the close of the 1979 season.” -- The Redbook

Ted Shipkey 1949-1951
Hugh Davidson 1964-1966
Jack Swarthout 1967-1975
Gene Carlson 1976-1979

Larry Donovan 1980-1985

Larry Donovan was selected to replace Gene Carlson. Donovan was a graduate of the University of Nebraska and came to Montana from the University of Kansas where he had been an assistant coach.

The 1981 season was positive, as Donovan was rebuilding the football program, and 1982 saw the Grizzlies in a first-round playoff game at Idaho along with winning the Big Sky Conference title. However, the next three seasons had more L's then W's, and after the 1985 season, Donovan, and most of his coaching staff, did not have their contracts renewed for the 1986 season.

Don Read 1986-1995

Don Read is Montana’s all-time winningst coach. He came to Montana from Portland State in 1986.

Read never had a losing season as head mentor to the Grizzlies. In Montana’s 96-year football history. Also during his 10-year tenure, he was 10-0 against the MSU Bobcats. The Grizzlies advanced to the playoffs five out of the 10 years he coached, winning the Division 1-AA (FCS) national championship in 1993. He was also selected the Division 1-AA Coach of the Year in 1995 and coached Dave Dickenson, the 1995 Walter Payton Award winner.

During his tenure, the Griz had an overall record of 85-36, and his 85 overall wins at UM and 54 Big Sky victories rank him second in conference history.

Joe Glenn 2000-2002

Joe Glenn came to Montana after a very long, successful 11-year career at Northern Colorado where the Bears won back-to-back NCAA Division II national football championships in 1996 and 1997.

In Joe's first year as head coach at Montana, he won the Eddie Robinson Award, given annually to the I-AA (FCS) coach of the year. He was also the Big Sky Conference's coach of the year. That year he took the 13-1 Griz to the Division I-AA national championship game, where the Griz lost to Georgia Southern, 27-25.

Glenn repeated the trip to the title game in 2001, this time winning the championship, beating Furman 13-6. The Griz were once again conference champs for the second year in a row. The Griz were co-conference champs in 2002.

Glenn was hired as Wyoming's 30th head football coach Dec. 12, 2002 and is now the head coach at South Dakota.
Bobby Hauck
2003-2009

Bobby Hauck became Montana’s 33rd head football coach in Jan. of 2003. He came to UM from the University of Washington where he was assistant coach. Hauck graduated from UM.

Hauck had a successful head coaching career at Montana, taking his teams to the playoffs all seven of his years here, appearing in national championship games in 2004 and 2008, and the semifinals in 2006.

He had 80 wins at UM. Hauck was selected the Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year in 2006, 2007 and 2009. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award in 2006, 2007 and 2009. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year in 2009. He had nine players selected to the all-conference first team in 2009, and Montana led the conference in rushing offense, scoring offense, total defense and scoring defense that season.

Along with his head coaching duties, Hauck also coached special teams. He was the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2009.

Hauck took over the head coaching position at UNLV in December of 2009.

Robin Pflugrad
2010-11

Robin Pflugrad came to Montana from Oregon. Pflugrad was a mentor in the prestigious PAC-10 Conference for 13 seasons with stints at Oregon, Washington State and Arizona State. He has coached at the collegiate level for 28 years. Pflugrad had a two-year overall record of 13-6 as head coach at Montana.

Pflugrad also coached at Montana from 1986-94, working quarterbacks, wide receivers and running backs during his first stint at UM.

He was one of 20 finalists for the Eddie Robinson Award, given to the FCS’s top mentor.

Mick Delaney
2012-2014

Mick Delaney was 24-14 in his three seasons as the head coach at UM. His 2014 record was 9-5, and the Griz advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs.

Mick retired after the 2014 season.

His 24 wins were the seventh most in school history. He was the 35th head coach (since 1897) at Montana.

He completed his seventh season overall at Montana. From 2008-11 he was UM’s associate head coach and oversaw the running backs. He was named a finalist for the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2013.

