Nov. 15, 1994

Dear editors, news directors and reporters:

Gov. Marc Racicot, Plum Creek Timber Co. President Rick Holley, University of Montana President George Dennison and other officials will gather Friday morning, Nov. 18, for a news conference announcing a gift from Plum Creek that will fund new programs for the UM School of Forestry.

The news conference, scheduled during a break in Friday's meeting of the state Board of Regents, will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the University Center Ballroom. Others on hand for the announcement will include UM forestry Dean Perry Brown, forestry graduate student Beth Brantley, UM Foundation Executive Director Larry Morlan and Phyllis Washington, national chair of UM's Capital Campaign.

I hope you or someone from your office will be able to attend the news conference.

Sincerely,

Kristin Rodine
News editor
