THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL
Interscholastic Meet
Montana State University—Missoula
MAY 14—16, 1942

WELCOME

On behalf of the University faculty and student body I want to extend to all of you a most cordial welcome as you participate in our annual Interscholastic Meet. The Meet this year is being held under troubled world conditions. We are being encouraged to give all that we have for national defense. One of the ways we can give most effectively is to develop ourselves—physically, mentally and spiritually—so that we have the utmost of creative talents to contribute to our country and its ideals. Here at Montana State University we believe that it is important for those engaged in education to work together for the things in which they believe. Through the understandings and sympathies we develop this week we believe that all of us will gather strength for the big task that lies ahead of us.

We hope you will take advantage of your opportunities to get better acquainted with the University, its students and its faculty. We want you to have a busy and enjoyable week.

ERNEST O. MELBY