On July 26, 2013, the NCAA Committee on Infractions (COI) issued its findings regarding a NCAA investigation into the UM football program that began in February 2012. In its findings, the COI found that the University of Montana and a former head football coach failed to monitor its football program. Specifically, violations occurred as a result of the following: (A) boosters providing extra benefits to student-athletes, some of which resulted in two student-athletes competing while ineligible, (B) during one season, an undergraduate student assistant participated in coaching activities resulting in the football program exceeding the permissible limit of football coaches and (C) the institution and football coach failed to monitor these activities. As a result of the findings, UM is subject to the following penalties: (1) public reprimand and censure, (2) three years of probation from July 26, 2013, through July 25, 2016, (3) a limit of 59 football equivalency scholarships during the 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2016-17 academic years, (4) with regard to the 2011 football season and games in which the student-athletes competed while ineligible, the vacation of wins and participation in the FCS Championship Playoffs, as well as vacation of the individual statistics for the involved student-athletes, (5) forfeiture of $3,000 which will be donated to local charities, (6) reduction of undergraduate student assistant positions by two during the 2013-14 academic year and (7) external review of the compliance program. During the three-year probationary period, the institution will submit annual progress reports to the COI regarding compliance with all penalties and self-corrective actions.
2014: GRIZ ADVANCE TO SECOND ROUND PLAYOFF GAMES

Montana extended its record number of appearances in the division I-AA/FCS playoffs to 22.

Montana dominated on both sides of the football, and the result was a 52-14 victory over the visiting Toreros in a first round NCAA FCS playoff game.

The Grizzlies scored on six of their first eight possessions in the first half and held the Toreros (9-3) of the Pioneer Football League scoreless, to jump to an insurmountable 38-0 halftime lead. The Grizzlies then scored on all four of their possessions in the second quarter.

Sophomore running back John Nguyen started UM's second quarter scoring onslaught by scoring on a 60-yard punt return, which was his first TD return and the longest punt return of his career, and gave the Griz a 21-0 lead.

UM tallied two more unanswered TDs on scoring throws of 18 and 12 yards by senior QB Shay Smithwick-Hann to redshirt freshman receiver Josh Janssen (with 7:37 to go in the third quarter) and senior wide-out Kevin Berland.

USD finally scored with 6:05 left to play on a scoring pass from halfback Dallas Kessman to redshirt freshman wide receiver Justin Priest from 27 yards out. Priest scored again on an 11-yard touchdown throw from junior QB Trey Wheeler.

The Grizzlies out-gained the Toreros 315 to 17 in total yards, and had 18 first downs compared to USD's one. Most of Montana's starters played in just the first half.

The second time was not the charm for the unseeded 12th-ranked Grizzlies, as comeback-minded Montana lost for the second time in 2014 to the 4th-ranked Eastern Washington Eagles in a second round NCAA Division I FCS playoff game at EWU's Roos Field.

It was the final game for third-year head coach Mick Delaney, as he had announced recently that he would step down at the conclusion of the 2014 season. Montana ended its season with a 9-5 record and went 6-2 (tie, second) in the Big Sky Conference.

The Eagles (11-2) were led by junior quarterback Vernon Adams Jr. who passed for two touchdowns and ran for another, while senior halfback Quincy Forte rushed for 128 yards and a TD. Host EWU had defeated UM 36-26 earlier this season in a Big Sky Conference game on Nov. 8.

The Grizzlies had kept their comeback chance possible with 6:29 remaining, when QB Jordan Johnson connected with senior wide receiver/halfback Travon Van on a 30-yard touchdown pass, cutting EWU lead to 10 points (30-20).

Montana then stayed in the game when it stopped EWU on a fourth down conversion on an interception of Adams by junior linebacker Jeremiah Kose in the end zone. But, on UM's next play from scrimmage the Eagles put the game out of reach, as safety Todd Raynes picked off a pass and returned it 40 yards, giving EWU a 37-20 lead and the final points of the game, thus ending Montana's chances to advance further in the playoffs.

2013: MONTANA WINS 10 GAMES EN ROUTE TO 21ST BERTH IN PLAYOFFS

Montana won seven of its last eight regular-season games and earned an at-large berth into the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs, its 21st in school history.

The host Griz lost 42-37 to 11th-ranked Coastal Carolina in the second round.

The 10-3 Grizzlies were led by three senior linebackers, who all ended their careers ranked among UM's all-time leaders in career tackles. That dynamic trio consisted of Jordan Tripp (fourth, 335 total tackles), Brock Coyle (12th, 293 TT), and J.P. Kanongata'a (17th, 269 TT).

