Public Comment

- Travis Suzuki, former senator and president of Pi Sigma Alpha, invited the senators to his group's upcoming debate party for the foreign policy debate between President Obama and Governor Romney. He also asked if ASUM, specifically Student Political Action, would be interested in co-sponsoring the event. If so, he asked that they contact him. The debate party will be held October 22, with more information available next week.
- Marlene Hendrickson, ASUM Accountant and advisor to UM Productions, talked about the staff development S.T.I.P. request that has been submitted for the Senate's approval. She has been attending the conference with a member of UM Productions for 12 years and views it as an opportunity to make national connections.

Chair Hagfors recognized the presence of Senators Ferrara and LeCoultre.

- Bert Carlstrom, a member of Intervarsity Christian Fellowship, thanked the Senate for the travel allocation his group received and gave them a summary of the trip's success.
- Sean McQuillan, a member of Students as MontPIRG, came to express his support of SB19, endorsing Ballot Initiative 166, and mentioned the work his group is doing to collect signatures in support of the initiative. He also passed out literature to the Senate (Exhibit A).
- C.B. Pearson, Treasurer of Stand with Montanans, promoted I166 and applauded the Senate for supporting this initiative.
- Aylin Inmon, from Forward Montana, invited the Senate to participate in two upcoming events: (1) Trick-or-Vote from 5:30-9 p.m. on Halloween, with a party afterwards, and (2) Creepy Call Night, on October 18 starting at 5:30 p.m.

President's Report

- a. Brian Lofink was unable to join the meeting but may make an appearance next week.
- b. Montana Associated Students (MAS) is splitting its lobbying position into two lobbying positions, one for The University of Montana and one for Montana State University, and ASUM will move forward in hiring its own personal lobbyist.
- c. Jacob Hellyer, a Neighborhood Ambassador, gave an overview of the Neighborhood Ambassador program and an update on their current progress for the semester. He also reminded the Senate that the October Educational Outreach program is focusing on cleanup and invited senators to participate in “Sunday Sweepers,” 11 a.m. on every Sunday after home games. The Neighborhood Ambassadors’ first newsletter is set to run October 15 and information is available at neighborhoodambassadors.blogspot.com

Vice President’s Report

- a. Thank you to everyone who came to the Missoula College event and anyone interested in writing letters and making appearances to support the cause should contact VP Hagfors as soon as possible.
- b. Thank you to everyone who recruited for open Senate seats. Senator Faircloth has sadly resigned, so an additional seat is now open.

- g. Whoever posted the Social Media Manager position on Craigslist, please take the advertisement down and give the applications they’ve received to Business Manager Nielsen. Additionally, there have been no applications for the Web Developer position, so senators should advertise the position as much as possible to their acquaintances.
- h. The March date for Sunday Sweepers, after the Forrester’s Ball, has only two (2) open spots left to participate, and BM Nielsen encouraged senators to talk to their student groups to contact her by tomorrow at the latest if they are interested.

Committee Reports

- Interview Committee (Faircloth) – The committee reviewed the twelve (12) applications for the open Senate seats and narrowed the pool down to ten (10) for interviews, to be conducted Sunday evening.
- Student Political Action (Ormseth) – The committee met today and is working in conjunction with ASUM Transportation to provide shuttle service to and from voting grounds on November 6, Election Day. The committee will be throwing a “V for Vendetta” themed party on November 5 to celebrate the elections.
- Marketing and Outreach (Freund) – The committee met today and the new ASUM logo competition is in full swing from October 8-18. If a student group applies under their

- Sustainability (Sather) – The committee met today to talk about Sustainability Day coming up October 24, and made plans for outreach and tabling. There will also be a trash audit from 8-1 p.m. on The Oval on Oct 24, to compare the campus’s recycling versus throw away garbage. The committee is also interested in collaborating with ASUM Off-Campus Renter Center to do outreach for sustainability options to off-campus students.
