WELCOME

Montana State University welcomes you again to its spring-time campus just as the leaves are appearing on the trees and everything is refreshingly green out of doors. We are proud of our Interscholastic Meet, for it gives us an opportunity to play host to people from every corner of Montana, to show them our fine physical plant, especially the new Journalism Building and Art Building, the Library filled with the latest of books in every field of study, and the facilities for securing here in Montana a fine liberal or professional education. Sportsmanship is learned on the playing field, at track and field competition, or on the rostrum or stage. Whether one wins or loses is not as important as whether one tries his best. We hope you enjoy your visit with us.

GEO. FINLAY SIMMONS,
President.
