DISCUSSION

Chairman George Heliker called the meeting to order and asked Dick Spall to go through the constitutional Article XV and give his recommendations as a result of his research.

Research analyst, Dick Spall read the sections, and gave a recommendation which he said was also recommended by the Legislative Council to delete all sections with the possible exception of Section 13. He was also requested to check section 18 with a lawyer.

The Chairman announced he would introduce a proposal on public utilities as a separate article.

The meeting adjourned at 9 a.m..
