MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

Dedication and Welcome

50th ANNUAL INTERSCHOLASTIC

The Golden Anniversary Interscholastic is dedicated to Dr. Asa Willard, who is serving his 50th year as an official at the track and field meet. Dr. Willard, local Osteopathic-Physician, was the meet's physician at the first Interscholastic in 1904 and has served as an official at every meet since. Born in Frederick County, Maryland, he attended college at Missouri State Normal located at Kirksville, Missouri. Upon graduation he settled in Dillon for a few years and then came to Missoula where he has lived for the past 50 years.

DR. ASA WILLARD

WELCOME

We, the student body of Montana University, take pleasure in welcoming you as contestants, participants and spectators to the 50th Annual Interscholastic.

We hope you will get acquainted with your University. The people of our fine Treasure State have established it for you and those of future generations. We hope you will join us in the years to come and take advantage of the fine educational opportunities and facilities available here.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY INTERSCHOLASTIC—1904-1956

In the fall of 1903 definite plans were outlined by the President and faculty of Montana University for carrying out the first annual Interscholastic in May of the following year. The meet took place on May 19-20 and the promoters of the scheme felt more than gratified over the result.

Seventy-seven contestants from nineteen high schools attended the first meet on the University campus. Missoula won the track and field meet with 23 points while Butte place second with 18 points and Helena was third with 16 points. J. Pigott of Helena won the individual honors by placing first in the 50, 100, and 220 yard dashes and third in the shotput. The records from the first meet were as follows:

Event	Time
50 yard dash	5 $\frac{3}{4}$ sec.
100 yard dash	11 sec.
220 yard dash	24 sec.
440 yard run	57.5 sec.
880 yard run	2:17.5
Mile run	5:10.0
Two Mile	11:47 $\frac{1}{4}$
120 yard high hurdles	18 and $\frac{3}{4}$ sec.
200 yard low hurdles	28.5 sec.
Broad jump	18 ft. 2 in.
Shotput	32 ft. 10 in.
Pole vault	8 ft. 8 in.
High jump	5 ft.
Hammer throw	97 ft. 4 in.

The Golden Anniversary Interscholastic this year signifies the progress made during the past fifty years. More than 1700 contestants are here representing 125 high schools in the Treasure state. Competition in Art and qualifying divisional track and field meets have been added this year to make Montana's 50th Interscholastic the finest one of them all.

The Liberal Arts Building is a fine example of the recent modernization program on the MSU campus.

Teaching students the skills of a successful business future is the main object of the School of Business Administration.

In the future, the hard work and study of these chemistry students will be justified in the scientific world.

Communication is another essential aspect of the world today. Journalism students learn their profession well.

Geology students learn about the mysteries of the earth and its formations in labs and on field trips.

Almost nothing in modern methods and facilities is overlooked at MSU. The varied curriculum is designed to offer training and education in the many fields in which students are interested. Schools are specialized in the training of students for business, science, art, music and the communicative world of tomorrow. These schools are provided with facilities which enable the student to gain the knowledge which is necessary for the advancement of our civilization.

One of the leading schools in Pharmacy is located on the MSU campus. Here prospective pharmacists and druggists are trained for future positions.

The drama department produces many fine plays during the school year and from them, students learn the art and appreciation of acting.

MSU students display their talent at concerts during the year. Concentration and a love for music is the proof of a successful musician. The music school offers many kinds of training to the interested student.

The College of Fine Arts offers instruction in both the creative and performing arts. Interest has grown so that now ballet, crafts, and outside classes in oil and water color have been added in addition to the formal courses in "Fine Arts."

At one time the University Library, the Law Building is now one of the oldest and most prominent buildings on the University campus.

The main reading room of the library is a familiar place to MSU students.

Night comes to MSU and students continue their studying in the library.

While the remodeling of the library was being done, MSU students temporarily studied in rooms of the Liberal Arts Building and anxiously awaited the moment when they could step into a more pleasant atmosphere for studying. Students have access to almost 200,000 volumes and historical documents for pleasure reading or reference in study. The library also subscribes to more than 900 periodicals, the current issues of which are kept in the reading room.

MSU School of Journalism

The Journalism building on the campus was dedicated in 1937 but only after 23 years of hoping and planning did the "school without a home" finally find a home. The School of Journalism was founded in 1914 by the late Dean Emeritus A. L. Stone and was housed in tents in front of the old Women's Gym. Later the school was moved to various shacks on the campus and finally in 1937 their new home was built.

The highly accredited Journalism school's curriculum is divided into three phases. Students may specialize in radio, news-editorial, or advertising. Many facilities are available in the building for each of the three phases.

The ground floor is devoted to the University press where school publications are printed. Photography and typography rooms occupy the rest of the floor. News-editorial rooms where the school paper, The Montana Kaimin, is written occupies the second floor with the library and offices. The third floor is occupied by class rooms, auditorium and offices.

The school was fully accredited by the American Council on Education for Journalism in 1948.

