DISCUSSION:

The meeting came to order at 8:45 A.M. in Room 331. Mr. Dahood announced that Mr. Blaylock will act as chairman at Saturday's meeting.

The Delegates reviewed citizen suggestions. Mr. Dahood suggested that a proposal be drafted on women's rights. Rick and Mr. Campbell have already been working on one.

Many of the citizen suggestions contained desires for repeal of the death penalty. It was suggested that possibly we could have the press do a little digging into the feelings of this. Also discussed was the freedom of speech and the right to know, and the right to basic necessities, and the right to safety and happiness, also the right to bear arms and rights of 18 yr. olds. Meeting adjourned at 9:25 A.M.

Wade J. Dahood, Chairman
