Course Purpose

This course is designed for beginning English language arts teachers, library media specialists, reading specialists, and other individuals interested in middle school and high school literature. Through this course, educators will gain knowledge and appreciation of young adult literature. We will read representative texts covering the history, genres, authors, themes, narrative styles, theories, and social justice issues for students in the middle school and high school. We will engage in literature circles, book talks, and large and small group discussions, and integrated language arts activities as we respond to and reflect upon our reading processes and preferences.

This methods course embodies the UM College of Education's Professional Behaviors and Dispositions of diversity, equity, fairness, and personal integrity. This course also embodies the UM College of Education's Conceptual Framework through the 3 essential elements of learning communities: Integration of Ideas, Cooperative Endeavors, and Respect for Individual Worth.

This course is a pre-requisite or co-requisite to ENT 441 Teaching Reading and Literature.

Course Objectives

To provide beginning teachers with knowledge of and experience with young adult literature, including an understanding in the following:

- history of young adult literature
- themes and genres of young adult literature
- major authors, texts, and awards in young adult literature
- literary analysis and literary criticism/theories in young adult literature
- reading process and reader responses to young adult literature
- selection and censorship issues in young adult literature
- media, interdisciplinary, and multicultural connections in young adult literature
- relationship between young adult literature and traditional/classic literature

To provide beginning teachers with opportunities to practice and develop the following abilities:

- plan and lead discussions and integrated language arts activities on young adult literature
- research and present information on texts, authors, themes, genres, theories, and issues in young adult literature
- reflect and evaluate their teaching presentation skills

To develop in beginning teachers the following attitudes:

- all readers have value and worth
- teachers need to know how to develop, extend, accept, and respect all responses to literature
- teachers need to encourage all readers to value their own and others' ideas
- teachers need to help students become critical, creative readers
- teachers need to be lifelong readers and learners who model good reading habits

Learning Outcomes

- Teachers will learn about the depth, breadth, and diversity of young adult literature.
- Teachers will learn strategies for introducing and engaging middle and high school students with young adult literary texts, themes, and topics.
- Teachers will reflect on their own reading processes and learn how to support their students as critical, creative readers.
- Teachers will learn how to integrate Montana State Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy and Montana Indian Education for All into their instructional strategies for young adult literature.
- Teachers will demonstrate the principles of learning communities (integration of ideas, cooperative endeavors, and respect for individual worth).
- Teachers will demonstrate professional behaviors and dispositions (diversity, equity, fairness, and personal integrity).

Requirements and Assignments

1. Regular class attendance. Excessive absences are considered in the final grade. If you must be absent, please inform the instructor. Also contact two other classmates to learn what was covered in your absence and what is expected for the next class meeting.
2. Completion of weekly assignments and full participation in the literature circles, book talks, and large and small group discussions and activities.
3. Weekly written response papers for each young adult text. (Refer to Characteristics of Good Response Papers.) Response papers are due on the day the texts are being presented by discussion leaders/presenters.
4. Resource packets, presentation handouts, and teaching presentations for specific young adult texts. Each person will work with classmates to present specific young adult texts. (Refer to Guidelines for Resource Packet and Teaching Presentation.) After your team presentation, you will write an individual, confidential Reflection & Self-Assessment Paper. (Refer to Reflection/Self-Assessment Paper.)

GRADUATE STUDENTS: Students enrolled for graduate credit must plan and present an additional presentation on a young adult text or issue. Please consult with Professor Chin on this project and presentation date.

5. Final Course Synthesis/Reflection Paper. At the conclusion of the course, you will submit a paper that synthesizes and reflects on your course knowledge and experience with young adult literature. (Refer to Final Course Synthesis/Reflection Paper.) Be sure to keep all course materials to use as you write this synthesis paper.

6. Professional membership

Required: Student membership in National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE)

Recommended: Student membership in the state NCTE affiliate--Montana Association of Teachers of English Language Arts (MATELA)

7. Course evaluation. On the final day of class, you will complete the IAS evaluation form and an open-ended written evaluation of the course and instructor.

Course Policies

1. Regular attendance and full, respectful, professional participation is expected. Absences and lack of participation will affect the final grade.

2. Academic Policy – All students must practice academic honesty. Students should complete their own work. Students should not claim authorship of other scholars' publications. References should be cited in APA or MLA format for all written work submitted for this class.

Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, will be addressed directly by the instructor and may result in an F in the course. Please review the definition and consequences of plagiarism described in Academic Conduct from the University of Montana Student Conduct Code - UM Student Conduct Code

3. You must elect to take this course for a traditional letter grade.
4. Late assignments may be penalized.
5. A grade of "Incomplete" may be assigned at the instructor's discretion when a student has petitioned in writing to receive an incomplete grade. The instructor may consider an incomplete grade only when a student has been in regular attendance, has participated fully in class, and is currently passing the course. Please refer to the section titled "Incomplete Grade Policy" in the University of Montana Catalog for more information - Academic Policies and Procedures
6. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). Students with disabilities may obtain support for classes through DSS in the Lommasson Center 154 or (406) 243-2243. Please consult with me at the beginning of the semester if you have registered with DSS and have accommodations for your classes. I want to ensure all students receive the necessary support and appropriate modifications for success in this course.
7. Please consult UM website for important dates, especially the last day to drop the course with full refund and the last day to drop the course without a refund.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING A HEALTHY UM
DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

UM is providing all students and employees with Healthy Griz Kits. Here is information from UM Today (August 14, 2020):

The kits are designed to help members of the campus community avoid illness during the coronavirus pandemic. Each kit contains two cloth masks, hand sanitizer, a micro-cloth for cleaning, a disinfectant spray bottle and a card describing UM's commitment to the campus community.

The kits will be distributed at the East Auxiliary Gym of the Adams Center. Students and employees are asked to line up outside on the east side of the Adams Center near the Grizzly Pool and Washington-Grizzly Champions Center. Details for pickup times and requirements and for safe organization can be found in the UM News release.

To encourage a healthy learning environment, UM has asked faculty to inform you of the following information:

- Mask use is required within the classroom
- Each student is provided with a cleaning kit. The expectation is that students will clean their personal work space when they arrive for class, and before they leave the classroom
- Classrooms may have one-way entrances / exits to minimize crowding
- Students should be discouraged from congregating outside the classroom before and after class
- Specific seating arrangements will be used to ensure social distancing and support contact tracing efforts
- Class attendance will be recorded to support contact tracing efforts
- Drinking liquids and eating food is discouraged within the classroom (which requires mask removal)
- Information on the nearest “refill” stations for cleaning supplies/hand sanitizer if applicable
- If the class is being recorded, students must be notified of the recording
- Stay home if you feel sick and/or if exhibiting COVID-19 symptoms
- If the student is sick or displaying symptoms, please contact the Curry Health Center at (406) 243-4330
- Up-to-Date COVID-19 Information from the University of Montana
- UM Coronavirus Website: UM Corona Virus Website
- UM COVID-19 Fall 2020 website: UM Covid 19 2020 Information
- Strongly encourage students to remain vigilant outside the classroom in mitigating the spread of COVID-19