Junior end Zack Wagenmann had a team-high 16.5 tackles for loss and was a first team All-Big Sky Conference pick for the second season in a row.

UM also had stellar seasons on offense by running back Jordan Canada, wide receiver/returner Ellis Henderson, and quarterback Jordan
Johnson. Canada rushed for 1,062 yards and 16 touchdowns; Henderson racked up 1,008 receiving yards and 145 TDs; and Johnson passed 3,387 yards and 32 touchdowns.

2012: Griz Miss Playoffs for the Second Time in the Past 20 Seasons

For the just the second time in the past 20 seasons the Grizzlies did not advance to the FCS playoffs. Montana finished 5-6 overall and had its first losing season in 27 years (since going 3-8 in 1985). It was also the first time in 20 seasons that the Griz have not finished first or second in the Big Sky Conference.

2011: Montana Advances to FCS Semis for the 20th Time

The Grizzlies returned to the playoffs after a one year hiatus, advancing to the FCS semifinal, and suffered a 31-28 loss to host, top-ranked, and undefeated (14-0) Sam Houston State. It was Montana’s 18th playoff berth in the past 19 seasons and 20th overall. UM has won (or shared) 13 of the past 15 Big Sky Conference championships.

Montana out-scored the Kats 14-3 in the second half and advanced the ball to the SHSU 49-yard line on its final drive, but was forced to punt, and Flanders rushed eight times for 63 yards, including a 22-yarder on a fourth down, to ice the victory.

The Griz defense held SHSU to two total first downs in the second half prior to the Bearkats’ final drive. Halfback Tim Flanders led SHSU, rushing for 287 yards on 26 carries, and led a potent ground attack that amassed 383 yards.

Senior linebacker Caleb McGurty led a defense that featured nine senior starters, and he was named the Big Sky Conference’s MVP on defense.

Record-setting senior kicker/punter Brody McKnight booted a league-record 210 PATs. Jabin Sambrano, also a senior, became just the second player in school history (the other one was “Will Bill” Kelly in 1926) to score a touchdown rushing, receiving, and via punt and kick-off returns in a season.

Second-year head coach Robin Pflugrad was named the Big Sky’s “Coach of the Year,” as the Griz went 11-3 overall and placed first in the league with a 7-1 mark. NOTE: Montana would later vacated five wins, Big Sky title, and its participation in FCS playoff games due to NCAA violations, finishing with an “official record” of 6-2.

2010: Playoff Run Halted/Reynolds Ends His Brilliant Career

It had to end some time, and unfortunately the first time in 18 seasons that Montana did not advance to the playoff was the final season of the illustrious career of halfback Chase Reynolds. Reynolds ended his record-breaking career by setting school records for total touchdowns (59) and rushing touchdowns (52), and was ended up only four yards short of the record for career rushing yards with 4,067, and he set all of those standards in just three seasons.

The Griz suffered a huge setback early in the year, when senior quarterback Andrew Selle suffered a career-ending injury in the fourth game of the season against Sacramento State.

2009: Another Trip to the FCS Championship Game

Montana played in the FCS championship game for the second year in a row and seventh time in the last 15 seasons, but second-ranked Villanova rushed 51 times for 351 yards in a 23-21 Griz loss. It was the top-ranked Grizzlies’ only loss (14-1) of the season.

UM’s road to the title game was a difficult one. The Griz trailed 11th-ranked South Dakota State by 27 points (48-21) with 5:40 left in the third quarter, but out-scored SDSU 40-0 on their way to a 61-48 victory. A week later UM forced 10 turnovers and crushed 12th-ranked, visiting Stephen F. Austin 51-0 in a quarterfinal contest.

Montana’s semifinal against fifth-ranked Appalachian State and quarterback Armani Edwards was a classic. The game was played in front of a national audience on ESPN and came down to the last play. Selle floated a 25-yard TD pass to Sambrano with 1:31 left to give the Griz a 24-17 lead. However, Edwards drove ASU to Montana’s 3-yard line, but his last-second TD pass was broken up, and the Grizzlies earned their seventh trip to the title game.

