Case Study Report 2014-12

July 23, 2014

Abstract

This study was conducted for the Sanders County Community Development Corporation to provide insight into the characteristics of attendees of the 2014 Sanders County Yard Sale. Paper surveys were completed by 151 attendees of the event. Results show that 83% of respondents were residents of Montana and of those Montana residents, 57% were from Sanders County. Out-of-county respondents spent an average of four nights in Sanders County and more people spent money on yard sale purchases, gasoline, and restaurant/bars while visiting the area than any other spending categories. Yard sale purchases received the highest total dollars spent during the event. Respondents to the survey reported a total spending of $13,148.00 in the Sanders County area. Results provide event organizers and the SCCDC with useful data for future event planning, making improvements to the event, event marketing/promotion, and understanding the visitor spending associated with the event.

Executive Summary

The Sanders County Yard Sale attracted many out-of-county (26%) and out-of-state (17%) visitors to the Sanders County area. The attendees of the event make important economic contributions to the Sanders County and Highway 200 area. The Results of the study are worth considering for future planning of the annual Sanders County Yard Sale event.

- 49% of visitors who reside outside of Sanders County spent at least one night away from home. The mean number of nights spent in Sanders County was 4.4.
- More money was spent by respondents in yard sale ($4,133.00), gasoline ($3,376.00), and restaurant/bar ($2,322.00) than other spending categories.
- 41% of respondents reported staying at the home of a friend/relative, followed by 24% in hotel/motels.
- Attendees were mostly travelling as a couple (40%) or with immediate family (26%). The average travel group size was 2.84 people.
- Respondents traveled with a variety of age categories in their group – the highest percentages were 55-64 years old (44%) and 65-74 years old (39%). Event attendees were of an older demographic.
- Attendees heard about the event mostly from word of mouth (65%) or the newspaper (44%).
- Overall, attendees of the event were very satisfied or satisfied with the Sanders County Yard Sale, and 93% of respondents indicated that they would attend the event next year.

Management Implications

Sanders County Yard Sale event attendees are travelling from out-of-state and out-of-county to attend the Sanders County Yard Sale. This event brings both resident and nonresident visitors to the Sanders County area, and the attendees of the event make a variety of expenditure contributions while visiting.

A large percentage of people attending the Sanders County event were of an older age demographic. Organizers can focus on reaching the younger age demographic categories for future annual yard sale events. This can be accomplished through new advertising, promotion, and marketing strategies that reach and appeal to younger visitors.

Visitors of the Sanders County Yard Sale indicated that the scenic drive along highway 200 provides an added benefit to the event (70%). Organizers can use the scenic beauty of the sale region to promote and attract more visitors to Sanders County.

Most of the sales occurred along the highway 200 travel corridor. Majority of respondents (70%) reported that they used signage along highway 200 to help navigate to the sales. In the open-ended responses section of the survey (Appendix B), respondents suggested the signage be improved. Organizers can help in an effort to improve signage along highway 200 for the next annual event to ensure that people are finding the sale locations.

It is recommended that the organizers review the respondent's comments from Appendix B to gain more insight into people's likes and dislikes of the sale locations, signage, directions, sale items, and other aspects of the event. Changes based on this input could help in bringing back repeat visitors to Sanders County in the future.

Introduction

The Sanders County Yard Sale event was hosted throughout Sanders County, Montana over two days from June 28th through June 29th, 2014. It was the 8th annual county-wide yard sale event and took place in all of the unique communities throughout Sanders County. A majority of the sales took place along scenic highway 200 in Northwest Montana.

This event is organized by the Sanders County Community Development Corporation and all of the sale hosts who participated. The annual yard sale event has many business sponsors that make the event possible. SCCDC is a non-profit organization located in Sanders County, Montana. SCCDC is committed to improving community services and facilities, as well as encouraging economic development, business expansion, and job creation within Sanders County.

The purpose of this study was to provide the organizers of the 2014 Sanders County Yard Sale event with an understanding of the characteristics of visitors of the yard sale, visitor spending in Sanders County, and levels of satisfaction with different aspects of the yard sale event.

