Course Description:

This course is designed to offer students a knowledge and understanding of architecture styles, designs and choices of the built environment from prehistoric megalithic architecture to the start of the modern age. Graduate students will view presentations in each class and participate in discussions about architectural styles and design. Graduate students will have additional research assignments and presentations that will study architectural choices in more depth.

Course Objectives:

Graduate students will gain an understanding of architecture, architectural styles and details and how the built environment contributes to and explains human history. Students will also study the motivating forces and feelings behind architecture and how design is influenced.

Attendance policy:

Attendance is extremely important; it is assumed students will attend all classes. If a class is going to be missed, please contact the instructor and make arrangements for making up the work. Absences are considered unexcused if the instructor does not receive notification of the absence PRIOR to start of class. Each unexcused absence can result in a loss of ten points. Zoom can be available for any student who needs to attend class remotely.

Grading:

Grading will be based on total points earned on tests, and each assignment. The plus/minus system will be used.

93-100%	A
90-92%	A-
88-89%	B+
83-87%	B
80-82%	B-
78-79%	C+
73-78%	C
70-72%	C-
68-69%	D+
63-67%	D
60-62%	D-
59% and lower	F

Tests:

There will be a one test and a final exam, which will focus on building identification and recognition and understanding of historical styles. Dates, terms, architects and building types will also be covered in the exams.

Assignments:

Graduate students will make 3 presentations to the class at some point in the semester. Topics for presentation will be distributed at the start of the semester and will ask each student to research and present information on the time period, culture, architect, structure or other related subject. The presentation should be about 3 minutes in length and a typed copy needs to be turned into the professor after the presentation is given.

Reading:

Students are expected to read the text over the course of the semester, page numbers are listed in the class schedule. Four books are assigned, graduate students must choose three books to read from the list and submit a two page response to the material. This is due no later than the last day of class.

Extra Credit:

There will also be an extra credit scavenger hunt for architectural details. To complete this, a student will need access to a camera. This will be assigned in class around the beginning of November.

University and School Policies

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.

From the School of Theatre & Dance

All Theatre & Dance students must have an in-depth knowledge of the practices and procedures outlined in the School of Theatre & Dance Student Handbook. The Handbook is available online at <http://www.umt.edu/umarts/theatredance/About/handbook.php>.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre & Dance classes as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class, shop time, or rehearsal with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in class/shop/rehearsal/performance do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.

From the EO/AA Office:

Students with disabilities may request reasonable modifications by contacting me. The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students (DSS). “Reasonable” means the University permits no fundamental alterations of academic standards or retroactive modifications. For more information, please consult <http://life.umt.edu/dss/>.

From UM President Seth Bodnar:

The wide availability of safe, effective vaccines to combat COVID-19 means that we are able to continue full in-person learning again this semester. The Office of the President urges every member of the UM Family to get vaccinated (and receive a booster shot) if you haven’t done so already. Vaccination provides the best means of protecting yourself – and others in our UM Family – from the risk of COVID-19.