Mariani broke numerous receiving and return records, and Reynolds tied his own single-season record by rushing for 22 TDs. Selle passed for 28 TDs. Linebacker Shawn Lebsock and safety Shann Schillinger ended their careers as two of the leading tacklers in school history. Head coach Bobby Hauck, who left UM for UNLV following the 2009 season, advanced to the FCS playoffs all seven of his seasons as the head man, and won or shared seven league championships.

2008: Montana Plays for its Sixth National Title

Despite losing 14 starters, Montana made it to the FCS title game for the sixth time, losing 24-7 to Richmond in Chattanooga. In the first round Montana handled Texas State 31-13. In the quarterfinals the Grizzlies avenged an early-season league loss (45-28) at Weber State, de-
Post-season Play

Montana just missed playing for its sixth national title in the past 12 years. Host Montana defeated 22nd-ranked McNeese State 31-6 in an FCS first-round game, then knocked off visiting and No.10-ranked Southern Illinois 20-3 in the quarterfinals, but were edged (19-17) out to third-ranked and visiting UMass in the semifinal game which was televised nationally on ESPN2. Hauck became the first Griz mentor in history to win four Big Sky titles.

2006: A TRIP TO THE SEMIS
Montana just missed playing for its sixth national title in the past 12 years. Host Montana defeated 22nd-ranked McNeese State 31-6 in an FCS first-round game, then knocked off visiting and No.10-ranked Southern Illinois 20-3 in the quarterfinals, but were edged (19-17) out to third-ranked and visiting UMass in the semifinal game which was televised nationally on ESPN2. Hauck became the first Griz mentor in history to win four Big Sky titles.

2005: GRIZ LOSE IN FIRST ROUND
Montana was 8-4 overall and received an at-large bid into the playoffs. UM was led by Hilliard who rushed for 1,322 yards – the second highest total (at the time) in single-season history. The ninth-ranked Griz hosted a first-round home playoff game, losing 35-21 to 10th-ranked Cal Poly. Montana had defeated Cal Poly 36-27 in Missoula earlier in the season.

2004: FIFTH TRIP TO THE FCS TITLE GAME IN THE LAST 10 SEASONS
Montana was 12-3 and advanced to the FCS championship game for the fifth time in the last 11 years. Senior quarterback Craig Ochs passed for 3,807 yards and 33 touchdowns and set a league record by completing 68.7% of his passes. Hilliard tied the school record for touchdown runs with 17, while senior wide receiver Jefferson Heidelberger had the second most receiving yards in single-season history with 1,240.

In the playoffs the host Griz handled their first three opponents at home relatively easy, beating Northwestern State (56-7), New Hampshire (47-17), and Sam Houston State (34-13). The title game was a 31-21 loss to James Madison. Sadly, the championship game was played on a field that was a quagmire, as the grass playing surface had recently been re-sodded.

2003: BREAK PLAYOFF RECORD WITH 11TH IN A ROW
Montana broke the FCS record by making its 11th consecutive playoff appearance, eclipsing the mark of 10 that it had shared with Eastern Kentucky (10, from 1986-1995). The Griz received an at-large bid into the playoffs, losing a 43-40 double-overtime thriller to visiting Western Illinois in the first round.

Senior kicker Chris Snyder set four NCAA career FCS records, scoring 394 points and converting 182 PATs. He also set a single-season school marks by scoring 123 points and connecting on 126 consecutive PATs. Senior defensive end Tim Bush finished his career as Montana's all-time career leader in sacks (32.5) and tackles for loss (48.5).

2002: TIE FCS MARK FOR CONSECUTIVE WINS
The Griz started the season with 10 wins in a row, and, combined with 14 straight wins the year before, tied the FCS mark for consecutive wins with 24. The streak began on September 22 of 2001, with a 30-0 home win over Western Washington, and was halted on Nov. 16 of 2002, with a 30-21 setback at Eastern Washington in a game played in Spokane's Joe Albi Stadium.

Montana tied Pennsylvania, which had 24 wins in a row from 1992-95, for the longest winning streak in the division. The Griz also set the record for most consecutive Big Sky wins (25) and most league victories on the road with 13 in a row.

Senior quarterback John Edwards was named the Big Sky's co-MVP on offense and senior safety Trey Young was tabbed as the league's defensive player of the year.

