SB7-95/96

RESOLUTION TO AMEND ARTICLE IV, SECTION 11, ITEM A
OF THE ASUM BYLAWS

- WHEREAS: the University Affairs Committee is responsible for a very diverse number of activities on The University of Montana campus, and;
- WHEREAS: the Committee membership was reduced to its current number because of a lack of interest in campus-wide issues and declining attendance at committee meetings, and;
- WHEREAS: there has been a heightened level of interest and concern regarding campus-wide issues in both the ASUM Senate and the population of students-at-large which will prompt greater participation in addressing relevant issues, and;
- WHEREAS: the heightened interest and concern on the part of the students will make the Committee's involvement in campus issues more crucial and will increase the number of issues which it will consider,

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED that Item A should be amended to read:

- A. The University Affairs Committee shall be composed of nine (9) members, of which five (5) shall be members of the Senate, and four (4) shall be students-at-large. A Senator shall chair the Committee.

Authored by Sen. Lewis Rusk

Passed
10/18/95

Resolution to Include The University of Montana College of Technology Students in the Student Resolution Process as Outlined in the UTU (UM) Bargaining Agreement

Whereas: The University of Montana College of Technology grievance policy requires the students to approach the Assistant Dean of Students and not the ASUM Resolution Officer.

Whereas: the faculty of The University of Montana College of Technology do not fall under the guidelines of the UTU agreement.

Whereas: the students of The University of Montana College of Technology are members of the ASUM.

Whereas: all members of ASUM have the inherent right to file formal complaints with the ASUM Resolution Officer and follow the Student Resolution Process as outlined by this agreement

Therefore Let It Be Resolved:

The students of The University of Montana College of Technology have the right to file grievances with the ASUM Resolution Officer

That the ASUM Resolution Officer has the right to advocate the Student Resolution Process in complaints dealing with The University of Montana College of Technology faculty.

Authored by: John Zimmerling, ASUM Resolution Officer

Sponsored by: Matt Lee, ASUM President

Dana Shonk, ASUM Vice-President
