Introduction

This is the third semester of a four-semester theory curriculum for music majors at the University of Montana. Aural Perception III is co-requisite with this class. We will carefully study Chapters 22-31 in our text.

Course Objectives

By the end of the semester, you should be able to:

- Modulate to other keys in a harmonic progression
- Identify and analyze invention, fugue, binary, ternary, vocal, and popular forms
- Identify and utilize chromatic chords, including the Neapolitan sixth, the French, German, and Italian augmented-sixth, and chromatic mediants and submediants

Required Text & Materials

TEXT: Clendinning, Jane Piper, and Elizabeth West Marvin. The Musician's Guide to Theory and Analysis. 3rd ed. New York: W. W. Norton, 2016. Print.

WORKBOOK: The workbook that accompanies the text is required.
Note: Please use pencil for all work

MANUSCRIPT PAPER: You must have manuscript paper at all times.
(Free and printable: <http://www.blanksheetmusic.net/>)

TOTAL ACCESS*: If you do not obtain a new copy of the text, you must purchase “Total Access” from Norton to gain access to invaluable online resources. Your purchase of “Total Access” will last for two years.

MOODLE: This course uses Moodle to provide important information regarding assignments, grades, and supplementary materials. To access Moodle: <https://moodle.umt.edu/>

Tentative Grading System

Daily Grade (Participation and Attendance)	10%
Homework/Workbook Assignments	15%
InQuizitives (on Moodle)	15%
Exam 1 (Ch. 22-23)	20%

Class Participation

Class participation is expected and noted for final grade calculation. Attendance is mandatory and will be taken regularly. Missed classes will have an impact on the final grade. Illness will be accepted as an excused absence only if accompanied by a doctor's note. Missed quizzes and exams cannot be made up without prior approval from the instructor.

Academic Honesty

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the university. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code, which is available for review online at:

http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php

Student Disability Services

Please contact Disability Services, located in Lommasson Center 154, in order to verify any disability and in order to coordinate modifications for this course. Accommodations cannot be granted without official verification from Student Disability Service. For more information, please visit the Disability Services website at <http://life.umt.edu/dss>

Music Theory Peer Tutor Program

We believe that the skills you acquire in music theory and aural perception are integral to your development as a musician and essential to any career in music. We understand that our courses move at a quick pace and you may find some of the topics we cover to be challenging. To assist you, we have created a peer tutor program that puts you directly in contact with students that have recently achieved the highest scores in this course.

Please take advantage of this resource early and often.

Study Jam music theory peer tutors are available on Mondays and Wednesdays from 6:30pm-9:00pm through Zoom. Please visit <https://www.umt.edu/study-jam/tutoring/fall.php> to find and join Zoom.
