Written Assignments:
1. A brief summary of the weekly plenary lecture and a short response, 1-2 printed pages, due the Tuesday after the Thursday lecture.
2. A four to five page printed essay on a topic comparing The Odyssey to The Old Testament, due Oct. 18th.
3. A revision of this essay along with the original, due Nov. 1st.

Grading: Final grades will be based on the four assignments above, as well as attendance and participation, according to the following percentages: summaries—20%; essays, original and revision—40%; final exam—30%; attendance/participation—10%.
Excessive absences (more than two) and/or persistent tardiness will lower your grade. For those taking the "CR/NCR" option, a D- or above will be the equivalent of a "CR".
This course will use the +/- grading system.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is a serious violation of academic integrity. Please review the University’s definition and policy on page 22 of the University Catalog: “Students who plagiarize may fail the course and may be remanded to Academic Court for possible suspension or expulsion.” If you have any doubts about this matter, please consult me.

Drop Deadline: Sept. 17th with refund; Oct. 8th with no refund.
