Course Purpose
This applied ethics course helps pre-service teachers prepare to act in a professionally appropriate manner in a school setting. We will study American public schooling and the ethical behavior of teachers within historical, political, and sociological contexts. Major policy topics include governance, finance, equity, and law.

Required Readings
• Course Pack, in the UC Bookstore.

Course Objectives
Upon completion of the course, if you have been an active participant, you should be able to:
• Demonstrate a commitment to the obligations of the teaching profession;
• State the ethical responsibilities and apply the ethical standards of practice of the teaching profession;
• Demonstrate entry-level knowledge of the governance, financing, and legal principles of American education;
• Explain the fundamental operation and purpose of American education within its political and historical frameworks; and
• Show entry-level knowledge of the issues of class, race, gender, and culture as they relate to equality of educational opportunity.

Instructional Notes
Lecture, case study, and discussion are the primary means of instruction used in this class. The success of our work, particularly our discussion, depends on your reading assigned materials in reparation for class. I try to be aware of the special needs of individuals as well as the needs of the group. Let me know of any accommodation you may require.

Graduate Students
The Graduate School assumes that graduate students are taking this course for graduate credit. Please see me to discuss the graduate project required for graduate credit. If you do not want graduate credit, see Laura Riddle in the Graduate School immediately to make the necessary changes in your registration.
Course Requirements

• Attendance and active participation. Forty points possible. I keep track of who is on time, engaged, participating, and volunteering in discussion. Students earn approximately 1 point for each day’s attendance and participation.

• Two exams. The exams are intended to evaluate understanding of major concepts presented and discussed in class. The format may include multiple choice, identification of key concepts, true/false correct the false statement, and short essay. The first exam is scheduled for October 6. The second exam is not comprehensive and is scheduled during finals week:

  - Section 1: Monday, December 11, 8:00-10:00 AM.
  - Section 2: Wednesday, December 13, 8:00-10:00 AM.

  Each exam will count a maximum of 50 points.

• Case Analysis. I will provide a detailed outline of how to complete this assignment. Due by 5:00 p.m., November 13, this assignment will count a maximum of 60 points. I accept late papers but with one letter grade deducted for each day late.
