MUS 150A Section 13      Vocal Ensembles
Instructor: Anne Basinski

Course Objectives: To explore the repertoire for chamber ensembles including voice. To develop effective communication, and to learn strategies for productive rehearsal sessions.

Course Activities: Students will select and rehearse music for their ensemble. Their faculty will advise and coach them. Specific goals will be set by faculty for sessions and for the particular group.

Grading: Goals and criteria will be established by the faculty member for each individual ensemble.

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the university. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/index.cfm/page/1321.