Methods

Surveyors intercepted yard sale visitors 18 years of age or older for on-site completion of a questionnaire during the two day event. Surveys were given to people by random selection in an attempt to represent the event attendee population. People willing to fill out the questionnaire were given a clipboard, pen, and a survey. No documentation of the number of refusals was recorded.

Limitations

As in all research, there are limitations to the study. Limitations for the Sanders County Yard Sale study include the following:

- Data was collected by Sanders County area volunteers who received a short training from ITRR's survey contact person (Jen Kreiner-SCCDC) on how to intercept people and how to obtain completed surveys.
- ITRR personnel were not present during the data collection for quality control.
- Only 151 valid surveys were collected, a relatively small sample size.

Results

Of the 151 valid respondents, 83 percent (125 people) were from Montana and 17 percent (26 people) were from out of state (see Tables 1 and 2). Of all Montana respondents, 57 percent (86 people) were from Sanders County while 26 percent (39 people) were from other Montana counties.

The mean age of respondents was 56 years old. Of those who were from outside Sanders County and responded to the survey, 49 percent (32 people) reported that they spent at least one night away from home. Of those nights spent away from home, the greatest percent of respondents (37 percent) spent two nights in Montana. The mean number of nights spent in Sanders County was 4 nights. A full breakdown of nights spent as well as results of all other questions in this survey can be found in Appendix A.

Expenditures

Spending information was asked of all the yard sale visitors who reside outside of Sanders County, Montana. The survey asked that they report their best estimate of the total amount of money they and their family/travel group (if applicable) spent in the Sanders County area in the following categories: accommodations, restaurant or bar, groceries or snacks, gasoline, transportation, auto rental, retail goods, and entertainment or recreation.

Table 3 presents the expenditure data of only the respondents who reported spending money in the categories. The mean expenditure of those who spent money for each category can be found along with the percentage of people who reported that they spent money in that category. The last column provides the total dollars spent by those respondents in each category. The total reported expenditure for respondents who spent was $13,148.00.

Q27. Please tell us what you did not like about the Sanders County Yard Sale.

All the sales started on Friday - would have come a day earlier. Last year spent about $500 - this year about $30.
Different start times.
Fun
Give better directions to sales. Provide bigger signs and place for advance notice of turning off the road.
Had trouble finding the website and addresses.
Hard to find signs (flagging helps).
I needed a map.
It rained today.

Rain, too far between locations.
Rain.
Raining.

Signs along roads need to be a different color. They look like Realtor signs.
Some of the sales people.
Some people were extremely high priced.
Sundays rather than Fridays.
The lack of deals on stuff I wanted and lack of visibility of the signs.
The rain :(
The rain and the signs.
The rain.
The weather over which you have no control.
There's a lot of crap out there.
Too decentralized. We drove all over, way off the highway for one sale at a time.
Using Friday was absolutely BAD planning! If you change the event for locals, out of town people didn't know.
Wasn't all in one place.
Weather and rain.
Would like more Fri. Sales

Q28. What suggestions do you have for improvements to the event?

Better signage by individuals
Better signage location
Better signs
Better, bigger, and more advanced signage.
Bigger and brighter signage.
Bigger and more noticeable signs.
Bigger signs and maybe some slow merging traffic signs.
Bigger signs.
Bright signs. Start all sales on same day.
Brighter signage and color continuity.
Brighter signs
Brighter signs - fluorescent so you can see long before you get there.
Brighter signs.
Change color of signs.
Discrepancy on the start time in trout creek, 7am vs. 9am.
Encourage more residents to join in the sale.
Get all the area's sales into town, such as one for Plains, one for T.C., etc.
Get input/data from your (sellers) before you make major changes!
Get the signs out earlier. Bright colored and bigger signs.
Give each participant a map for locating all the sales.
Advance notice, emphasis/awareness in website/advertising. Ask other groups to share information at meetings.
Give more advanced notice at sale. Place signs further from the driveways.
Go back to Friday
Great!
If people could put up a sign before their drive way. When you are going 70mph it's hard to stop.
It needs to start on Friday.
Make the website clear on sale days for each sale.
Map needs addresses of sites - No landmarks on map
Map sight could be more user friendly.
More obvious signs and clear sign directions.
More roadside signs
More signs and participants.
More signs.
More signs.
More signs.
More!
Most people are broke at the end of the month. The event needs to be the first week of the month.
