103 December 1st '98. =

The faculty met in special session with Prof. Abar in the chair. The Secretary being absent, Miss Reiley was appointed secretary pro tem. - Mr. Allard's excuse for absence from the class was presented for consideration. - Moved, seconded and carried that Mr. Allard be notified that the Faculty does not consider his excuse satisfactory, but is willing to overlook his absences for the present on condition that he enter his classes promptly upon receipt of this notice, and in case of future unnecessary absences past absences will be considered against him and the penalty enforced. -

On motion, Prof Abar was authorized to correct the statement published in the day's Democrat-Messenger that "Ten Nights in the Barroom" would be presented Monday Eve. Dec 5th by University students; also to notify the Missourian that it should not publish such statement.)

Adjourned.

J. B. E. Reiley, Sec. pro tem.
