MSU APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Two new appointments to the residence halls staff and one to the home economics faculty were announced ~~Thursday~~ by Dr. Gordon B. Castle, acting president of Montana State University, Missoula.

Mrs. Arline Malouf will be an instructor in the Home Economics Dept., Miss Virginia Ellis will be head counselor for women's residence halls, and Mrs. Dolores D. Brooker will be assistant head resident for the freshmen women's residence hall.

Mrs. Brooker, who took teacher training at Earlham Academy and attended Drake University, Iowa, taught in Iowa public schools for two years before her marriage to C. B. Brooker. For the past 27 years she lived in Ames, Iowa, where she helped her husband in the operation of a drug store until his death this year. Mrs. Brooker was active in civic and church affairs in Ames, and since World War II, she and her husband made a practice of having Iowa State College students live in their home. Mrs. Brooker has two children and five grandchildren. Her hobbies include gardening, traveling, and art needlework.

Miss Ellis earned a B.A. in music education from the University of Portland, Ore., in 1952 and an M.A. in education (psychological services) from Stanford University in 1958. For the past two years while she was working for the master's degree, she held an assistantship in counseling at Stanford. Miss Ellis' avocational interests include playing the violin in chamber music groups, riding horseback, and folk dancing.

Mrs. Malouf received a bachelor science degree in education from the University of Utah in 1940 and taught in the Salt Lake City schools in 1940 and 1941. Since she and her husband, Dr. Carling I. Malouf, moved to Missoula in 1948, she has taken an active part in the Missoula Community Theater. The Maloufs have four children.
