RESOLUTION TO EXTEND AN INVITATION TO THE GRATEFUL DEAD
TO PLAY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

WHEREAS The Grateful Dead is viewed by some of the Associated Students of the University of Montana to be one of the greatest bands;

and

WHEREAS The Dead have a loyal and faithful following here at the University;

and

WHEREAS We are very sorry that someone threw a bottle at the band in 1974 and hope that they forgive this ugly incident;

and

WHEREAS It would bring joy to the portion of the student population if the Grateful Dead played here again;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED...

that the Associated Students of the University of Montana formally extend a heartfelt invitation to the Grateful Dead to play here at the University of Montana sometime in the not too distant future.

"What a long strange trip it's been..."
The Dead...

RESOLUTION PROMOTING TOLERANCE ON CAMPUS AND IN THE COMMUNITY

Ethnic B

Object: To rebuke, but not seek to control, actions by those who seek to participate in acts of racism, make racist comments, and/or display attitudes reflecting prejudice. To encourage educational opportunities regarding these issues.

WHEREAS, the University of Montana should be a culturally diverse melting pot of ideas and open-mindedness;

WHEREAS, because of geographical location and demographics, Montana is less educated about cultural diversity, ethnic diversity, and racism existing in the world;

WHEREAS, Montanans are generous, hospitable people, some of whom simply need to be educated and exposed to diversity in order to understand differences among their peers;

WHEREAS, this education should begin at an early age in the primary and secondary school systems; that the Associated Students of the University of Montana express disgust at the past and recent actions reflecting racist attitudes and prejudice on campus AND in the Missoula community.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED.....

In order to prevent actions such as these in the future, education is vital. The ASUM Senate encourages the continuation and addition of cultural awareness courses on campus, and encourages groups on campus to seek funding for such purposes. In addition, more education is needed in the Missoula community. ASUM urges the Missoula City Council to sponsor such educational events whenever possible. Finally, the administrations of the various school districts in Missoula and surrounding areas should make ethnic and cultural education a top priority.

A COPY OF THIS RESOLUTION WILL BE SENT TO MAYOR DAN KEMMIS, THE CITY COUNCIL, UM ADMINISTRATION AND DEPARTMENTS, AND ALL LOCAL AND SURROUNDING SCHOOL DISTRICTS.
