UM JUNIOR RECEIVES FRATERNITY SCHOLARSHIP

MISSOULA --

UM junior Chad Ferris has received a $175 scholarship for his junior year and $350 for his senior year from the Sigma Phi Epsilon Educational Foundation. Ferris' fraternity brothers voted him the outstanding sophomore at the end of last year.

Ferris plans to use the money for tuition.

"With increased tuition, that'll take care of it for this year," he said.

Ferris is the son of Sharon and Orrin Ferris of Billings. He graduated from Billings West High School in 1989, and is a business management major.

To receive the scholarship money next year, Ferris must remain active in his fraternity and maintain a 2.5 grade point average.
