UM BUSINESS BUREAU GETS GIFT FROM TIMBER COMPANY

MISSOULA --

The University of Montana Bureau of Business and Economic Research has received a $7,500 gift from the Plum Creek Timber Company.

The Seattle-based timber firm, which has offices in Columbia Falls, donated the money to support the bureau's Natural Resource Industry Research Program, which is designed to increase the understanding of the role of resource industries in Montana's economy. The program is part of the bureau's ongoing efforts to provide Montanans with up-to-date, reliable information on all aspects of Montana's economy.

"This gift will allow us to continue this important program which has increased Montanans' awareness of the natural resources and related industries in our economy," bureau Director Paul Polzin said.
