8       Whereas, The Associated Students of The University of Montana (ASUM) recently
9       cancelled the Business Manager Primary;

10       Whereas, future Senates now have the power to cancel their primaries,

11       Whereas, Article V, Section 4, Subsection A, Part 6 of the ASUM Bylaws currently 12       states:

13                                   6. The ballots for the general elections shall consist of no more than two (2)
14                                   Executives or Executive teams for each executive position and no more than forty
15                                   (40) Senate candidates with positions for write-in candidates (with the exception
16                                   of a tie vote in the primary as per section 5.E of Elections Bylaws).

21       Therefore, Let It Be Resolved, Article V, Section 4, Subsection A, Part 6 of the ASUM
22       Bylaws be amended to read:

23                                   6. The ballots for the general elections shall consist of no more than two (2)
24                                   Executives or Executive teams for each executive position and no more than ~~forty~~
25                                   (40) fifty-two (52) Senate candidates with positions for write-in candidates (with 26                                   the exception of a tie vote in the primary as per section 5.E of Elections Bylaws).
27                                   In the event that the primary is waived, the ballots for the general elections
28                                   shall allow for more than two (2) Executives or Executive teams for each
29                                   executive position and/or Fifty-two (52) Senate candidates to appear on the
