UM WELCOMES MONTANA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS FOR CAMPUS OPEN HOUSE

MISSOULA --

High school students and their parents from throughout Montana are invited to visit The University of Montana Saturday, Oct. 17, for the annual UM Days campus open house.

The free program, designed to introduce high school juniors and seniors to UM programs and campus life, is scheduled from 8:30 a.m. to noon. Students and parents will tour the campus and dormitories, and workshops will focus on such topics as academic programs and career opportunities, financial aid and planning for college.

Each participating student will receive a free ticket to the 1:35 p.m. Grizzly football game against Northern Arizona State University. Parents can purchase tickets to the game at the discounted price of $2.50 each. Lunch will be offered in UM's Treasure State Dining Room for $4.50 each.

Advance registration is required. Registration forms are available at all Montana high school counseling offices or through UM New Student Services. Completed forms should be received by New Student Services by Friday, Oct. 9. Phone registration is possible through Thursday, Oct. 15, by calling New Student Services at 243-6266 or 1-800-462-8636.
