Professor Stark issued the Oath of Office and they were all seated as Senators of the Associated Students of the University of Montana.
- c. Student Regent Zack Rogala addressed the Senate concerning several issues. He stated that, being that the Chair of Montana Board of Regents Angela McLean, had been appointed to Lieutenant Governor, the Board was down multiple members and probably not going to be filled by the May meeting. He also addressed the Senate concerning the Annual Student Fee Review and said that the option of mandatory sunset to every student fee was one that was being considered. He asked for students to email him if they had feedback. Finally, he stated that he had previously been involved in the Ethics Bowl and was excited that the team was headed to Nationals. After questions, he stated that the applications for Student Regent were due on Monday.
- d. Jean Gee and Kent Haslam, Senior Associate Athletic Director and Director of Athletics, addressed the Senate concerning the NCAA Infractions Case. Mrs. Gee stated that the outcome decided upon by the NCAA was that certain rules had been broken, though not maliciously, and the penalties were put in place. Mr. Haslam stated that the Softball field would be moving forward in order to kickoff the team in Spring 2015. He also mentioned, in a different light, that the sunset-fee structure could get rather sticky.
- e. Michael Reid, Vice President of Administration and Finance and Marty Ludemann, Interim Chief of Police, gave a report of the lockdown that had taken place on February 6, 2014 (Exhibit i). They stated that the goal of the Emergency Status was to protect students, faculty, and staff from danger. Vice President Reid stated that the communication was good considering that it was not play-by-play, however he stated that there are several steps being taken to address the communication transitions. He also stated that there would possibly be changes in order to make this situation more efficient. Officer Ludemann stated that his goal was to get students to safe places despite the lack of correct punctuation in the text message alerts. Vice President Reid said that there will be a debriefing for the purpose of developing a plan to address similar issues in the future and he would appreciate student feedback. He finished by encouraging students to sign-up for emergency text messaging services.
- f. President Hohman read a response concerning SB55-13/14 from the University of Montana foundation (Exhibit A).
- g. The Montana Board of Regents will be meeting on March 5-7, 2014 in Great Falls. Senators were encouraged to attend if at all available.

Committee Reports

- UC Board (Hopkins) – The UC Board will be meeting soon. They are considering establishing a campus-wide Event Planning as opposed to multiple organizations on campus. The Resolution Regarding E-cigs will be on the next meeting’s agenda. Right above ASUM in the Student Suites, the office space is not being utilized, so they might be changing the allocation of that space.
- Childcare (Heimlich-Bowler) – Childcare Oversight committee met on Monday in the ASUM Offices. SB63 is a resolution that came out of that meeting. There will be mandated pay increases for the Childcare Staff.
- Interview (Hazen) – The Interview committee met on Friday in the ASUM Offices. They conducted interviews on Thursday, Friday, and Sunday. The candidates selected looked like awesome additions to the Senate.

- Sustainability (Lillquist) – The committee met on Tuesday in the ASUM Offices. The goal of the committee for the rest of the semester is going to be exploring ways to meet the University’s goal of 10% less carbon by 2015.
- Sexual Assault Policy Taskforce (Dolezal) – Because of the resignations, the taskforce is empty. Please send a note if you’d like to be involved. President Hohman stated that appointments to the committee will be done soon.
- KRELF (Thompson) – Proposals to the KRELF Committee are due by March 28th. The Committee is also attempting to gain alternative sources of funding for the ASUM Sustainability Coordinator.
- Tobacco Task-Force (Thompson) – There will be information session for E-Cigs on campus.
- Board on Members (Andersen) – The Board will be meeting on an as-needed basis from here on out.
- IT (Kuhn) – The IT Committee will begin meeting Mondays at 3p.m.
