Hands in Clay

Students will need to purchase the basic tool kit at the Bookstore. You will also need to purchase a small box of 13 gallon plastic bags for storage of your work in progress.

UG 329 Ceramics II 3 cr. (R-12) Offered autumn and spring. Prereq., ART 135A and 229. Further exploration of the ceramic process introducing more complex ways of handbuilding and developing the art of throwing. Examination of the technology and chemistry of clay, glazes and high temperature oxidation and reduction firing. U 229A Ceramics II is a hands on studio course.

Grading is based on attendance, productivity, participation in discussions and critiques. It is The Department of Art policy that three unexcused absences will result in the loss of one grade point.

Students with disabilities or special needs should contact the instructor. We will do anything necessary to accommodate students needs.

The ceramic studio is open from 8:00am until 10:00pm every day. Fridays are open studio times with no classes scheduled. If a class MTWT is in session, please ask the instructor for permission to use the facility.

Health and safety are of utmost importance in art classes. Please use respirators, filter masks, especially if you have respiratory problems. Many of the products we use are toxic. Eating and drinking are prohibited in the studio. Washing your hands often is advised.

Artist’s reception Thursday, April 5, 5-7pm.
APRIL 27 - JUNE 30, 2007

Marilyn Bruya: A Retrospective

Meloy Gallery

This exhibition celebrates the work of UM Professor of Art, Marilyn Bruya. Professor Bruya is retiring after twenty-five years of teaching drawing and painting at The University of Montana. Bruya’s work explores the physical world as representative of inner experience, and references the transitory nature of life. Opening reception Friday, April 27, 5-7pm.

Henry Meloy: The Portraits

Paxson Gallery

Although a major part of Montana native Henry Meloy’s oeuvre is a unique collection of portraits, these works have not received the public recognition they deserve. These watercolors and drawings celebrate female beauty, and convey Henry Meloy’s love for his family members.

July 12 - August 25, 2007

Lush Landscapes:

Yellowstone Engraved: The Art of W. H. Jackson and Thomas Moran

Meloy Gallery

Yellowstone Engraved consists of 108 antique, original engravings from the 19th century, created after photographs by William Henry Jackson and paintings by Thomas Moran and other artists. The engravings represent the romantic view these artists had about our nation’s newfound “wonderland” - Yellowstone National Park.

Landscapes from the Millikan Collection

Paxson Gallery

This exhibit features landscapes by California artist Walter Lewis Cheever, Missoula artist Walter Hook, Currier & Ives, and Stanley Del, donated to MMAC by the late Gilbert Millikan.

The final week of the semester is scheduled in two-hour segments, one for each course. The segments should be considered as class meetings, to be treated by the instructor as he or she thinks appropriate. Classes starting at 4:10 follow the regular daytime final schedule, or if the class meeting extends past 5:00 P.M., the evening final week schedule. All classes starting after 5:00 P.M. must follow the evening schedule.

The final examination week is the only time period during which final examinations are to be given. If an instructor elects not to give a final examination during this week, under no circumstances are the final examinations to be given during the week preceding the final week.

Students may seek relief from writing more than two examinations during the same day. Students who are scheduled for more than two examinations may contact the appropriate faculty to arrange an alternate testing during the final examination week. If satisfactory arrangements cannot be made, the student should seek the assistance of his or her dean.

Courses meeting for hour and a half with beginning times near the half hour may meet according to the schedule for the preceding hour or the following hour. For example, a class meeting 9:40-11:00 TR can meet during the final week according to the 9:10 or the 10:10 schedule. Approved beginning times for the half hour are 9:40, 12:40 and 3:40. Other half hour beginning time deviate from scheduling guidelines and instructors will need to take care to avoid final week conflicts, particularly if the class normally meets for only one hour.

College of Technology students must confirm final schedules with their instructors.
