COURSE DESCRIPTION: A foundational studio course which focuses on the development and practice of audition skills. The course will comprise specialized training in requisite areas of materials preparation pertaining to the professional format, demands, and craft of auditions.

GOALS: The primary goal of the course is to reposition auditioning as a demonstration of craft. The class will also address general audition work, including monologues, auditioning with a reader, audition protocol and etiquette. Lastly, the course will prepare the student for the overall business of auditioning, including research, material preparation, and industry protocol.

OUTCOMES: Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Build a portfolio of audition material.
- Demonstrate a proficiency in auditioning with both monologues and sides.
- Work outside of class to research, select, and rehearse audition material.
- Chronicle, analyze, and constructively critique process, progress, and craft of peers and self in studio setting;
- Research, prepare, and execute professional theatre auditions outside of University of Montana;
- Understand how auditions function in the professional world;
- Present an industry-standard headshot and resume.

ATTENDANCE / PROMPTNESS: This is a professional practice studio. If you miss a class, the experience is gone – you cannot "make it up." You will also learn a great deal by observing and constructively critiquing your fellow classmates. Therefore, ATTENDANCE IS CRUCIAL. School of Theatre and Dance policies will be strictly enforced. Class absences can be excused if documentation is provided (e.g., doctor's note, court notice, obituary with travel itinerary) or if I am notified as to a religious/cultural observance conflict. During this time of COVID, if you are feeling ill, you must not attend class and should see a doctor ASAP – your absence will be EXCUSED. For every UNEXCUSED absence, your grade will drop one-third of a letter grade. In addition, tardiness in excess of 10 minutes will be considered an unexcused absence. Please follow your attendance record on Moodle – if there are any discrepancies or if you are encountering any health or related issues that affect your ongoing attendance, please contact me immediately.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. MONOLOGUE ASSIGNMENT / General Audition

Students will have a coaching/feedback session on a one minute monologue of their choice. You are to be prepared and ready to work in front of the class for your session. This includes independent work outside of class to find and prepare the monologue before studio work. Please be aware that "craft" will also reflect process (i.e., growth, effort and preparation evidenced by final audition execution). (Worth 20 pts total)

2. CALLBACK SESSION – Scenes with Readers

You will participate in a simulated professional callback session in a scene with a reader. This includes independent work outside of class to find and prepare the monologue before studio work. (Worth 20 pts)

3. AUDITION MONOLOGUE PACKAGE

You will gather three one-minute monologues that you could potentially use in a future audition. Two should be contrasting contemporary pieces (plays written in the last 10 years) and one should come from a play with heightened language. All monologues should be good demonstrations of craft as explained in class. (Worth 30 pts)

4.. FINAL PROFESSIONAL AUDITION EXERCISE – This assignment is a three-part culmination of your semester’s work in this course (written component 20 pts; headshot/resume 20 pts; audition 20 pts):

- 1) For the written component, you will need to choose a play currently playing on Broadway, Off-Broadway/other NYC venue, a national tour, or scheduled for a professional/semi-professional regional theatre’s upcoming season (local or national). You plan to audition for this musical, preparing as effectively as possible – please do not work in fantasy but realistically explain as to how you might land and execute this audition. Therefore, you will need to 1) provide some background on the play, as well as a BRIEF plot synopsis/character breakdown. 2) Provide info regarding the theatre and/or production company in regards to its casting practices, which includes explaining the logistics of the audition, i.e., how would you actually audition for this show and what are they requiring in their audition call? (For instance, do you need to fly to New York for a general, non-Equity call or is this a regional theatre call that you could accomplish through local travel/lodging logistics and communique?) 3) Explain why you would audition for this show. Which character do you see yourself cast as and why. 4) Finally, you will prepare a callback for the play, using a scene between 5 & 8 minutes in length. Please submit to the MOODLE ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION – Audition Written Essay – for this written component.
- 2) You must have a professional-quality headshot and resume prepared and submitted with the written assignment. Please submit to the MOODLE ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION – Headshot/Resume – for this component.
- 3) You will perform the callback scene in class with a reader, as a demonstration of craft for this cumulative exercise.

TOTAL ASSIGNMENT = 60 pts (20 pts per component); DEADLINE IS WEEK 15; Dec 8 for written component and headshot/resume.

Late written assignments will not be accepted

A FINAL NOTE REGARDING COURSE GRADES:

I have a "NO LATE ASSIGNMENT" policy. I also have a "NO MAKE UP" and "NO ADDITIONAL / EXCEPTIONAL ASSIGNMENTS" policy. After-the-fact requests for extra credit, alternate/additional assignments or grading reconsiderations will not receive a response, as you have been informed that grades are determined by the assignments/criteria set forth in this syllabus. (This is especially applicable to students who may have accrued a number of tardies or unexcused absences and hope to improve their grades late in the semester with extra-credit work. As this class is heavily based on attendance, it would not be fair to the other students to make exceptions to this major class requirement.)

CLASS SCHEDULE / CALENDAR:

PLEASE NOTE that this class is a combined training/education experience shared by ACTING BFAs and MTP BFAs, co-taught by Michael Legg and me. There is training and knowledge that is crucial for all theatre disciplines and will require cojoined sessions. As the semester progresses, your concentration will be specifically addressed and the studio work will focus on the MTP-specific assignments.

Course readings up through Week 4 are required and will be discussed. If you cannot respond to questions during the class discussion, I will assume you have not read the material and it will affect your Process grade for all audition assignments.

I will most likely be emailing you regularly with updates, reminders, and general information. Feel free to email me regularly as well with questions, concerns, or to simply touch base or further discuss a topic. I will do my best to answer within 24 hours during a Mon-Fri workweek.

Please let me know if in writing if you have a medical exception to this policy. Water in a capped container is acceptable. Absolutely no weapons, real or fake, are allowed in the classroom.

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at www.umt.edu/student-affairs/community-standards/default.php.

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at <https://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/handbook.php>.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.

From UM President Seth Bodnar:

The wide availability of safe, effective vaccines to combat COVID-19 means that we are able to continue full in-person learning again this semester. The Office of the President urges every member of the UM Family to get vaccinated (and receive a booster shot) if you haven't done so already. Vaccination provides the best means of protecting yourself – and others in our UM Family – from the risk of COVID-19.
