COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An overview of law as it applies to business transactions. Topics include the nature and source of law; courts and procedure; contracts; sales and employment; commercial paper; bailments; property; business organizations; insurance; wills and estate planning; consumer and creditor protection; torts; criminal law; and agency law.

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Recognize ethical issues when they arise in business situations.
2. Describe relevant sources of law relating to criminal and civil justice procedure.
3. Analyze business transactions to determine need for legal intervention.
4. Interpret how different areas of the law apply to varying business transactions, such as contracts, landlord/tenant, consumer protection, tort liability, employment, and agency.
5. Contrast UCC with other international conventions on trade.

6. Distinguish among various business organizational forms.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT METHODS AND GRADING PROCEDURES:

Final grade in this course will be determined points earned through weekly homework assignments, a midterm examination, and a final examination.

Each assignment and exam will be graded in an objective manner through use of a point allocation system and weight factoring formula.

Assignments will be posted weekly along with the due date. Students will be expected to complete the assignments in WORD and attach the word document and place it in the Blackboard Digital Dropbox. The dropbox will record the time and date the assignment was handed in; assignments over two days late will be discounted 50%.

GRADE SCALE:

- A: 100-90%
- B: 89-80%
- C: 79-70%
- D: 69-60%
- F: below 60%

If any student requires special consideration for any reason, it is the responsibility of the student to contact faculty to discuss the matter prior to any situation which might give rise to the special consideration requested.

Make-up exams will not be given unless faculty is contacted either in person or in writing at least one hour prior to the scheduled time for the exam. It is the student's responsibility to ensure faculty contact.
