CHARLES WILLIAM LEAPHART

Professor of Law, MSU, 1913-1916

Dean, MSU Law School, 1919-1954

At the end of this regular school year our Dean retires. He has been associated with the Law School for 42 years. In that time it has achieved and maintained a respected position in the legal world. Graduates have gained professional distinction and honor, and its several generations of students have been fruitfully inculcated with the legal ingredients of learning, craftsmanship, and fidelity. The largest measure of credit for these accomplishments is due to the wisdom and energy Dean Leaphart has dedicated to the Law School. "Uterque utriquest cordi."