Montana defeated Northwestern State 45-14 at home in a first-round playoff game, but lost 24-20 at McNeese State in a quarterfinal contest.
1995: FIRST NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Grizzlies won their first national championship with a last-second, 22-20 come-from-behind victory over host Marshall in front of an FCS playoff-record crowd of 32,106 (which still stands) in Huntington, West Virginia.

Walter Payton Award-winning quarterback Dave Dickenson passed for 1,219 yards and 11 touchdowns in Montana's first three playoff games, when UM out-scored its opponents 163-14. In their first three playoff victories, the host Grizzlies beat Eastern Kentucky (48-0), Georgia Southern (45-0), and Stephen F. Austin (70-14).

In the title game, Dickenson orchestrated a 12-play, 72-yard scoring drive, culminating with a 25-yard field goal by Andy Larson with 39 seconds left for the game-winner. The big play in the winning drive took place on a fourth-and-three from the 50-yard line, as Dickenson connected with senior wide receiver Mike Erhardt for a 20-yard gain and a crucial first down. Senior wide receiver Matt Wells scored both of Montana's touchdowns (24, 1). Montana set playoff records (at the time) with 125 first downs, 137 pass completions, 197 pass attempts, and 1,703 passing yards.

1993-1994: A PROGRAM ON THE RISE

The host Griz squeezed by Northern Iowa 23-20 in a 1994 first-round contest, and then edged visiting McNeese State 30-28 in a snowstorm on a 37-yard field goal by Larson with eight seconds left to play. Unfortunately, Dickenson was re-injured early in the McNeese win, and he was not able to play in the semifinal – a 28-9 loss to host (and eventual national champion) Youngstown State, which was also coached by Tressel.

In 1993, Montana rolled to a 10-1 regular-season record, with its only blemish a 35-30 loss at Oregon. After the loss to the Ducks, the Griz reeled off nine straight wins and won their first league title since 1982. The season ended in a 49-48 first-round shoot-out loss to visiting Delaware, as the Blue Hens scored with 55 seconds left to play. The Grizzlies' 93 victories in the 1990's were the second most in I-AA (Youngstown State won 103).

1989: GRIZ HOST PLAYOFF GAMES FOR FIRST TIME

Montana hosted and won its first playoff game in school history, beating Jackson State 48-7 in the first round. The Grizzlies defeated visiting Eastern Illinois 25-15 in the quarterfinals, and then lost 45-15 to eventual national champion Georgia Southern in Statesboro in the semis.

FIRST TWO PLAYOFF BERTHS: 1988 & 1982

After a six-year hiatus, in 1988, the Griz earned their first at-large bid into the playoffs, losing on the road 38-19 to fellow Big Sky member Idaho. Montana's initial trip to the playoffs was in 1982, when it won its first Big Sky title since the 1970 season. Despite winning the league championship the Grizzlies had to travel to Moscow, Idaho, losing 21-7 to the Vandals.

1969-1970: MONTANA PLAYS FOR A PAIR OF COLLEGE DIVISION TITLES
MONTANA played for the College Division national championship in 1969 and 1970. The Griz went undefeated and untied for the first time in school history at 10-0 and won their first-ever Big Sky title in 1969. Both years Montana advanced to the Camellia Bowl in Sacramento, Calif., but, missing many starters because of NCAA’s rules on junior college transfers, the under-manned Griz lost 30-3 to top-ranked North Dakota State in 1969 and 31-16 to the same team a year later.

UM offers 15 intercollegiate programs in men’s and women’s basketball, cross country, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, football, women’s golf, soccer, softball and volleyball. Women’s softball began its inaugural season in the spring of 2015.

The Grizzlies/Lady Griz compete at the NCAA Division I level and are eligible for postseason competition, except for football, which competes in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (formerly called Division I-AA), that employs a playoff system.

Montana is a charter (1963) member of the Big Sky Conference, which celebrated its 50th anniversary recently and is headquartered in Ogden, Utah. There are now 12 schools in the Big Sky Conference plus two football only schools, Cal Poly and UC Davis. The 12 schools are:
Eastern Washington, Idaho (all sports but football), Idaho State, Montana, Montana State, Northern Arizona, Portland State, Sacramento
State, Weber State, Northern Colorado, North Dakota and Southern Utah; the last two entered the conference in the 2011-12 season. Men’s golf was added in 2014; however, Montana does not participate.
