Public Comment

- Kip Faircloth, member of Intervarsity Christian Fellowship, thanked the Senate for the allotment they received. Upcoming events include Justice Week and partnering with the Compassion International leadership program. There is a blacklight/highlighter party on March 16, from 8-11 p.m. (Exhibit A)
- Patrick Rhea, the board-chair of MontPIRG, asked the Senate to table SB 40 until the Constitutional Review Board (CRB) can review the proceedings. Additionally, earlier in the day Students as MontPIRG filed for the establishment of a MontPIRG chapter on the University of Montana campus. To see the referendum language, senators may look at a letter submitted to Senator Suzuki (Exhibit B).

President's Report

- a. Blake Bjornsen, President of the Associated Students of Montana State University, sang the Grizzly fight song after losing a bet with President Gursky as to who would win the Griz-Cat football game. He also expressed his appreciation for working with President Gursky to represent the 40,000 college students in Montana.
- b. Board of Regents Update – The Board of Regents discussed sexual assault responses and dialogue, as well as holding a summit the following Saturday. Some of the Greek students went to the summit and will be invited to the Senate to give a report. The Board of Regents also approved the new Arabic minor, the master's program in global public health, the Gilkey Center, Athletic and Academic Success Center, and the ASUM remodel will be on the agenda for approval in May.
- c. Montana Associated Students legislative priorities:
  - 1) Staff and faculty support and pay
  - 2) Research and post-baccalaureate work - The University of Montana does not match up to its cohorts in being able to obtain and retain research funds.
  - 3) Need-based aid needs to come from a state-based level.
- d. A State of the Community Address will be held Thursday, March 15, 7 p.m. The President, the Mayor, and County Commissioner will be discussing the state of the community.
- e. Elections Committee Approval - A motion by Patten-Simpson to approve recommendations, with the addition of Alec Short and Missy Lacock, Students-At-Large (SALs), as an updated slate (Exhibit C) passed unanimously on a motion by Dantic. The committee still needs three SALs.

- f. Regarding the elections schedule, petitions for all Senate positions are available and are due by March 21, at 5 p.m.
- g. The Constitutional Review Board recommendation had five members, with Miranda Carson as an alternate, and was approved as a slate (Exhibit D) on a motion by Williams, M.-Patten that passed by voice vote (VV).
- h. During her visit to Washington D.C. last week President Gursky was able to meet with the Senators and Representative of Montana and their educational advisors to discuss issues relating to The University of Montana.