Memorial Carillon

The forty-seven bronze bells and equipment in Main Hall tower, gifts of friends of the University through its endowment foundation, were specially cast in the Netherlands and dedicated at Montana State University on October 18, 1953.

The Memorial Carillon is dedicated to former students killed in service to their country. All bells were presented as memorials by individuals and groups through the Foundation. Memorial plaques, identifying the donor and to whom each bell is dedicated, are located on the walls of the entrance-way to Main Hall where the sides of the tower enclose the steps to the main entrance.

Beneath the bellroom is the clavier, from which the nine ton instrument is played manually over a range of four octaves. Programs are prepared on a separate practice clavier. Hours and half hours are sounded mechanically on the largest bell, which sounds the lowest note of the carillon and weighs more than 2,000 pounds.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

The Chem-Pharmacy building on the University campus is the home of both the department of Chemistry and the School of Pharmacy. The third and fourth floors of the building are devoted to the chemistry department while the second floor is occupied by the School of Pharmacy. Both share the use of the ground floor of the structure.

Dean Jack E. Orr is the third permanent dean of the School of Pharmacy. Orr became dean in 1953. The School of Pharmacy originally was established as the department of pharmacy at the State College at Bozeman, in 1907. Later, in the year 1913, it was transferred to the University as the School of Pharmacy.

The School is fully accredited by the American Council of Pharmaceutical Education. It offers two specialized courses of instruction of the highest requirements of pharmaceutical instruction in America. These two curricula, "professional and scientific," provide a broad scientific education for both men and women and furnish the same cultural background as is offered by the usual arts and science curriculum.

The pharmacy physical plant is equipped with the latest in dispensary, research and experimental laboratories. A model drug store is also part of the plant where students fill prescriptions and are given experience in other practical drug store work.

The New Law House

Law House Study

MSU Law School

It is the tradition of the common law that groups of scholars, student and practicing members of the legal profession, congregate as an integrated community. The Law House at MSU is thus more than a residence for law students or a club for students and practitioners. It is a legal center, a place of fusion for legal education and the experience of practitioners.

Dedication ceremonies for the Law House were held September 24 featuring the Hon. William D. Murray, Judge of U. S. District Court for Montana, as guest speaker. Thus the new Law House has now become an integrated part of the University's famous Law School.

Located four blocks from the campus at 1325 Gerald Avenue, the Law House provides lodging facilities for a limited number of students. Large rooms on the first floor serve for informal conferences and formal discussions among resident and non-resident members. In the library on the first floor there are in addition to working law books, volumes about the law which every aspiring lawyer should read.

The landscaped grounds of the Law House occupy nearly half a square block. The large, handsome masonry building was constructed in depression years at a cost of $100,000 for the basic structure alone.

THE LODGE

MSU Combination Food Service-Student Union Building

Retaining the atmosphere of a picturesque Swiss chalet, Montana State University's Lodge combines the facilities of a modern cafeteria and a student lounge.

The $565,000 structure, named the Lodge by students, was formally dedicated on the 62nd anniversary of the granting of the University charter in 1893. This building, which was built and will be operated on a self-financing basis, without tax money, houses dining and recreation facilities for the students.

The kitchen is located on the ground level, and serves both the upstairs dining room and cafeteria on the lower floor. Called the "Kitchen with a Future" by its designer, Dr. Lendal H. Kotschevar, director of food services and residence halls, it is designed for further expansion along with the building when increased enrollments make larger facilities necessary.

The second floor of the building houses student offices and meeting rooms along with a place for on-campus dinner dances and similar social functions. A patio for outdoor dining and a lounge with recreation facilities are other features of the structure.

The pleasant, friendly atmosphere of the Lodge makes college days more enjoyable for students at Montana State University as well as providing an efficient dining service.

University Field House

Montana State University's super structure, the Auditorium-Athletic Field House was formally opened on December 18, 1953, when the Grizzlies played host to the Indiana Hoosiers in a basketball game played before some 6500 fans. This date was two years from the time the bill enabling the construction of the building was first introduced to the state legislature.

Since the opening of the Million Dollar plant it has housed horse shows, water and auto shows, commencement exercises, big name bands, and community concerts besides the basketball contests. Like the other new buildings on the campus, the Field House is designed and constructed so that it may be expanded as future needs require.

Besides the large arena used for the various shows and contests the mezzanine area is taken up by offices. The Athletic Department offices and Maintenance Department are now housed on the mezzanine and the Century Club lounge is another added feature of this area.

This fall marked another first for the Field House as Grizzly football players used the locker and equipment rooms that were provided for in the original plans.

The Scheuch Memorial Planetarium

"PROF"

FREDERICK C. SCHEUCH

1871-1954

President Emeritus, MSU

"Memories are among the dearest possessions one has. They cannot be bought or sold; they cannot be put away in a strong box, nor taxed, nor stolen. My memories cover some 41 years from the day this university opened until January 1936. When one is a part of an institution for so long, it enters into the fibers of one's being . . ."

—Prof. Frederick C. Scheuch.

