LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS EARN COLLEGE CREDIT ATTENDING UM'S K.R. SCHWANKE HONORS INSTITUTE

MISSOULA --

Area high school students earned college credit by completing The University of Montana's K.R. Schwanke Honors Institute this summer.

Students from throughout Montana and beyond earned two college credits each taking introductory courses at the institute, a program of the Davidson Honors College. To attend the institute, students must have completed their sophomore or junior year of high school, have at least a 3.0 grade-point average and be in the top 10 percent of their class. Some students received scholarships, based on GPA and class standing, that covered on-campus housing and tuition.

Students who participated in "Wilderness and Ethics in Poetry and Storytelling," Environmental Studies 195, include: Carrie Evans of Northfield, Minn., Amber Ulseth of Webster, Minn., scholarship recipient Ryan Henderson of Vacaville, Calif., Patryce McKinney of Fairbanks, Alaska, Jessica Reuther of Portland, Ore., Matthew S. Stenbridge of Spokane, Wash. and Jaime M. Wlock of Camas, Wash. Scholarship recipient Scott Sailer of Vancouver, Wash., selected "Lights, LASERS and Relativity," Physics 195, and scholarship recipient Justin Madden of Richland, Mo., chose History 195, "War and Peace in the Middle East."

The institute was held June 20-July 1 on UM's Missoula campus.