To the man who spoke those memorable words Montana's new Memorial Planetarium was dedicated June 5, during 1955 Commencement week. It was presented to the University by William M. Allen, MSU '22, President of Boeing Aircraft, Seattle, as chairman of the Scheuch Memorial Committee, and accepted by President Carl McFarland.

The planetarium was constructed and equipped to produce, indoors, the appearance of the sky on a cloudless night under any celestial circumstances. The illusion is obtained by means of a projector set in the center of its large room with a hemispherical ceiling. The projector is constructed so that the operator can portray the heavens at any latitude, for any time of night, for any date of the year.

The intricate apparatus is used under a dome 30 feet in diameter, and is operated by Dr. Harold Chatland, professor of mathematics and dean of the arts and sciences.

The planetarium serves many purposes. It is of great value in the teaching of all the physical sciences, and for the general student body and the public it is a great educational, cultural and recreational asset. Its doors are open continually to children who here learn the wonders of the heavens.

Ultra-Modern Music Building

Montana State University's $700,000 School of Music building is of the most advanced design of its kind in the nation. The structure, resembling a baby grand piano, is engineered throughout for effective teaching conditions and facilities.

Music school activities center in three distinct sections of the building: teaching studios and practice rooms in the north wing; classrooms, music library and offices along the front portion; instrumental and choral laboratories and the recital hall in the south wing.

The unusual front of the building results from a primary factor in the design—the control of sound. Solid windows of glass block were selected to provide adequate natural light and yet keep transmission of sound to a minimum. The two-story fixed stone louvers admit adequate light but block off direct rays of the sun and reduce the air conditioning system load.

The MSU School of Music is sponsoring a Music Series of recitals and chamber music this year as a public service project. Featured in the series are such artists as Carl Weinrich, organist on January 17; the Griller String Quartet plays February 15; MSU Trio with Justin Gray, clarinetist on March 27; The Cassenti Players, wood-wind performers, playing April 17; and A Singer of Distinction, a young artist to appear at a date to be announced.

Knights Win Again!

In 1450 A.D., the Knights wielded a mailed hand in merry auld England's tourneys or "jousts." Today, at 1450 on your radio dial, the KL Knights take a big hand in promotion and radio coverage of sports in merrie auld Missoula!

The Knights of the Sports Roundtable, more than two score of Missoula business firms, are proud to carry the 50th Interscholastic trackmeet on the airwaves. The full story goes out to the Z Bar network cities—Butte, Bozeman, Helena and Great Falls.

KXLL's Knights bring you ALL sports—fishing contests, baseball, basketball, football and others. They invite you to hear the 500-mile Speedway Race broadcast from Indianapolis on Memorial Day.

All the GOOD Sports Are On

High above the MSU campus, freshmen take up the annual task of white-washing the "M" on Mount Sentinel.

One of the social events of the year is the Sadie Hawkins Dance which attracts all women and eligible men — especially those who get caught — for an unforgettable night of fun for all.

One of the main attractions of campus life activities are the Friday night mixers in the spacious Grill room of the Lodge.

A perfect place to entertain friends is in the Craig Hall lounge, typical of dormitory living on campus. The modernistic furnishings, and decorations give the room that home touch and provide the men with an atmosphere of relaxation.

Comfortable Craig Hall rooms are a pleasant place to study as well as sleep.

Girls, too, need a home away from home and the rooms at New Hall are the perfect answer. The residence halls for women have many accommodations which make college life more enjoyable and easier.

A fire built in the New Hall lounge fireplace creates an atmosphere which momentarily takes students from books to home and memories.

Every day, students living in dormitories, eat their meals in the sunny Cascade room. The meals are well planned by trained dieticians and cooks.

The spacious Cascade room of the Lodge is also the setting for many dances during the school year.

The comfortable lounge on the first floor of the Lodge is a quiet place to relax between classes.

At right—In warm weather, students shed their coats and soak up the sun on the patio outside the grill room.

Robert Sibley, founder of the traditional SOS, and Mrs. Sibley are honored by Spurs, Bear Paws, and other MSU students in festive "Singing on the Steps" at Homecoming time.

A freshman never rests . . . painting the Victory cart and adding a touch of shine and glory to the Victory bell is just one of a freshman's many duties. The bell rings out triumphantly Montana's victories.

College life is full of traditions, and MSU has many . . . Freshmen painting the "M" . . . the beanies . . . the feud between the Foresters and Lawyers . . . Hello Walk . . . and many more . . .

Red roses and sparkling crown are the reason pretty Sue Garlington, 1955 Homecoming Queen, smiles.

The Grizzly-Bobcat game is played in Bozeman and Missoula on alternate years, and is the high spot for rivalry between MSU and MSC. The traveling trophy is now in the MSU trophy case.

Basketball is but one of the many uses to which the spacious new Field House is put.

Also traditional are Homcoming, the weekend honoring the Alumni, Dad's Day, honoring the "man who foots the bills;" and the many convocations, pep rallies and song fests held during the year.

At graduation time, seniors, under the watchful eyes of their parents and friends, anxiously await the moment for which they have worked for many years. Among these students may be our next political leader, businessman, or housewife of tomorrow.
